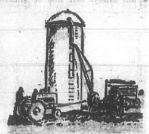
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

CLEAN GRAIN BINS in preparation for corn harvest. Most insects that infest stored grain are carried over from the previous year. After sweeping out empty bins thoroughly, apply a residual spray of methoxychlor or malathion. Apply Methoxychlor at the rate of 1 pound of 50% wettable powder in 2½ gallons of water. Malathion should be applied at the rate of 1 pint of 57% emulsifiable concentrate in 3 gallons of water.

TOXIC NITRATE BUILDUP IN FORAGES as a result of heavy use of nitrogen fertilizer has been investigated by Iowa scientists. Tests show that rates below 100 pounds of N per acre did not produce toxic quantities of nitrate. Higher rates caused nitrate accumulations early in the season, but they diminished as the season progressed. The researchers concluded that applications made according to soil test would not be harmful.

CORN SILAGE with urea added makes a complete feed for dairy cattle. Add 10 pounds of urea per ton of silage by spreading urea over the top of the load before blowing it into a silo to assure a good mix. This amount of urea raises the protein content of corn silage from about 10% to 14% on a dry matter basis. Urea is a cheaper source of protein than soybean oil meal.



BUILDINGS FOR MACHINERY STORAGE reduce repair costs 10% and increase the useful life of a machine by 10%. Housed machinery is more trouble-free, which is important during rush periods. Costs for a new building will run about $1.10 per square foot, totally enclosed.

New Phone Rates To Lessen Cost to 146 Customers

CLINTON — It was announced Thursday by Peter B. Spivak, chairman of the State Public Service Commission, that 101 customers of General Telephone's Clinton exchange will have their phone bills reduced $10 per year, while another 44 will have $4.80 a year reductions and one customer will experience a $60 rate cut.

The lowered bills will result from an approved expansion of the Clinton exchange's base calling area from one to 10 square miles.

Total reduction in rates will amount to $1,348 but the company expects some offsets from customers buying better grades of service and expects revenue reduction of only $839.

Spivak said the order will eliminate all mileage charges for the 101 affected customers with their September billings, and will provide four instead of eight party service for the 44 other affected customers by the end of November.

Arthur Schuler Named Chairman of Chest Drive

CLINTON — Arthur Schuler was named Chest Drive chairman by the Clinton Community Chest board at a meeting, Aug. 30, in the Community Center.

42 CHS Instructors Attend Conference

CLINTON — Personnel conferences were attended by 42 teachers last Wednesday and Thursday in the Clinton Community Schools.

Mr. Wegner introduced the staff and spoke on the forward look in the Clinton educational program.

The standardized testing program was discussed by Mr. Wegner, Donald M. Quick, the elementary principal, Richard Steudle, the secondary principal and Daniel Shindler, the guidance counselor. The testing program is being evaluated in the hopes that a more effective program may be developed.

Thursday morning, Mr. Steudle introduced Mrs. John Truesdale, the local Spanish teacher, who spoke on "Opportunities in Education."

Educational television as a teaching aid and enrichment program for the general classroom was the theme of a talk by Charles Ruffing. Mr. Ruffing is the educational coordinator and director of Classroom 10, the educational television station in E. Lansing.

In the afternoon, Mr. Hagen of Kalamazoo, a representative of the Zaner-Bloser Company, spoke to the elementary staff on uniformity of penmanship methods.

Property Owners Want Wide Street Level Sidewalks

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Eric Halladay presented a petition at the Sept. 1 meeting of the village council for the widening of Jackson St. and the leveling of the sidewalks.

The petition was signed by most of the property owners on Jackson St. between Loomis St. and the north village limits. The council discussed the matter but took no action.

The closing of Currier St. between Church and Franklin Sts. was voted for the duration of the school year.

There was considerable discussion concerning the parking problem on Brown St. near Jackson St. The ordinance which forbids vehicles to be parked on village streets for a period exceeding 24 hours will be enforced.

Work on the water tower has begun. It is being painted inside and out.

The contract for the grading and excavating of Clinton and Marion Sts. was granted to Winter Excavating Co. for $1,250.

Picnic Supper Starts Mixed Bowling League

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore of Evans Lake were hosts Aug. 29 for a picnic supper meeting of the Lads and Lassies mixed doubles bowling league with 32 members present.

Partners were drawn for the new season. New members of the league are Mr. and Mrs. William Frye of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warner of Evans Lake.

Bowling will begin Saturday at 8 p.m. and will continue every second and fourth Saturday of the month.

Church Workers Complete the Job Despite Weather

CLINTON — Neither wind nor rain Saturday could deter the men of the Clinton Missionary Baptist Church who had undertaken the task of removing the old house from their church building site on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

Plans call for the erection of a 40'x80' cement block, brick-faced building with a basement, to house a sanctuary and several church school rooms. It is scheduled to be completed before winter.

The workers kept busy right through the rain and storms and were able to tear down the entire structure in one day.

The men were James Trull and Tom and Floyd Vaughn of Adrian, Ronald Cross of Clinton and Lewis Lake, Elmer House, Wayne McDonald, Robert Lake, Jerry Gainey, Harold Richardson Jr., and Dennis McDonald, all of Tecumseh.

Providing a tail-gate lunch, which was consumed midst the drizzle, was Mrs. Trull, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. House and Mrs. Lake.

Open House Welcomes New Pastor

CLINTON—The Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Goodrow were welcomed at an open house, Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coury at 16920 Van Tuyle Rd.

Twenty-five members and friends of the Assembly of God enjoyed a family potluck supper and social evening.

Formerly of Flint, Mr. Goodrow is the new pastor of the Clinton Assembly of God Church. It is his first pastorate.

He recently completed seminary work at Central Bible Institute in Springfield, Mo., and his wife and two pre-school children have been there with him.

The family moved to 117 E. Church St. last week and Mr. Goodrow will resume work with a former employer in Ann Arbor.

The Rev. and Mrs. Curtis Butler and family have moved to Goldsboro, N. C. where he has accepted a pastorate. Mr. Butler resigned from his work in Clinton after serving about two years.

Young Divers Find Gravel Pits Ideal

By PHIL PIERSON

Three high school seniors have found a way to beat the crowded congestion of camping in the State Parks by setting up a campsite along the Kuhlman gravel pits.

The boys, Jim Green, 17, of 712 Wenonah, and Dave Radant, 17, of 709 S. Union, and Mike Wikes, 17, of Jackson, camped by the pits from Aug. 26 until Saturday.

Obtaining permission from the owner of the land, Mae Richards, they set up a tent among the trees and sand on the banks of the pit. The peaceful setting was only disturbed occasionally by the sounds of the machines of Kuhlman Concrete Co. across the water.

Jim and Mike, both scuba divers, brought along their diving equipment and spent most of their time in the water.

WHILE DOWN in about 25 feet of water one day, Jim found the fender from an old Ford truck which he estimated to be about 30 years old.

"It was covered under about four feet of mud and when Mike and I went back to look for it we couldn't find it," Jim said.

Jim said they are able to get within few inches of the fish swimming in the water.

"If we had a camera we could really get some beautiful shots," Jim said.

The average depth of the pit is 30-35 feet according to Jim with the deepest part about 45 feet.

Dave is not a diver, but he did the cooking for the group and also supplied their only transportation, a three-wheeled motorcycle.

MIKE FORMERLY lived in Tecumseh and has known the other youths since grade school. He moved to Jackson, when his father, who is a detective with the Michigan State Police, was transferred to that city's post.

Both Jim and Mike have been skin diving for about five years and scuba diving for about a year.

Both do most of their diving locally at such lakes as Wamplers, Sand Lake and Devils Lake.

Mike said he has also done some diving in Higgins Lake and Lake Superior.

"Around here the deepest you can get is about 50 or 60 feet," Jim said.

★

THEY BOTH have invested about $200 in the sport which makes diving about as expensive as most other hobbies.

Mike already has a wetsuit and Jim intends to get one soon.

"When I get my wetsuit we'll be able to dive together in the winter and we plan to meet about every weekend," Jim said.

Carol Ann McClure Will Become Nurse

Carol Ann McClure, daughter of Mrs. Serena McClure, of 215 N. Maumee, and the late Clifford McClure, graduated Sept. 2 from the Ann Arbor Practical Nurse Education Center.

She is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School and will be employed at the Emma L. Bixby Hospital in Adrian.

There are now approximately 1,000 graduates of the school working in hospitals and health facilities in Southeastern Michigan.

Two classes of students are accepted a year. A new class of 60 students will enter Sept. 13, and another one will begin Jan. 31, 1966.

The program is one year in length and consists of both classroom and hospital experience. St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, Beyer Memorial Hospital, Ypsilanti, Emma L. Bixby Hospital, Adrian, Annapolis Hospital, Wayne, Pontiac General Hospital, Pontiac, and Wyandotte General Hospital, Wyandotte, cooperate with the teaching center to provide hospital experience for the students.

Interested persons may obtain further information by writing Mae Edna Doyle, R. N., director of the program, 401 North Division Street, Ann Arbor, or call 663-1332.

News from the Tecumseh Library

THE QUESTING HEART by F. W. Kenyon. George Sand was known and respected by all the intellectuals of her time. She, herself, was an enigma; both a devoted mother and a daring Bohemian. The author once again demonstrates his unique agility to see inside the heart of a great woman in this romantic novel.

ISLE OF GLORY by Jane Oliver. A story that recounts the desparate drama that goes into the making of a saint. Its hero is Columba, a man whose violent temper became transmuted into the spirituality that has made him one of the most beloved figures in Church history. Born in the sixth century, a descendant of the kings of ancient Ireland, it was he who brought the Christian Church to northern Britain.

GARDEN ON THE MOON by Pierre Boulle. The background of this compelling new novel is the race of the two giant contenders for mastery of the moon. It is typical of the author's sardonic and Gallic wit that the winner who plants his garden on the moon cares least for mankind.

THE HILL by R. Rigby. The setting is a British prison camp for army defaulters in North Africa in the last war.

THE CATACOMBS by William Demby. An autobiographical novel by an American Negro writer who has spent most of his adult life in Rome; written in cinematic style it details the dramatic [illegible] led to his decision to return to the U. S.

THE GOLDEN KEEL; a suspense novel about the search for Mussolini's lost treasure.

DRUMS OF APRIL, a novel of the American Revolution by C. Mergendahl.

Herald Circulation Climbs Over 4,000—All-Time Record High

Thanks to 67 hustling Earn-a-Bike salesmen, The Herald's circulation has taken another healthy jump.

Beginning with this issue, the press run is now 4,100 — an all-time high.

That means a readership of more than 14,000 men, women and children for every edition of Lenawee County's Oldest newspaper.

The 1965 subscription campaign saw 480 new homes added to The Herald's mailing list. For their efforts, 22 of the hard-working kids earned bikes and two qualified for transistor radios.

Those junior salesmen who missed the merchandise awards were paid a $1 commission for each new subscription turned in and 25c per renewal. Commissions totaled $153.50.

Herald circulation has been on the upswing for the past eight years — jumping from 1,900 in 1957 to the present press run.

THE 4,100 WEEKLY copies include more than 1,000 sold from 18 newsstands through the area — many going Wednesday evening. These readers report they don't want to wait until Thursday's mail for their Herald.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Some years back, a couple of Air Forcemen from Texas were in Spain.

They heard about a new kind of retreat for Catholics and being of that faith decided to see what it was all about.

One thing they learned right off the bat was the session's correct name — Cursillo — and that it was quite different from a ...

Returning home, the pair brought with them all the data on the Cursillo, which translated into English, means "short course in Christianity".

With the blessing of the Catholic Church in the United States, the movement began to fan out from the Southwest and now touches places all over the nation.

Cursillos started in Detroit in 1962 and over the years nearly 100 folks from this area have attended the three-day gathering.

Four fellows — Dr. Archie O'Connor of Clinton, Jim Tressler, Joe Lopez and this writer — made last weekend's Cursillo with about 45 other fellows, who came from all walks of life.

It was held in the old St. Leo School, which is located just east of the spot where Grand River and Warren Ave. intersect.

OUR GROUP included another doctor besides the crew-cut Clinton medico, a lawyer, gas meter reader, electric company lineman, toolmaker, punch press operator, used car lot manager, a Wayne University student from India, a post office supervisor.

And an Episcopalian

We had three priests. A trio of the guys were Negroes.

They were a great bunch, all looking for the best way to swing through this game of life.

And did we get one.

There was a spiritual advisor on hand throughout the three days and he too handled about a half dozen of the "drills". What a guy, short, with warm brown eyes and a Danny Thomas profile. He is of Lebanese extraction and pastor of St. Ceeelia parish in Detroit, Fr. Raymond Ellis.

Cursillo teaching groups are divided into teams of 11 each, the priest and 10 laymen.

Intensive study periods prepare them for the tough job and challenge of keeping a roomful of men on the edge of their chairs for up to 18 hours each of the three days.

Believe me, we got double and triple time for our over-eight-hour stints in the form of Intellectual Stimulation, which I can't match in a memory of 43 years on this earth.

Basically, the Cursillo format, which is universal wherever offered, calls for five drills

Members of United Products Workers Union ended speculation of a walkout by overwhelming approval of a new three-year contract in a vote Wednesday morning.

Yes	1,265
Blank Ballots	59

The new pact between Tecumseh Products and its employees calls for:

► Improved pension plan for both active workers and retirees.

► Improved vacation plan, giving additional days based on years of service.

► More accident and hospital insurance benefits for both active workers and retirees.

► Funeral pay, day or days off when there is a death in immediate family.

► New working agreements throughout shop.

► Wage increases for all hourly-rated personnel, based on skills and incentive pay.

Contract negotiations were started two months ago with the original deadline set for Sept. 1.

However, when delays prevented finishing by that date, Union members voted a 15-day extension — and at the same time agreed to strike Sept. 15 if the contract was not signed by the new date.

Space Walk To Be Shown in Lenawee

U. S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian has announced that arrangements are nearly completed for the NASA film of Astronaut Ed White's historic walk in space.

"The Four Days of Gemini IV," will be shown in the Tecumseh area Oct. 5 and in the remainder of Lenawee County according to the following schedule:

Sept. 29—Clinton area.

Sept. 30—Madison School District.

Oct. 1, 6 and 7—Adrian area.

Details on specific times and locations at which the film may be seen will be announced later.

Club Tour Sunday

Members of the Main St. Extension Club will meet Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Raisin Fire Department for their annual tour.

NLRB Election Has Been Moved Up to Sept. 23

An election to determine if the UAW will represent employees at the Tecumseh Fisher Body plant will be held next Thursday.

Those employed as of Sept. 5 will be eligible to vote, with balloting scheduled in the afternoon from 1 to 6:30 p.m.

Other future meetings are scheduled, providing the union wins the election.

A joint meeting for employees of both shifts is planned for Sept. 26, at the American Legion Hall is scheduled. Employees will vote for an election committee for conducting local union elections, and elect a temporary bargaining committee and temporary local union officers.

On Oct. 5, an election of officers and bargaining committee is scheduled.

Enrollment Fails To Rise in Home Construction Boom

More houses have been built and sold in Tecumseh and the immediate area during the past few months than in several previous years.

Real estate brokers also have sold many vacant houses in the city's subdivisions.

These factors led school officials here to believe that the student enrollment would be up considerably. So far, the increase has not occurred.

Supt. James McDowell reports that the schools now have just 14 more enrolled than last year.

This trend also occurred in Adrian, where the schools report a small increase of about 60 pupils.

The question is, where are the youngsters?

Last year, the school age census growth showed an increase of 121 with 70 enrolling. This year, the school age census growth report was 129, but only 14 have enrolled.

Total enrollment now in the Tecumseh schools is 3,248, an increase of 14 over 1964-65.

Breakdown of the enrollment in the grades is:

Kindergarten	306	262
Grade 1	233	266
Grade 2	262	230
Grade 3	253	258

Speaker Spreads Gospel via Radio Free Europe

Evangelist Stephen Bilak, a native of Ukraine, USSR, will be guest speaker at the Church of Christ, 302 E. Chicago Blvd., this Sunday at 11 a.m.

Mr. Bilak will be telling of his work in which he speaks daily over Radio Free Europe, sending the Gospel message of freedom behind the Iron Curtain.

He speaks five languages, has translated a Bible correspondence course into the Ukraine language and has many students studying the Bible by this method.

"The public is invited to hear this man. We believe you will be inspired with the stirring message this man has," states Ed Pistole, minister of the church.

Army Promotion

MACON — Philip Zick has been promoted to Private First Class.

He is stationed at Ft. Polk, La., and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick.

State Will Help Adults Complete Their High School

Adults interested in completing their high school education requirements are now eligible for help from the state.

The state will pay the local school district part of their cost of going back to school. The only requirement is that enrollment be completed before the end of September and that a special fee charge of $5 per class be paid at the time of enrollment.

The Adult Education department of the Adrian School District has established the enrollment night for Wednesday between 7 and 9 p.m., in the senior high school room D110, for any interested adults.

This year the courses being offered include:

Crafts and Hobby Show To Be Held

A Ceramic Arts and Crafts Hobby Show will be held Sept. 24, 25 and 26 in the Community Arts Building on the Michigan State Fair Grounds in Detroit.

Show hours will be from 1 to 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and from 1 to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Industrial Firm Looking for Plant in Tecumseh Area

Municipal Products Company is looking for a small industrial plant in or near Tecumseh.

The company, recently incorporated, manufactures industrial equipment with main emphasis on sewer cleaning equipment.

Officers say they need about 3,000 square feet. There are seven presently employed at the Mt. Clemens plant.

1,500 Expected at St. Elizabeth Roast Beef Dinner

Joe Cabla has a lotta beef — 800 pounds of rolled round roast to be exact.

He and his co-chairman of the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church's 12th annual roast beef dinner, Mrs. Glenn Forsyth, are expecting to feed 1,500 people with it from 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

They'll have the trimmings too, including mashed potatoes, gravy, corn, sliced tomatoes, cole slaw, rolls, fruit cocktail, homemade apple pie and cherry pie, coffee, tea and milk.

Cabla and Mrs. Forsyth don't plan to do all the work themselves. Nearly 250 parishioners from St. Elizabeth will be assisting them.

Guests will travel from all over southern Michigan and northern Ohio to enjoy the all-you-can-eat feast, served buffet style from the new $60,000 modern kitchen in the school auditorium.

Proceeds from the event go to the elementary school, with an enrollment of 400, and the church.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Instead of starting classes as a senior at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit, Ken Bagby, 1201 Murray Dr., is shaking a case of Hepatitis at Herrick Memorial Hospital. On Wednesday of last week, he got a new roommate, his brother, Herbie, who injured his knee in football, shortly after being elected captain of the Tecumseh Jayvees.

No, the St. Elizabeth sign has not been stolen, but it's so confusing it's unexplainable. The roast beef dinner will be held Sunday however.

This caps 'em all. We've seen many different spellings of Tecumseh but look at this one, Rwxumawh. It proved the value of Zip codes though. Otherwise it certainly would never have reached a resident in town.

A peruser of the Touch of the Past noticed that Tecumseh Schools had 569 students in 1885 and only 120 more — 679 in 1940 — [illegible] one care to speculate how this was so?

Mark up another score on the Good Deed calendar for The Assembly of God. A truck load of clothing, washed and mended, was sent to the Bark River Indian Reservation in August.

Has anyone an old, old Sears and Roebuck catalog? The James Howards have bought an old brick home, vintage 1872, in Brooklyn and are planning to move there soon. The property boasts a brick outhouse, which Mrs. Howard wants to keep intact and she would like to paper the inside with the old catalog pages. Phone 423-2307 if you have one.

The Herald's annual football section will appear next week, just prior to the first home game, Sept. 24 with Jackson St. John's. Individual pictures of each varsity player, cheerleader, manager and coach will appear in individual ads as in previous years. If you'd like to reserve a special guy or gal for your ad, Mr. Businessman, now is the time.

Friends of Ralph Ruesink would like to see credit given where credit is due. Though Mr. Ruesink was not present when a picture, printed last week in The Herald, was taken at the recent ground breaking ceremonies for the Grace Bible Church on M-50, still he expended much effort on the project as one of the members of the board. Little Jo Lynn Tilton was not identified in the picture and she was there in her Daddy's arms.

GOP Lists Party Ideals

The report of the Republican party principles is the result of in-depth studies made by seven sub-committees.

Hugh T. Walters, Tecumseh city chairman, said Tuesday that the following statements portray the tested principles and forward looking character of the Michigan Republican party in new language with new meanings to enable the people to more effectively meet the needs of the state of Michigan, now and in the future.

► That every individual has dignity and worth.

► That government exists to enlarge the freedom and encourage the development of each individual.

► That government — national, state, and local — must act positively when the individual citizen or voluntary institutions cannot, if such action increases the citizen's capabilities and welfare.

► That strenthened local and state governments must foresee changing needs and meet them promptly and effectively.

► That the free American economy has excelled in serving the welfare of individuals.

► That there is need for a New Statecraft, in which youth takes a vigorous part.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Walter attending from Tecumseh were Mrs. Melvin Wegner, Mrs. Fay Whelan, Mrs. Ned Baldwin and Mrs. Raymond Platt of Tipton, all members of the Shawnee Republican Women's Club.

Others in attendance at the conference from Lenawee County were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Patmos, Mr. and Mrs. Yale Kerby, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace May, Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Sarapo, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buehrer, Harvey Warwick, Ed Peavey, P. M. Watts, Thelma Hollingbeck and Arthur J. Collingsworth.

Doc Bags Moose

Following a nine-hour stalk north of Anchorage, Alaska, he hit and killed a giant bull moose.

Dressing out at 1,400 pounds and boasting a 49-inch horn spread, the trophy proved to be fourth largest recorded bull moose shot with bow and arrow.

Dr. Helzerman was accompanied by his wife in the hunting expedition.

Lecture Series Is Top Feature of Antique Show

The featured speakers are all members of the American Institute of Interior Designers and affiliated with shops.

After each lecture there will be a question and answer session where the audience may discuss their individual problems.

Show manager, Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., announced that the Detroit Antique Show, which will be open daily from 1-10 p.m., will make a contribution to the A.I.D. scholarship fund.

The lectures will be held in the Designers' theatre, on the lower level of the Armory, while the main level will house the largest Antique Show in the midwest, bringing dealers from five different states and offering over 70 individual exhibits.

Police Check 5 Accidents Last Week

Only five traffic accidents were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week with none involving personal injury.

Brooks was attempting to turn east on Chicago Blvd., when an engineer from a passing train waved him back.

Bernice G. Meyers, 44, of 224 Herrick Park Dr., backed into Dale W. Perry, 23, of 111½ Maiden Lane Saturday in Eva's Beauty Bar parking lot on N. Evans St.

Edward C. Applegate, 37, of Deerfield, was charged with failure to yield the right of way after a collision at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Union St., with Richard Macko, 32, of Lorain, O.

John M. Reed, 36, of 112 W. Pottawatamie, was cited for failure to yield the right of way in the mishap. He started to pull out in front of the motorbike.

After the youth lost control, he skidded into another automobile driven by Donna E. Benedict, 23, of Britton.

Speculation Circles Deal

Closing of the sale is reported to take place on Sept. 25.

Rumors of another plant for the area grew when an inquiry for sewer and water from Clinton officials was made and granted.

AFTER THE formal presentation by either the priest-spiritual-advisor or lay professor, we entered a discussion period — not as one body, but in groups of nine or 10 each, seated around large circular tables.

A chairman was appointed for each table and his job was to get the chatter going, but it didn't take long and each group was off and flying — pretty high at times.

A summary of each discussion period was recorded by one man at every table. An added fillip, which proved to be loads of fun, was the assignment of drawing a poster at each table, putting into art form the conclusion of a talk-fest.

These started simple, but got more complicated. One bunch concocted the idea that the thing which keeps a man from being a good Christian was selfishness.

When it was their turn to show and explain the poster, instead of one fellow going before the class to explain his table's poster, up jumped 10 guys, each unfurling a large sheet of paper with one giant letter printed on it.

First came "S" followed by "E" and right down the line to No. 10 — and since there were 11 letters and only 10 men — his contribution was a king size "S" with the word "Double" lettered over the top.

BEING FROM a materialistic world, all of us were concerned at the start how sleeping accommodations would be (army cots with thin mattresses), what sort of meals we'd get (excellent), if there was hot water for showers and shaving (an unlimited supply.)

In quick order, it hit all of us that if a place is clean — and this building was spotless — the food is wholesome and the bed is inviting after 18 hours of work, who need worry.

The Cursillo runs three days and the teaching team asked us, what about the Fourth Day? What would we do, how would we live?

And, incidentally, the group was told, the Fourth Day starts as we left St. Leo and will last until the time of our death — might be 30 minutes or 50 years. Time is only relative in measuring that Fourth Day.

If you asked me for a conclusion, a summation of the Cursillo, it would have to be: Christ lives within every person, no matter where on this earth, no matter if they believe or belong.

That's how our souls will be saved.

Lt. Darrell Lowery received a TOPS performance award from his Wing Commander at Craig AFB in Alabama. (See complete story on the Britton page.)

Camp Kanesatake Day of Adventure Will Be Saturday

Frazier Tubbs, chairman of camping in Lenawee County, reminds Tecumsehites of the annual Lenape District Day of Adventure Saturday at Camp Kanesatake, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

All boys with their dads wishing to join the Boy Scouts are welcome to attend.

In the morning Webelos Cub Scouts and Boy Scout Recruits will be taught the Tenderfoot Boy Scout requirements on how to handle and display the American Flag, whip a rope and tie the six required knots.

Instructions will be given as to the meaning and purpose of the Scout Laws, the Oath of Promise, the salute, the handclasp, the Scout sign and how to roll the neckerchief properly.

All Scouts that have recruited a new member for their Troop will receive a Patch and the recruit will receive a neckerchief slide at the Awards Campfire.

Annual Christmas Tea Committee Named at Meeting

CLINTON — Mrs. Wyman Rhoades, the new president of the Mary-Martha Class of the United Church of Christ, named a committee at the meeting Monday to begin planning the traditional Christmas tea.

Sixteen members met with Mrs. John Fox. Mrs. Robert Vogel presented a devotional message to open the meeting.

The group voted to use the adult study book, "The Decision" by Willard W. Wetzel, for the season's programs.

Mrs. Maxwell Stamats and Mrs. James Draper were named to the ways and means committee.

A hat party will be a feature of the October meeting. Each member is to bring an old hat in a paper bag or decorated hat box to be sold for 50c.

Dessert was served by Mrs. Stamats and Mrs. Draper.

Tourists Enjoyed Old Homes

"It was wonderful of the people to open their homes," said Edith Haviland.

She was one Tecumseh resident among three carloads from Tecumseh in Marshall Saturday for the Historic Home Tour.

The event was sponsored by the Guild Council of Trinity Episcopal Church and attracted a wide audience.

She explained that at several of the six homes, there were lines of people, meaning waits of up to 35 minutes.

But that didn't seem to deter interest of folks, who reported the homes on the tour were fabulous, with beautifully-kept lawns.

Books Feature Antique Show-Sale Starting Thursday

Book, bell and candle might well be the theme of the 14th Detroit Antique Show-Sale, Thursday through Sunday at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 E. Eight Mile.

Exhibiting for the first time at the Show, will be Westlake's Book Store, from St. Joseph, bringing one of the largest collections of old, rare books and magazines in the country.

There are books containing advice for bachelors, single girls, housewives; recipes from the frontier and special Creole dishes; cures and treatments for everything from gunshot wounds and broken limbs to headaches and a cold.

FOLK SINGERS WILL CONVERGE ON BLISSFIELD

Folk Festival on Saturday Night

Tickets are still available for the Blissfield Song Festival to be held in the Blissfield High School gym Saturday at 8 p.m.

The $1 donation may be exchanged for tickets at The Herald office or any of the weekly newspapers in Lenawee County.

They also may be obtained from Kerbawy's Newsstand in Blissfield, the Stage in Adrian or at the door.

Robert Corey and Jim Tait of Toronto will be featured folksingers along with several amateur singers from the area.

The event is being sponsored by the Blissfield Advance, with the proceeds going to the Mary Magdaline Student Loan Fund.

Betty Jo Hancock Directing First Play Production

Betty Jo Hancock of Adrian will be the director for the Tecumseh Players' opening production, "Never Too Late".

The try-outs for the play will be Sept. 24 at 7 p.m. and Sept. 26 at 1 p.m. at the Community Center.

Mrs. Hancock is with the Lenawee County Special Education Department as a speech correctionist after having attended Adrian College and the University of Michigan.

A long time theatre buff, Mrs. Hancock was active in the Lenawee Theatre Guild as an actress, director and board member.

She is also director for the junior and senior group plays, sponsored by the Presbyterian Church in Adrian.

Diana Green, James Bashore Are Wed

Diana K. Green became the bride of James M. Bashore in a double ring ceremony performed by the groom's father, the Rev. B. O. Bashore, Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church.

The altar vases were filled with pink gladioli and white pompons. Two other arrangements of the same flowers and two seven branch candelabra completed the setting for the wedding.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Algernon Cutler, 300 Mimmi Ct., and Henry W. Green of Brooklyn, and the Rev. and Mrs. Bashore.

The bride entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father in a floor-length gown of antique satin and Alencon lace made by Mrs. James Kroske, nee Marcia Bashore, sister of the groom.

The sleeveless fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and was topped with an elbow-length jacket of lace. The skirt was fashioned with flared front panel with Alencon appliques and the full back panel extended into a shallow chapel train edged with Alencon lace roses.

HER ELBOW-LENGTH veil was of nylon illusion attached to an organdy petal crown. She wore tear-drop cultured pearl earrings, the gift of the groom, and carried a cascade of Snow Song roses and stephanotis topping a lace-covered white Bible, the gift of the groom's parents.

Mary Tilton was maid of honor in a floor-length gown of pale pink and white bonded lace. She carried white Snowdrift pompons with pink sweetheart roses.

Janet Rathbun and Judy Green were the bridesmaids and Cindy Cutler was the flower girl.

The bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns of pink bonded lace and carried cascade arrangements of white Snowdrift pompons and pink sweetheart roses. All attendants wore pink veils attached to shocking pink circlets in their hair.

The little flower girl wore a sleeveless dress of pink bonded lace topped with a jacket of pink and white bonded lace. She carried a basket of tiny pink and white blooms.

★

Dennis Bryan was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Katharine Hunt. He sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

A four-tiered cake decorated in pastel pink and white roses with lilies of the valley and white sugar bells centered the bride's table. It was made by Mrs. John Head of Cement City, a friend of the bride's family.

The cake was flanked by double crystal candelabra with tall pink tapers, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt.

Betty Bishop and Susan Kirkland registered the guests. Mr. and Mrs. James Kroske of Ypsilanti were the hosts and Mrs. Donald Kennedy of Arcadia, Calif., presided at the punch bowl.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Harold Kelso, Mrs. Head, Mrs. Charles Rickett, Mrs. Kenneth Fisher, Mrs. John Krebs, Kay Southwell, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland, Mrs. E. C. Topps, Mrs. Harold Green, Mrs. John Westgate, Mrs. Orville Bishop, Mrs. Ellis Honeycutt, Mrs. Veregene Smith and Debbie Holden.

Mrs. Mary Green, paternal grandmother of the bride, of Addison, and Marie Lachenschmidt of Milwaukee, Wis., were also among the guests.

THE NEWLY-MARRIED couple are both 1961 graduates of Tecumseh High School. Mrs. Bashore spent two years in Guatamala with the Peace Corps and is presently employed at the Tecumseh Division of Aero-Commander, Inc., formerly Meyers Aircraft.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan the couple will make their home at 126 E. Chicago Blvd.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bashore hosted the bridal party at the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Don's Beef Buffet. Mr. Rickett gave the traditional toast to the groom and David Holden's birthday anniversary was recognized with the serving of a cake by Mrs. Bashore.

MRS. JAMES BASHORE

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

With wedding bells reverberating fully as much now as in June, it might be interesting to retrieve some bits from file 13 as to where some of the traditional customs came from. The name bridegroom comes from Anglo-Saxon England where the husband waited on his bride at the wedding feast as a servitor.

Escorting the bride down the aisle and tying old shoes to cars derives from ancient Egypt where the bride's father gave her away by handing one of her sandals to the groom.

The use of today's rings as a symbol of the lasting quality of love also traces to the Egyptians.

Brides who have young ring-bearers are following a custom of medieval Italy, where page boys from wealthy households took part in wedding ceremonies.

The wedding trip as a "honeymoon" dates back to the Norse who each day for a month after their nuptials took a sip of mead, a fermented drink of honey, to bring them good luck.

Marine Bill Bishop and four buddies with one of the fellow's Mom spent a full day at Disneyland before shipping out. Imagine his amazement when he encountered Paul Surratt on Wake Island who is still en route to Tokyo. Paul was delayed in San Francisco.

Mrs. William Biship, nee Joan Langham is attending an IBM school in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hall of Marion, Ohio were guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Allen last week. They also visited Mrs. Carolyn Austin and Ray Austin in Toledo and their new great granddaughter, Rose Marie Eichenberger in Sylvania, Ohio. The baby weighed 6 lbs. 2 oz. at birth Aug. 18. She is the grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Allen who also are the grandparents of one-year-old Calvin Eugene.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell have moved from Marion, Ohio to Sand Lake.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hadsell have returned from four weeks in Atlanta, Ga. and visiting their daughter, Joyce, in Washington, D. C.

√

John Zeigler was in Washington this past week to visit Representative Weston E. Vivian.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buehrer were hosts for a dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Buehrer's son, Dean Eddy. Twenty-seven friends and relatives from Lima, Findlay, Bluffton, Vanlue and Toledo, Ohio, Bay City, Farmington and Tecumseh attended. Ensign Eddy will return to Beeville, Texas Wednesday where he will take up his duties as an advanved instructor in UT-25 Jets for the navy. Mr. and Mrs. Buehrer have returned from a six-day vacation in Beeville where they attended the commission exercises of Ensign Eddy.

√

Mrs. George Green Sr. has returned from Flat Rock where she spent a week with her granddaughter, Mrs. Larry Edwards, nee Priscilla Ramsay and her husband who have recently moved.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Students of Boysville High School reported to the campus by Monday, Sept. 6, 1965, for the beginning of the new school year.

Greeting them upon their arrival were three new CSC faculty members: Brother Jude Costello. Brother Ronald Erhardt and Brother Thomas Scheurer.

Brother Jude came to Boysville from Notre Dame where he had been superior for the past three years.

Brother Thomas formerly taught at Holy Cross High School in River Grove, Ill.

Brother Jude will assume the duties of Prefect of Discipline, Supervisor of Maintenance and Purchasing, and will teach math and science.

Brother Ronald has taken over as registrar and he also handles the Boysville Bank.

Faculty members no longer on the Boysville staff are Brother Richard Emge, CSC, who is now teaching in South Bend, Ind.; Brother James Greteman, CSC, now in Evansville, Ind.; Brother Raymond McLaughlin, CSC, now at Father Gibault School for Boys in Terre Haute, Ind.; and Mr. Cleveland Hurst, now teaching in Detroit.

Boysville's gymnasium was the scene for the first student-faculty assembly of the school year Sept. 7.

The assembly served the dual function of promoting better faculty-student relations, and of familiarizing students with the rules, regulations, and standards of Boysville.

With the return of eight of last year's starting football team, Boysville promises to convert potential and experience into a winning season.

Seniors Ed Johnson, Ed Bertrand, and John Klos are the returning linemen. Their strength will be reinforced by Allen and Dave Rockwell, brothers brought up from the junior varsity of last year.

It looks as if senior quarterback Norris McFarland will again be calling the plays.

Brother Romain Healy, CSC, athletic director, comments that "with practice and determination, the season will be interesting."

Boysville's intramural sports program began Sept. 9.

Brother Aloysius Glombowski, CSC, is again in charge of intramurals, and is assisted this year by Brother Thomas Scheurer, CSC.

During the past summer, two Boysville students attended the Wolverine Boys State in East Lansing.

Joe Pawlus, sponsored by the Adrian Post of the American Legion, was elected to a judicial position in the state government. Both boys are seniors this year and will be exerting their leadership qualities on the Boysville campus.

The engagement of Mary Kunkle to Carl W. Herring is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kunkle, 501 Seminole.

Mr. Herring, of Detroit, is the son of the late Mrs. Beatrice Rosenberg of Adrian. Miss Kunkle is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School. Her fiance is a graduate of Adrian High School in 1963 and is presently a tool and die apprentice employed at Jay Tool and Die in Inkster. The couple plan an Oct. 2 wedding.

Two Clubs Guests of Tipton Jets Club on Hayride

The Tipton Jets 4-H club held a hayride Friday with the West Adrian Live Wires and the Round Top 4-H club attending as guests.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feight and Mr. and Mrs. Rick Smith.

Composing the refreshment committee were Mrs. Eugene Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Garret Linger and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Sickle.

Mrs. Aebersold Is Meeting Hostess

Mrs. Edward Aebersold will be the hostess Wednesday for the potluck dinner and meeting of the Harmony Homemakers.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Erma Snow and Mrs. Iva Grigg.

Women's Clubs Are Competing for 150 Awards

An expanded awards program recognizing the work of women's clubs of Michigan in stimulating better education for young people in their communities has been announced by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Shell Oil Company.

The 1965-66 GFWC-Shell Education Program will now give a total of 150 awards — three in each state — to women's clubs judged to be conducting the best educational programs. All entries will be judged without regard to the population o fthe community or size of membership of the club, as was the case in previous years.

The state waards will consist of a first prize of $500, a second prize of $300 and a third prize of $200.

Any women's club affiliated with the GFWC is eligible to enter the education awards program.

Entries for the 1964-65 program must be submitted to each State GFWC representative by February 15, 1966.

Community Club To Meet Tuesday

The Macon Community Club will meet Tuesday, at 7 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ralph Halladay in Clinton.

Shirley Hunt Is Honored at Bridal Shower Sept. 5

Among the 15 relatives present from Adrian, Onsted, Jerome, Goose Lake, Tecumseh and Clinton, were Shirley's mother, Mrs. Robert Hunt, her grandmother, Ms. Clarence Keller and great-grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Peters, both of Clinton.

For the afternoon's diversion the guests made a wedding scrap book, finding magazine pictures to match prepared captions, and Miss Hunt selected the best pictures.

Pairs of earrings were presented to the winners: Mrs. Lynn Hunt of Jerome, Mrs. Duaine Hunt of Onsted and Mrs. Roy Bower of Clinton.

Favorite recipes of the guests were presented to the bride-to-be. Ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Hunt's marriage to James Wolf of Midland will be Sept. 18 in the First Baptist Church.

Games were played followed by refreshments in the bridal colors of green, tangarine and white.

"Best Wishes Shirley and Jim" was initialed on the top of the cake decorated with sugar bells and a miniature bride.

Mrs. John Seay To Exhibit Talent at Art Festival

Mrs. John Seay of S. Adrian St., a newcomer to Tecumseh, will display her ceramics at the eighth Annual Outdoor Art Festival sponsored by the Sylvania, Ohio, Chamber of Commerce, Sunday.

Located in the Sylvania Drive-in Bank area the event has grown in interest over the years until this year it will expand onto the Chandler Ace Hardware lots.

The exhibit is open from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. and the public is invited to browse without charge. In case of rain the Festival will be held Sept. 26.

Friends Society To Have 3 Circles, Will Meet Tuesday

The Tecumseh Friends Missionary Society will meet Tuesday and have three circles this year.

Circle One will meet at 9 a.m. in the basement of the church with Mrs. Arthur Gray as leader.

Circle Two will meet at 1:30 p.m. in the church with Mrs. Russell Comfort as leader.

Circle Three will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the church. A film, "Regions Beyond," will be shown.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Staples, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Righter.

MRS. DAVID HOHENSTEIN

Patricia Scanlon Is Wed to David Hohenstein

Patricia Lee Scanlon of Annandale, Va. became the bride of David Paul Hoehenstein in an evening wedding Sept. 4 at the First Congregational Church, Ann Arbor.

The Rev. Raymond D. Barstow performed the ceremony before 150 guests seated by Douglas Shierson, Charles Krebs, Robert Rehner, William Fielder and Larry Titley.

The bride chose a gown of satin peau de soie fashioned with a batteau neckline, belled skirt and detachable train. A dainty French lace jacket was worn by the bride and her veil was secured to a pillbox with lace appliques and seed pearls.

Marilyn Wilhelm served as maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Melinda Packer, Jean and Susan Hohenstein, sisters of the groom.

All were attired in floor length sheath gowns of green crepe styled with raised waistlines and modified bell sleeves with sutash braid trim on sleeves oand bodice.

They wore matching green cabbage rose headpieces and carried pink sweetheart roses and pompon daisies.

BOTH ARE graduates of the University of Michigan, the groom from the School of Engineering.

Tecumseh-Willow Run Opener Is Rated Even

A slow and inexperienced Tecumseh 11 opens the '65 grid season Friday night at Willow Run in what should be rated as a toss-up.

The Flyers are no great shakes, and neither are the Indians, if last Thursday's scrimmage exhibition means anything.

W R and Tecumseh will square off with each team boasting of the advantages which they usually carry into the game.

Tecumseh has excellent size and some experience on the line. The backfield size is average, but there is no experience and no speed.

Friday's opener could be compared to the fairy tale of the rabbit and the turtle. W R possesses excellent speed — as usual — but lacks experience on the line.

★

TECUMSEH WILL have to plod along to win and contain the W R offense. The Indians' defense has been just mediocre but is considerably better than the offense.

Last week's scrimmage against Dundee and Jackson Northwest, was disappointing for the several hundred Tecumseh fans who attended. For Indian fans, it was a "stinker".

Since the lacklustre performance, Coach Tom Fagan has made some switches with the hopes of bolstering the defense and getting some punch in the offense.

Loss of the entire offensive and defensive backfields from the 1964 squad could well make a difference, especially in the first few games.

Defensively, the Indians will tote an average of 180 pounds per man on the line and 180 pounds for the linebackers. However, the backfield will be light, averaging under 150 pounds.

★

TWO OR three offensive positions are still unsettled and the starters may not be picked until just before game time. Defensively, the Indians are set except for the safety posts.

Flyers Are Small and Inexperienced

By PHIL PIERSON

It will be David versus Goliath when the Tecumseh Indians open their football season against the Willow Run Flyers Friday night on the latter's field.

While Tecumseh is sporting a team [illegible] at this season, bigger than Coach Tom Fagan has ever coached, Willow Run will counter with a small unit with only one player above 200 pounds.

That player will be Trassie Washington, 275-pound middle guard on defense, who will be the heaviest player on the field.

The rest of Coach Dunne Devlin's squad will be smaller and more experienced than the one that absorved a 26-7 pasting by the Indians last year.

"This is a re-building year for us and most of our players are sophomores and juniors," Devlin said.

Devlin said this is not unusual for the Flyers and that despite the inexperience, the team will be evenly balanced.

★

The fullback post will be manned by Norbert Glover, a junior who saw little action in 1964.

David Stewart, a junior, will be the starting qdarterback. Stewart played in only the Flyers' final game last season so he is virtually untested.

The other halfback position is wide open according to Devlin and as of last week there was no leading candidate for the slot.

The defense has virtually the same problem with only co-captain John Hayes sure of his linebacker position.

WITH SUCH a small front line for blocking, Devlin said his team won't do too much passing. However, if Stewart does elect to throw, he will have 6'4" Kenny Roberson to pitch to and at that height he shouldn't be too difficult to see.

Like Tecumseh, Willow Run has had one pre-season scrimmage. The Flyers scrimmaged Saturday with three other schools from Detroit.

Since Tecumseh is Devlin's first opponent of the 1965 season, the coach said he planned no special plays for the Indians.

"We'll stick to the basics in this opening game and see what happens," Devlin said.

"Tecumseh is always tough," Devlin said, but he left the impression that he would love to see his team repeat their 14-6 triumph in 1963.

Pontiac Arrows To Face Dayton Saturday Night

Tecumseh's Jim Johnson and his fellow Arrows take on Dayton, Ohio Saturday in Pontiac on Wisner Field at 8 p.m.

Dayton is rated on a par with Jim's crew, and much stronger than earlier opponents, like the Sturgis Wildcats.

Band Boosters To Hold Meeting

Officers urge parents of band students in all grades to attend the Band Boosters meeting at the high school cafeteria Sept. 23, at 7 p.m.

Army Vet To Visit Son in Air Force

M/Sgt. Elwyn R. Bailey of 503 Murray Drive and his wife will leave Monday to visit their son who is stationed in Alaska.

Sgt. Bailey retired from the U.S. Army Aug. 31 after 21 years of service. He joined the army at Camp Roberts, Calif., in 1944 and spent three years in Japan as psychological warfare operations sergeant.

He spent from 1955 through 1959 as high school ROTC instructor.

Sgt. Bailey was in Augsburg, Germany from 1959 through 1962 in airfield operations for the 24th Infantry Division and then as Youth Director of Augsburg Post Headquarters.

When he returned to the United States, he was appointed recruiting sergeant for Lenawee and Monroe Counties and has twice been cited as recruiter of the month for the state.

Since his retirement, Mr. Bailey has been employed as manager of the new Hi-Fi and TV Center in Adrian.

Aowakiyas Baton Marching Class To Begin Soon

Any girl or boy who wishes to take baton lessons may join the group at this time.

The Aowakiyas were organized and are managed by the mothers of members. There is a minimum charge made for lessons to pay for the teacher.

Because the group does not have winter uniforms they are unable to march in parades during cold weather, but they will perform inside for any group that wants them.

THIS YEAR the Aowakiyas marched in the Tecumseh Safety Parade, Tecumseh Memorial Day parade and at fairs in Milan, Chelsea, Wauseon and Delta, O., the Lenawee and Monroe county fairs and at the Herrick Nursing Home.

Last year the group was taught by Diane Furgason, who is attending college. She will be replaced by Marilyn Bryan, a former member of the group.

Marilyn has had four years of baton twirling experience. Lessons are being given at the Tecumseh Community Center on Wednesdays.

Anyone interested in becoming a member is invited to call Mrs. John Escott, 423-3287, for information.

Rick Skinner Wins 4-H Chicago Trip

Rick left Kellogg Center at 1 p.m. Friday and returned on Tuesday.

While in Chicago he learned how the people in that city live, work, and play.

Points of interest on the trip were the University of Illinois Medical and Law Campus, Roosevelt University, Garfield Park Conservatory, Federal Reserve Bank, Chicago Board of Trade, and the Chicago Northwest Railroad enterprises.

Rick also attended the Drury Lanes theater to see "The Affairs of State" starring Joan Crawford.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Skinner and a member of the Tecumseh Top Notchers 4-H Club, Mrs. Robert Ries community leader.

Local High School Seniors Can Take College Courses

Local students in their senior year of high school who are in the upper third of their classes and who do not have an opportunity for the advanced placement in their schools may pursue a college course at Siena Heights while continuing high school.

The first SCOPES subject will be American Colonial History from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday along with the regular students and carrying three college credits (3 sem. hrs.)

The course offering will expand next semester to include English composition, biology, and a study of Western civilization. Principals of the high schools are in possession of necessary information and must approve the taking of the course.

Sister Michael Catherine of the History Department is in charge of the SCOPES project.

Richard Hadsell Enlisted Aug. 11 in the Air Force

Sgt. Thomas Foulds, local Air Force representative, announced the enlistment of Richard S. Hadsell Aug. 11.

Richard is a 1965 graduate of Tecumseh High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hadsell of 211 N. Oneida St.

After the enlistment ceremony which took place in Detroit, he flew directly to San Antonio, Tex., where he began his basic indoctrination. His next step will be to a technical training base where he will begin training in the mechanical field.

Officers Installed

The Brooklyn drill team installed officers at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday evening.

Mrs. Don Woods was installed as president. Others were:

Helen Kinney and David Burdine Exchange Vows

CLINTON — Helen M. Kinney and David R. Burdine were united in marriage Saturday evening in a ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kinney, 120 Brown St., Clinton.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlis E. Burdine of 7036 W. US-223, Adrian.

The Rev. George A. Miller, pastor of the Clinton Methodist Church, performed the ceremony with the immediate families present.

Her only attendant was her mother. The groom's attendant was Frank Johnson, Jr., of Onsted.

Following a brief honeymoon, there will be an open house for

Mr. and Mrs. Burdine Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Clinton High School and is employed as a legal secretary in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Burdine is a 1961 graduate of Onsted High School. He attended Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., and is presently employed by Warren Reed, Contractor, Adrian.

The couple plan to live in the Clinton area.

Roger Proctor Describes Week at Boys State

CLINTON — Roger Proctor gave a comprehensive report on Boys State last Wednesday for the meeting of his sponsors, the Rotary Club.

He recommended that two boys be sent another summer to benefit from the fine program.

Karl Wirt, school band director, thanked the Rotarians for their cooperation on the barbecue project Sept. 5, which netted more than $650 for the band uniform fund.

Today is Tecumseh Day at the Lenawee County Fair in Adrian, and most of the stores are closed.

Because of the small enrollment of the children in kindergarten, they will attend all day.

Fire did $2,000 worth of damage at the Bruce Foundry last week. It destroyed the factory cupola, a 30' x 30' frame structure. It will be replaced by a fire-proof construction.

S. J. Perry has in his possession a ticket of admission to the Lenawee County Fair for the year 1869. It cost 25c.

The Community Chapel Choir of Mary-Martha Chapel in Macon will give a concert Sunday commemorating their fourth anniversary.

Effective this week, all varieties of cheeses will be taken off the rationing list.

County schools were recessed for two days for the Lenawee County Fair in Adrian.

The Tecumseh Friends Church announced it would present the Dynamic Kernals crop proceeds of $734.54, this year, to the Tecumseh Hospital.

The Home Canning Co. of Blissfield was advertising for men and women to work in the tomato pack. It said that 75 per cent of the canned tomatoes will go to the Army and Navy.

The Lenawee County Fair will begin Sunday and continue until Sept. 24.

The Rev. Blair O. Bashore began his first quarter hour "Question Box" program over radio station WABJ in Adrian. The program was to be every Saturday from 11:45 a.m. to noon.

America's Junior Miss, Patrice Gaunder of Stevensville, will appear in Adrian Saturday under the sponsorship of the Adrian Jaycees and Jaycee Auxiliary.

Mayor Walter Bohn will present a key to the city to Miss Gaunder at the Court House following a parade through downtown Adrian at 11 a.m.

The parade will proceed south on Main St. to Church St., east to Broad St., north to Maumee, west to Main St. and return to the Court House for the ceremonies.

Featured in the parade will be former Lenawee County Junior Misses Joan Reid of Adrian, 1962; Karen Sue Burch of Clayton, 1963; and reigning Linda Perry of Tipton.

Soap Box Derby dinners Walt Williams, 1964, and Bary Morris, 1965, will be in the lineup.

Bands from Adrian and Deerfield High Schools, The Irish Hills Antique Car Club, G I Forum, and Lenawee County United Fund are among the other special groups appearing in the parade.

Patrice will sign autographs at a local department store in the afternoon before appearing at a free Coke party at the Adrian Federal Community Room from 2 to 4 p.m.

Patrice, a student at Siena Heights College, Detroit, will reign over a dance for county teens at Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College Campus from 8 to 12 Saturday night.

The County Junior Miss Pageant will be held Nov. 20 and is open to all senior girls who demonstrate a high degree of character, scholarship, leadership ability and poise. Scholarships are awarded to the winners.

Topic is 'Matter'

"Matter," the story of Job, will be the subject of the lesson at all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Local Insurance Man Attending Sales Meeting

NEW YORK — Life insurance man Ronald J. roll, who represents Mutual of New York in Tecumseh, is attending a special business and educational conference of the company's sales leaders at the Park Sheraton Hotel this week.

He is among 140 field underwriters selected on the basis of outstanding performance in sales and policyholder service.

- VALET SERVICE—wrinkles can be removed from corduroy, velveteen or wool garments by placing them in dryer for short tumbling period with damp sponges or bath towels. Place sponges or towel in dryer before putting in clothing to build up steam. Use medium heat setting. Bath towels leave lint on dark cottons, so damp, colorfast sponges are best. There must be moisture to release wrinkles and prevent shrinkage. Remove garments before completely dry and hang on wooden or plastic hangers until completely dry.
- FLUFFING OR DUSTING draperies, chenille bedspreads or other articles that need airing. Place in dryer on "no heat" setting and allow to tumble for 5-10 minutes.
- REMOVING MOTHBALL ODORS from clothes that have been stored. Use "no heat" setting and short tumbling time.
- BATHING SUITS & SNOWSUITS can be dried in preheated dryer with bath towels (which have been in dryer during preheating). Dark towels are advisable with dark fabrics.

To All Fisher Body - GM Employees

The NLRB Will Conduct A Secret Ballot Election On Thursday, Sept. 23, For The Purpose Of Determining UAW Representation For All Maintenance and Production Employees In The Tecumseh Plant. Listed Below Are Just A Few Benefits Which Are Guaranteed By A Written Contract — The UAW-GM National Agreement.

Insurance

GM will now pay the full cost of group life and sickness and accident insurance.

As a result, GM workers will receive at least $6,000 in life insurance protection with a range up to $11,500.

When a worker dies, his dependents will receive, in addition to life insurance, survivor benefits as described under the section of this report titled Survivor benefits.

Weekly sickness and accident benefits will now range from a minimum of $60 to a maximum of $120 instead of from $55 to $110.

Duration of sickness and accident benefits has been increased from 26 to 52 weeks.

The minimum amount of continuing group life insurance after age 65 will be increased to $1,500 for employees who have 10 or more years of credited service in the Retirement Plan or of participation in the Group Insurance Plan.

An employee who becomes totally and permanently disabled between [illegible] and 65 will have his [illegible] accidental death and dismemberment insurance continued in force until age 65 at no cost to himself.

Medical

The company will continue to pay the full cost of such coverage for GM workers, including any future rate increases.

This includes Blue Cross M-75 Plan which is for 365 days hospital care. This UAW-GM coverage includes the employee, his or her spouse, and all children eighteen years or under.

Beginning in September, 1966, it will pay for new and improved programs including out-patient mental health care, convalescent care (up to 730 days), hospital care for mental and nervous disorders (up to 45 days) post and pre-natal care, in-hospital lab and X-ray fes and other benefits.

However, charges to in-hospital patients for laboratory fees, x-ray fees and other similar costs now will be paid in full by the company starting in September, 1965.

Present and future retirees will have the cost of their hospital-medical-surgical insurance paid for entirely by GM.

Added Holidays

Good Friday and the present half-holidays on the day before Christmas and the day before New Year's Day are made full holidays, giving GM employees nine paid holidays, compared with seven under the old agreement. The other paid holidays are New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

Vacation or Paid Absence Allowance

Eligible employees will receive an additional week of paid vacation. The following new schedule of vacations will be used: two weeks for employees with at least one year but less than three years' seniority; 2½ weeks for those with three years' but less than five years' seniority; three weeks for those with five years' but less than 10 years' seniority; 3½ weeks for those with 10 but less than 15 years' seniority; four weeks for those with 15 or more years' seniority.

Workers may utilize the additional week in the form of casual absences for sick days and other types of excused absence for personal reasons.

Bereavement Pay

When a death occurs in the immediate family, the company will pay the worker three days' pay for arranging for and attending the funeral.

Pension

Workers retiring on or after Sept. 1, 1964, will receive $4.25 per month per year of credited service beginning Jan. 1, 1965. This is an increase of $1.45 per month, up from the $2.80 per month benefit in the last contract.

A worker retiring at age 65 with 30 years' service, will receive a pension benefit of $127.50. Assuming he and his wife are entitled to $175 a month in social security, his total retirement income will be $302.50 per month.

The widow's pension has been raised from 50 per cent to 55 per cent of the pension the worker would have received if he had elected the survivor option and his widow were of the same age.

The widow of a worker who was eligible for early retirement will automatically receive a survivor pension if the worker dies before retiring.

Early Retirement

A worker, age 62 to 65, who retires on or after Sept. 1, 1964, will receive, beginning Jan. 1, 1965, a pension benefit of $4.25 per month per year of credited service.

A worker who retires at age 60 but before age 65 will receive 70 per cent of his base pay up to a maximum of $400 a month. This benefit is made up of two parts: the normal pension benefit actuarily reduced below age 62, plus a supplemental amount from the company. The supplement stops at age 65 when the worker becomes eligible for social security.

The worker who retires at 60 with 30 years of service with a wage of $3 an hour, will receive a total of $364 a month until he reaches age 65. His pension will then be $110.54. Assuming he and his wife are entitled to $175 in social security, their total income will be $285.54 per month.

The worker who retires at 60 with 30 years of service with a wage of $3.35 an hour, will get a total of $400 a month until he reaches 65. Then his monthly income will also be $285.54 if his wife is eligible for social security.

If either of these workers retires at age 62 or over, he would receive $302.50 0per month after age 65 assuming he and his wife were entitled to $175 a month in social security benefits.

Under the new contract it will be possible for a worker voluntarily to retire as early as age 55. Any worker under 60 years of age will be able to retire provided he has a total of 85 "points". The "points" are a total of age plus credited service.

Thus, a 55-year old worker can retire if he has 30 years' service (55 plus 30 equals 85). This means also, for example, that a 58-year-old worker with 27 years of service can retire (58 plus 27 equals 85).

A 55-year-old worker with 30 years of service who retires at age 55 would get $2.46 per month per year of service (the normal retirement benefit of $4.25 actuarily reduced equals $2.46) or $73.82 per month plus a supplement amounting to $126.18 for a total of $200.

At age 65 when he becomes eligible for social security, this same worker will continue to receive the basic pension benefit of $73.82 but the supplemental amount of $126.18 from GM would stop. Thus, assuming the worker and his wife receive $175 in social security at age 65, their total income will be $248.82.

Workers 60 and over do not need the "points" to retire. All they need is 10 years of service.

The pension benefit for early retirees is effective Jan. 1, 1965, for those retiring on or after Sept. 1, 1964.

The supplement, however, will be paid only to those who retire on Sept. 1, 1965, or later.

Age	Hourly Rate	Yrs. of Service	Pension	Suplement	Monthly Total
55	$3.50	35	$ 86.13	113.87	$200.00

Special Early or Disability Retirement

Those retiring on special early retirement will receive $4.25 per month per year of service plus $5.20 per month per year of service (up to a maximum of $130 a month) plus a special supplement.

To be eligible for special early retirement, a worker must be 55 years of age and have at least 10 years' service. The $5.20 benefit continues until he is eligible for full social security; the special supplement continues until age 65.

Special early retirement can be invoked for any of four reasons: plant closing, permanent layoff, at the option of the company or by mutual agreement between the company and the worker.

Those retiring because of total and permanent disability will get the same benefits as those on special early retirement except that the age 55 limit is removed.

Here are examples of monthly incomes for those who retire under the special early and total and permanent disability retirement provisions:

Age at Retirement	Years Service	Wage Rate	Monthly Benefit Until 65	Monthly Benefit After 65*
60	30	$3.00 hourly	$364.00	$302.50
60	30	$3.30 hourly	$400.00	$302.50
60	10	any wage rate	$133.33	$217.50
55	30	any wage rate	$257.50	$302.50
55	10	any wage rate	$ 94.50	$217.50

These benefits begin Jan 1, 1965, for those retiring on Sept. 1, 1964, or later.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor benefits will now be available under both the insurance program and the pension plan, and the two have been tied together to provide continuous lifetime benefits for women who become widows at 50 years of age and older.

These programs work this way:

If the husband dies, the widow, whatever her age, will receive, under the life insurance program, $100 a month for 24 months. But if the widow is 50 years or older at the time of her husband's death, the $100 a month payments will continue until she is 62, if she does not remarry and is not receiving dependency social security benefits because she has children under 18.

At age 62 she becomes eligible for social security plus a survivor's pension benefit if her husband had been eligible for a pension at the time of his death.

Quarterly Cost of Living

Under the UAW-GM Agreement, as the Cost-Of-Living increases, your earnings automatically go up. As an example: the Bureau of Labor Statistics Index for the previous quarter was 109.3. During the past three months it has risen to 110.2. At a result all GM employees received an additional 2c per hour this past week effective September 6. This additional 2c is added to the current 8c to a total of 10c per hour in addition to your present wage rate.

Effective with the pay period beginning December 7, 1964, and thereafter during the period of this Agreement, adjustments in the Cost of Living Allowance shall be made quarterly at the following times:

First pay period beginning on or after December 1, 1964, and at quarterly intervals thereafter to June 1, 1967.

SUB PLAN
Regular SUBenefit

This is normally referred to as SUPPLEMENTAL UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS. The Regular SUBenefit provides a weekly income for full weeks of layoff from GM, including any state US benefits received and other specified earnings, of up to 62 per cent of your Weekly Straight-Time Pay, plus $1.50 per Dependent (up to four Dependents). The maximum Weekly Regular Benefit is $50 plus the allowance for Dependents.

When your state UC benefits are used up, or if you do not receive state US benefits for acceptable reasons, the SUB Plan provides increased weekly regular Benefits up to the maximum weekly amount of $50 plus Dependents' allowance.

You may receive these SUBenefits for up to 52 weeks, depending upon your Number of Credit Units. Your Credit Units are determined as follows: for 52 weeks of employment, you would receive 26 weeks of SUBenefits. If you had 104 weeks of employment or two years, you will be entitled to 52 weeks of SUBenefits. This protects you when you need it most—when you are laid off.

AS AN EXAMPLE:

John's CURRENT PAY is:

Base Hourly Rate	$3.00
C. O. L. Allowance	.10
Total Hourly Rate	$ 3.10
Weekly Straight-Time Pay ($3.10 x 40 hrs.)	124.00
62% of John's Weekly Straight-Time Pay	$ 76.88
plus: his Dependents Allowance (4 Dependents at $1.50 each)	6.00
is	$ 82.88

Short Work Week

of your straight-time pay (including cost-of-living allowence) for each hour that your Work Week was less than 40 because of hours not paid for or made available to you.

In general a Scheduled Short Work Week is a short work week that management schedules in order to reduce production to meet customer demand.

Something for Nothing

The Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce has issued a warning that the "model home" racket continues to be used to defraud the public in the sale of aluminum siding.

Charles E. Wise, general manager of the Chamber, said fast-talking salesmen dazzle the lure of "something for nothing" to induce homeowners to sign installment sales contracts covering exorbitantly-priced aluminum siding jobs.

According to the National Better Business Bureau, with which the local Chamber is affiliated through membership, the California Attorney General has reported that homeowners in that state alone are bilked of more than $7 million annually by fraudulent aluminum siding sales schemes.

Even a conservative projection of these findings, NBBB said, would mean a huge annual toll nation-wide.

The California official said more than 4,700 contracts, ranging from $2,500 to $6,000, were sold during an 18-month period. Salesmen's commissions on a single contract often were as high as $1,000.

NBBB SAID that while most siding applicators are responsible businessmen, a minority in the industry perpetrates the re-siding racket despite repeated public warnings by Better Business Bureaus over the years. It works this way:

The scheme relies on the typical "model home" pitch. The salesman, posing as a representative of a nationally-known aluminum company, tells the homeowner his company has selected her home for "before-and-after" advertising of aluminum siding.

He says the company will not only reimburse her for use of the home but will give a cash commission for each homeowner in the area who subsequently buys aluminum siding from his company. He may offer a cash advance on these prospective commissions as an inducement.

In reality the salesman, usually an itinerate, does not represent a well-known company and has no intention of using the home as a model.

★

THE HOMEOWNER, who has been induced to sign various papers, actually is charged many hundreds of dollars more than the competitive price for aluminum siding.

The National Bureau offered this advice to homeowners:

Don't enter into any home improvement deal with the expectation of having promised commissions pay for its costs.

Deal only with firms whose dependability is known to you or has been established through inquiry.

Read and understand any contract before you sign and keep a copy of it.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

PAPA AND MAMA CARDINAL, AND KIDS

Last week we left a very over-worked Papa Cardinal using our dwindling supply of sunflower seeds to feed his two always hungry youngsters.

Like all baby birds, the young cardinals seemed to have insatiable appetites and their poor harried father was beginning to feel the strain.

He looked absolutely haggard, his usually bright and sleak red feathers had lost their luster and were a bit ragged. But after all, he was on the go every minute searching for food to stuff into the kids' big, gaping mouths.

The youngsters themselves are funny to see — a dull drab brown when they first leave the nest and black bills. Their baby feathers are soft, fluffy and loose fitting.

After a few days we began to detect a change in their appearance. Apparently one was a male and the other a female.

The male ever so slowly started to show evidence of his future scarlet color. One of the last times we saw him, his color could almost be called a brown-flecked orange. His black mask had not yet started to appear but his dark bill was showing signs of red.

THE YOUNG male was much more aggressive than his sister, too. After being parked on a branch of the wren-tree and being told to "stay put" while Papa C. went for food, it was always the little male who screamed the loudest and was thus often fed first. In fact, one day he was so anxious that it almost got him in trouble.

He and his sister were sitting about six inches apart and as usual, their dinner was being picked up on the feeder. When "Dad" started for the tree, so sure was Junior that the food was coming his way, he opened his mouth wide.

So anxious was he that he even leaned far forward — surprise! The old bird had other ideas and as he passed the one youngster to take the sunflower seed to the female, Junior fell off his perch.

He had been so cocksure and anxious that he had simply reached too ar. Fortunately, there was a limb below upon which he caught hold and scrambled to safety.

★

MUCH TO our frustration, because what would make a cuter picture than Papa feeding the two kids on the feeding tray, he refused to oblige. Actually, he went out of his way not to bring the youngsters into camera range.

I suppose it was a matter of safety — but that does not put a desired picture into my file. Oh well, something to look for ward to getting next year.

As might be expected, the young male was the first to strike out on his own. Several times we saw him on the feeder trying to eat by himself while Papa was still carrying lunch to his daughter.

Oh Junior made half-hearted attempts at begging, but when the older bird ignored his squeaky pleas, he would fend for himself.

His efforts to pick up and crack the big black seeds were amusing to watch — as he was clumsy and far from neat, but he made it.

BY NOW both young cardinals must be well-colored and well into the business of getting along by themselves. We were so glad that the family kept us company during the noise and confusion.

Now however, the ditch digging equipment has moved on and with the necissity of feeding a growing family also gone, so have the cardinals.

Their happy playground across the creek has been laid waste. We can only hope that comes winter and the comfort of eating at a feeding station, they will return.

So it is that on the wishful note of looking forward to at least some of the family returning, we wind up our two-week tale about Papa and Mamma Cardinal and kids.

NEXT WEEK:
THE V-SHAPED FORMATIONS.

Dean Moore Is Honored on Birthday

Sunday evening Mrs. Dean Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore entertained 45 relatives and friends at the latter's home honoring Dean Moore's 30th birthday.

Pink and white was the color scheme used. Pie ala mode, birthday cake and beverage was served to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ostrander and son Charles; Doris Preston; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hallwell and son Tim, of Onsted; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Randall and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Randall; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Alderdyce; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son Rodney, of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey Sr. and daughter Luella; Mr. and Mrs. Delamer Bruder; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Furlong; Mrs. Carol Jean Williams and daughters; and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey Jr., and daughters of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Donald Moore also assisted.

Women Unhurt As Cars Collide Friday Morning

Myra L. Cooper, 40, of 207 N. Pearl St. and Thelma L. Henderson, 60, of 412 N. Ann Arbor St., Saline, escaped injury when the cars they were driving collided Friday morning on Macon Rd., south of Pennington Rd.

Mrs. Cooper told Clinton State Police she was starting to turn left when she saw the Henderson car approaching and she turned back into her lane. Mrs. Henderson skidded as she applied her brakes.

Degrees of Order Are Given to Four at OES Meeting

A special meeting of the Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES, was held Thursday evening when the degrees of the order were conferred on the Rev. and Mrs. Seal Janeway, Linda Hicks and Harold Hicks.

There were 42 members and guests present. Mrs. Robert Bonner, chairman of the Villa Committee and historian of the Lenawee-Monroe County Association was introduced and welcomed.

Mrs. Bonner gave a report of the Villa and showed picture of the buildings and grounds and interior of the Villa.

A rummage sale will be held with the date to be announced. All articles for the sale are to be given to Mrs. James Mull at her home or the office of James Mull.

The next meeting will be the annual meeting an delection of officers Oct. 7.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. James Tonnebzerger, Mrs. Harold Hicks and Mrs. Bernard Isaacson.

John Dick Returns to Campus

HOUGHTON — John D. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dick, 215 S. Democrat, has returned to the Michigan Tech campus to act as a residence hall group leader during the school's orientation program Sept. 19-25.

Along with 61 other upperclass group leaders, he will assist approximately 1,284 freshmen and transfer students in familiarizing themselves with the University and area.

Classes for the fall term will start Sept. 27, with an anticipated record enrollment of 3,372 students.

Dick is a junior electrical engineering major.

Air Force Lists Openings for All Ex-Servicemen

M/Sgt. Thomas Foulds, local Air Force recruiter, has announced that a new "skill needed" list has been received through Air Force channels.

The recently-published list will greatly benefit those people who have past served in the Air Force or any other branch of service.

Practically all career fields are listed. Many electronics and mechanical job specialties have been added to the list.

The new list specifically spells out the various career fields and skills most needed by the Air Force. Several of the job specialties listed permit Sgt. Foulds to offer all ranks. Choice of assignment is also permitted to the ex-GI.

Former servicemen should contact Sgt. Foulds at the Eagle's Hall in Adrian any Tuesday or Thursday at 10 a.m., or at the Jackson office at 128 Francis St., or call collect to the Jackson office at any time, area code 517 784-4083.

A Change In View

There's nothing like a new perspective to change your attitude toward life.

When Junior is bored, he simply stands on his head for a new slant at things. The floor flips to the ceiling, with tables and chairs hanging from it, and people walk upside-down. At least that's the way it looks to him.

It is a good idea to gain a different perspective — to step back and get a new slant on things around you. But you don't have to stand on your head to do it.

Instead identify yourself with a church. Take your family and go regularly to worship. You will find a new perspective. Genuine values will keep their importance; unimportant things will diminish.

Today's life will be happier; tomorrow's full of hope. Nothing is upside-down, but everything claims its rightful place when you view life with the faith of a Christian.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bacon of Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnson of Grand Rapids.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royal McElroy were Mr. and Mrs. Holden McElroy and son of South Bend, Ind. The visitors attended the Fairbanks family reunion Sunday in the village park.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown attended a meeting of the Superior Chapter of the Isaac Walton League of America Sunday, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Karmann of Ford Rd., in Ypsilanti.

Kenny Ivan, accompanied by three fraternity brothers from Michigan State, has gone on a two-week trip to California to visit Ken's cousin, Larry Ivan, near Los Angeles. The boys also plan to do some sightseeing.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook were Mr. and Mrs. John Keran of Britton, and Mr. Ed Brockman and fiancee of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson and family, Jerry Dicks, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Jim attended the Rendell sisters reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Brady of Whitmore Lake.

25 Choir Robes and Stoles Arrive

BRITTON — Mrs. William Raeburn, choir director and organist of the Congregational-Christian Church, announced that the 25 new Junior Choir robes which were ordered this summer have arrived, plus new stoles for the Senior Choir.

They will be presented at a musical dedication service early in October.

'Get-Acquainted' Party Saturday Opens New Year

BRITTON—The Senior Young People of the Bethel Baptist Church will have a "Get-Acquainted" party to begin the new year at Jim Squires' home Saturday at 7 p.m.

The Teen Life Crusade in Adrian Saturday was attended by 23.

Walther League Planning Supper

BRITTON — The Emmanuel Lutheran Walther League will serve a chili supper Sept. 26 in the lower level of the church.

Following the supper, Pastor Drobena will present slides showing scenes from the Holy Land, which he took on a recent trip.

The public is invited as a part of Youth Sunday observance. Charges for the supper will be $1 for adults, and pre-confirmation age children free.

PTA Meetings Start Wednesday

The Ridgeway-Macon PTA will meet Wednesday evening, at the Ridgeway School at 8 p.m.

The teachers will be introduced and they will also display their working materials and books.

A short educational film "Seeing is Believing" will also be shown. Refreshments will be by the executive board.

James Listers Honor Daughter on Her Birthday

Thirty-five classmates were on hand to celebrate the event. The young people danced and played cards, and Gail opened many gifts.

Refreshments of sandwiches, relishes, birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served to the group by the hostess, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins.

Lt. Lowery Gets Award

Lt. Darrell Lowery was awarded the TOPS (To Promate Cafety) award by Col. Richard Ault, Wing Commander at Craig Air Force Base, Ala., and was cited for his accomplishments as rescue crew commander since September, 1964.

In the letter of recognition it was pointed out that since September, 1964 "you have flown more than 100 helicopter scramble missions in response to base aircraft emergencies.

"Many emergencies have occurred in extremes of weather conditions and at off-base sites. They were often flown in dense and hazardous air traffic conditions.

"In all instances you have safely responded to these emergencies in less than the three minute scramble time established by Air Rescue Service.

"You consistently maintain your crew, aircraft and related rescue equipment in a fully rescue-ready configuration, providing Craig with an on-the-spot crash rescue and fire suppression capability.

"Your sustained safety consciousness and profesisonal accomplishment of your hazardous flying duties are outstanding contributions to the flying safety record at Craig AFB."

Lt. Lowery is the son of Mrs. Sarah Lowery of Holloway. He and his wife, the former Mary Lou Perry, have two children, Kevin and Kendra.

Kenneth Jolins Host BHS Class Reunion Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jolin of Milan were hosts Saturday evening for the reunion of the Class of 1945 of Britton High School with 11 of the 23 class members present.

Mrs. James Gribble, nee Francis Rangle, of Fort Walton, Fla., and Mrs. Dwight Knauss, nee Betty Mottor of Clayton, were unable to attend but sent letters which were read.

Those attending from Britton were:

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. La Von Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auten.

Also present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Downing of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. James Fust of Allen Park; Mr. and Mrs. James Vallie of Ypsilanti; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rainey of Onsted.

Quarterly Meeting Is Held To Plan Future Events

BRITTON — The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational-Christian Church held the quarterly meeting Sept. 8 in the Fellowship Center.

Plans were discussed for coming events including the turkey dinner Thursday and the annual Church Fair, Oct. 7.

A Family Night will be held in October, the date to be announced later.

The Priscilla Circle presented the program, which included a vocal duet by Mrs. Willard Exelby and Mrs. Ronald Frayer, and a reading, "God Speaks to Women Today," by Mrs. Bert Moore.

Mrs. Lillian Buttolph and Mrs. Geraldine Beal showed slides of their trip to William and Mary College in Virginia, and Washington, D. C.

Light refreshments were served, and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. The next meeting will be a noon luncheon Dec. 1, with the Sunshine Circle in charge.

PTA Fun Night Plans Underway

BRITTON — PTA President Mrs. Robert McCrate announced that plans are underway for the annual PTA Fun Night, which will be held this year Oct. 2.

The planning committee met Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins. Mothers and fathers are being contacted this week to help on the project, which is the biggest single undertaking of the PTA for the year.

Many of the most popular features of the Fun Night will be repeated this year, such as the cake walk, fish pond, cartoons, games, bake sale, candy sale, plus some new and exciting games. Activities are planned to interest all ages.

TICKETS WILL be sold by the grade school children next week.

The 10c cost will be for general admission, plus a chance in the drawing for the door prizes, which will be announced later.

A light supper will be served in the cafeteria as in previous years, between 5 and 7 p.m.

The next planning committee meeting will be Thursday at the Paul Hamilton home. Members of the committee are:

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auten, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cheever, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schiels. Mr. Judkins and Mr. Schiels are co-chairmen of the event. The various work committees will be announced later.

When they arrived at Gilbert's with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auten and family, they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Auten and family and Mrs. Ruth Auten and daughters of Britton; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Auten and family of Athens; Mrs. Lillian Miller, Ronald and Susan of Wayne; and Mrs. Ronald Leonard and son and Cheryl Angell of Northville.

A co-operative chicken dinner was served at 1 p.m. President Charles Fairbanks presided at the business meeting after which a social time was enjoyed.

New Church Building Is Nearly Done

BRITTON — The Rev. Duane McNeil of the Bethel Baptist Church has announced that the new church building, which has been under construction this past summer, is nearing completion.

The new building is located two blocks south of M-50 on Britton Highway on a two-acre plot.

Painting of the interior is completed, but floor covering and furnace are still to be installed. Pews and other furniture are expected soon, seeding of the lawn is also being completed.

The main floor of the new church consists of the sanctuary, which will seat 260, a pastor's study, nursery, rest rooms and lobby.

The basement includes a large fellowship center, 10 Sunday School rooms and a kitchen.

College Student List Expanding

BRITTON — Additional students, who will be attending college this fall from the Britton area include:

In Michigan, after a day's fishing beer's the one... for good taste, good fun

Wherever you fish for sport—on the ocean, by the booming surf, or on some quiet country pond, it's great at the end of the day to head for a rewarding glass of beer. While you're talking over the ones that got away, or pan-frying the ones that didn't, you enjoy the hearty taste and cool refreshment only a glass of beer can give you so well. Yes, whatever your sport—bowling or strolling, golfing or gardening—a frosty glass of beer makes a naturally great accompaniment.

Planting Wheat?

If so, here's why J. J. Walper & Son recommends ORTHO "Starter Special" Fertilizer for Wheat . . .

1. This fertilizer has a high concentration of Phosphorus for strong root development, plus the right amount of Nitrogen and Potash for a balanced feeding.
2. These uniform pellets spread evenly over your field and give plants both a fast-acting and long-lasting feeding.
3. With ORTHO High-Analysis Fertilizers you'll have less to haul and less to handle.
4. Plus, you get more "grow power" for your crops with ORTHO Unipel High-Analysis Fertilizers.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Education still takes top billing when there is any discussion of the future.

If our area is going to boom—and who can ignore the positive signs — future civic leaders will need substantial schooling beyond the 12-grade level.

Which brings us to the subject of the community college program, now taking shape in Michigan and expected to grow enormously in the coming decade.

Some readers will recall that Governor Romney's Blue Ribbon Committee on Education did some pin-pointing on the subject and reported there should be a two-year college in Lenawee County.

At the time of the report, The Herald suggested that Tecumseh should start an active effort to establish the college in the immediate area.

Time hasn't changed that thought — only enlivened it.

Based on the current industrial explosion and potential growth pattern, every indication points to an enormous build-up between Tecumseh and Adrian, generally following the path of Occidental Hwy.

PEEKING INTO the crystal ball, one can see by about 1970, a solid mass of homes, plants and commercial developments along this route.

The ball may cloud slightly at one point, say three miles south of town, but it would appear as if there is the outline of a charming campus — could it be that community college?

To me, the possibilities are limitless in the curriculum, going heavily to the vocational.

As is happening in other areas, youngsters who normally wouldn't go to college at all are eagerly enrolling in nearby community college two-year programs to become executive secretaries, medical technicians, electronics experts.

Around here, there could be courses in refrigeration, building construction. The list is endless.

Even now, a high school education is quite often not enough to capture a job.

What will it be like in five years under the continued technological advances?

McDowell Asks for Base Salary Raise to Teachers

Supt. James McDowell suggested to the School Board Monday night that they raise the base salaries to teachers to $5,000.

According to the budget there is about $31,000 left in the teachers' allocation.

McDowell made the suggestion because he said three school districts in Lenawee County, Addison, Adrian and Blissfield, have established $5,000 as their base salary rate for teachers.

Fleet Wing Gets City's Oil Business

Fleet Wing, in bids submitted by Beach Bros., Inc., was awarded Tecumseh's business for the next calendar year by Council Monday night.

The contract will call for approximately 20,000 gallons of regular gasoline, 10,000 gallons of high test gasoline, 1,000 gallons of No. 1 fuel oil, 10,000 gallons of No. 2 fuel oil and about 1,000 gallons of kerosene.

Fleet Wing's total bid was $5,695; Standard Oil, $5,861; and Mobil, $7,507.

City Taxes Dropped 2.25 Mills

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

New Valuations Are Reason, Catching Schools in Process

By JIM LINCOLN

Property owners within the city limits of Tecumseh will enjoy an approximately 2.25 mills cut — based on Local Assessed values — in winter taxes this year.

The State Tax Commission officially reported to the Board of Supervisors Tuesday morning in the courthouse that the cities of Tecumseh, Hudson and Morenci would receive cuts, Adrian and many townships would be raised.

Tecumseh's slash in equalized evaluations totals $1,814,546, a drop of about 7½% from $25,827,239 to $24,012,693.

While property owners will enjoy lower taxes, the schools here will lose. The county, which also participates in the winter tax, will not lose any money since other areas were raised to offset decreases.

City Manager Cal Zorn appealed to the State Tax Commission last April for a review of Tecumseh's assessments. Instead of just checking the city here, the Commission reviewed the entire county, apparently irritating some township supervisors.

After an inquiry as to the changes in evaluations, the Commission said Tuesday morning that Mr. Zorn's appeal resulted in the tax differences, and changes.

★

LOCAL TOWNSHIP changes are:

Tecumseh, $2,923,583 to $2,930,561 — Increase of $7,000.

Raisin, $6,324,379 to $7,560,212 — Increase of $700,000.

Franklin, $5,429,282 to $5,051,978 — Decrease of $400,000.

Clinton, $7,439,533 to $6,942,958 — Decrease of $300,000.

Ridgeway, $5,283,496 to $5,581,064 — Increase of $300,000.

Supervisors have until Oct. 10 to appeal the Commission's report, but Mr. Zorn said chances of altering the report given at Tuesday's preliminary hearing are slim.

Total loss of tax monies to the Tecumseh schools has not yet been determined since school district lines vary in the surrounding townships.

Harold Ruhl, 214 W. Biddle St., grew a beautiful Siamese-twin dahlia of the Arthur Godfrey variety. It measured 10 inches across and the two blooms, back-to-back, were brilliant orange, yellow and bronze toned. Mr. Ruhl, who has been raising dahlias for more than 15 years, and Bill Smith, from whom he obtained the bulbs, have never seen this rarity before. Has anyone?

Republican Ladies To Hear Walter

Hugh Walter will speak to the Shawnee Republican Women's Club Tuesday about the fall leadership conference held on Mackinac Island last weekend.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Raymond Platt in Tipton.

72 Band Uniforms on Order

CLINTON — The Band Boosters club voted to order 72 complete new uniforms for the Clinton marching band at their meeting Monday evening.

Eighteen members, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wirt, the school band director, Richard Wegner, school superintendent, and the representative from the band uniform company, were present.

The design for the uniform was developed by Mr. Wirt and the uniform company.

The uniforms, at a total cost of $93.05 each, will be made of Forstmann worsted wool, and will consist of tuxedo-styled coat, pants, overlay, and a shako-type hat.

There will be a red stripe on the black pants and red sleeves hash marks on the coats. The shoulder overlay will be styled of white wool with a silver metallic cloth back.

Delivery is to be by the end of November, with all expectations that the Christmas concert will see the band arrayed in their new uniforms.

The Band Boosters voted to have a free public dance later this fall to show their appreciation to the community for the fine support of the band uniform project.

New Chapter Ends Tarantula Mystery

(Editor's Note: — The final chapter was added to the tarantula spider story from London, England Monday by Mrs. Margaret Van Vorst. She shares with The Herald readers, a letter explaining it from her sister, Mrs. D. Smith, of Thorton Heath. The Smiths with son, David, 9, spent the entire month of May visiting in this area).

MRS. SMITH'S LETTER

A letter from Margaret this week enclosed a clipping from The Tecumseh Herald which had the editor mystified, I guess.

(I don't have it by me to quote, but it was a story of a tarantula spider which escaped from a bunch of bananas here in London and disappeared.)

The story behind it is this:

Mrs. Smith, who works here, is always telling David some exciting tale and I don't know how it came up, but one day she told him about this spider showing up in a local greengrocer's shop and then disappearing. It was never seen again. This happened about last November.

I am not sure when David first heard the story, but one day after we got back from America, when he was casting about for something to do, he hit on the idea of writing up this "news" and sending it to The Herald. I have to say "no" to so many things that when a relatively harmless idea pops up I fall in with it, so that is what happened.

David wrote the item, I typed it up for him and he mailed it.

David was thrilled, of course, and so will Mrs. Smith be when she comes back from her vacation next week.

Motorcycle, Car Collide on Sunday Injuring Youth

A motorcycle and car collided Sunday evening at the intersection of Chicago Blvd., and Occidental Hwy., resulting in facial cuts to Bruce McKinney, 18, of Route 2, Adrian, a passenger on the motorcycle operated by James Grossman, 16, of 4629 Treat Rd., Adrian.

Murrel Clark, Tecumseh police chief said the motorcycle was hit by a car driven by Thomas W. Cey, 16, of Clinton. Cey was given a summons for improper overtaking and passing.

Father, Daughter Hurt in Car Crash

One of eight accidents investigated by Tecumseh police during the past week resulted in personal injury to two members of a local family.

Richard W. Alexander, 45, of 1004 W. Pottawatamie St., and his 11-year-old daughter, Carol, were hurt in a collision Thursday at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Union St.

The young girl hit and broke the windshield with her head and is still undergoing treatment for lacerations, although not confined at Herrick hospital. Mr. Alexander suffered severe bruises.

The second driver in the mishap, Kathleen J. Hall, 16, of 406 N. Union St., was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Sept. 17 — A bucket hanging from a city truck, driven by Glen D. Bow, 18, of 605 Brook St., struck another vehicle operated by Irene M. Schomburg, 59, of 818 Outer Dr. Mr. Bow was charged with driving with an insecure load.

Sept. 17 — Dean W. Hebb, 16, of 516 W. Chicago Blvd., was cited for failure to yield the right of way at W. Chicago Blvd. and Pearl St. after an accident with Herbert R. Lapham, 44, of 604 Cairns St.

Sept. 17 — Neva C. Cubberly, 303 E. Shawnee, reported to police that she backed into a window at the All-Day — All Night Laundromat on W. Chicago Blvd.

Sept. 18 — William F. Meyers, 17, of 1019 River Acres Dr., backed into Philip D. Gordon, 17, of Saline, in the Logan St. parking lot.

Sept. 19 — Thomas W. Cey, 16, of Clinton was cited for improper passing after an accident with James G. Grossman, 16, of Adrian at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Occidental Rd.

Sept. 19 — Frank Zylka, 56, of Toledo, O., backed into an open rear door of a car belonging to Stanley B. Wells, 47, of Petersburg, in Bud's A & W parking lot.

Folk Festival Nets $1,430

BLISSFIELD — More than $1,430 was collected at the Blissfield Folk Festival Saturday night for the Mary Magdalene Student Loan Fund.

Proceeds from the gate totaled over $430 and an anonymous gift of $1,000 was also contributed.

Duane DeLoach, husband of the late Mary DeLoach for whom the fund is memorial, said tha the enthusiastic packed house kept the entertainers for twice the time expected.

A 90-minute program was scheduled but the folk singers continued for two and one-half hours.

August Housing Permits Total 8

Five permits for new houses in Tecumseh were taken out during the month of August, Lynn Noble, building inspector, reports.

One permit for an industrial addition was taken out, as was a permit for an addition to a professional building.

During the first eight months, the city has issued 53 housing permits.

8 Attend Meeting of Grandmothers Club Last Week

The Grandmothers Club was entertained with a luncheon by Mrs. Clifford Hardy at the home of Mrs. Ed Mossing in Adrian Sept. 14.

Mrs. Raymond Platt and Mrs. Lester Baker, who were among the eight members and guests present, were given prizes.

Mrs. Richard Vollmer received a prize for the most lone hands at euchre.

Mrs. Glover Swarts will be the hostess for the next meeting.

Policemen Are Given Pay Raises

Tecumseh police were given a $4 week raise, effective Oct. 1, by Council Monday night.

The salary hike, recommended by City Manager Cal Zorn, is equal to the yearly amount requested at the Sept. 7 meeting by Murell Clark, police chief.

Police here can now receive a maximum of 5,824 a year. A new officer with little or no experience will start at $5,200 a year.

Reasons for the increase are a high rate of turnover in department personnel and failure to attract men to keep the department at full force.

Mr. Zorn said a new officer would be employed Oct. 15. This would complete the department which includes the chief, two sergeants, six patrolmen, two dispatchers and one meter maid.

In his report to Council, the city manager reviewed the police salary scale since July 1, 1964. At that time, police were given an $8 per week raise plus additional sick time from 10 to 30 days.

Last July 1, they received another $8 per week raise plus additional vacation time from 12 to 20 days.

Maybe Coach Tom Fagan could set a series of bear traps around the field Friday for our home opener. Reports have filtered through that the Gaels of St. John's are F-A-S-T.

Did'ja take a gander at those new uniforms down at the corner of N. Evans and W. Logan Sts?

License No. YA 6634, did you have to throw that paper right on the main street? Maybe you haven't heard of the beautification program but it looks pretty teen-ageish for a full grown man to litter the streets.

A flock of Canada geese was sighted Thursday northeast of town just as they were coming down for a landing. Do you suppose the goose that was a guest there for five weeks at a farm on Murphy Hwy. after the tornado was amongst the flock?

They were a middle-aged couple, happy with their family and grandchilden, then "Wham," the Stork announces he's going to make a call. That's the comedy, "Never Too Late," which the Tecumseh Players will stage this fall. Try-outs for the roles in the show are Friday evening at 7 and Sunday at 1 p.m. in the Community Center. Everyone is welcome and maybe some newcomers in town will show.

What is true love?

Out at the Paul Burns' home, 905 River Acres Dr., two-year-old Pete had just finished eating a powdered donut. There was sugar all over his hands.

Ann, age three, asked her baby brother: "Can I lick your hands?"

Pete gurgled, "Sure."

What a meal that was at St. Elizabeth's Sunday — everything was delicious, especially the roast beef. Preliminary reports indicate that nearly 1,500 chowed down, gross was $3,000 with net expected to top $2,000. This is an all-time record.

Our gal in charge of subscriptions — Mrs. Hunt, reminds those who send in address changes to please send along the zip code.

Three Cheers for Mrs. Neil Pearson of the Abi-Evans Chapter, DAR. She worked at some length to get a proclamation from Mayor Harold Easton for Constitution Week and Citizenship Day last week and have it read in the schools and to have an article in The Herald. Would that we had more like her with our country's interest at heart. Too bad she didn't get more cooperation.

Lois Cattell of Route 3 Occidental Hwy., secretary to Hugh Walter in the Tecumseh Products Service Department, and Jack Osburn, owner of Osburn Real Estate and Insurance, must feel like pretty special people these days. They were both informed by the Michigan State Conservation Department that they were picked to receive an elk permit. Only 300 of these permits were issued from over 35,000 applications.

In checking to make certain The Herald's circulation is at all all-time peak, we called Mrs. Carl Barnes, the former Marjorie Wickwire, who published the paper four years following the death of her dad, Earl. What we sought was info on the subscription drive Marj had in 1954, when she gave away a Buick 8 sedan to the top point getter. Interesting to us was that the drive pushed circulation to nearly 3,000, also that a chap named Don Oswald won the car (value: $2,422.44). A cash prize of $750 went to Jerry Barton, who was runner-up.

A funny thing happened at the B. B. Hannibal home, 1109 N. River Ct., the other Sunday. Mrs. H. found herself looking into the back yard when a blurr whizzed by the window. A young lady parachutist had just landed, slightly off the target: Meyers airport.

Mrs. Hannibal rushed outside to see if she was OK, which she was and out came Mr. H., who had the family camera, freshly loaded with a roll of color film.

The photog stood there being suave, grinning and chatting — and advancing the film and advancing the film and advancing the film, until he had spun off the entire roll.

Season Ends As It Started —in the Rain

Lady golfers of Tecumseh Country Club officially ended their 1965 season on Sept. 8 as they began it — in the rain.

Many newcomers are developing into fine golfers, adding greatly to the competition and fun, she added.

Macon Girls Golf League Season Ends

Although the weather was bad on many nights of play, there were several good scores turned in by the ladies of the Tuesday night league that concluded Sept. 14 at Macon Golf Club.

Twenty-eight ladies made up the "Parneers," under the cabinet supervision of the president, Mrs. James Manor of Milan; Mrs. Wayne Blanchard of Tecumseh, vice-president; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harold Gibson of Clinton.

Fun day was held Saturday and trophies and prizes were awarded after an afternoon of golf, dinner and a business meeting.

Mrs. A. O. Smith of Milan was the league champion.

Mrs. James Roy of Dundee had low net. Mrs. Vern Manwaring, low putts. The most improved handicap was won by Mrs. William D. Hamilton.

Low net: Mrs. Douglas Hall, first; Mrs. Weldon Hollar, second.

Second flight winners were:

Board Sets Definite Bus Policy

The School Board voted Monday night to establish a definite policy regarding the bussing of elementary students to schools.

The policy will be one of enforcing the one mile walking limit except when one school is overcrowded and the students are moved to another school.

When this happens the students will be bussed to another school even if they live within one mile of that school.

The board adopted the policy after hearing a complaint that one student was asked to change schools, but was not being given steady bus transportation because she lived within one mile of her new school.

The board believes that enforcement of this policy will keep the class enrollment at all the elementary schools about even.

Tory Tackle Injured, Out for Season

BRITTON — Friday night's loss to Clinton was a bigger one for Britton than most people thought immediately after the contest.

The score of 36-0 was bad enough, but the Tories also lost the services of a fine prospect for the line, freshman Douglas Steinman.

Steinman, a 5'11" 190-pound tackle, suffered a multiple fracture of his knee cap in the third quarter and is out for the season.

His injury is so serious that he will be in a hip-to-ankle cast for about 12 weeks doctors reported.

"I hate to lose him, he had the makings of a good player," Vadasy said.

Steinman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Steinman of 12273 Kniffen Rd., is expected to play next year.

READY TO ROLL — Past National Corn Combine Picking champ Lawrence Fisher of Palmyra, has been extremely interested in the contest field near Adrian. He plans to enter the state contest, which will be held Oct. 21, and also hopes to be able to go on and represent Michigan in the national competition on Oct. 22. You can see at a glance there will be plenty of corn for the contestants to harvest.

Get-Well Cards Sent by Members

In the year's first meeting, Mrs. Lynn Harris entertained the Tecumseh Past Chiefs' Club Thursday evening.

Following the business, tables were arranged for pedro.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, Mrs. Harry Schuch and Mrs. Bert Aten.

Mrs. Verdi Skinner and Mrs. Opal Brady will entertain the club in October.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

THE BARRYMORES by Hollis Alpert. The full, fascinating story of Ethel, Lionel, and John; the royal family of the American theater.

THE FRENCH BRIDE by Evelyn Anthony. A novel of a marriage of convenience at the dissolute court of Louis XV. A spunky, virtuous heroine, and unpredictable hero, the lavish, lascivious French court, and a fast-paced romantic plot make this entertaining historical novel a worthy successor to the author's previous books.

THE JAMES BOND DOSSIER by Kingsley Amis. In this dossier, Amis probes the secret of the secret agent's dazzling success — Persuing all thirteen thrillers, he sets out to prove that Bond is a hero cut to the measure of the twentieth century.

THE LEPER, AND OTHER STORIES by Milovan Djilas. The 10 stories collected here are varied in mood and theme, yet each conveys the strength and eloquence of the author's love for his native land and his compassionate understanding of the human lot.

THE DEFENSE by Vladimir Nabokov. The tragic story of a man destroyed by his own genius and of the hopeless efforts of the wife who loves him to save him from himself.

HIS MAJESTY'S HIGHLANDERS by Leslie T. White. Young Bruce, fighting an officer for a girl who was to jilt him, never dreamed his willful act would transform him, a Britisher, into a kilted Highlander destined to campaign against the French and Indians in the faraway American wilderness.

ANGELIQUE IN LOVE; another chronicle of the emerald-eyed beauty who was queen of the Paris underworld, a favorite of Louis XLV; by Sergeanne Golon.

Ronald Stermer To Give Exhibit on Glass Blowing

Georgianna Gogolin, Weds Richard Covell

Georgianna Gogolin of Clayton and Richard D. Covell of 502 S. Adrian St. were married Saturday evening in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Blair Bashore in the First Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gogolin are the parents of the bride and the groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clement Covell.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She was wearing a floor length gown of peau taffeta with a basque waistline, square sculptured neckline trimmed with tiny pearls and sequins and long tapered sleeves.

★

A WATTEAU train flowed gracefully from two tiny lace bows at the back of the gown. A crown of pearls and sequins held her veil of illusion in place. She carried a bouquet of roses and carnations edged with ivy.

JoAnne Smith of Adrian was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Elsie Collyer of Sand Creek and Delilah Dennis of Fairfield. Tammy Faust of Blissfield was the flower girl.

The bride's attendants were attired in floor length gowns of cranberry and pink satin with hats matching the cranberry in their dresses. Miss Faust wore a dress of white taffeta and matching white bow headpiece.

Mrs. Katharine Hunt played nuptial music and accompanied Gale Kimerer, the soloist.

The couple will live at 502 Toledo St., Adrian following a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of Sand Creek High School and the Ann Arbor Practical Nurse Education Center. She is employed at Emma L. Bixby Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Covell were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Don's Beef Buffet.

MRS. RICHARD D. COVELL

MR. AND MRS. JAMES C. WOLF

Shirley Hunt, James Wolf Are Wed

Tall vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums were used on the altar of the First Baptist Church for the double ring ceremony Saturday evening when Shirley Evelyn Hunt became the bride of James C. Wolf.

Cathedral candelabra faced with palm foliage and clusters of gladioli flanked the white prie dieu. White satin bows marked the family pews along the carpeted aisle.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hunt of 9849 Murphy Hwy. and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wolf of Midland.

THE BRIDE, on the arm of her father, approached the altar in a gown she designed and made herself. It was brocaded satin peau fashioned with bell skirt and jacketed bodice with white fur trim on the flare sleeves and at the neckline.

Hand sewn pearls trimmed the skirt and her cathedral train was attached beneath the cummerbund. Her chapel length veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a white fur pillbox hat.

She carried a cascade of stephanotis and white roses and clusters of white pearl grapes. She wore an heirloom locket at her throat and diamond earrings, gift from the groom.

THEY WERE attired in tangerine brocaded satin peau gowns fashioned like that of the maid of honor's. All the bride's attendants wore dainty veils of silk illusion caught to velvet roses matching their dresses.

The maids carried green Fuji chrysanthemums in the same style as that of the honor attendant.

Karen Hunt, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl dressed as the maid of honor. She was escorted down the aisle by Tommy Hunt, another cousin of the bride, who also carried the rings on a white satin heart shaped pillow.

Gowns for the bridal party were all handmade.

Anthony Pepe of Sylvania served as the best man and the guests were seated by Howard Hunt, brother of the bride, and Larry Ball of Cadmus.

★

A RECEPTION immediately following the ceremony was held at the Tecumseh Grange Hall where the tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, was served from a table draped with white taffeta and nylon accented with shower ribbons and clusters of grapes.

A buffet luncheon was served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Adrian Commandery.

Carol Bower of Clinton registered the guests and Mrs. David Holly cut the cake decorated in the bridal colors with the names of the couple in dainty bittersweet lettering.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bower of Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg.

★

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. Mr. Wolf is a graduate of Midland High School and Delta College and is presently employed as a laboratory technician at Stauffer Chemical Co.

The newlyweds are living at 1865 Wampflers Heights Dr., Brooklyn.

The groom's parents were hosts for the smorgasbord rehearsal dinner at Roummels in Clinton Friday evening.

Alvena Pollitz, Richard Vaughn Marry

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday evening by Alvena Louise Pollitz and Richard Eugene Vaughn in the Emmanual Lutheran Church, Britton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alwin Pollitz of 8880 Smith Rd. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vaughn of Raisin Center Hwy.

Mrs. Wesley Gilmore played the organ prelude and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Lee Spohr.

★

A cluster of white taffeta roses held the white tulle, shoulder-length veil. Cascades of pearls and leaves outlined the detachable corsage of white roses carnations in the bride's bouquet.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Thomas Rufner of Huntington, Ind., the matron of honor; bridesmaids, Carolyn Vaughn, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Larry Baker, junior bridesmaid and Cherelyn Spohr of Britton.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids were dressed alike in long Wedgewood blue crepe gowns with empire styling. The bodices had [illegible] and cap sleeves.

The attendants' bouquets were copper-hued reed circlets with crescent arrangements of feathered bronze chrysanthemums and toast Fuji chrysanthemums centered with tiny clusters of blue grapes.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Leigh of Somerset, Ky., grandparents of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Kujawa were hosts at the reception.

The wedding cake was circled with garlands of fresh greens and white doves. Assisting were Priscilla Cheever, Mrs. Loren Avery, Christine Reeves and Ann Marks.

Following a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will reside at seaside, Calif., where he is stationed with the U.S. Army Ford Ord, as a draftsman.

The bride is a fall graduate of Cleary College. The bridegroom's parents were hosts, Friday evening, for the rehearsal dinner at Pearl's Cafe.

MRS. RICHARD EUGENE VAUGHN

Janice Roe, Frederick Knight Marry Friday Night

The altar vases held white gladioli and Fuji pompons. Pyramid arrangements of white gladioli, cathedral candles and potted palms flanked the altar.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Knight, Jr. of 10291 Willow Run Rd., Clinton.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Miller, pastor of the church. Mrs. Wesley Proctor played a prelude of nuptial music on the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bridal gown had a bodice of re-embroidered Chantilly lace, styled with long sleeves and a Sabrina neckline.

A PETAL CAP accented with sequins and pearls held the bride's veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of feathered chrysanthemums centered with a corsage of Snow Song roses.

Judy McMichael of Tipton was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Roe of Onsted, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Richard Roe of Clinton, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Payeur of Ann Arbor, sister of the bridegroom.

Their headdresses were formed of blue leaves centered with cameos. Their nosegay bouquets of white Shasta pompons and yellow Fuji chrysanthemums were centered with clusters of blue grapes.

Charles C. Knight II, was his brother's best man. Richard Roe of Clinton and Ronald Roe of Onsted, brothers of the bride, and Donald Payeur of Ann Arbor, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were the ushers.

A RECEPTION for 250 guests was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. The bride's table was skirted in blue taffeta with a net overskirt and clusters of blue grapes were pinned to the corners.

Mrs. Earldeen Roe of Tecumseh, an aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Patricia Blom and Jane Beck assisted.

Upon their return from a four-day wedding trip in the Southern states, Mr. and Mrs. Knight will make their home west of Clinton on US-12.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School and is employed in the office at the Budd Co. in Clinton.

Mr. Knight is a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School and farms with his father northeast of Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knight I, entertained at the rehearsal dinner in their home Friday night.

MRS. FREDERICK KNIGHT

The engagement and approaching marriage of Susan Poley to John Miller is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Law-Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. rence Poley, 408 S. Pearl St. and Mrs. Robert Miller, 4484 Allen Rd. An Oct. 9 wedding is being planned.

Janice Brown Says Vows with Thomas Odell Saturday

CLINTON—Mrs. Janice Brown of Clayton and Thomas V. Odell of Clinton were married Saturday afternoon in the Community Church in Manitou Beach.

The Rev. Jack Nicholson performed the ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Odell of Sheridan Rd., Clinton.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Kay Sines of Jackson and Walter Anspach of Britton.

★

The guests were seated by Philip Rice, of Pontiac, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Stephen Odell, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception for 50 guests was held immediately after the ceremony in the church parlors. Rosanne Clark had charge of the guest book.

The couple will live at 220 Grove St., Manitou Beach.

Mr. Odell is a graduate of Clinton High School. He served three years with the U. S. Army in Germany and is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

THE V-SHAPED FORMATIONS

This is the time of year which finds us searching the skies for the first sign of a far away V-shaped formation or listening for that unmistakable garbled honking.

This is the time of year when the geese start their annual pilgrimage to the south and many of us start waiting.

The sense of expectation may be conscious or subconscious but always from my point of view at least, it is tinged with bittersweet. The sound and sight of wild geese overhead is wild and exciting, bespeaking of an inviting remote wilderness. On the other hand, there is the sadness of summer being over and a long confining winter drawing near.

Once, it was our good fortune to spend several days in the midst of this fall migration. The honkers were everywhere — we saw their V's high in the sky and also enjoyed flocks swimming close to the shore of ponds just a few feet from the car.

Our primary purpose had been to photograph the fall extravaganza [illegible] on a side trip through the Seney Wildlife Refuge produced memories to rival or perhaps even overshadow the brilliant hues of red and yellow we saw.

In this 96,000 acres of protected land, they cater to these birds. Marshy areas and shallow ponds are ideal habitat and when the fall travelers swoop down to join their relatives who have summered over at Seney, the sight is wondrous indeed.

Roads wind through parts of the sanctuary, skirting along the edge of many ponds and we were thrilled at how very close the geese came to the car.

These are handsome birds! Both male and female look alike which simplifies description a great deal.

Size — well, there we run into a bit of trouble, specific measurements vary so much I will not quote them but just say that these birds are big, big, big. Their wingspread measures five to six feet — wow!

★

AND SPEAKING of these big strong wings brings us to the easily recognized flight pattern. As so often happens, there is an extremely practical reason for the honkers's V-shaped formations.

Of course the leader has no one to follow, but he is supposedly a wise and an experienced old gander and besides, they take turns sometimes.

Their is no hard and fast rule that says the flock must fly in a sharp V formation either. Occasionally the birds change positions when their flight pattern straightens out to almost a single line, we assume this is the easiest flying.

★

WHEN WE see or hear geese high overhead, the romantic thought dwells on their summering in the far north, enduring a long hazardous migration and spending the winter basking in warm sunshine.

Some fit into this scene but others travel much shorter distances and, in fact, there are flocks who are year-around residents in this area.

But look, we have rambled on until there is no time to mention the well-known Jack Miner's sanctuary nor the booming Canadian town named for the wild goose.

Wawa, located on the northeast corner of Lake Superior, is familiar to many Tecumsehites because of the interesting "around the lake route."

So it is that we are now well into the season of watching for the V-shaped formations.

Next Week: Nothing

'Poison Plants' Is Garden Club Meeting Topic

"Poison Plants," was the informative topic developed by Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ries for the first fall meeting of the Tecumseh Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. Paul Maves.

Mrs. Donald Heeson and Mrs. Clifford Knudson were assistant hostesses in place of Mrs. Hugh Walters and Mrs. Leon Rosacrans who were unable to attend.

Mrs. Bess Livingstone, the president, greeted the 12 members and the representative of the Little Garden Club, Mrs. Earl Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ries told the group that the fruit and berries of the nightshade plant are deadly and so are castor bean seeds. The leaf of the rhubarb is the most dangerous of all plants yet the stalk is edible and commonly used.

These and many more common plants and vines were discussed from the poisonous standpoint, with the thought in mind that everyone should study this subject.

Mrs. Maves and her committee served tea and the afternoon concluded with a visit to the garden of the hostess.

Officers Elected at Franklin Hobby Meeting Sept. 16

TIPTON—Mrs. Kenneth Ernst and Mrs. Sylvan Echelbarger were elected president and secretary-treasurer respectively of the Franklin Hobby Club at their meeting Sept. 16 at Mrs. Llewellyn Pilbeam's home.

Thirteen members were present and two joined the club at the meeting featured with a potluck dinner.

Christmas wreaths and decorations are to be made at the next meeting Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Mrs. George Merritt's home on Tipton Hwy.

Decision on tray decorations for the nursing home and shutins will also be made at the October meeting.

Extension Club Meetings Start

TIPTON — The Chit and Chat Tiptonaires Extension Club held their first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Warren Allen Sept. 16.

The program for this year was discussed during the business meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hal Tuckerman and Mrs. Richard Rudd.

The next meeting will be Oct. 7 and will feature a Halloween party with all members attending in costume or paying a fine.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Richard Platt will be co-hostesses for the next meeting.

TIPTON CHURCH NOTES

The 106th annual meeting of the Tipton Community Church was held Sunday following a potluck dinner with Chester Baker, chairman of the board, presiding.

A detailed account of the tornado damages and repairs that were made to the church and parsonage were presented to the congregation. Plans concerning further redecorating were discussed.

A discussion was held and it was decided to combine various memorial funds and the memorial committee was advised of the amount.

It was announced that a check had been given to the church for new altar draperies as a memorial to Paul Geiger.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Linger were elected Deacons and Deaconesses.

Mrs. Raymond Platt will be Sunday School superintendent. Other committees and chairmen will remain in office for the new year.

Dr. John Metler spoke on the accomplishments of the past year and plans for the future at the conclusion of the meeting.

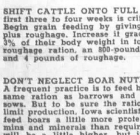
The hostess served sandwiches, pie a la mode and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hintz will be hosts for the Oct. 11 meeting.

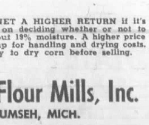
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.



SHOULD YOU OWN OR HIRE A COMBINE? There are several points you need to consider. First, annual use must justify ownership. Annual fixed and operating costs will amount to about 15% of the new price. Divide the answer by acres to be harvested for an acreage cost to compare with the custom operator. Second, availability of a custom service must be taken into accouht. Certainly any losses incurred by delays need to be stacked against savings afforded by custom harvest.

SHIFT CATTLE ONTO FULL FEED CAREFULLY. Feeding during the first three to four weeks is critical to prevent cattle from going off feed. Begin grain feeding by giving 1 to 2 pounds of grain per head daily plus roughage. Increase it gradually until cattle are consuming 2½% to 3% of their body weight in total air dry feed. Thus if you feed a 20% roughage ration, an 800-pound steer will eat about 18 pounds of grain and 4 pounds of roughage.

DON'T NEGLECT BOAR NUTRITION. A frequent practice is to feed boars the same ration as barrows and gilts or sows. But to be sure the ration won't limit production, Iowa scientists say to feed boars a little more protein, vitamins and minerals than required. Cost will be a little higher, but it allows superior animals to express their full genetic potential. Feed boars at least 18% protein from 60 to 125 pounds and 16% over 125 pounds instead of 16% and 14%.



DRYING CORN MAY NOT ALWAYS NET A HIGHER RETURN if it's sold at harvest. The break-even point on deciding whether or not to dry before selling corn at harvest is about 18% moisture. A higher price for corn under 18% won't likely make up for handling and drying costs. Above 18% moisture it will usually pay to dry corn before selling.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Wonder if those 1,500 4-H-ers in Lenawee County will be offended if the rest of us adopt their aim too? What could be a better goal than "To Make the Best Better?"

Young 4-H Club members will observe National 4-H Club Week Saturday through Oct. 2 throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. The Tecumseh Top Notchers are giving special emphasis to the event with a window display in the downtown area. The North Franklin Hustlers have one in Hodges.

Among aims of this year's 4-H Week observances are to encourage more young people, nine to 17 years old, to join or form 4-H clubs.

To strive to acquaint more parents with 4-H and enlist their cooperation.

To urge a larger number of capable, public-spirited men and women to volunteer as 4-H leaders, and to recognize the importance of friends of 4-H locally and nationally, and express appreciation to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Philipps have purchased a home at 108 Cairns St. and will move there Monday from 216 N. Van Buren.

Youth Ticketed after Accident in Adrian Sunday

Larry R. Rathbun, 16, of Tecumseh was given a summons for improper passing by sheriff's deputies Sunday when the car he was driving collided with a car driven by Everett Cool, 62, of Toledo, at the intersection of M-52 and Pinecrest Dr., in Adrian.

Mr. Cool received cuts and bruises on his face and was treated at Bixby Hospital.

Also treated and released were Rathbun and three passengers in his car, Mike Shultz, Larry Harwick and John Roe, all 17, of Tecumseh.

Barbara Gates Honored by Fellow Office Workers

Vandalism Continues in Town

Wanda Iffland of 315 S. Maiden Lane, reported her clothes line cut and George Harold of 906 Shady Lane, had a shirt slashed.

Council Orders Sewer Materials

Materials for a sanitary sewer on Iroquois and S. Evans St. were ordered by Council Monday night.

The Iroquois St. sewer will connect with the recently completed Evans Creek Interceptor Sewer.

City Manager Cal Zorn stated about a week ago that the city hoped to have connecting sewer in before Oct. 1.

The sewer pipe will be purchased from Hayden Fuel and Supply, the low bidder.

Dora Robinson Is Girl Scout Advisor

Mrs. Dora Robinson was introduced as the new professional advisor at the neighborhood meeting of Girl Scout leaders.

There were three new members present at the meeting: Mrs. Charles Staples Jr., Mrs. William MacBeth and Mrs. John R. Grahams.

A thank you note was reported from Earlase Love, the recipient of the braille edition of the American Girl magazine for last year. The subscription will be renewed in March.

A spring bake sale realized a net profit of $66 and was divided among the three Senior Scouts who attended Round-Ups.

Archery and touch football will constitute the recreational activities for the next six weeks. Sandy Keith will manage archery and Jane Beasley, touch football.

Meetings are scheduled for Monday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:30. Dues per semester are $1.

Latin Club will meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. in room 45 to discuss this year's club agenda. Interested prospective members are urged to attend.

It is rather difficult to understand why in our age of science and discovery so few students are interested in the Science Club.

It offers students the chance to meet men from various areas in the field of science and the chance to observe research and discovery in action.

The first meeting of the year will be Thursday at 7:30 p.m. This year's officers are:
President — Larry Kaiser
Vice-president — Rick Skinner
Secretary — Pam Chumney
Treasurer — Fred Choske
Historian — Rick Gartee
Librarian — Carolyn House
Photographer — Paul Stoner

Peter Kalem will take Gerald Nelson's place as advisor this year.

Dear Freshmen, your high school career is very important to your future, and like any career it requires your full effort and concern.

Welcome and good luck and may these years at good ol' THS be four of the best in your lives.

President — Dennis Lewis
Vice-president — Pam Eggleston
Secretary — Lisa Pence
Treasurer — Chris Vollmar
Student Council — Margaret Barret, Teresa McClain and Dulce Robinson

Inexperience, Lack of Speed Hurt Indians

BY JIM LINCOLN

Inexperience and lack of speed led to a convincing 26-0 pasting of the Tecumseh Indians Friday night at Willow Run.

If the season's opener is indicative of what is to come, Indian fans had better start humming that old ditty, "Button Up Your Overcoat." It could be a long, cold season.

It'll take a miracle for Coach Tom Fagan to develop a club to compete for the Huron League championship again.

Defensive end play early in the game for Tecumseh was poor, but improved. Lee Hannibal, playing his first varsity game, looked good on defense after the first quarter.

Although Willow Run romped to four TDs, the center of Tecumseh's line proved tough. Two early scores were tallied on plays around Tecumseh's ends, a third quarter TD came after a THS fumble on its 35, and another touchdown in the same quarter was a 60-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

Tecumseh's lone drive came in the first period when they recovered a WR fumble on their own 17 yardline.

Three plays later, including three completed [illegible] passes by Ron Rentschler, Tecumseh was on WR's 25 with a third down and one situation. This burst ended when WR recovered a fumble on its own 23.

★

STATISTICALLY, the two teams were even in first downs with eight each. But, that's where any equal comparison ended.

WR gained 297 yards rushing to Tecumseh's 58. The Indians picked up 69 yards by passing to WR's 24, however they had two aerials intercepted.

The Flyers lost just one fumble, the Indians three, and they bobbled the ball several other times.

Willow Run	7	6	13	0	—26

Scoring: Holly (79, run); Lynn (four, run); Glover (one, run); Hicks 60, pass interception). PAT—Glover (run); Love (pass).

Flagman Hit

MANCHESTER — The first serious accident in the history of Manchester Speedway occured Saturday night when flagman Donald Hunt was struck by a car driven by Mary Stevens in the last lap of the girl's Powder Puff race.

Mr. Hunt, 35, was standing outside the retainer wall around the infield just beyond the number four turn when he was hit by Miss Stevens' car.

He suffered a fractured jaw, three broken ribs and a skull fracture. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital Saturday night and transferred to University Hospital, Ann Arbor Sunday.

Judy Hunt, who is the sister of Mr. Hunt, was battling Miss Stevens for the lead as they entered the last turn of the race.

Miss Hunt went high on the turn and swerved back just as Miss Stevens was passing her on the inside.

Miss Stevens turned toward the infield to avoid a collision with Miss Hunt's car and struck Mr. Hunt as he was giving his sister the checkered flag.

Owner Veryl Schill called the accident the worst one in the four years he has operated the speedway.

"Donald was so engrossed in watching his sister win the race that he never saw Mary's car and she never saw him," Mr. Schill said.

Mr. Hunt was reported resting comfortably at the hospital with not much change in his condition.

Harold Schill Wins Big Race

Dick Crup finished second and John Mooneyham was third in the top qualifier and received the checkered flag in the pursuit.

Crup had the second fastest qualifying time and Don Earles turned in the third best time.

In the pursuit, Earles was second to Stemen and Schill finished third.

The semi-winner was Willie Frey. Jerry Evilsizer was second and Frank Kuhn took the third spot.

In the first heat race of the evening, Earles was victorious as he set a new track record for a 10-lap heat. Second place went to Schill and third place was won by Crup.

The other race results are:

2nd heat — Larry Gray
3rd heat — Jim Martin
4th heat — Grady
Semi late model — Ed Todd
Novice Class — Mervin Pilbeam
Powder Puff —Judy Hunt

Top Notchers' Club Plans To Observe National 4-H Week

The Tecumseh Top Notchers 4-H club will pay tribute to National 4-H Club Week Saturday through Oct. 2.

The members will meet Tuesday evening at the Community Center for the enrollment of projects for the year.

New members are invited to join and enroll at this meeting.

The program will be a visual review of the past club year's activities and reports by the award winners of the year.

The Dale Carnegie Course Sponsored by Local Jaycees

The world-famous Dale Carnegie course is coming to Tecumseh in October under the sponsorship of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"We believe that the Tecumseh Jaycees' sponsorship of this adult education program is a genuine community service," Jim Rundell, president of the club, says.

"Businessmen, professional men, sales people, housewives, club women, office personnel — every adult will benefit from this training. It will build a new enthusiasm, develop confidence and create a new understanding among the citizens of our town."

Mr. Rundell has named the following committee to work with Don Deffendall, Dale Carnegie Course representative:

Contact any Jaycee committeeman for information. The course is open to everyone.

Tories Fall to Clinton, 36-0

A 70-yard sprint by Terry Brooks opened the scoring in the initial period. He also scored later on a 40-yard dash.

Talented Clinton quarterback Dennis Drazic had his throwing arm in top shape, hurling two TD tosses to Bill Jedele, one that went 30 yards and the other covering 85.

On defense, Clinton linebaker Dave Grinnell and tackle Tom Carapus were standouts.

PASSER'S PROBLEMS — Jack Brown, Torie quarterback, had a rough night against the Clinton Redskins as he avoids a heavy rush to get off a left-handed pass. Brown slightly injured his leg another time and had to be assisted by his coach.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Senior speed merchant Moe Jacobs proved to be the man of the hour as he sparked the Boysville Fighting Knights to a 13-0 victory over St. Charles of Coldwater last Friday night n Coldwater.

The veteran halfback, while failing to score in the first half, picked up 100 yards rushing in those two periods, and in the second half tallied on runs of two and 17 yards.

A previous touchdown jaunt of 40 yards was called back because of a clipping penalty.

Deserving of credit in Boysville's opening non-league triumph was a strong defensive team, accomplishing a great achievement in containing the Cougar assault.

Looking impressive on offense were brothers Allan and Dave Rockwell, both rookies. Dave found a position as starting center, while his brother made his varsity debut by catching three passes.

Don Chalmers and Joe Pawlus, both returning backfield men from last season, looked good along with Jacobs. The Knights' running attack is well-balanced and powerful.

Preceding Friday night's non-league triumph over Coldwater St. Charles was a senior-sponsored pep rally held in the Boysville gym. Featured in this hootenanny-type event was a campus instrumental-vocal quintet, "The Syndicates," comprised of Bill Herald, Armando Lopez, Max Phelps, Armand Boisvenue, and Arden Valentine.

The head coach, Pat Connors, and the school principal, Brother Jeffrey Michaels, CSC, gave their views on the upcoming season. Team captain Moe Jacobs also expressed the feelings of the team.

New equipment soon to appear on the Boysville scene: 12 new Royal standard typewriters. Added to three of the newer models already on hand, these will increase the total capacity to 15 students per typing class.

The office of Boysville's bi-weekly mimeographed newspaper, the "campus Info," has been moved to more spacious quarters near the Administration Building. Editor Martin Whittaker announces plans for the first issue of the paper shortly.

Blanchard Street To Be Repaired Before Winter

Residents in Blanchard St. were assured by Council Monday night that their street would be repaired before winter.

City Manager Cal Zorn said only inclement weather of a long duration would prevent the city from correcting poor conditions there.

Gene Thornton, resident, was spokesman for the small group of residents attending the meeting.

Arthur George Is Elected President

The Tecumseh Scout Cabin Association elected Arthur George as president on the executive board of directors at their meeting Sept. 13.

Others elected were:

Vice-president — Wendell Disbrow

Secretary — Mrs. Edwin Bunge

Treasurer — Mrs. Donald C. Creger

Mr. Disbrow appointed Mrs. Harvey Carpenter to head the Scout Cabin Building Fund Drive. Contributions may be made in person or by mail.

Work on the new addition, which when completed will provide much more meeting and storage space, will begin soon.

The next Cabin Association meeting will be Nov. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Grossman entertained at a christening dinner.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jacob, Rebecca's grandparents; Karl Jacob, Floyd Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jacob and Rita of Grass Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. George Grossman, Sr., of Manchester.

The occasion also marked the birthday anniversary of Mr. Grossman. Mr. and Mrs. George Grossman, Jr., of Manchester, were Sunday evening guests to celebrate the event.

Exchange Club Briefed on Boys' State Activities

Glen Barton and Robert Titley gave a resume of activities and procedure at the Wolverine Boys State which they attended this summer, sponsored by the Exchange Club, at the meeting Monday evening.

The Tecumseh Exchange Club is sponsoring a new club in Ypsilanti with charter night Sept. 25. Members are asked by the officers to make reservations immediately with John Saling. Ladies are invited too.

J. D. Cook gave a report of a successful Dawn Patrol. He said:

"We wish to express our appreciation to those people who contributed to another successful Dawn Patrol, especially to the A&P and Kroger Stores, the Protane Gas Co., Dependable Garbage Service and Meadowridge Dairy."

Of the net proceeds of $500 from the project $300 was pledged to the high school bleacher fund, making a total of $700 given by the Exchange for this purpose.

Mr. Cook will have charge of establishing a bleacher fund at the United Savings Bank where the general public may make contributions.

The next meeting will be Monday at the Eagles Hall at 6:30 p.m.

Music Club's Season Is Underway

The Tecumseh Music Club opened its new year at the home of Mrs. Norman Bailey Sept. 14.

Eleven members and two guests met to discuss plans for the year's activities. Mrs. Truman Rentschler was welcomed as a new member.

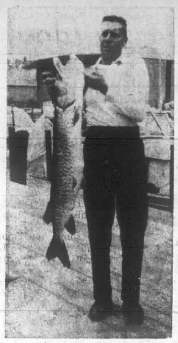
Mrs. Fred Oberlin, president, presented the club's program calendar. A lecture on the 12-tone scale, an evening with two pianos, time for original compositions, a public organ recital, lenten music and a salute to St. Valentine are part of the schedule for the year.

Mrs. Owen Merrill led the group in singing the songs of Stephen Foster. Roll call was answered by each member recounting a musical highlight of the summer.

It was announced that plans are under way to form a new music club which will draw its membership from interested children in grades four, five and six or below.

Tecumseh at the present time boasts the Junior Music Makers, a club for young people, in addition to the adult group.

The group will meet again Oct. 5 at the home of Mrs. Ray Sommers, 1011 River Acres Drive when Miles Cowdrey will be the speaker.



Ray Schlegel proudly exhibits the 28-pound muskellunge which he caught recently in Lake St. Clair while on vacation. The big fish is 50 inches long and has a 19-inch girth. Ray had fished there many times before but this is the first real big one he brought from these waters. He is going to have it mounted.

Completes Plans for Rummage Sale

Plans were completed for a rummage and bake sale to be held Oct. 1 and 2 at the meeting of the Abi-Evans Chapter [illegible] Sept. 10.

The regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson, was hostess and Mrs. Purnell Osburn will be chairman for the sale to be held in the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Mrs. Arthur Brown presented a program on the Constitution of the United States in conjunction with Citizenship Day Sept. 17 which began Constitution Week.

President Lyndon B. Johnson proclaimed the week of Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week as did Mayor Harold Easton of this city.

Mrs. Pearson said that the proclamation would be read over the public address systems of both the Junior and Senior High Schools.

This is the 178th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution and Mrs. Brown gave highlights of the personalities of some of the 55 signers of the original document.

Two Injured, One Ticketed Saturday In Auto Accident

Mrs. Thomas P. Brennan, 65, of Springfield, Ill., suffered a broken jaw, broken collerbone and facial lacerations in a two-car accident at the intersection of M-50 and M-52 Saturday.

Mrs. Brennan was a passenger in a car driven by her husband when it collided with an auto driven by Janice A. Luck, 24, of Tipton Hwy., Tipton, at 12:25 p.m.

Mr. Brennan had stopped for a stop sign at the intersection and then struck Miss Luck's car as he was proceeding across the highway. He was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Mrs. Brennan was treated at Bixby Hospital, Adrian and Miss Luck was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital for bruises and lacerations to her head.

Bulldog Eleven Hopeful

"Wait and See," is the attitude in the Adrian College grid camp as Coach Charles (Chappy) Marvin readies his 65-man team for this season.

"We have some fine running backs this fall, but we also have our weak spots," Marvin said.

The Bulldogs will be seeking their first overall winning season since 1949 when they posted a 4-3-1 record, and with only five returning backs from last year, there are openings for ample rookies.

Roger Davidson, 6'2", 180 lbs., Adrian's MVP and an all-MIAA selection last fall, will be back at quarterback. Davidson ranked sixth in the league in passing and seventh in total offense with 344 yards.

Skip Miller, 5'8½", 170 lbs., and Ron Kirby, 5'10", 185 lbs., freshment last season, are being counted on to fill the halfback slots.

On the line, the strongest position seems to be at end where there are two returning lettermen, Art Enderle, 6'5", 220 lbs., and Tom Yoder.

Jim Leventry, 6'2", 217 lbs., is the only other man sure of his position on the line. Leventry earned a letter last year at tackle and will again hold down that post. The other tackle slot, both guard positions and the center slots are open.

Saturday the Bulldogs opened their season with a 19-7 loss to Manchester in North Manchester, Ind.

Rosemary E. Heistand was graduated Sept. 9 from Shapero School of Practical Nursing in Detroit. Miss Heistand is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bunge of 411 Center Drive. After Sept. 20, Miss Heistand will be employed at Sinai Hospital in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Bunge and Eunice, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gornsey of Sand Creek, Alison Derby, Mrs. Pearl Brighton and Jeanie Warmer attended the commencement exercises in Detroit. Ellen Marlowe of Clawson, a roommate of Rosemary, was a house guest of the Bunges over the

Value of Buildings	4,885,050
Value of Equipment	411,100
Number of Buildings	10
Number of Classrooms	113
Number of Teachers	110

Teachers' Salaries—

Minimum	$4,700
Maximum	7,700
Median	6,120
Number of Elementary Pupils	1,814
Number of Elementary Pupils, Non-Resident	0
Number of Secondary Pupils	1,419
Number of Secondary Pupils, Non-Resident	1
Ratio of Pupils to Teachers	29.4

Tecumseh Public Schools during the 1964-65 school year finally were able to reinstate all services that were cut in 1960-61 except those of an elementary art supervisor and elementary supervisor as well as to improve services in other areas. Progress in curriculum improvement in the elementary and secondary schools as in acquiring additional classroom space has been excellent this year. The Board of Education and the staff have worked constantly long hours to achieve advances in services to the community.

A staff of 188 serves these 3,233 children. It is made up of a superintendent of schools, assistant superintendent for business affairs, high school principal, assistant high school principal, two full time and three teaching principals, 58 elementary and 53 secondary teachers, 2 public librarians, three bookkeepers, one attendance officer, four secretaries, maintenance engineer, two maintenance men, 12 custodians, bus supervisor, bus mechanic, 27 bus drivers, grounds-keeper, hot lunch manager and 3 assistants, and 12 lunch supervisors. Included in the teaching staff are two full time vocal music teachers, two full time instrumental teachers, six physical education teachers, two school librarians, one art teacher, three secondary guidance directors, a teacher of the physically handicapped, and two teachers of the mentally retarded.

The Board returned physical education to the grades by hiring two teachers. The Sutton School was used again by the Board of Education for three regular class rooms instead of for special education rooms which were moved to the Lenawee Institute. These rooms helped to relieve the overcrowding in some of the elementary grades due to increased enrollments over the last two years. Also by careful planning and redistribution of children, it was again possible to place not more than one grade in each classroom in the elementary schools.

Curriculum changes were inaugurated in the elementary schools which have been well received by the parents, children and staff members. Modern Math text books and curriculums were introduced from the kindergarten through the sixth grade and a new reading series adopted in grades one through three. Also, the fifth and sixth grades at Tecumseh Acres and Patterson schools were departmentalized and other curriculum improvements were made in the fifth and sixth grades in the smaller elementary schools.

The Junior High School program ran on a full time, six-class basis providing an adequate program for the Junior High. I congratulate the staff of the junior high on the fine program which they again provided under very adverse conditions since space is limited, especially in shop and homemaking. Also the band must travel to the high school for class. A donor has granted $100,000.00 to provide needed additions to the Junior High for the 1965-66 school year and construction has begun. This addition will provide for increased service to the pupils and eliminate overcrowding.

The Senior High was operated as in the past except for improved and augmented curriculums which enabled the pupils to be served more adequately. A generous donor provided four hundred thousand dollars with which to build and equip additions and the construction of same has been completed. The anticipated enrollment in the high school is between 950 and 1,000 for 1965-66 and the building capacity with the additions should be around 1,200. New vocational and science courses were developed and offered to the pupils and the standard courses were improved due to the new classrooms and new equipment.

The Public Library was operated by the Board of Education with the assistance of their appointed Library Board consisting of interested citizens. Two full-time librarians with student assistants, provided outstanding service to the public. The school libraries, both elementary and secondary, have made increasingly valuable contributions to the educational opportunities available to our children. Their facilities, contents, and services have been praised by visitors from many schools.

Bus service to city as well as rural areas was provided as in recent years and pupils were required to assemble at designated bus stops wherever possible rather than for door-to-door pickup. Parochial school children were transported and part of this extra cost was provided by the state. The student activity bus was almost constantly in use for field trips and athletics and the total cost was borne by the Board as in 1960-61. Elementary as well as secondary pupils make use of this bus as field trips are invaluable teaching tools. The Board also, for the first time, provided free bus service to athletic contests.

Special services of a speech correctionist and a teacher for the physically-handicapped were available to the children of our schools through cooperation with the county as in the past. This program also includes two rooms for mentally-retarded children, a helping teacher of the mentally-handicapped, and a visiting teacher program. Hearing testing was done throughout the elementary schools and other services provided through a County Health Nurse assigned to us by the Lenawee County Health Department.

The Administrative Council served the District well during the year. It enabled us to schedule children in various buildings much more rapidly, set up efficient bus routes more quickly, arrange for inservice training of teachers, and provide for curriculum improvement and textbook clinics more effectively. Special teacher training classes were held by consultants from book companies in Modern Math.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vincze of 722 Union St. will be guests of honor at an open house Sunday in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary. The couple were married Sept. 28, 1940 at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. E. F. Hildebrand pastor of Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Vincze have one daughter, Mrs. Roger Korte of Tecumseh - Clinton Rd. and a grandson, Jeffrey Scott. The open house is being arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Korte, Mrs. Vincze parents. Mr. and Mrs. William Wight of Kaiser Rd. and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson of Ridgeway. Relatives, friends and neighbors are invited from 2 to 6 p.m. The couple are requesting that gifts be omitted.

Congressman Vivian Says

Last week I reported on the assistance which had been rendered to victims of the Palm Sunday tornadoes by the Federal Office of Emergency Planning.

Reference was made, in Governor Ellington's letter, to assistance which had been given by the United States Department of Agriculture.

In Lenawee County, 175 farmers applied for funds to assist them in clearing farmland and rebuilding fences. Aid in the amount of $83,300 was allocated by the USDA to provide assistance up to 80 per cent of the total cost of this work, on privately-owned land.

In Monroe County, five farmers applied for such aid, and a total of $3,164 was allocated to them.

In addition, 14 farmers in Lenawee County applied for and received free livestock feed grains. The total amount of grain provided was 2,427 bushels.

In the two counties, there were 21 applications for emergency housing loans and two applications for emergency operation loans.

200 Veterans Are Entertained by Hall-Slaters

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. William Flanders and her daughter, Bonnie, and son, Gary. Piano selections were played by the mother and daughter.

Ben McWilliams sang and played his guitar. Prizes of canteen books were given to the Veterans and Sloppy Joes, chips and coffee were served.

The Post and Auxiliary members also visited Carroll Conklin, a member of the post who is hospitalized there.

Others attending from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eisenmenger and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites and son, Jim; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perry and son, Charles; Mr. and Mrs. James Felton, Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Kapnick, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Fouts, Mrs. Ted Sisson and Mr. Flanders.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:
September 10, 1965

Hi, there.

I received my notice that the "HERALD" would soon expire this month, so thought I better get my $5 in so my copies would not be discontinued.

I want to tell you how much we enjoy the paper, especially these days when one is away from Lenawee County and all their dear friends. I depend on The Herald for all the news bits, even on my dear friend, Julie Parrish, who is only in L. A., but seen only once in a blue moon.

Thanks again for sending the copies through so faithfully and will await anxiously my next issue of The Tecumseh Herald.

Hello to everyone.

Sincerely,
Janice

Kenneth Koons Awarded Trophy

CLINTON — Kenneth Koons was awarded the high point and C-flight trophies at the all-day golf event, Sept. 11, for General Motors Corvair Division salary employees, held at the Ann Arbor Country Club.

Mr. Koons chalked up his 362½ points in the league which played all summer at the Bar-Burm Country Club in Plymouth.

The award dinner was attended by 350 persons.

Mission Visitors Speak at Church

CLINTON — "Breakthrough" is the title of a program for action on the frontiers of the Christian World Mission, which will be described by a team of visitors Monday to the congregational leaders of the United Church of Christ in Clinton.

The visitors will meet at 7:30 p.m. with the church leaders to acquaint them with the total mission of the United Church of Christ.

Top Spring Sellers Get Free Hayride

CLINTON — Members of the Franklin Hustler's 4-H club planned the payoff treat for the spring subscription drive for The Herald at the Sept. 13 meeting.

The losing team captained by Bruce Grossman and James Woodward will host a hayride beginning at 7 p.m. from the Kenneth Munger home and will furnish the food for a cook-out at the Arnold Wilson home, where the hayride will end. Members may each bring one guest.

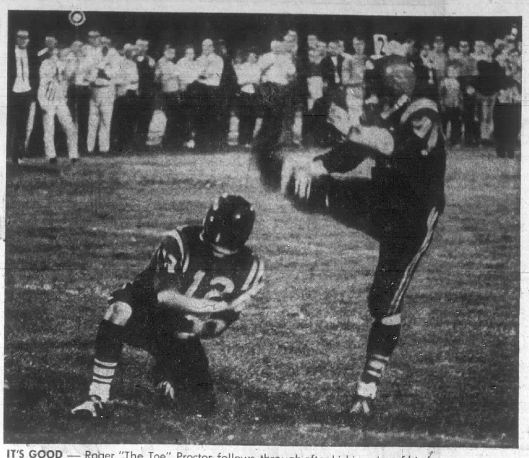
The club will have a window display in Hodges store in Tecumseh in observance of National 4-H Club Week, Saturday to Oct 2. Junior leaders, Patty Aebersold, Karen Davenport, assisted by James Woodward, Bruce Carlton and Barbara Vincent will be in charge.

The top member, determined by a point system, will be announced at an achievement day Oct. 23 in the home of Mrs. Thomas Adams. Parents and county agents will be guests.

Cheryl Aebersold and Carol Davenport will report on the National 4-H Club program they attended this summer in Washington, D. C. as delegates of Rome Grange.



IT'S GOOD — Roger "The Toe" Proctor follows through after kicking one of his four extra points in his team's 36-0 blanking of Britton. Holding the ball is quarterback Dennis Drazic, whose arm set the stage for two of Proctor's boots with TD passes.

STRONG RUSH — Clinton quarterback Doug Wight sets himself to throw over the heads of the onrushing Britton linemen in the second half of Friday night's game between the Redskins and Tories.

Redskins' Home Opener Is Friday Against Ypsilanti

Both squads scored victories, Clinton taking Britton, 36-0 and Ypsi stepping past Ann Arbor University High, 32-6.

Assistant Coach Jim Curth scouted Roosevelt and reports the crew runs from a wing-T, but also has a spread formation, used primarily for extra-point tries.

Clinton Jayvees Stopped by Saline

The visitors took a 26-6 win last week. Clinton's lone marker was scored by Mel Pardee on a 40-yard scamper.

Gordon Goves Are Candidates for Farm Meeting

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gove were named at the Sept. 13 meeting of the Oak Opening Farm Bureau, to be candidates for county delegates to the annual meeting of the Michigan Farm Bureau in Lansing in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heimerdinger, Sr. were hosts for the meeting at which five families were represented.

Frank Allen was re-elected chairman. Other officers elected are:

Vice-chairman — Amos Wilson
Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. Martin Halley
Discussion leaders — Martin Halley and James Meeks
Women's committee — Mrs. Paul Geiger
Minute Man — Gordon Gove

Financial Crusade Planned by Clinton Methodist Church

CLINTON — The Rev. Virgil Turner of Delaware, Ohio, a member of the National Division of Missions of the Methodist Church, will conduct a financial crusade for the new church school building of the Clinton Methodist Church from Nov. 3-16.

The Rev. Turner met Wednesday night with church leaders to make plans for the event in November.

Mrs. Paul Dunham Named Priscilla Class President

CLINTON — Mrs. Paul Dunham was elected president of the Priscilla class of the United Church of Christ at a recent meeting.

Other officers named are:

Vice-president — Mrs. Paul McKenna
Secretary — Mrs. Edgar Randall
Treasurer — Mrs. Cary Bashem
Sunshine chairman — Mrs. Walter Geiger

Mrs. Frank Ashton was hostess for the meeting attended by 11 members.

Mrs. Randall, material aid chairman for the UCC Women's Fellowship, described the mission aid needs for the year.

Mrs. Walter Geiger will be the Oct. 14 hostess.

School Grants Salary Raises to Custodians

CLINTON — Custodian salaries were discussed and pay raises were granted to bring them in line with local industrial salaries in similar positions at the meeting of the board of education of the Clinton Community Schools Sept. 13.

Also discussed was the suggestion that a citizen's committee for school plant planning be formed. A special meeting will be scheduled in October to develop this matter.

Daniel Schindler, school guidance counselor, outlined the need for a complete testing program for more effective pupil evaluation.

Industrial arts, drafting and art departments were discussed and with increased enrollments, new equipment is needed in these areas.

Church of Christ Ladies' Meetings Start Thursday

CLINTON — The Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ will open the fall season with a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, at the church.

Mrs. Paul McKenna, chairman of the Christian World Missions department will present the program.

Mrs. Clyde W. Greenfield's Spiritual Life committee will present the devotions. Each member is asked to bring a guest to the meeting.

Women Describe Summer Work with Migrants

CLINTON — Mrs. Robert Beadle and Mrs. Milford Traves described their work, this summer, with the Lenawee county migrants, for the Sept. 14 meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Beadle presented the devotional study on the topic, "What Does It Mean To Be A Christian?"

The 25th anniversary of the society will be observed Oct. 5 with a 1:30 p.m. program in the Clinton church. Invitations are being extended to several area churches.

Mrs. Wayne Powell and Mrs. Jerry Jaqua were named chairmen of circles one and two, respectively, which will meet afternoons. Other circle chairmen are to be named and announcements will be made of their meetings in the near future.

St. John Boasts Big, Fast Crew

By PHIL PIERSON

Things sometimes have to get worse before they get better and in the case of Tecumseh's football team this could be the case Friday night when they meet Jackson St. John's in their home opener.

While the Indians opened their season last Friday night with a 14-0 loss to Willow Run, the Gaels were 20-0 winners over Okemos.

THS, which is sporting a big, but slow team, will tangle with a St. John's team that is even bigger, and much faster.

The Gaels' forward wall will average 199 pounds and when the weights of the two ends, Ron Desnoyer, 6', 180 lbs., and Kevin Blodgett, 6'2", 175 lbs., are subtracted, the line averages 207 pounds from tackle to tackle.

"We've got more speed than any team I've ever coached," Crowley said.

The Indians' ground game will get a stiff test as they try to move against St. John's. The Gaels held Okemos to only 36 yards rushing Saturday and Crowley thinks they can do better.

"I was disappointed with our tackling in the first half of our game Saturday," Crowley said.

If Tecumseh is to move the ball, they may have to take to the air. Okemos managed to pick up 77 yards passing on four completions and Crowley said he planned to work on pass defense in practice this week.

"Tecumseh is going to be tough and we're going to have to be at our best in every way to beat them," Crowley said.

"Most of those yards came in the fourth quarter when we scored 14 of our 20 points," Crowley said.

"Against Tecumseh we will not be able to run as well because they are big, so we will have to throw more," Crowley said.

Crowley, who entered the season with a three-year coaching record at Jackson St. John's of 18-2-0, is very high on his 1965 squad.

"We feel this is one of our best teams and if we reach our potential, we could be right up there in the state rankings," he said.

Of the starting 11 players, six are seniors and five are juniors. All received letters on last year's squad that handed Tecumseh their only loss, 14-0.

"All three are very good and will probably play college ball," Crowley said.

St. John's starting 11 will play both offense and defense and they probably will be:

Player	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.
Ron Desnoyer	RE	6'	180
Jim Lozier	RT	5'11"	218
Bob Williams	RG	5' 9"	194

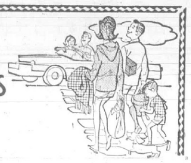
MACON MAXIMS



By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Sunday is Christian Education Sunday. All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend Church School and visit the Sunday School classes beginning at 9:45 a.m. followed by church service at 11 p.m.

Saturday the 1965 Men's Retreat will be held at Judson Collins Camp The cost is $3.75.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scudder spent from Friday until Tuesday in Canada. They helped Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roblin of Toronto, celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary. They also spent some time with J. B. Belshaw in Sterling. Toby and James Scudder looked after things at home, with the assistance of Bill Lutz.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore accompanied Mrs. Raymond Schairer of Dexter and Mrs. Nathan Judson of Ann Arbor to Lincoln Park Sept. 15 to attend the 25th anniversary dinner and program of the Lincoln Park Dix Methodist WSCS. The seven district officers present were given gold and royal blue corsages tied in silver ribbon. Mrs. Schairer was the speaker.

Mrs. Lillie Gilbert of Ann Arbor spent the weekend with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were Sunday guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family near Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins and sons Timothy and Jim were in Hudson Saturday evening for the wedding of his niece Connie Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins. It was held in the Hudson Methodist Church.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heilman were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Korth, and her mother, Mrs. Mabel Burleson.

Elton Osborne has returned home from the hospital.

Beginning Sunday the Commission on Missions will observe the fourth Sunday of each month as Mission Sunday. The project this year is to be a bed for the Piper Memorial Hospital, in Africa. A collection will be taken.

Each Sunday the name of a serviceman from the Macon area will be included in the church bulletin. It is hoped that more people will remember these fellows with letters and cards.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Valkenburg and family of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Valkenburg and son of Adrian.

Club Calendar Is Planned at Hobby Group Meeting

MACON — A picnic dinner of fried chicken was held inside Thursday by the Macon Hobby Club with Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow as hostesses.

Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg presided at the business meeting in which the calendar for the year was planned.

The club will make tray favors and miniature flower arrangements for the nursing homes and shutins at the October meeting with Mrs. Carl Hawkins.

Members will bring homemade candy or cookies and either bring with them, or make a pair of scuffies at the meeting.

The November meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Gorton and the group will make crosses and church symbols for the Christmas program to be presented in December.

The Christmas program will be in the afternoon this year with the members exchanging gifts.

General WSCS Meeting Tuesday

MACON — The general meeting of the Macon WSCS will be Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The local officers will present a program on "Where the Women Are." Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Edmund Mueller, Mrs. Bernard Tucker, Mrs. William Rhoades, Mrs. Lora Hasted and Mrs. Paul Vollmer.

Grange Booster Night Featuring Chicken Dinner

MACON — A chicken supper will be served at 7 p.m. to highlight the Grange Booster night Sept. 30.

The 25-year members will be honored at this time.

Each family is to bring a chicken and a dish to pass.

Attend Methodist Instruction School

MACON — Lay leaders and the chairman of the church board of education are to attend the inter-board school of instructions in the First Methodist Church, Ann Arbor, Sept. 30 at 1:30 p.m.

Driver Avoids Injury as Door Opens on Turn

Harold L. Byrne, 41, of Route 1, Addison, narrowly escaped injury Saturday night when the door to his pick-up truck came open as he was turning and almost threw him from the vehicle.

Mr. Byrne turned onto Sand Lake Hwy. from M-50 when the door opened. He grabbed the steering wheel as he fell and held on while the vehicle struck several guard rails.

He was ticketed by the Clinton State Police for speeding and driving without an operator's license.

3 Pistons To Play 2 Posts in Game Against Baltimore

Detroit Piston player-coach Dave DeBusschere is planning to use two or three of his players as "swing men" between guard and forward in their exhibition game here Oct. 5 against the Baltimore Bullets.

One of the Pistons involved could be DeBusschere himself and the other two will be Joe Caldwell and Tom Van Arsdale.

Both Caldwell and Van Arsdale stand 6'5" and DeBusschere is 6'6". Because of their height, all three are a little short to work at forward continuously and too tall for full time guard duty.

"Van Arsdale and Caldwell are both quick men with good moves," DeBusschere says. "They are also excellent shooters, fine rebounders and can pass well.

"It's too much to expect them to be able to fight off forwards three and four inches taller than they are all the time. Yet, they can go out there for a few minutes at a stretch and do a job up front."

The game will be played in the Tecumseh High School gym starting at 8 p.m. It will be the first professional basketball game ever played in Tecumseh.

Registration Days Set for Vocational School in Saline

SALINE — Registration for classes at the new vocational school in Saline will be Oct. 4 and 5 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Saline High School on Saline-Ann Arbor Rd.

The school, recently organized by Edward Gray, will offer courses in basic electronics, basic shop mathematics, mechanical drafting, electrical drafting and computer technology.

The classes will meet during the evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. at Saline High School. For further information contact Mr. Gray at 429-7041.

Mrs. Sommers Is Named Outstanding Young Woman

HUNTINGTON, Ind. — Six alumnae of Huntington College, including Mrs. Ray Sommers of Tecumseh, have been named to the list of Outstanding Young Women of America.

This is a select group of approximately 6,000 young women of America between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in one or more fields of civic or professional endeavor.

The women are nominated by local women's clubs throughout the nation and guidelines for selection include unselfish service to others, charitable activities, community service, professional excellence, business advancement and civic and professional recognition.

From the biographical compilations of those young women selected, a book is published which is called Outstanding Young Women of America and is patterned after the Junior Chamber of Commerce publication, Outstanding Young Men of America.

Gloria Dei To Hold Congregational Meeting Sunday

A special congregational meeting will be held Sunday, immediately following the worship service at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

The financial situation of the congregation will be dealt with at this session.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

All that Clara Owens needs now is the $2 million.

So far, $200,000 has been given and pledged to get the idea off the ground — and it has already taken off.

Clara is the girl who planted the seed for the classical theatre back in 1963 and she has been the guiding light ever since.

Clara, who is Mrs. Henry Owens, has been a resident of Ypsi since 1940 when her husband joined the faculty of Eastern Michigan University, where he now heads up the language department.

She was a school teacher with a dream. At the urging of 17 friends, Clara put the Greek Theatre idea on the road June 23, 1963, the date of YGT incorporation.

Notice, I said "was" a teacher, that's because she finally had to take a leave of absence from her school because the growing Greek theatre was crowding everything out of her life.

It nearly pushed out Henry, too, when one evening about 8 he phoned the downtown office of YGT and got Clara on the line.

With a firm voice Henry told her:

"Drop whatever you're doing. It's time to come home."

That's pretty much the way Clara has been operating these past two hectic years — and the daylight of completion is hardly in sight.

"What I need right now is $2 million," she grinned Monday afternoon as we talked over a cream chicken luncheon at Pearl's Cafe.

★

"I DON'T know how I'm going to do it, but I'm going to," mused Clara and this pretty much sums up her dynamic personality.

A tremendous amount of ground has been covered since that day of incorporation.

Sketches of the fabulous 1,800-seat authentic Greek theatre are soon to be turned into a scale model.

The site is all clear, it's the city's Riverside Park, along the banks of the Huron River, offering 13½ acres and worth about $50,000, all being given.

A top-flight director from Greece is now on hand — with wife, two daughters and cocker spaniel — to form up the professional company which is scheduled to start production in July of 1966.

So, Clara has her chores cut out.

A fellow might need a lesson in Greek drama and Clara is happy to give one in capsule, to-wit, the Greeks got theatre rolling 3,000 years ago, gradually refining the art until about 450 B. C. when it reached a zenith.

With their graceful amphitheatres, the Greeks staged comedies and tragedies with great skill, attracting whole families who would spend the day watching three or four dramas.

It became so popular that the political leaders soon were hiring playwrites to slip in bits of favorable propaganda to help

New Store Near A & P Will Open

John Burke of Ypsilanti will open a Western Auto outlet in Tecumseh, sometimes within the next two weeks.

It's being located in a new structure nearing completion, between the A&P store and Fabricare Center.

Mr. Burke is presently owner and operator of the Western Auto store in Wayne, which he plans to close, moving some of the stock and fixtures to his new Tecumseh layout.

He will be assisted in the store operation by his wife, Mabel.

★

HE HAS been a Western Auto associate dealer for the past five and one-half years. He raises registered Black Angus cattle on his farm near Ypsilanti as a hobby.

Within the next year, he hopes to farm in the Tecumseh area.

Ground Breaking For New YMCA Will Be Friday

James C. Donnell of Findlay, Ohio, will officiate at the ground breaking ceremony for the new YMCA of Lenawee County.

The ceremony will take place at the building site on W. Maumee St., Adrian at 6 p.m. Oct. 1 with the public invited.

Mr. Donnell, president of Marathon Oil Co., was elected president of the World YMCA Council in Gotemba, Japan, on Aug. 13.

Mayors of the cities in Lenawee County are slated to be on hand.

Cider Making is On Agenda for Fellowship

Organizational meetings for the Youth Fellowship of the First Methodist Church are being held Sunday evening at 6:30, in the social hall, for all youth from seventh through the 12 grade.

This week's meeting will include a report of the nominating committee by Bill Davis, Jr.

Following this the youth will go to the Waldron farm to make apple cider under the direction of Wilfred Waldron.

Future plans include a hayride and a planning retreat.

Siena Series of 7 on Art Opens Oct. 7

Siena Heights College's annual Town and Gown series opens Thursday, Oct. 7.

First of the seven illustrated art lectures will be "Living in the Fourth Dimension," given by Michael P. Church, who is assistant director for cultural activities of the University of Michigan Extension Service.

All sessions will be held in Archangelus Hall Lounge on the campus, starting at 8 p.m.

Season tickets are $12 with a special $18 rate for husband and wife.

250 Musicians To Form Band During Half Time

During half time of the Tecumseh-Flat Rock football game, Friday night, a mass band will be formed by Senior, Cadet, Eighth and Seventh grade bands.

Together they number 250 members and will play many familiar American songs.

The mass band will be directed by Don Johnson and Miles Cowdry.

Saturday the Senior Band traveled to the University of Michigan, where it joined 170 other units from all over the state to form the largest mass band in the world.

During half-time of the Michigan-California football game, a total of 13,000 musicians combined efforts in a number of stirring marches and hymns.

NEW SUTTON RD. BRANCH OOF UNITED SAVINGS BANK IS ROOMY, ONE-STORY COLONIAL TO OPEN IN OCTOBER

Bank Branch Has Drive-in Window

First branch in the history of the United Savings Bank will open in mid-October.

To feature a drive-in window, as well as conventional lobby service, the branch will be located at the intersection of Sutton Rd. and Occidental Hwy.

Mrs. Curtis Wright an assistant vice-president, has been named branch manager and will be assisted by Paul Mann.

The one-story structure, surrounded by a hard-top parking area for 25 cars looks small from the road. However, its 24 x 40 feet deminsions offer ample space for a large influx of customers.

Entrance and exit drives come off of both roadways. The drive-in window is to the rear.

Mrs. Wright points out that complete banking services will be available at the branch — even safe deposit boxes.

At the first branch of the Tecumseh bank is opened, planning has been started for the second, which will be situated near the A&P store, scheduled for construction sometime next year.

Jaycees Open Campaign To Obtain Grid Lighting

Tecumseh Jaycees are spearheading a drive to get community participation of service clubs and other organizations to pledge money over a two-year period for lights for the athletic field.

Members of the Jaycees anticipate the installation of the lights in 1966. Work on the project has been done with the approval of the Tecumseh School Board.

Dyke Helms, chairman for the Jaycees, said Tuesday that blueprints have been procured from Consumers Power Co. and there has been a rough estimate of $20,000 made.

Mr. Helms said, "It is the hope of the committee that every organization will participate regardless of the amount of the pledge. With a project of this size, it must be a community effort."

★

THE JAYCEES are parking cars for the football games to obtain money for the project. The Athletic Boosters have parked cars for the past several years to complete payment for work already contracted on the press box.

This is paid, but a number of bricks matching the school are waiting to be laid at the exterior of the press box.

Jaycees have offered to help any brick layers who would co[illegible] to this portion of the box.

Plans have included some investigation of quartz lights with adjustable shades rather than mercury. Quartz lights have proved most effective on other fields such as those at Erie Mason and Napoleon.

Bleacher Fund Now Totals $700

The Tecumseh Exchange Club has set up a special account of $700 at the United Savings Bank. It's to be known as the Exchange Bleacher Fund.

The fund was begun for the purpose of building more bleachers at Recreation Field with proceeds from Dawn Patrols and other activities.

Anyone who wishes to donate to the fund may do so at the bank.

The Oct. 25 meeting will be canceled as Exchangeites meet with the Bedford Exchange Club on Oct. 26. Wives will be guests.

A PLAQUE was presented to the club for organizing the Bedford group at Charter Night in Ypsilanti on Sept. 25.

Gorman G. Bogart of Jackson, a member of the Michigan Exchange board of directors, was a guest.

Schools' Tax Loss $24,000

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh's reduction in state equalized evaluations will cost the local schools about $24,000 and the public library approximately $600.

Last week, the State Tax Commission reported its findings, a cut of equalized valuations inside the city by about 2.25 mills.

This means winter tax collections from city residents for the schools and county will be approximately $48,000 less than last year.

Of the $24,000 school loss, the general operating fund will lose $18,000 and the bond debt fund, $6,000.

The fact that some of the townships in the school district were raised, kept the schools from a greater loss.

Supt. James McDowell, who has criticized school tax collections in the past, says that city property owners pay more than their share of the school costs and the reduction was only fair.

WHAT EFFECT the financial loss on the local schools will mean has not been ascertained. The 1965-66 budget was made out last February, two months before city officials made their appeal to the State Tax Commission for a review of valuations here and seven months before the findings were made available.

"Since over 79.5% of the school budget goes for salaries and personnel are under contract, it will be impossible to make up this loss this year without cutting services," Supt. McDowell explains.

Only way the Tecumseh schools could recover the loss is through a vote of the people.

The reduction and its effect on the schools will come before the school board at its meeting, Oct. 18.

Steinke Paintings Sold for $2,285

They were among 20 displayed at Don's Beef Buffet and viewed by about 100 patrons of the arts from a wide area.

It was the first such affair for the Tecumseh artist, who is gaining more and more of a reputation as a top flight painter.

Mr. Steinke has a realistic approach and displays excellent craftsmanship.

His "Still Life with Steel Helmet," which was purchased for $735, depicts a World War I German officer's helmet, decorated beer stein and sword. The items shown are all souvenirs of Bud Metzger of Ann Arbor.

Mr. Steinke's works are found in several local collects, plus others in Mexico and Brazil. He has done many commissioned portraits for fees running up to $1,000.

The 20-painting display will remain at Don's this week, with the restaurant staying open until 9 p.m. Thursday evening.

Bloodmobile Coming Monday

Second Bloodmobile visit to the Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton area is scheduled for Monday at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Co-chairman, Dr. Robert Murray of Tecumseh, Lester Proctor of Clinton, and Carl Leugge of Britton hope to surpass the March 1965 Bloodmobile, which had 201 donors.

Lenawee County has been building up over the last two years a deficit with the Red Cross Blood program. Under it, all blood received by any Lenawee County resident at any hospital in the United States is free.

"If we hope to maintain this free blood program it is important that new donors volunteer their services at our next Bloodmobile on Monday," the chairman said.

"Tecumseh area residents are fortunate in that there are a large percent of repeat donors at each Bloodmobile. The only way that we may increase donors is to recruit new donors," they added.

Mrs. Herbert Munger will present a program on "Approved Schools."

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Among amateurs who helped entertain at the Blissfield Folk Festival last week were Jamie McWilliams and Steve Maples. Another guest — he didn't sing — was Congressman Wes Vivian, who earlier had entered an editorial from Duane DeLoach's Blissfield Advance into the Congressional Record. It explained the creation of the Mary Magdaline DeLoach Student Loan Fund, which is now $1,400 richer, thanks to the recent Hoot.

Adrian's Chamber of Commerce is seeking All-America status for the Lenawee County seat. A burst of pride in the county's industrial boom is a major factor the Chamber lists. Naturally, Fisher Body is mentioned. We'll have to send the boys a picture of the new sign there, with that big bold line "TECUMSEH PLANT."

In state high school football listings, Clinton is rated in a tie for fifth with Coldwater St. Charles among Class C-D teams.

If you've never been to The Stage in Adrian, better hurry, it may be closed. Offering excellent entertainment, the coffee (exotic) house can seat 100 in a clean, well-run atmosphere. Not enough patronage is causing the owners to consider closing. So hurry up, your presence may help keep the place in business.

More on litterbugging. Mrs. David Prichard, 602 E. Logan St., reports her son-in-law, Larry Whimple of Saline came up with a good gimmick when a guy dumped a raft of debris in front of the Whimple home.

Larry carefully gathered up everything, found some bills with the man's name on it, put everything in a box, added a few stones, wrapped and mailed — without postage — to the litter bug.

Mr. Bug received the package, first having to pay the mail costs. Neat, eh?

Phil Pierson, our summer assistant editor, is back at Michigan State University, where he's a senior in journalism. This leaves a job opening and we're looking for someone with copy editing and head-writing experience who might like to join The Herald either on a part-time or full-time basis.

Sweet peppers, huge ones, are being raised at the home of the Ernest Robisons, 307 S. Evans St. Mr. Robison brought two green and one red one to The Herald Monday. Together he said, they weighed two pounds. Imagine one of those stuffed with a meat-rice combination.

A crazy, beautifully mixed-up magnolia tree on the front lawn presented Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw with two full blooms and many buds last week.

C O D — Call on Dad. That is the new meaning of the abbreviation as brought to our attention this week by Dode Surratt.

Congressman Vivian Says

"Is there a Federal program to help our village purchase park lands?"

"What Federal programs exist to help our watershed committee get a flood control and water recreation project underway?"

These are but a few of the literally hundreds of questions which have arrived at my office from responsible city, village, township and county officials, in the past eight and one-half months.

While my staff has worked diligently to find the answers to as many of the questions as it has been possible for us to work on, we find it nearly impossible to provide communities all of the help which we feel they deserve in planning for the health and welfare of their residents.

Therefore, with the help of Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey and his staff, I have arranged to hold a Second District Community Development Conference, here in Washington.

The Conference will be held Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 18 and 19.

I am hopeful that every county, city, village and township will want to send at least one representative to this first Federal-Local Second Congressional District Conference.

40 Friends Attend Farewell Tea for Mrs. Laidlaw

Forty-five friends, including many teachers, greeted Mrs. Laidlaw and presented her with linens for the bedroom and bath of the newly-purchased apartment in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw will leave the first part of October for Ft. Meyers.

22nd Birthday of World's Largest Schooling System

The birthday of the world's largest schooling system is being observed by the local Air Force recruiter this month.

"Air Training Command is celebrating 22 years since its birth during World War II," Sgt. Thomas Foulds, local recruiter, said.

"All young men and women from the Lenawee County area who go into the Air Force in any capacity, to become officers or airmen, have their initial contact with Air Training Command at 'The Gateway to the Air Force,' Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.," Sgt. Foulds said.

"Since its founding in 1943, approximately 10 million have passed through the classrooms of the command."

Lynn Davis Wed to Jack Withrow in Addison Rite

Lynn Davis of Addison and Jack Withrow of Tipton were married Sept. 17 in the Congregational Church at Addison and left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Davis of Addison and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow Sr. of Tipton.

Mr. and Mrs. Withrow will live at 123 S. Scott St. in Adrian. He is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Fourteen Attend First Fall Meeting of Extension Club

Project lessons were chosen for the year and year books were completed. The hostess served assorted salads and nut breads.

Carol Moore Showing Horses

Carol Moore will show her yearling colt at halter and a two-year-old filly she has broken for Franklin Branch of Onsted at the Michigan Quarter Horse Association Breeders Futurity Show in East Lansing Oct. 9.

Both animals are registered quarter horses.

Gemini 4 Film Being Screened

The NASA color film of the Gemini 4 flight and Astronaut Edward White's walk in space will be shown in several locations in Lenawee County during the next few weeks, Congressman Weston Vivian announced.

Tecumseh High School students will be able to see the film once each hour from 7:45 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 5.

On Wednesday, Oct. 6 at 8 p.m. there will be a public showing of the film in Dawson Auditorium on the Adrian College campus.

It was to be shown Sept. 29 at the Rotary Ann meeting of the Clinton Rotary Club.

'Never Too Late' Cast

Mrs. Bill Frownfelder and Gail Rothruff will be seen in the leading roles of Edith and Harry Lambert, surprised middle-aged parents-to-be in "Never Too Late," season opening stage offering of the Tecumseh Players.

George Edison, who is with the Department of Education in Adrian has been cast as Dr. James Kimbrough and Mrs. Bob Murray will appear as his wife.

Harry and Edith's daughter Kate will be Mrs. Richard Egil, who with her husband have been Tecumseh residents for four months.

Kate's husband Charlie will be Keith Tucker, a biology teacher at Deerfield High School. The meaty role of Mayor Crane brings another newcomer to the Players in the person of Paul Schneider of Holloway, who is with State Farm Insurance.

★

DON PARTRIDGE, who has appeared in many of the group's shows, plays Mr. Foley and the policeman is Ron Jacob, who made his first appearance in "Solid Gold Cadillac."

Director for the play is Betty Jo Hancock of Adrian. Mrs. Howard Gentry of Tecumseh will be assistant director.

Rehearsals will start Wednesday, Sept. 9 at 8 p.m. and for the next three weeks will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bagdon, 9720 Murphy Hwy.

"Never Too Late" will be seen at the Community Center Nov. 4, 5, 6, 10, 11 and 12.

You may have brushed up against "Medea" or "Trojan Women" (which now is being given in New York), a couple of famed Greek works.

Clara says there are about three dozen top flight dramas which will be adapted for use in Ypsilanti.

THEN, CLARA wants to know is a guy realizes there are more than 750,000 high schools and college students within a 60-mile radius of Ypsilanti.

Up in Stratford, Ont., the Shakespearean Theatre draws tremendously during the tourist season — about $5 million worth of business annually. Ypsilanti could probably do as well.

But more important, much more, is the cultural advantage to be offered the whole midwest via the Greek Theatre.

Eastern Michigan University officials see the advantage of the setup and will shortly be offering master's degrees in speech and dramatics through YGT.

Young people will be able to major in either acting, theatre business, set design, costume making — a fabulous opportunity for kids interested in show biz.

So, the project should continue to roll.

It wouldn't surprise too much, if there should be a shortage of workers come time to build the theatre. Clara would don overalls and help lay brick.

She's a dynamo.

And all she needs now is the cash.

Vocational Classes Are Being Checked

A new dimension in vocational educational progress was initiated last week in Lenawee County.

County schools are in the process of conducting a survey to determine the needs for expanded programs of occupational training for all Lenawee youth, to develop adult training programs to meet the needs of job up-grading and retraining.

Programs for apprenticeship, related instruction are also being considered.

All county school district superintendents and a representative from each county school board were present for the initial meeting at Lenawee Institute.

Local school superintendents and others have been requesting more and better occupational training for years.

VOCATIONAL Education Consultant, Philip T. Bailey, who is the survey director introduced the study staff, composed of Don Berkley, Ray Gillespie, Clifford Rice and Donald Whitney. Each gave a report on various aspects of vocational education.

Mr. Bailey explained that the survey's primary objective is to provide information from which a comprehensive and coordinated plan can be developed for future vocational education programs for both youth and adults in Lenawee County.

The county superintendents and school board members felt that wide-spread citizen involvement was necessary if the survey was to accomplish it's goal. Each school has appointed selected citizens to act as members of the advisory council.

★

THE ADVISORY council will be broken down to study the following major items:

- ► Manpower needs
- ► Existing and proposed programs
- ► Parents and graduates
- ► Financing and administering programs
- ► Population
- ► Publicity
- ► Drop-outs
- ► Adult education
- ► Job upgrading

Citizen's Advisory Committee members may call the survey office in Adrian, the phone number is 265-2119.

Car Jumps Curb, Rams Small Tree

Except for one mishap, all seven accidents checked by Tecumseh police during the past week were minor.

On Monday, Gerald V. Sniffin, 18, of 423 W. Cummins St., lost control of his car on S. Union St., jumped the curb and hit a small tree.

A run-down of other accidents:

Sept. 23 — Kathleen Smith, of Adrian, reported her car damaged slightly by another vehicle after she had stopped to inspect another mishap on Russell Rd.

Sept. 23 — Sharon L. Merillat, 23, Tipton, ran into the rear of a car driven by Billy A. Garland, 27, of 103 Occidental Rd., on N. Evans St. She was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Sept. 25 — Diane M. Lake, 607 Cairns St., reported backing into a pole in the Kroger parking lot.

Sept. 25 — Improper backing was cited against Melburn G. Partridge, 83, of 206 W. Chicago Blvd., after a mishap with a car owned by Frank and Lottie Harris. The accident occurred on S. Union St.

Sept. 26 — Earl Stuart, 707 Inner Dr., reported that his car was damaged while parked behind the fire barns. The other driver is unknown.

Herrick Park Forms New Parent Group, Dropping PTA Title

Parents and teachers of the Herrick Park School met Thursday evening to consider whether they would continue some form of PTA.

It was pointed out that there would be advantages gained by being a local organization with no national affiliation.

One advantage was that all of the dues would be kept by the local organization, whereas with a national affiliation, one-half the dues go to the national.

It was decided that the children could be better served with a local organzation to be called Herrick Park Parent Teachers Organization, with PTA by-laws adopted for the new group.

Mrs. Jule Fosbender reported for the nominating committee and the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Norval Bovee
Vice-president — Mrs. Carroll Carpenter

They were installed immediately and presided at the business meeting.

★

MRS. EDGAR PISTOLE was named to the publicity committee and Mrs. George D. VanCamp to the membership committee.

Fund-raising activities suggested were a style show, carnival or a card party.

The majority of those present voted for a carnival to be held if possible, in early November. Mrs. Fosbender was appointed chairman for the carnival event.

Mrs. Leo Neitling's first grade won the roll call award with 16 parents present.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jack Brooks and Mrs. Chauncey Maupin.

UAW Awards Charter 1341

UAW charter No. 1341 was awarded Sunday to employees of the Tecumseh Fisher Body plant.

Three days earlier, workers approved UAW representation by an overwhelming margin, 401-6, in an NLRB election.

Members of the new local now will select their officers at a vote Tuesday, Oct. 5 in the Odd Fellows Hall on Green Hwy.

So that both shifts will have an opportunity to ballot, the polls will be open from 6 to 8:30 a.m., 1:30 to 5 p.m. and midnight to 2 a.m.

Counting of ballots will be held immediately after the votings ends at 2 a.m. Wednesday.

DANCE INSTRUCTION

Ballet, tap and ballroom dancing lessons will be held at the Community Center each Wednesday afternoon and evening, starting Oct. 20.

The first 10-week session will be offered for a fee of $9 per student and $15 per couple. Pre-registration can be handled at the city hall.

The instructor, Mrs. Bruce Brown, a 1960 Michigan State University School of Communication Art graduate, is an approved instructor of the Cecchetti Council of America.

She has taught lessons at her own studio, Eleanor's School of Dance in Onsted for the past five years.

A kinder class, for four, five and six-year-olds will be featured this year. In this class the student will learn coordination, rhythm and correct body movements, all which will help train the student for future dance lessons in tap and ballet.

Another special session will be for adults in ballroom dancing, to be in the evening and restricted to couple only.

4 p.m. — kinder class for 4, 5 and 6 -year-olds.
4:30 p.m. — beginner ballet, 7 through 9-year-olds.
5 p.m. — beginner ballet, 10 years and up.
5:30 p.m. — beginner tap, 7 through 10-year-olds.
6 p.m. — beginner tap, 11 years and over.
7:30 p.m. — ballroom dancing, teenagers.
8:30 p.m. — ballroom dancing, adults (couples only).

Can Organ Sound Like Orchestra?

Music lovers will get a chance to hear something new and different Saturday evening.

A special organ concert, sponsored by Flanders Music Co. will be held in St. Elizabeth School Auditorium at 8 p.m., featuring a new electronic theater organ and a moving-stereo organ.

Eddie Baxter, of Chicago, nationally-known organist and recording star for Dot records, will show how an amateur musician can utilize the musical engineering genius of today.

There are 37 million "amateur musicians" in America, an amateur being defined by the American Musical Conference as anyone who plays a musical instrument six or more times a year, or who is receiving instrumental instruction.

THE AMATE[illegible] with more leisure time than ever and an awakening desire to "participate" in a musical experience, has caused a boom in the entire musical industry.

Mr. Baxter will demonstrate why the electronic organ is a favorite instrument of many amateur musicians when he runs the gamut from a mellow bank of trombones that serenade "The Girl from Ipanema" to thunder and lightning that accompany "Stormy Weather."

Without once repeating his effects, he can offer the warmth of harp and oboe, add exotic touches to "Stella By Starlight" and a cacophony of sounds including birds, monkeys ald tropical noises punctuating "Nightingale."

AT FIRST, listeners will think Mr. Baxter has an extra sound technician. Few musicians can play so many notes so fast. The explanation, is another engineering marvel — automatic orchestra control.

Mr. Baxter will be at Flanders Music in downtown Tecumseh Saturday afternoon

'Accent on You' To Be Lecture on Personality

"Accent on You" will initiate a series of Gracious Living Programs at Siena Heights College on Wednesday, in the Archangelus Hall Lounge.

A lecture on personality will be given by Mrs. Maxine Muck of Blissfield.

Siena's Home and Family Life Department will present nine other features, all by guest lecturers and the staff. Demonstrations and displays will be part of the instruction.

The program is geared both to culture and expansion of learning. Opportunity will be given for discussion, questions and consultaton.

MR. AND MRS. STANLEY KRUSE

To Be Honored at Open House

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse will hold an open house Sunday at their home, 407 Center Drive, to observe their parents' 25th wedding anniversary.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend between 2 and 4 p.m.

Stanley Kruse and Virginia Piotter were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Piotter, Oct. 12, 1940, by the Rev. E. M. McGehee.

Mr. and Mrs. Kruse are the parents of four children, Gerald, of South Bend, Ind., Keith of Milan, and Paul and Dawn at home.

Weekend Mission Opens Friday

To start Friday, at 1:30 p.m. with "Women For Christ Silver Tea," the speaker will be Mrs. Robert Habermas of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Livonia. Mrs. Habermas has a degree in medical technology from Wayne State University. Her subject will be "Evolution; The Christian Church and Missions."

SATURDAY morning at 10 a.m. will feature our "Children For Christ Day".

The Rev. Keith Kruck, a young missionary from Cleveland, the Rev. Ray Wiechmann, executive secretary for Home Missions of the Wisconsin Synod, and the Rev. Robert Kleist, an institutional missionary for hospitals, mental and penal institutions will be speakers.

Slides, visual aids and discussions will be geared to children from the fourth grade through high school.

★

"ADULT NIGHT" on Saturday evening at 6 p.m. is to begin with a meal cooked by male chefs.

The morning speakers will be joined by the Rev. Hilbert Engel, chairman of the Board For Home Missions, who'll conduct an open forum discussion on missions.

The evening will be concluded with the showing of the film "Question 7," a winner of 22 international awards. This is the only event which requires prior reservations.

The Rev. Keith Kruck will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning with Holy Communion celebrated in both services.

The weekend will climax with a Sunday afternoon service at 4 p.m. followed by a festival supper served by the Ladies Aid.

The public is cordially invited to all of the scheduled events.

IN THE PAST four years that Grace English has had a Mission Weekend almost $5,000 has been raised for missions.

Last year, Pastor Kurt Koeplin and the congregation were instrumental in obtaining $25,800 for the Christian Chinese Lutheran Mission in Hong Kong by inducting Mission Weekends throughout the Michigan District of the Wisconsin Synod.

Gina Coscarelli, 10, of 402 N. Union St., earned her bike by selling 15 new subscriptions to The Herald. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Coscarelli.

Mike Bearinger, 7, of 398 Oak St., Britton, earned his bicycle by selling 15 new subscriptions to The Herald. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bearinger.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

It has been reported that certain THS students have suddenly been showing an intent interest in comic books and Saturday morning cartoons. There is no need for alarm.

This is merely research and the results may be viewed by the public at the Homecoming Game, Oct. 15.

The theme this year is "Cartoons" and if a float conveys its idea well enough through illustration, there is no need of a slogan.

The following clubs will serve as assistant committees:

Art Club — advertising
FHA — refreshments
FNA — decorations
Spanish Club — favors
Latin Club — tickets
French Club and Varsity Club — queen's float

★

Junior magazine sales are in full swing as of Monday, and will continue for 10 days. The goal this year is $8,677 for the entire class.

Each person's goal is $40, but if the sales continue as they have since Monday the goal will be exceeded by $5,000.

The first day's sales totaled $1,684 with Barb Clark h[illegible] man at $108.64.

Next year's senior trip should be made in high style.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Tecumseh may have the beginning of a geneological library, if plans of several interested citizens work out. During the Palm Sunday tornado last spring, many valued family records were destroyed.

Mrs. Jule Fosbender, Tecumseh public librarian, has offered space for both family histories and historical data of the area.

This material will have to be an outright gift and will not be returned, but public [illegible] Marion Whelan was elected to copy originals and catagorize the records.

Anyone interested in preserving the family tree in this way is invited to contact Miss Whelan or leave the documents at the library.

Some times at the passing of a loved one it is hard to know just what to do with such records. This seems a fine solution.

Mr. and Mrs. George French visited Mrs. Dujaine Service, a patient at Ann Arbor's St. Joseph Hospital, Saturday evening. Mrs. Service is recuperating nicely from injuries suffered in a fall at her home. Her room number is 315. Her husband is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

√

√

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bowen have returned from vacationing in Bermuda.

√

Gary Callihan of Gallipolis, O., has recently accepted a position at the Metropolitan Airport. He was a house guest of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Callihan, and family over the weekend.

√

Lee Randall returned from the Island of Oahu in the Hawaiian Islands where he visited his daughter and her husband, Capt. and Mrs. Tom Will, and their family. While there Lee and Nancy visited Mrs. Jerry Crunk in Pearl City on Oahu Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schooley and infant daughter of Fremont were houseguests over the weekend of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schooley. Saturday afternoon the group went to Tiffin, O. to visit [illegible] uncle, Gerald Berry.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison entertained the Robert Stone family Sunday in observance of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Stone. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Robison of Chicago were weekend visitors at his parent's home.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Maynard have returned from Northern Wisconsin where they visited relatives. While they were away their sons, Randy and Jeffrey, were guests in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beach.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Muhn are planning a winter's camping trip to California. They will leave in October and visit their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sardo (nee Priscilla Muhn) in Canoga Park and their son, Richard, at Burbank, also the four grandchildren.

√

√

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

The Michigan Legislature decided last week upon those subjects which it will consider this fall during sessions that may last off and on for a few weeks.

The general subject of fiscal reform, meaning the enactment of new taxes and the repeal of old taxes will be taken up. Probably substitute bills along the lines worked out by a bypartisan committee from House and Senate will be offered. Prospects of action appear dim.

There are about 20 other subjects upon which the Legislature will consider action. These subjects were adopted as a fixed agenda by concurrent resolution.

Several new bills will be offered on such subjects as county home rule, legislative auditor general, highway sign policy, senior citizens tax exemption for renters, licensing and regulation of second mortgages, motor vehicle insurance premiums and an osteopathic college authority.

Corrective amendments will be offered to several other bills adopted during the last session. Also an attempt to give immediate effect to a couple of bills that would not otherwise become law until 1966 will be made.

Some money will have to be appropriated for a few new jobs created to head major departments under the Reorganization Bill.

There will also be Senate confirmations of several gubernatorial appointments. The overriding of Governor Romney's vetos of several bills has already been attempted and failed.

I would suggest that school groups and others that may wish to see the Legislature in session during the fall write me in advance since the schedule will be subject to change and we certainly want everyone's trip to Lansing to be as profitable as possible.

Indian 11 May Take Flat Rock

After two straight losses, Tecumseh could break into the victory column here Friday night when the Indians open Huron League competition with the Flat Rock Rams.

Game time is 7:30.

Tecumseh's first-half performance was its best this season, and was the first time the offense had showed any signs of being able to move the pigskin.

Last Friday night, Flat Rock clipped Monroe Jefferson, 20-7, but the Jefferson eleven is a far cry from opposition the Indians have had to face.

Communion To Be Given

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be given during the morning worship service of the Methodist Church by the Rev. Donald C. Porteous, pastor.

The communion meditation at the 10 a.m. service will be "Take, Do and Show."

Yearbooks Are Given Members

HOLLOWAY — Round Block Extension Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert German. "When the Family Decides to Travel" was the lesson subject.

The yearbooks were prepared by the 14 members present.

OBITUARIES

● WILLIAM KROSKE

Services were held at the Jenter Funeral Home, Manchester, for William Kroske, 67, of Manchester, who died Saturday at 5 p.m. at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he had been a patient for two weeks.

He was born Jan. 5, 1898.

Mr. Kroske is survived by his wife, Virginia, of Manchester; a son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Kroske, nee Marcia Bashore, and two grandchildren, Jolene and David, of Ypsilanti.

Masonic services were held Monday night at the funeral home. The Rev. Oscar W. Cooper officiated at the funeral, assisted by the Rev. Blair Bashore.

Burial was in the Oakgrove Cemetery, Manchester.

Farmers Wonder— How To Be Heard

This was the discussion topic, led by Herbert Willmoth, at the September meeting of the Jolly Farmers Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Van Valkenburg were the hosts.

Several years ago, farmers across the nation, in a government sponsored vote, rejected further controls and quotes on what by a 3 to 1 margin.

WHAT MUST the farmer do to be heard in Washington?

The group suggested that he should step up his campaign of writing letters or sending telegrams to Congressmen.

Secondly, he must be more active in political affairs to elect men who will give consideration to agricultural interests and needs.

Thirdly, the farmer should develop a more active public information campaign to develop better understanding of agriculture by the general public.

Traffic Light Might Solve GM Traffic Problem

A traffic light is being considered for Occidental Hwy. at the entrance to the Fisher Body parking lot.

Congestion at shift-break time is growing, manager Lewis Lamm told the Lenawee County Safety and Traffic Committee last week.

He explained that 780 people now work at the upholstery trim plant with the number expected to grow to 1,200 with full production.

The stop light idea was discussed, but no remommendation made because AAA is conducting a survey and will have some ideas on the situation.

THS Looks Good 1st Half

By JIM LINCOLN

Jackson St. John trimmed the Tecumseh Indians Friday night, 33-7, but not until THS had battled the visitors on even terms for the first two quarters.

The loss, second straight for Coach Tom Fagan's club, turned into a rout in the second half, particularly in the third quarter when the Gaels romped for three touchdowns.

After seeing the Indians clobbered by Willow Run in the season's opener the previous week, Tecumseh's excellent first half performance was somewhat of a pleasant shocker.

THE GAELS tallied early on a 37-yard pass play from Jerry Sykes to end Ron Desnoyer. It looked like the Willow Run game all over again.

However, the Indians came back in the second stanza when Ron Rentschler connected with end Dean Hebb on a 28-yard TD play.

Tecumseh stopped St. John on the next series of plays and then started moving for paydirt again. Battling the clock, the Indians reached the Gaels' seven, then fell victims to a 15-yard penalty, first of several which proved to be disastrous. An intercepted pass ended the threat at halftime.

★

THE INDIANS dropped completely out of contention in the second half, but twice aroused the home crowd.

Trailing by one TD, a Rentschler pass to Gordon Gibson just sailed off the end's fingers at midfield with the lanky senior a couple of steps beyond the last Gael defender.

Another time, a Rentschler aerial, intended for Hebb, could have put Tecumseh in excellent position — or even a second TD — but the pass was dropped.

St. John's score, which ended Tecumseh's hopes of upsetting the visitors, was their second in the third quarter. Starting on their own 31, the Gaels tallied in four plays — discounting two 15-yard penalties against Tecumseh. The Indians were penalized 95 yards during the game.

Tecumseh's offense of 101 yards on the ground gave evidence the Indians will be able to run in the future, although lacking any speedster.

St. John	7	0	20	6	—33
Tecumseh	0	7	0	0	— 7

St. John scoring: Desnoyer (pass, 37); Blodgett (pass, 53); Galardi 2 (runs, 14, 16); Powers (run, 10). PAT: Wallicki, Sykes and Powers (all runs).

Tecumseh: Hebb (pass, 28). PAT: Rentschler (run).

ALERT ST. JOHN'S BREAKS UP PASS — Kevin Glodgett (69) is the leaping Gael in white, about to bat down a pass from Ron Rentschler intended for Dean Hebb (22). Earlier, Dean snagged a long aerial from Ron for Tecumseh lone touchdown.

Tom Van Arsdale Happy To Return

"I'm happy to be back."

The words came from Tom Van Arsdale, half of Indiana University's former twin-brother act, as he rejoined the Detroit Pistons who meet the Baltimore Bullets at Tecumseh High School gymnasium Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 8 p.m.

Tom left the Pistons last week after spending 2½ days in their training camp. He headed home to Bloomington, Ind., and enrolled in the law school.

But, after two days, Tom had a change in heart.

"I knew law school wasn't for me now," he declared. "I had basketball in my blood."

As a result Tom talked to school officials and cancelled his enrollment. He headed right back to the Pistons' camp.

"Now I get a chance to go against my brother, Dick, (who's with the New York Knicks)," Van Arsdale added. "That should be something. We have always been on the same team and same side since our days in grade school."

The Van Arsdales played together at Manual High in Indianapolis before going to the University. This past summer they were stars on the United States team which won in the World Student Games in Budapest.

Tom blazed through his collegiate career averaging 19.5, 21.5 and 18.4 points. Brother Dick's marks were almost the same — 12.2, 23.3 and 17.2.

★

IT'S LIKELY that Player-Coach Dave DeBusschere will use Van Arsdale both as a forward and guard.

"Tom is the kind of player who can fit in at either spot," says DeBusschere in referring to his six-foot, five-inch rookie.

A world speed record for a single-engine plane was set Tuesday in Columbus, Ohio by a housewife flyng an Aero Commander 200.

The ship, built in Tecumseh, was formerly called the Meyers 200.

Piloting the craft was Mrs. Russell Mock, who flew a 500 kilometer course — approximately 312 miles — at a rate of 205 miles per hour.

Clocking the run were officials of the National Aeronautics Association and the Federation Aueronautique Internationale of Paris.

Mrs. Mock snapped a mark of 178 miles per hour set by Lubos Stastny of Czechoslavakia in 1956.

Pat Eberhardt Marries George Bolen

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins read the double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at St. Elizabeth Church uniting Patricia K. Eberhardt and George Patrick Bolen in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Eberhardt of Britton. Mrs. Martha Bolen and Mervin Bolen of East Tawas are the parents of the bridegroom.

Wilie Mrs. Donald Johnson played a prelude of nuptial music, the ushers, Donald Judd, Jack Caldwell and Dan Ross of Belleville, seated the guests.

Jerry Fry of Belleville was the best man. Clara Bolen of East Tawas was the soloist.

HER FINGERTIP waterfall veil of silk illusion was held in place by a Grecian crown of Alencon lace and seed pearls.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Donald Judd, sister of the bride as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Jerry Fry of Belleville, and Peggy and Betty Leighton.

They all wore floor length gowns fashioned alike with raised waistlines and scooped necklines, featuring crepe chiffon skirts with long-sleeved empire bodices of crepe chiffon over Chantilly lace.

The matron of honor was in aqua and the bridesmaids in yellow, mint green and pink. Each wore matching bow hats with bouffant veils and carried matching colonial bouquets.

Julie Lynn Judd, niece of the bride, was the flower girl in a floor length gown of pink organza over taffeta with a lace bodice. She carried a basket of white pompons and pink carnations.

The Tecumseh Country Club was the scene of a buffet supper for 400 friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Exelby of Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoekstra served at hosts at the reception.

★

THE BRIDE attended Eastern Michigan University and was a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority. She was recently employed at the Internal Revenue Regional Service Center as a tax examiner in Philadelphia, Pa.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Tawas Area High School, and attended Alpena Community College.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolen met in Honolulu, Hawaii where he was stationed while serving in the United States Army. They will make their home at 14511 Elwell Rd. in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoekstra served as hosts Friday evening for the rehearsal dinner at their home.

ANNETTE FORBES

Annette Forbes and Dale Tuckey To Be Married

The engagement of Annette Forbes to Dale G. Tuckey is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Forbes of Roseville.

Miss Forbes received her bachelor degree in education from Eastern Michigan University in June and is a kindergarten teacher in the Warren Consolidated School system.

She toured south America with the Michigan Chorale in 1960.

Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Tuckey of 117 N. Ottawa St. A graduate of Tecumseh High School, Mr. Tuckey is majoring in public speaking at Eastern Michigan University. His minor is in history and radio and television.

He is employed part time at the University of Michigan Television Center and also at Eastern Michigan University Instructional Department. He is an honors student and is the recipient of a scholarship for outstanding achievement in speech and the dramatic arts department.

Greeley Passes Up $100 Note

An interesting anecdote in connection with a lecture given in Adrian in 1859 or 1860, during the wild cat money days, by Horace Greeley is related by N. J. Satterthwaite of Tecumseh.

He says that the morning after the lecture the lecture committee drew from one of the Adrian banks a new one hundred dollar bill to pay Mr. Greeley for his services.

On receiving it Mr. Greeley examined it and said to the committee:

"Gentlemen this is a beautiful bill, and no doubt perfectly good just at this time, but if it is all the same to you, I prefer a good counterfeit bill on an eastern bank."

The above incident, Mr. Satterthwaite says was related by Captain George H. Rathbun of Tecumseh, father of George A. Rathbun, judge-elect of the Lenawee circuit court. Captain Rathbun came to Adrian with his parents when nine years old, in 1852. At that time there was no bridge across the Maumee river in Toledo and passengers were transferred by ferry boat.

New Music Club To Hold Initial Meeting Friday

An organizational meeting for a new music club especially for students in the elementary grades will be held Friday at 4 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Burton Wright, 4350 Newburg Ct.

Fourth, fifth and sixth graders interested in music will meet with Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Harold Smith, counselors.

Mrs. James E. Danforth will be the advisor for the group.

Peace Corps Test Center in Adrian

Adrian will be the site of the Peace Corps test center to be held from Oct. 3 to Nov. 13.

The conference room of the post office will be used for the tests which will begin at 9 a.m. each day.

There will also be a test Dec. 6 at 3 p.m. for those unable to attend on the other dates.

Carol Campbell, James Baker Are Wed

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Campbell, 704 Clark St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker of rural Onsted.

Mrs. Larry Baker was the soloist assompanied by Mrs. Amos Wilson who presided at the organ. Palms and lighted candelabra were used to enhance the altar and prie dieu.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length sheath gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with long sleeves. Sequins edged the scalloped Sabrina neckline and the detachable chapel train fastened with a tailored bow.

★

A CAP OF lace petals secured her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums centered with an orchid and enhanced with clusters of white grapes. She also wore a necklace, a gift from the groom.

The bride's sister, Barbara Fisher, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John Martin of Jackson, the bride's cousin, and Mrs. Gary Daniels of Adrian.

They wore floor-length empire waist gowns of sapphire and coquette blue with headpieces of bows and veils matching their gowns. Each carried a basket cascaded with blue and white flowers and fall colors.

John Warner of Tipton, cousin of the groom, served as best man and the guests were seated by Larry Baker and Pat Alexander of Adrian.

After a trip to the Niagara Falls, the couple will live at 8156 W. Monroe Rd., Onsted.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed by Aget Manufacturing Co., Adrian. Her husband is a graduate of Onsted High School and is employed by Hubbard Apiaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker entertained at their home Friday evening for the rehearsal dinner.

New books at your Public Library:

THE INCONGRUOUS SPY; two complete novels of detection and suspense by John LeCarre, who became famous with his SPY WHO CAME IN FROM THE COLD.

FOREVER OLD, FOREVER NEW by Emily Kimbrough. Here the author, the most ardent adoptive Greek since the Emperor Hadrian, is back among the people she knows and loves so well. The special quality of Miss Kimbrough's experience is its totality; when things happen to Emily they really happen, and she reacts . . . and there's never a dull moment.

AMERICAN LIT RELIT by Richard Armour. The survey course in American literature will never be the same, once students and teachers get hold of this. Sense and nonsense, word play, sentence play, understatement, exaggeration, parody, free association, and highbrow-lowbrow satire have a field day in the field of American lit.

INTERN by Doctor X. The week by week diary of a young doctor during his year of hospital internship. Frank, sometimes shocking, and completely honest, it is the first inside account of modern medical and hospital practice that has ever been published.

STATE O' MAINE by Louise D. Rich. This is a satisfying informative, delightfully informal, completely absorbing book, giving the highlights, and some of the sidelights of Maine history from its geologic formation to Margaret Chase Smith.

MEN WHO TRIED TO KILL HITLER. The extraordinary story of the German officer's conspiracy to assassinate Hitler.

THE CAUSE IS MANKIND; a liberal program for modern America, by Hubert Humphrey.

NAPOLEON AND JOSEPHINE; the biography of a marriage, by Frances Mossiker.

Perhaps the newcomers in town, and some of the other folks as well, are not aware that you may borrow framed paintings from the Public Library, merely by presenting your library card. They may be taken to your home for a month and renewed for an additional month if you so desire.

There are now 10 new ones that you may not have seen; as well as quite a large collection of older ones. Do come in and look them over, and add a new note to the living room or den with an unusual picture for your family and friends to enjoy.

Our newest pictures:

Senior Citizens are Invited to Display Works at Exhibit

Southeastern Michigan residents over age 50 who like to "make things" are invited to display their handicrafts in the 13th Annual Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts Exhibit, Oct. 15 through Nov. 7, at the Detroit Historical Museum.

Entries are being received, 10 a.m. through 4 p.m., except Sundays, at Kundig Center, 2936 Ash at Lawton Ave., phone 626-3424.

There is no entry fee but exhibitors will need the list of rules from the above address.

Paintings, ceramics, copper and metal crafts, woodworking, crocheting, jewelry, knitting, leather crafts, needlework, taxidermy, photography, the whole range of hand arts and crafts will be on display.

Mrs. Murray Day Talks at Welcome Wagon Meeting

Mrs. Murray Day, assistant librarian at the Tecumseh Public Library, spoke to the members of the Welcome Wagon Club at the first meeting of the year Sept. 21.

Reading a selection from A. A. Milne's "World of Christopher Robin," Mrs. Day demonstrated the type of program which brings large numbers of youngsters to the library's summer story hour.

She also told the story of "Epaninondas," which delights her summer listeners. Progressing to two books, "It Gives Me Great Pleasure," and "Forever Old, Forever New," by Emily Kimbrough, Mrs. Day introduced the members to non-fiction reading.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. William Steele, president of the organization, Mrs. James Dahlke was named historian to replace Mrs. Ronald Beck who has left the community.

Announcement also was made of three new sponsors of the Welcome Wagon, Flanders Music Company, Airport Bowl and the Toledo Blade.

The members of the club voted to adopt the Public Library as its recipient of funds raised by the group for community projects.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Cletus Stewart, Mrs. Edwin Hites and Mrs. Charles Robinson.

Baptismal Font Still Is Missing

A baptismal font which had never been used has been missing from the Manitou Beach Baptist Church since the Palm Sunday tornado of April 11.

The font weighs about 400 pounds and is made of fiberglass. It apparently was blown from the church when the roof of the church was blown off and the walls fell beneath the force of the winds.

The aqua colored font had been moved into the building a short time before the tornado, and had not been connected.

It is possible that the baptistry was picked up by the wind and blown a considerable distance, either into Devils Lake, or a field somewhere. If it has been seen, the finder may not realize what it is or how much the church would appreciate its being returned.

A water skier sighted what he believed to be the font last week, but the object turned out to be an old metal tank.

Fall Good Visiting Time at Greenfield

DEARBORN—Increasing numbers of visitors to Greenfield Village are finding the fall and winter season an ideal time to tour this historic indoor-outdoor museum, located within minutes' drive from the heart of bustling and dynamic Detroit.

The famous Early Movie Series resumes on Sunday afternoons in the Museum theater beginning Oct. 17, with "Golden Boy," a 1939 classic starring Barbara Stanwyck and William Holden.

Pony cart and Model T auto rides are available every weekend in the Village through October.

Visiting [illegible]eld Village are 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. on weekdays, and 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on weekdays and holidays. Museum hours are 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekdays, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekends.

In Emergency, Phone Is Vital

The telephone is often the fastest and most reliable method of calling for help in an emergency.

Yet a surprising number of people panic when they attempt a call in an emergency.

"People often dial the operator. They tell her what their emergency is, but then in their confusion slam down the receiver before giving a name and address. Minutes which can mean life or death are wasted as a result," says Lester R. Bollwahn, [illegible] defense coordinator for Michigan.

"Everyone should post emergency phone numbers near the telephone. A list of the four points to remember in case you momentarily 'black-out' during a call is very helpful," Bollwahn continued.

"These include: What happened? What is needed? Who are you? Where are you?"

IN AN emergency, be sure to tell what happened. Is your house on fire? Is someone bleeding badly? Has someone had a heart attack?

Tell what help is needed. The information you give will usually answer this but explain the kind of equipment you think will be needed.

Tell where you are. Give the street number and the name of the street or road. Then repeat it, Mr. Bollwahn emphasized. A brief description of the house is helpful, especially at night.

Tell who you are. This is important when the emergency is not obvious from the outside, especially if a multi-family dwelling is involved. If a neighbor is asked for directions, he will be more likely to recognize your name than your house number.

Mr. Bollwahn advises knowing how to dial the operator in the dark. "Smoke may blind you or power may be off at night. Operators are trained to help you quickly."

★

THE RURAL defense coordinator also emphasizes that children should be taught to dial operator and to operate a pay telephone. A dime should be taped in a known place, and children should be taught to reach a pay telephone, insert a dime, and call the operator.

"Aid in an emergency is as close as the nearest telephone, but you must know how to locate the number, place the call quickly, and then report the difficulty without panic or confusion. It may save a life," Bollwahn concludes.

Dear friends,

A speaker recently said, "The most prevalent community sin is lack of appreciation. Who ever thinks of thanking public officials, our school board members, the various commissioners, etc. for a job well done?"

Most of us are lax in this respect. Conscientious public servants deserve an occasional compliment and do certainly appreciate it.

Respectfully,

Foster R. Proctor

Band Boosters Seek Donations

BRITTON — The Band Boosters will have a General Store at the PTA Fun Night, with proceeds going to the Band Uniofor fund.

Members are asked to contribute new articles to sell.

Chairmen of the various committees are reminded that they must have their booths completed and decorated by noon Saturday. Decorating materials will be furnished by the PTA.

Extension Club

The lesson, "When the Family Decides to Travel," was given by Mrs. Martin Ivan and Mrs. Gerald Benedict.

Next meeting will be Oct. 28 with Mrs. Martin Ivan.

Combined Church Has Busy Schedule

RIDGEWAY — Men and boys of the Ridgeway-Britton Methodist Church were up early Sunday morning to attend the Father and Son Breakfast. They were served by members of the WSCS.

The short program included a vocal trio of Bernard Bishop, Tom Smith and Robert Bachtal, followed with group singing, and remarks by Pastor Mitchinson.

√

Christian Education Sunday was observed as Sunday School classes attended morning worship in groups with their teachers. The Junior Choir sang.

√

Sunday evening, a Junior High MYF was organized and the following officers elected:

President — Alex Gibson

Vice-president — Harold Jeffers

Secretary — Sandra Walters

Treasurer — Richard Rayburn

The group is sponsored by Bernard Bishop and Delmar Dunham.

Mirrors and Magic Wand Are Needed

BRITTON — It appears as if the Britton Tories are going to jump from the frying pan into the fire.

Beaten in both their outings to date, the 19 young men who form the Tory squad face Boysville Friday evening.

While Britton was falling to Adrian Catholic Central, 33-0, last week, the Fighting Knights were gaining their second straight victory, a 41-0 rout of Deerfield.

So Coach Al Vadasy has a lot of work to do with mirrors and magic wands if he is to produce an upset over Boysville.

In the Adrian CC contest, Eric Wilkins, a graduate of Tecumseh St. Elizabeth, had a big night for the winners, scoring two touchdowns.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Robertson and family of Troy Mr. and Mrs. Cal Rhorback of Adrian and Judy Rohrback of Bowling Green University were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rhorback.

√

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reeck and family were Mr. and Mrs. William Peterzak of Dearborn.

√

Cafeteria staff of the Britton-Macon Area School attended the annual dinner and meeting of the Lenawee County School Lunch Association held at the Clayton Methodist Church Monday evening.

Those attending were Mrs. Charles Benedict, Mrs. Raymond Seagert, Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. Robert McCrate and Mrs. Forrest Barrett.

√

Pastor Shows Pictures He Took in Holy Land

BRITTON—Youth Sunday was observed Sept. 26 at Emmanuel Lutheran Church with Sunday School students and the choir participating in the morning worship service.

The youth procession was highlighted by a crucifer flanked by two torch bearers and a banner depicting a crucified Christ.

In the evening, the Walther League served a chili supper to 78 people in the lower level of church, following which Pastor Thomas Drobena presented slides on the Holy Land, including a typical Palestinian home, Jericho, the Dead Sea and the birthplace of Jesus.

Stork Bingo Played by Gals at Cook Party

BRITTON — Mrs. Paul Cook was the guest of honor at a stork shower Sunday afternoon given by her aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Perry of Ridge Rd.

The group played stork bingo and prizes were awarded to the guest of honor.

Mrs. Lee Taylor Sweeps Awards in Euchre Session

BRITTON — Mrs Joseph Hall was the hostess for the G-8 Card Club Friday evening.

The gals played progressive euchre with prizes awarded to Mrs. Lee Taylor for high score, most lone hands and traveling lone hand and to Mrs. Walter Prill for low score.

The hostess served fruit salad, crackers and coffee.

Mrs. Taylor will be hostess in October.

Diamond Stars See Tigers Win

BRITTON — Members of the Pony League, Little League and Girls softball teams enjoyed an outing at Tiger Stadium Saturday to see Detroit beat Cleveland 4-1.

Enrollment Up 20

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

PTA Members Get Facts, Meet New Teachers

BRITTON—Seven new teachers were introduced to members of the Parent-Teacher Association Monday evening by Supt. William Saxton.

The new principal is Charles Schankin.

Other newcomers:

Science — John Evans

Math — Mrs. John Rogers

Home Ec — Kathleen Woods

Third grade — Mrs. Hubert Van Camp

Fourth grades — Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Cleveland

Returning teachers were also introduced.

★

MRS. ROBERT MCCRATE presided at the meeting, which began at 7:30, a new time for PTA.

It was announced that Teachers Institute will be held Nov. 4 and 5, instead of in October.

The High School Open House will be Nov. 8 and the Elementary Open House will be Nov. 15.

Mrs. Harold Osterhout asked mothers who have or need Blue Bird uniforms to contact her.

Mrs. Lee Spohr asked for donations for the Thrift Shop at the PTA Fun Night, such as dishes, toys, small appliances, jewelry and trinkets.

★

MR. SCHANKIN gave a rundown on this year's enrollment:

ELEMENTARY

Kindergarten — 40
First grade — 55
Second grade — 46
Third grade — 52
Fourth grade — 57
Fifth grade — 59
Sixth grade — 45
TOTAL — 354

JUNIOR HIGH

Seventh grade — 48
Eighth grade — 51
TOTAL — 99

SENIOR HIGH

Ninth grade — 43
Tenth grade — 45
Eleventh grade — 52
Twelfth grade — 32
TOTAL — 172

This means enrollment of 625, an increase of about 20.

Youngsters Promoted

BRITTON — Rally Day and Promotion Sunday was observed in the Congregational-Christian Church Sunday morning.

All children and young people were promoted to new classes, which will begin next Sunday.

After the welcome by the Rev. Gustav Hannevik, the pastoral prayer was offered by Jack Brown. Special music was presented by the Nursery, Beginners and Primary 1 Class.

Mrs. Eldon Reeck, secretary, gave the annual report on attendance and offering. The Sunday School has given to the Junior Choir robe fund, and to the Evangelical Alliance Mission for Korean orphans, and also recently ordered new chairs for the Nursery department and books for the library.

Sunday School Superintendent William Saxton listed the promotions. The Primary II Class and the Junior I class recited, and Mr. Saxton presented Bibles with names imprinted to the Primary II class.

Gifts, Corsage Are Presented Guest of Honor

BRITTON — Mary Ellen Millyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Millyard was guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Sunday.

The party was given by Mrs. Ronald Cheever and Mrs. Ned Brown in the Cheever home.

Twenty guests enjoyed an afternoon of games and Bride Bingo. Mrs. Harley Hummel received the door prize.

She will become the bride of Ernest Needham of Ypsilanti on Oct. 16 in Tecumseh's Gloria Dei Church.

Supper, Bazaar To Be Presented

BRITTON — A Communion Service will be held at the Britton Congregational Christian Church Sunday, as well as reception of new members.

Sunday evening will mark the beginning of the new season for the Youth Fellowship, which meets at the Fellowship Center at 7 p.m.

Annual Church Fair, a supper and bazaar, will be Thursday, Oct. 7.

Barrett Family Gathers

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Barrett were hosts Sunday for the annual Barrett family reunion.

Dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barrett and family of Sturgis; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Geberowski and sons of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barrett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Barrett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Partridge and family all of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barrett and son and Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Barrett of Britton.

Duets Class Sees Pictures of Egypt

BRITTON — A small but enthusiastic audience greeted Tom Riordan Wednesday evening when he visited the Christian Duets Class meeting.

After a potluck dinner, Mr. Riordan presented slides and narration of his trip to Egypt, where he went to record on film some of the treasures of ancient Egypt, which will be flooded when the Aswan High Dam is operational.

Douglas Fairbanks presided over the business meeting.

Fall Means College Life for Many

Just as the beginning of fall season means the return to school of thousands of Tecumseh area elementary, junior and senior high school students, it also means the start of college for some and the return to the ivy campuses for others.

The Herald is printing a list of all of those students who have been verified as attending college.

Many others are attending college, too, and we wish them the best of luck.

Here are the names of those students we know to be going to school:

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
Carolyn Sebring
Diane Ries
Thomas Cobb

Macon Youths Now Serve as Church Candle Lighters

MACON — A newly organized group of youth at the Methodist Church here has found another way to give service.

As candle lighters, many boys and girls of fifth through ninth grades are offering their assistance to the Worship Commission.

Preceding the call to worship, the lighters approach the communion rail to light the candles on either side of the altar. Immediately following the benediction, they extinguish the candles.

The schedule for September included Gloria Osborne, Lorraine Ruhl, Pamila Haines, Judy Mueller, Jeanette Gillen and Roxie Hover.

'Unreality' Is Subject

These verses from Psalm 119 form the Golden Text for a Bible Lesson on "Unreality" to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday.

MARDA GENE DUNCAN'S

Thru My Window

NOTHING

Waiting is hard, so very, very hard. And, that is exactly all we have been doing lately — waiting for something, anything to happen. After the disappointing odd-ball summer, which was hardly a summer at all because of so few really warm days, Mother Nature should be brewing up a whiz bang of a super duper fall.

Somehow though, she does not seem able to make up her mind. The outside temperature jumps up and down, bits of yellow and tinges of pink show in some trees, the rain falls, our days become distressingly shorter and a few of the robins and grackles have moved on to their winter resorts.

But as for anything really exciting happening, there is, as of this writing, nothing.

★

IN SUCH a situation a quick retreat to the book shelves often breaks the black mood. Today, however, concentration is difficult and so, as I hop-scotch from one thing to another, please excuse.

As just an inkling of what may follow, here is an irrelevant fact left over from last week's article.

While doing a bit of reading about the Canada goose, I ran across the startling information that a honker has 12,000 skin muscles which do nothing but either fluff up or tighten his feathers.

Now just think, how could any tea time conversation be sparkling without that little gem of wisdom? And, by the way, who do you suppose sits around counting the skin muscles in a Canada goose?

ACTUALLY, that whole article was disquieting. One of the nicer, more romantic notions in all of birdom is the fierce loyalty and strong devotion this bird has for his mate.

Nothing is sacred anymore — according to my muscle counting friend, there is strong evidence that these birds do not mate for life and, in fact, he goes so far as to call some ganders regular skirt-chasers, having two gal friends in one season.

But on to other, more important things. A discussion of trees provided a little tidbit about grass — please, don't speculate about going from trees to grass, it isn't worth it. Under ideal growing conditions, one plant of rye grass was found to have grown over 378 miles of roots in only four months.

It had 14 millon separate roots, about 14 billion root hairs, and grew at an average rate of three miles a day. Again I am wondering who counted.

★

GETTING TO our national emblem, the majestic bald eagle — and really, I am not making fun here because these birds are extremely interesting and are in dire straits as far as their existence goes.

As a race, we humans have done much of which we cannot be proud and, if the extinction of this great bird is added to the list, it will be a sad, sad day indeed.

Unlike the fickle honker, that is if he really is a "two-timer," the eagle does mate for life. After a long courtship that begins in November and is carried on until June, the newlyweds select a homesite, which if undisturbed, is used over and over for many years.

Each spring a new nest is built on top of the old one, and, as the birds may live as long as 30 years, some mansions are tremendous.

One weighed almost two tons. And imagine, this bird with a wing spread of eight feet — starts out as a relatively tiny egg not three inches long.

A parting statistic from another counter who took one acre of land in England and found over 2,265,000 spiders living there. Ugh — how crawly!

So it is that we amuse ourselves with such odds and ends when outside there is going on NOTHING!

Next Week: The First Installment

First Ferris Wheel Stood 250 Feet High, Spun 36 Giant Cars

MACON — Mrs. Ralph Halladay read the story of the "Big Wheel," prepared by her late husband, to members of the Macon Community Club Tuesday evening in the Hall-day home.

The story was written just a few months before the death of Mr. Halladay.

"In 1893, his mother took he and his sister to the Chicago World's Fair where they spent a week. The outstanding feature of the Fair was the wonderful Ferris wheel, built by George Washington Ferris, noted for his steel building structures," Mrs. Halladay noted.

HE WAS engaged as chief engineer in the planning of the Fair and directors told Mr. Ferris that they wanted him to build a stupendous, spectacular feature, totally different from anything done before, larger and something that would dwarf Eifel Tower to shame.

Mr. Ferris showed a sketch of his "Big Wheel" to the committee at the next meeting and said that it would be 250 feet high, taller than any building in Chicago. Its 36 cars would each be as large as a street car, around the rim of the wheel.

"Passengers will have a ride they will remember all the days of their lives," concluded Mr. Ferris."

Mr. Halladay was one of those passengers and he did remember the ride for the remainder of his life.

★

NEW SONG books, given by Macon friends in memory of Mr. Halladay, were used for the first time at the meeting with Mrs. Halladay at the piano.

AWARDED MEDAL — Colonel Mario Maffeo, Staff Judge Advocate of Army Communications in Europe, presents the Army Commendation Medal to SP-4 Leo V. Oswald, of Tecumseh, shortly before the 25-year-old legal clerk left Orleans, France, to return to the United States for release from active duty. According to the citation, Specialist Oswald " . . . distinguished himself by outstanding and meritorious service . . . although having no previous experience in his assignment (as a legal clerk), he quickly grasped and executed all responsibilities in a manner reflecting outstanding professionalism." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne L. Oswald, 135 W. Brown St., a graduate of Tecumseh High School and was employed by A & P before entering the Army in December, 1963. He had served in France since August of 1964.

David Youngloves Birthday Feted at Party Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gatt entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Younglove, for dinner Sunday honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Younglove.

Afternoon and supper guests in the Gatt home were Mr. Younglove's mother, Mrs. Jennie Younglove of Macon, and two other daughters, Mrs. Tom Judkins and Mrs. Robert Rutherford and their families of Britton and Manchester, respectively.

'See You Later'

By JUDY FIELDER

"I'll see you later," said the wife of the Apache Kid as he rode off from Frontier City into the sunset last week on the first leg of the longest horseback trip in the United States.

The Kid, whose real name is Dave Young, plans to pass through 43 of the 48 states on Starfire, a three-year-old part Arabian blue roan gelding.

He will return to Frontier City in May, 1966, after traveling from Detroit to Chicago, Texas, New Orleans, Florida, Washington, D. C., and New York.

His wife, Darline, expecting her second baby, will live with the Ivan Hunt family until his return, whereupon she will join him for the second leg of the trip, across the northern United States to California.

ACCORDING to The Kid, who is 32 and has performed at several western shows in the area, the ride will be the longest ever undertaken by man and horse under primitive conditions. He will live outdoors the entire time.

"I've been planning this trip for nine years," said the professional cowboy.

"I don't believe the West is dead — you can call this a salute to the people of the past and an attempt to prove that people of today are as sturdy as those of the past.

"A lot of people have promised to back me, but Mr. Hunt is the first one to follow through. When I started planning this trip nine years ago, I said I'd have to do it before my 32nd birthday or I'd never make it," said the rugged ex-Marine from Colorado.

"A lot of people don't believe this can be done," he said. "I'm going to prove that it can."

The Rev. Harold Speer, pastor of the church, invites the public to attend.

Linda Gilbert Will Show Trip Slides

Linda Gilbert will show slides and speak of her trip to Sweden and Denmark with the "Youth For Understanding" program this summer at the meeting of the Junior Music Makers Sunday.

The meeting time has been changed for the year and the group will meet at 2 p.m. instead of 2:30 at the Presbyterian Church.

Other members of the group will present musical selections to complete the program. Parents of junior and high school students are cordially invited by Mrs. Orrie Gilbert and Mrs. James E. Danforth, advisors.

An installation of officers will be conducted by Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

Sorority Will Continue To Aid Lenawee Institute

All 13 members of Iota Epsilon, a Beta Sigma Phi chapter, were present for the Sept. 21 meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Spence of Britton.

Members responded to roll call with a favorite verse or quotation.

Mrs. Stewart Niblack of Britton and Mrs. Bruce Corley of Tecumseh led the group in the program entitled Speech.

Coffee and dessert was served after the meeting by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Robert Martin, Tecumseh.

★

MRS. RICHARD PURKEY and Mrs. Kenneth Meyers, Clinton, attended the City Council Chapter meeting in Adrian, Sept. 22 to discuss plans for the state convention to be held in Jackson the week end of Nov. 5, 6 and 7.

The Beta Ball scheduled for January or early February was also discussed.

Secret sisters were drawn for the coming year and plans to continue with the Lenawee Institute as the service project was passed.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jameson Ford of Saline on Oct. 5.

Jaycee Auxiliary Meets in New Clubrooms

Mrs. Roger Butler, chairman of the mental and emotional disturbed children committee, introduced the speaker.

Mr. Edson told of the mental retardation program and Lenawee Institute, answering many questions.

MRS. BUTLER reported on the Girls Training School Picnic held Sept. 16, with 14 girls from one of the cottages enjoying games and refreshments.

District Three Vice-president, Mrs. Dyke Helms, said the Fall district meeting was to be Tuesday in Dexter and gave a clever skit on proper and improper parlimentary procedure.

Mrs. Dean Sheldon, needy children doll chairman, distributed 26 new dolls, which will be dressed by the club members and returned to be placed in Helms Furniture window by Thanksgiving.

Other guests for the evening were Jaycees Ron Coleman, John Day and Dave Schoonover.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Jerry Miller.

SEVEN new and old Jaycee Auxiliary members attended the Fall Get Acquainted Tea Sept. 23 at the residence of Mrs. Walter Elwartowski.

Refreshments were served during the informal evening.

Those in attendance were Mrs. Robert Booze, Mrs. Roger Butler, Mrs. Elwartowski, Mrs. Dyke Helms, Mrs. Tom Morgan, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. Dave Schoonover, Mrs. Walter Wonderly.

Stubnitz Div. Expansion Will Cost $3.1 Million

ADRIAN — A $3.1 million renovation and expansion program over the next 27 months has been announced by the Stubnitz Spring Division of Hoover Ball & Bearing Co.

The expanson will eliminate two of Stubnitz' three production facilities and three of its four warehouses in Adrian and consolidate the operation at the Logan St. plant.

Joseph Neal, president and general manager of the Stubnitz Spring Division, said the expansion will open up 176,400 square [illegible]

"We will [illegible] material flow by eliminating extraneous walls, replace or overhaul all equipment, locate all rail and truck facilities inside the factory building, and put the grounds and buildings in first-class condition," Mr. Neal said.

THE FIRST phase of the program wil be completed Sept. 1, 1966, with the addition of 115,600 square feet of new plant space.

The second phase, to be completed by Sept. 1, 1967, will include additions to the present Logan St. plant and relocation of several functions from scattered plant sites to the main facility.

The final five-month phase, from Aug. 1, 1967, to Jan. 1, 1968, will include vacating the company's element plant and its operation moved into a new 10,000-square-foot area in the northwest corner of the main plant.

Mr. Neal said all work will be done without any interruption of production and that an undetermined number of new employees will be needed once the expansion program has been completed.

STUBNITZ Spring currently is Adrian's largest employer, with between 1,100 and 1,200 workers and an annual payroll of about $8.5 million.

A supplier of seating springs and frames for the automobile industry, Stubnitz' major customers are General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., Kaiser-Jeep Corp. in Toledo and International Harvester Corp.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

A dynamic and often versatile backfield coordinating with a tough and determined defense can be deemed responsible for Boysville's 41-0 shutout over Deerfield's Minutemen last Friday night.

A defensive line, led by seniors Ed Bertrand and Ed Johnson, and junior John Yankoski, proved to be the major contributon to the downfall of the Minutemen's backfield, as they were repeatedly thrown for losses, and were limited to three first downs.

A Fighting Knight offensive backfield quartet also proved to be a deciding factor, as all four tallied at least once behind the fierce blocking of the offensive line.

In the second quarter, Moe Jacobs — Lenawee County scoring champ in 1963 — made his bid with a romp of nine yards and an extra point to climax the scoring operations of the first half.

An interception of an errant Minuteman pass by Don Chalmers paved the way for Boysville's initial score in the second half. Chalmers scored six plays later on a 15-yard run.

Later, senior quarterback Norris McFarland sneaked for eight yards and a score. Senior Joe Pawlus capped the Knights' scoring with a 20-yard touchdown run in the final quarter.

Putting the Fighting Knights in gear for their bout with Deerfield was a pep rally held in the gym the morning of the game. Featured in the rally were two numbers by a segment of the Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps and a skit involving junior class members Rick Currie, Nick Jurczak, Joe Oman, Tony Rodriguez, Paul DeWalesche and Rae Butterworth.

A recent addition to Boysville's coaching staff is Bennie Clark of Owensboro, Kentucky. Mr. Clark is an assistant varsity football coach. He resides in Deitman Hall and is employed during the day by the Peerless Gear Co. in Clinton.

Mr. Clark is the brother of Brother Paul Clark, C.S.C., formerly a faculty member at Boysville and presently stationed in the foreign missions in Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa.

The issuance of default slips is due this weekend. Defaults are designed to warn those students presently doing failing work that they should improve in their effort and achievement in time so that report cards need not show failure at the end of the first quarter.

Approximately 25 members of Boysville's varsity football team viewed the University of Michigan's triumph over California last Saturday. Tickets for the game were donated by Don Weir of the U. of M. ticket office.

A weekend vacation — a break in the routine of school life — is scheduled for Oct. 2 to 4. Departure is slated for 10 a.m. Saturday. Check-in will be at 8 p.m. Monday evening.

Free Coffee and Cake Is Offered

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lake, 607 Cairn St., Tecumseh, are the new owners.

The restaurant, which is located on M-50 in the Odd Fellows Building, will be open from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekdays.

Free coffee and cake will be given all day Saturday to celebrate the grand opening.

Mrs. Lake has formerly worked as a waitress in Tecumseh. Mr. Lake works at Tecumseh Products.

Student Council Vote Is Close, Saxton States

President — Jack Brown
Vice-president — Larry Ash
Secretary — Sherry Squires
Treasurer — Joan Check

All contests were close, reported Supt. William Saxton.

Britton Gulf Station Is Sold

BRITTON — The Gulf service station in Britton, owned and operated for 18 years by Clarence Larson, has been sold to Orville Moffit of Tecumseh.

Mr. Moffit formerly worked for Chevrolet in Toledo. He also farms and is building a new home on Billmyer Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson will continue to live in Britton.

Telephone Directory Comes Soon

General Telephone's directory for Tecumseh, Britton, Clinton and Tipton, will "go to press" October 1, states General Telephone District Manager Ken Conway.

Customers who wish to make corrections or additions to the directory are asked to call their General Telephone business office before Friday.

"The General Telephone Directory Co., which prints millions of telephone books each year, operates on a deadline basis much like a newspaper and for this reason we cannot accept any changes after the Oct. 1 date," he said.

"On that date the directory is 'locked-up' and sent immediately to Des Plaines, Ill., for printing."

Mr. Conway pointed out that because of the emphasis on a firm cut-off date for entries, the directory company can assemble, print, bind and return the new Lenawee County directory in a relatively short period of time.

Spanish Class for Beginners Starts Monday

A beginners class in Spanish will be offered at Tecumseh High School, beginning Monday.

The course will include 11 lessons from 7 to 8:30 p.m. every Monday or Thursday night.

The cost will be $12 per pupil, including text book and the use of the language laboratory, one of the most modern [illegible] Michigan.

The maximum number of students will be 25 in this course.

The Spanish taught will be practical and basic and should be of help for those wishing to read in studying for higher degrees. There will be no tests. Phonetics and practice will be highlights.

People wishing to enroll should call Mrs. Gloria Calhoun, phone 423-3137 in the evening or Mrs. Irene Jacobs at the Tecumseh High School in the daytime.

Officers Will Be Installed

Bob Platt and Mike Jackson will give a crops demonstration for members of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Tipton Community Church.

New officers will be installed and members will register for the year's projects.

Recreation will be provided by Larry and Gary Ries, Steven Church and Mary Ann Fisher.

Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Linger, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman.

Clara Waldron To Give History of Wit & Wisdom

Mrs. Herbert Munger will be the hostess for the first fall meeting of the Wit and Wisdom Club Oct. 4 at 8 p.m.

She will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Fay Van Valkenburg, Mrs. H. Willmott and Bess Rector.

Clara Waldron will be the leader of the program, consisting of a short history of the club.

YEAR-AROUND CONCRETE MIXER — Now in operation at Kuhlman Concrete is this batching plant, which can produce 125 cubic yards of concrete per hour. It is fed gravel and sand from ground storage bins via the long conveyor. The operation goes 12 months a year, thanks to heating elements which keep the sand and water warm so that the concrete is always at least 70 degrees in temperature.

Three Awarded Show Ribbons in E. Lansing

Three members of the Country High Steppers 4-H Club were awarded ribbons for their horses at the State 4-H Show in East Lansing recently.

They are Carol and Beth Moore and James Mobley.

All were blue ribbon winners at the Lenawee County Fair.

Beth won fourth place in showmanship at halter with her aged mare, "JoDee Cody" and Jim won fifth place in the same class in model or non-registered stock with his three-year-old filly, "Cammie", which he has trained himself.

Missionary from Viet Nam To Be Speaker

A missionary from Viet Nam, Mrs. Robert Ziermer, will be the speaker at the Fall Rally of the Lenawee Women's Missionary Society Tuesday, Oct. 5.

The all-day meeting will be held at the Baptist Church in Temperance with registration and coffee hour at 9:30 a.m.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Orville Bishop, president of the local group, by Oct. 1.

Dismissal will be at 2:45 p.m. to allow parents to meet school buses.

Fisher To Honor 32 Employees

Thirty-two employees at the new Fisher Body plant of Tecumseh will be honored for their continuous service records, Plant Manager Lewis J. Lamm announced.

"We are pleased that, despite the newness of our plant, we have this many people who have chosen us as their employer over the years, and we want them to know that we appreciate it," Mr. Lamm stated.

AMONG THOSE scheduled to receive awards, there are two employees with 30 years' service, four with 20, five in the 15-year group, 14 in the 10-year span, and seven who have completed five years with the division.

Plant Manager Lamm, himself, is one of those who will receive a 30-year award. The other is W. J. Gillespie, chief inspector.

The 32 Tecumseh employees are part of the 70,000 Fisher Body employees in 35 plants across the country who will be recognized in the next two months for five or more years' of service with the division.

★

The type and number of precious gems contained in the pin will vary according to the different length of service groups.

Daughter Born

CLINTON — A daughter, Kimberly Maxine, was born Sept. 15 to Dr. and Mrs. Ted Roumell of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roumell are the paternal grandparents.

Phone Co. Boardmen Meet Here

Arranged by board member Kenneth Herrick Vice President of Tecumseh Products Co., it was staged in the board room of the Products.

Local Man Visits Other Tecumsehs

W. G. Waldron shares with The Herald readers information he has gained about other cities and towns across the United States with the name "Tecumseh".

He mentions Tecumseh, Ont., with their Kiltie Band; Tecumseh, Nebr., which the Waldrons have visited while staying with friends in nearby Salem; and Tecumseh, Okla., a little city of about 3,000 in Pottawatamie County.

Not far southeast of Oklahoma City, Tecumseh is in good farmink country and has a wide main street with a rather large business district typically western.

MR. WALDRON said:

"I was prepared for our visit there, taking some Tecumseh Heralds and some brochures to leave at the city offices.

"We were graciously received and given a tour of the homes of the relatives of Gordon Cooper, their former townsman. They had a great gathering that listened to the first orbital flight of Cooper.

"Just west of Tecumseh is the University of Oklahoma at Norman, a gloomy place the afternoon we were there. Their football team was getting the works against the University of Texas after a great win the week before over Southern California.

100% Club Welcomes 2

CLINTON — There's a new organization here, pretty exclusive at that, with a charter membership of two.

Called the 100% Club, it's for certain varsity football players, who will put out every second they're on the gridiron.

Coach Phil Bareis and his assistant Jim Curth, are hoping to dub a few more of their players into the 100% Club coem Friday afternoon when the Redskins journey to Whitmore Lake for a 4 p.m. kickoff.

CLINTON nailed down its second straight victory of the season Friday, stopping Ypsilanti Roosevelt, 20-0.

Baker, who is being touted for all-county honors as an offensive center, was pressed into defensive work the final half.

He made five solo tackles, including two in which Ypsi ball carriers were thrown for big losses.

He replaced Jerry Bellmore, who injured his ankle so severly that he'll probably be lost for the year.

O'Connor, going both ways, was particularly impressive on defense, picking up two fumbles. Another standout was Gene Brown, who nailed three Ypsi passes.

REDSKIN quarterback Dennis Drazic was sharp with his passing, tossing for two TDs, one for 30 yards to Dennis Sweet and another to Ivan McKenna, covering 76 yards.

Butch Hoelzer sprinted 30 yards for the final Redskin tally with Roger Proctor getting two extra points.

WSCS Elects Mrs. Jerry Jaqua as New Chairman

CLINTON — Mrs. Jerry Jaqua was elected chairman of the Methodist WSCS Circle II, which met to organize Wednesday afternoon in the church.

Mrs. Loren Scott will be co-chairman and the other officers are:

Secretary — Mrs. Ryder Olsen

Treasurer — Mrs. Marin Popa.

Meetings will be in the afternoon, the third Tuesday of each month. Mrs. Loren Scott will be hostess for the Oct. 21 meeting. Mrs. Roy Williams will present a study of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Waldo Ehnis, president of the WSCS, met with the eight members.

Golden Age Club Welcomes Anyone from This Area

CLINTON — Mrs. Hattie Feldkamp was named president of the Golden Age Club at the Sept. 21 meeting in the Community Center.

Other officers named:

Vice-president — Mrs. Thomas Pence

Secretary — Mrs. Daniel Reilly

Treasurer — Mrs. Albert Schwellinger.

The annual report showed a membership of 42, with an average weekly attendance of 18 or more. The group meets each Tuesday evening in the Community Center and anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Pardee Gets Two Tallies in J-V Win

CLINTON — Mel Pardee scored on runs of 15 and seven yards as Clinton's Jayvees shut out Ypsilanti Roosevelt, 19-0 Thursday afternoon.

Jake Schwab, on a 30-yard sprint, also tallied.

The one successful extra point try was a run by Bill Driscoll.

Defensive stars were tackle Paul Papsdorf and middle guard Jim Welch. On offense, tackle Harold Hunt and center Bob Ehnis were impressive.

Stauffer Employee Is Speaker

CLINTON — Dr. George Wolf, a newcomer to Clinton, presented the program at the Sept. 22 meeting of Rotary.

Dr. Wolf, who is employed at the Stauffer Chemical Co., described the history and products of the firm.

The report included mention of the silicon plastic development by Stauffers.

Guest attending were Hugo R. Schneider of Rantoul Ill., and Donald Quick, new Clinton elementary school principal.

Missions Hopes for New Million

CLINTON — Max Lurkins, Chairman of the Benevolence Committee and Rolland Bates, both of the United Church of Christ of Ypsilanti comprised a visiting team which addressed a group of 16 leaders of the Clinton United Church of Christ Monday evening.

They described the break through mission of the General Synod which will endeavor to increase by $1 million dollars in each of the next four years the amount of Christian World Mission funds.

Clinton Youth Given Citation

CLINTON — Douglas Taft Bugbee, 16, of Clinton and Frank A. Lane, 22, of Walton, Del., collided at the intersection of US-12 and Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. in Clinton, at 9:24 p.m. Sunday.

Bugbee was ticketed by State Police for making an improper left turn. There were no injuries.

Students Start Term at MSU

CLINTON — Freshmen enrolling at Michigan State University this week include Bonnie Rogers, Louise Alber, Lynn Schuler, Jane Beck, Daniel Miedluch, George Service, Jim Englehart, Pat Blom and Denise Anderson.

Scout Round-Up Film Being Screened

CLINTON — The Girl Scout Neighborhood Association met Sept. 22 with Mrs. John Mabry to make plans for a theater party in October.

At the same time, Mrs. John Hoelzer will show pictures and tell of her trip to the Girl Scout Cabana in Mexico last summer.

All area Girl Scouts will be invited.

Mrs. James Wilson was announced as a new leader for the

A leader's meeting will be held Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. at Mrs. Mabry's home.

Mrs. Robert Way will give information about the first aid program.

Brownie troop, formerly headed by Mrs. Donald Freeburn, Mrs. Robert Braden will continue as the assistant.

New Pastor Welcomed

CLINTON — The Rev. and Mrs. Paul McKenna were hosts Friday evening at a get-acquainted party for newcomers, the Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Goodrow, formerly of Flint.

The Rev. Goodrow is the new pastor of the Clinton Assembly of God Church.

Guests included other community pastors and their wives.

Redskin Gridder Needs Surgery

CLINTON — Ben Beach, a junior in Clinton High School, injured his knee during football practice, last Monday and underwent knee surgery Sept. 22 in Herrick Memorial Hospital. He is the son of Mrs. Nora Beach.

Church Auction To Raise Money for Redecoration

CLINTON — A church auction was discussed at the Sept. 23 meeting of the UCC Women's Fellowship.

The new president, Mrs. Robert King, named Mrs. Ben Mahrle II, chairman of the committee to make plans for the auction.

It will be an all-church project to be held in the spring to raise funds for the church redecoration.

The Men's Fellowship will be invited to assist with the event which will include the sale of large household appliances, furniture, antiques and clothing.

Mrs. John Gilman and Mrs. Roscoe Parker were appointed to help with the Laity service, Oct. 10.

Mrs. Paul McKenna had charge of the program on Church World Missions.

MEMBERS were given world maps and asked to locate almost 100 new nations, which have achieved independence since the end of World War II.

"It is in these areas that the church's mission is in ever greater need," Mrs. McKenna told the group.

Mrs. Edgar Randall, material aid chairman, announced that several quilting bees will be held on afternoons beginning in October.

★

FLANNEL PIECES are needed for children's bed quilts and dress materials of half-yard pieces are needed for little girls' dresses. Several dresses are available for sewing at present.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Mahrle, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Clyde W. Greenfield of the Spiritual Life Committee.

Ill Health Necessitates Resignation

CLINTON — Mrs. Agnes Gieger has resigned as Clinton Township librarian and township treasurer because of her health.

Mrs. Geiger has served as librarian for 20 years and as treasurer for 18 years.

A generation of youth as well as adults, have come to know and respect her for her helpfulness and stimulation of their interest in literature.

Mrs. William Robinson is acting as temporary librarian.

Geigers Attend Kroske Funeral

CLINTON — Mrs. Walter Geiger and her son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Geiger, were in Manchester Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Geiger's brother-in-law, William Kroske, who died Sept. 23, after a long illness.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

A weekly newspaper running a bunch of people can be educational. And that's not to confuse, the guys and gals don't run the paper.

With National Newspaper Week to start Sunday — of course, with Spiritual Day as editors everywhere pray that the ship will remain intact for at least another seven days — it seems appropriate to talk about our operation.

This fact is put into sharp focus whenever we take on a newcomer, which we just did in the person of Dick Carver, a recent graduate of Hillsdale College, who'll be with us until about Jan. 1, when he dons navy blue.

In filling in Dick on our place, I discovered myself saying what I've said to many other folks — new co-workers and people just interested in talking about The Herald.

"You'll find we have a swell bunch of people. Everyone has his or her responsibilities and they handle them."

In my mind, this seems hardly enough, trying to compress into a couple of sentences the fact that our gang does such a marvelous job, week after week.

★

LIKE EVERY business, there are the continual crisis periods, prompting our always-cheerful women's editor, Dorothy Grigg, to comment, "Let's put one more day in the week."

But nobody rants and raves, shouting that the job can't be licked. Instead everyone digs in, plodding along until the task is done.

Sharing the front office with Dorothy are Almina Hunt and Maxine Calhoun. Almina is the bookkeeper, who does a dozen other chores — so numerous sometimes she takes the billing home with her and works late into the night.

One "extra" for her in recent weeks was the Earn-a-Bike subscription promotion. While we all cheered as the junior salesmen turned in 480 new subscriptions, Mrs. Hunt groaned. Then sat down to record them all, meanwhile punching out a metal mailing plate for each.

Mrs. Calhoun joined the force a year back as our Clinton editor, then accepted further responsibilities to the point where she now spends about three full days a week in the office.

Out back, well, there's quite a bunch of fellows, not one of whom Jim or I would trade for Mickey Mantle and Gordie Howe in a two-for-one swap.

Lonal Bishop is our Jolly Green Giant. At 250 pounds of muscle, Bish can toss a half-ton roll of newsprint like you would a bag of groceries.

He splits his time between job printing and making up Herald ads and pages. Of late, the commercial work has grown to such mountainous proportions, the poor guy dances between three job presses, looking like the star of a modern ballet.

Lonal's assistant is Marv Leismer, who got into this mess in early 1964, an innocent from Petoskey, where he had been a pressman for about 15 years at the daily paper there.

Marv is partially deaf, which turns into no handicap at all when all Hades breaks loose on press days.

Council and School Officials Dispute Issue

Difference in opinion over control of traffic for safety of school children were aired by city and school officials Monday night at Council meeting.

The area discussed centered around the Junior High School on N. Ottawa St. where the city is proposing one-way traffic north.

School officials want some traffic controls, stop signs or lights on Ottawa, while city officials prefer to move traffic north without lights or stop signs.

He said approximately 500 Junior High students and 950 from the high school cross the street during the noon hour. School buses also load from Ottawa St. in the afternoon.

City Manager Cal Zorn pointed out that statistics show that most accidents occur at stop signs and traffic lights. He felt one-way traffic north would be safer for the youngsters than the present two-way flow.

State Highway Department already has been asked to investigate. A traffic light at E. Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St. has been requested by the city.

'Flip the Switch in 66' Is Slogan

Dyke Helms announced Tuesday that an account has been authorized at the United Savings Bank so that anyone may donate simply by going to the Savings window and making a contribution.

The Jaycees have earmarked funds from a money making project they expect to complete around the first of the year when a local talent show will be promoted by the group.

Other organizations are asked to earmark proceeds from such efforts as bake sales, dances, coffee hours and the like for the Football Lighting Fund.

State Reduction Won't Affect City's Budget

Council learned Monday night that the recent announced reduction in state equalized evaluations in the city will not affect the city budget.

Tecumseh collects its taxes during the summer on local assessed evaluations, and the State Tax Commission's decrease here of about 2.25 mills will affect only winter taxes.

Schools here depend entirely on winter taxes and lost approximately $24,000. The county and special education also receive their income from winter taxes, but these two departments will not lose any monies, since they collect from over the entire county.

Other areas in the county were raised to offset a decrease in state equalized evaluations here, in other townships and Hudson.

Driver Hospitalized Following Car Wreck

Police investigated five accidents during the past week, but two involved injuries with one resident still in Herrick Hospital.

Saturday morning, Cynthia R. Hendricks, 22, of 405 S. Pearl St. struck a car driven by Veva H. Connor, 75, of 305 W. Chicago Blvd., in the intersection of S. Pearl and W. Pottawatamie.

The Hendricks car was headed south, the Connor vehicle east. Both autos were hauled away by wreckers.

Mrs. Connor, who was cited for failure to yield the right of way, suffered head injuries in the mishap and is still confined at the hospital.

Sheila Ann Ratliff, 17, of 1102 Murray Dr., suffered a slight injury Wednesday of last week in an accident at the intersection of S. Evans St. and Pottawatamie.

According to the police report, she pulled into the path of an auto driven by Ronald C. Smith, 20, of 280 Maple St., and was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

★

A BRIEF rundown of other accidents:

Oct. 1 — Kenneth C. Peters, 17, of 206 Pine St., was cited for improper backing after hitting a parked car owned by Donald C. LaBounty of 805 Outer Dr.

Oct. 2 — Sharon Ann McVay, 16, of 306 N. Van Buren, was charged with failure to have her car under control after she struck an auto parked on N. Union St. and owned by Lee Purkey & Sons Garage.

Oct. 3 — A minor mishap on E. Chicago Blvd. at Ottawa St., involved William V. Dunten, 38, of 105 Division St. and Kathleen Sue Messler, 16, Pontiac. No charges were filed.

Officers Entertain

Officers of the Lenawee County Medical Society Auxiliary will entertain members at the home of Mrs. Carl A. Benz, 3031 Spielman Rd., Adrian, Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Benz is president of the county organization. Other officers are:

Vice President — Mrs. A. J. Phelan

Secretary — Mrs. Carlton Cook

Treasurer — Mrs. Rebilo Diccion, Manitou Beach.

132 Give Blood

"The donor turnout was greatly appreciated," said chairman Dr. Robert Murray.

He and his committee especially want to thank the Future Nurses from Clinton and Tecumseh for their help in soliciting donors and for helping at the Community Center.

Can You Find the Tree?

The same tree appears in pictures above and below. That's about all that is similar. The top photo was taken the Monday after Palm Sunday — sound familiar? It shows what was left of the Bill Rader home on Staib Rd., two miles north of Tecumseh. The picture below was snapped this Monday, as workers raise framing for a wall on the new Rader residence. The largest single tornado claim at the Manwaring Agency of Hanover Insurance Co., it took some time to get the settlement arranged Mrs. Rader commented, "It's been a long slow process, but we are hopeful that we will be able to move into the basement in three or four weeks." Mr. and Mrs. Rader have four children, two boys and two girls, all of whom enjoy living in the country. A sectional sofa, stove, refrigerator, two end tables and a kitchen table, all dented and damaged by debris in the storm are about all the family has left of their original belongings, though they have received much through the kindness of the community. Saddest of their losses seems to be a horse, killed in the tornado. Another horse, a calf, pony and pig managed to get out of the barn unharmed. As soon as the Raders are back at the corner of Staib and Newburg Rd., the sturdy old pine will come down, reports Mrs. Rader.

$45,203 Goal Set by Fund

It's Community Fund Drive time again.

This year, the Tecumseh Fund Foundation hopes to raise $45,203, which represents approximately 10% increase in charitable contributions over 1964, the remainder going into park improvements.

For town newcomers, it should be pointed out that the public library is the result of past drives, built from donations over and above budget requirements.

That's the whole idea of the Foundation — meet charity needs and give residents needed town improvements.

★

Division chairmen include:

Commercial — Donald Martin, Jr., and Don Sunderland.

Residential — Mrs. Lloyd Stites with Mrs. J. P. Fouts as co-chairman.

Professional — Dr. DeLoss Bates.

Municipal — Donald Moffatt

Industrial — Tim Neill.

12 Bands To Play

It's Fall! and Tecumseh is hosting its 19th Annual Lenawee County Band Festival Tuesday, Oct. 12. The program, under the familiar narration of the Rev. Blair Bashore, is scheduled for 8 p.m. on the Recreation Field.

Originator of this spectacular and thrilling pageant is former Tecumseh music instructor, Clair Camburn, whose 1946 program has grown into a multi-band spectacular bringing several thousand to Tecumseh each fall.

The 12 bands that will perform include Addison, Adrian, Blissfield, Britton-Macon, Clinton, Deerfield, Hudson, Madison, Morenci, Onsted, Sand Creek and Tecumseh.

Each band is allowed seven minutes on the field, enforced by a monetary fine for overtime performances.

Proceeds from the Band Festival will be divided equally between the 12 bands to help their individual band programs, with the exception of a small amount which is used to augment the Scholarship Fund of the Lenawee County Band Directors' Association.

The finale, under the direction of Bruce McCormick, Blissfield Band Director and President of the Lenawee County Band Directors Association, will feature the 12 Lenawee County Bands massed in one playing "You're a Grand Old Flag," "America the Beautiful," and "The Star Spangled Banner."

The Tecumseh Band contribution during the regular portion of the program will feature a Dixieland theme. Their presentation will include "The Yellow Rose of Texas," "Shoo Fly Don't Bother Me," and the Tecumseh twirlers will present their interpretation of "The Mississippi Mud."

Tickets for this yearly event are available from any band member.

Kathy Wykes Saves Life of Swimmer

Pretty 18-year-old Kathy Wykes of Jackson and a former Tecumseh resident, has a new admirer.

The Jackson Junior College freshman, working as life guard at the Y pool, fished out a swimmer in trouble last week, then used artificial respiration to revive him.

The victim, Terry Fleming, age 20, had been attempting to go two lengths of the tank under water.

The one-time resident here and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wykes had a date Saturday night — a grateful Terry took her to dinner at Schuler's.

Indians Favored

Tecumseh will be a slight favorite against Milan Friday night to win its second straight Huron League game.

Game time at Milan is 7:30.

Largest City Project Completed

The largest project ever undertaken by the city without the aid of bonds or loans has been completed.

Cal Zorn, City Manager, told Council Monday night that the Evans Creek interceptor Sewer Project has been completed to the west end of the city where it ties in with a lift station on Sunset Dr.

Payment of $100,000 for the sewer was taken out of the general fund over two budget years. Only laterals, paid by special assessment or through agreements, are not completed, although being worked on now.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Parking cars during home football can be educational, reports Tom Morgan of the Jaycees.

One fellow left his car near St. Peter's, walked across the baseball field, asking what the money was being used for from parking fees. Told it would buy new field lights, he kicked in two-bits.

Out in front of school, THS Principal Neville Hart drove up, was quickly told by newcomer Jaycee Carl Klineschmidt it would cost him 25c.

"But I'm the principal," he replied.

"It's still a quarter," rejoined Carl.

So Nev dug down.

Bob Voorhees, 5233 Pennington Rd., is a mite upset over the way the county road gang disposed of trees as things were prepared to widen Pennington.

The 25th anniversary of the famous "Dynamic Kernels" project instigated here by the late Perry Hayden was suitably observed when the State Journal at Lansing printed a resume of the project in their Sept. 26 issue. Pictures of Mrs. Hayden and her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Woodward, of that city as well as Mr. Hayden embellished the article.

Boys between 8 and 13 remember your registration deadline for PUNT, PASS and KICK competition is OCTOBER 8, 1965. You may register with Tecumseh Recl. Dept. or George Underwood Fordland, Clinton.

Tip for the lazy apple picker. Just leave your booty in the trunk of the car and your apples will remain cool and crisp.

Wilfred Waldron spied this quote by Mark Twain in an old Reader's Digest: "Rome's liberties were not auctioned off in a day, but were bought slowly, gradually, furtively, little by little; first with a little corn and oil for the exceedingly poor and wretched, later with corn and oil for voters who were not quite so poor, later still with corn and oil for pretty much every man that had a vote to sell — exactly our own history over again."

Several people have indicated an interest in forming a camera club. One fellow suggested The Herald lensman might conduct a short course in how to use a camera. He said he's willing. Those interested in either or both ideas should call 423-2174.

Here's an idea for kids who want to earn some money. Orchards are offering a bushel of apples for $2 if you'll pick 'em. OK, so a youngster does this, then hustles to football game, either high school or college, sells the fruit at 10c each or 3 for 25c. With about 100 apples per bushel, this could mean a gross up to $10, or profit of $8. Neat, eh?

"I want to tell you we got results right now," said the voice on the other end of the line Thursday morning. She was speaking about a classified ad which she placed in the paper. Have you tried our classified columns? Do so today.

So help us, this is the way the one paragraph of a news release from the American Water Works Association about recent water works project around Michigan reads: "General Motors Corp. has constructed a one-half million gallon a day lime-soda softening plant near Tecumseh, using ground water as a source." Guess if a guy feels like having a refreshing drink, the place to go is Fisher Body.

A statesman thinks he belongs to the country.
A politician thinks the country belongs to him.

Know who won the World Series game between Boston and Pittsburgh in 1903? It was Boston, 5-3. This and many other interesting highlights of Series baseball, from 1903 through 1964, are to be found on a placemat brought home recently by Steve Illeck. Steve discovered the enlightening item in a coffee shop in a little town in Pennsylvania during his travels.

Did you see what Adrian did to Willow Run? The Maples clobbered the Jets, 27-6. Willow Run is the crew which stopped Tecumseh, 26-0, in the season's opener. The Maples entertain our Indians come Nov. 5. By then Bootin' Pussy should be back with some sort of trick play for his buddie Tom Fagan.

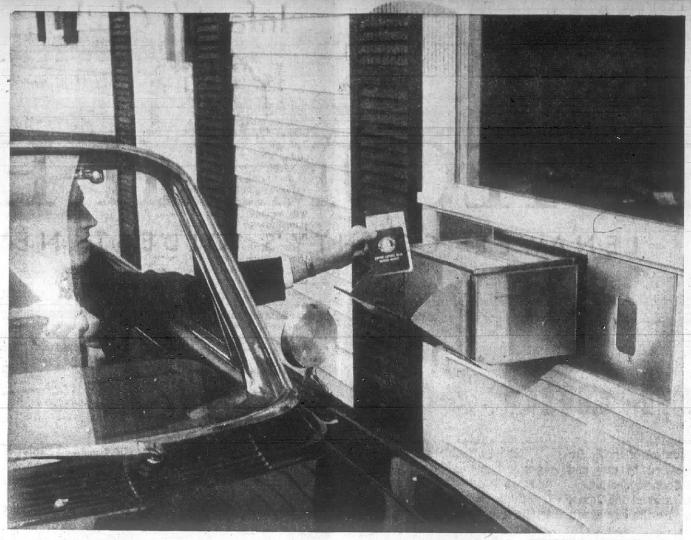
Thanks to Brother Romain at Boysville, the St. Elizabeth Cubs have 32 sparkling blue football jerseys. He loaned the Catholic School the shirts for the season. They normally would be worn by Boysville's Jayvee squad, but the thin ranks among the Fighting Knights put everyone on the varsity this fall.



WHY MRS. WRIGHT SMILES — With a slick drive-in window, the Sutton Rd. Branch of the United Savings Bank will be opening next week. Mrs. Wright (shown on page one) has been named manager of the outlet and is to be assisted by Paul Mann, who shows how easy it is to do banking from the driver's seat of your car. An open house next Wednesday at the branch will be held from 2 to 8 p.m.

Chuck Dillenbeck Calling Western Style Saturday

Chuck Dillenbeck of Detroit will call Western style square dancing Saturday, Oct. 9, at 8 p.m. at Tecumseh Community Center. All western dancers are welcome.

Anyone interested in learning this style dancing is invited to join the beginners class held at the Community Center, every Sunday evening at 7 p.m.

New dancers will not be accepted after Oct. 10 according to Mrs. Stanley Kruse, publicity chairman.

Two "special" dances are planned for October. October 16 a "Rusty Hinge" dance is being held in an attempt to reactivate membership in the Shawnee Squares club.

This dance will be workshop level with Glenn LeFever as caller. Anyone who has not been dancing for a while and wants to get back is invited to attend.

Members and friends are asked to note the change in date from the 30th to the 31st of October for the Halloween dance.

THE GUEST studied at David Lipscomb College in Nashville, George Pepperdine College in Los Angeles and received his BA and MA degrees from George Peabody College in ashville.

He has preached the gospel for 24 years in 19 states and served regularly in Alabama, Nashville, Washington, D.C., Dayton, Ohio and is now with the Van Dyke Church in Warren.

Mr. Dillard has worked in many youth camps and is on the advisory Board of Michigan Christian Youth Camp at Attica.

All of Dr. Dillard's lessons will be emphasizing the theme, "First Century Christianity Today."

"The Church of Christ sincerely believes you will profit from hearing the messages delivered by this devoted man of God," Mr. Pistole states.

To demonstrate this, the church has rented all off-street parking meters for Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15-16 and will give free parking.

As a public service, hymns will be broadcast from atop the church building on these two days.

★

"THE SERVICES are not designed to entertain, but to help you worship God in spirit and in truth. They are conducted in simplicity with a deep spiritual meaning. You will enjoy singing your favorite hymns with the congregation," concludes Mr. Pistole.

come when referring to the lads who tickle the keyboards of our line-casting devices.

No. 1 is Bill Schooley a transplant from Whitehall, who is forever making corny quips.

Example: when Dorothy Grigg dropped and broke a dozen eggs just as she stepped into the Volkswagon, Bill was nearby and mused, "You'll have to call it a Yolkswagon now."

But he can set type at a rapid rate, so we always chuckle when he speaks. Especially, when it comes out something like, "May I have a raise?"

Now Uncle Ralph isn't Ralph at all. He's Don Blesing, who has been around Tecumseh since 1800, having arrived in town with Musgrove Evans.

He acquired the handle of Uncle Ralph six years ago when my son, for no apparent reason, called him that one day.

Don joined the paper when much of it was handset. One day, his boss, Ed Armstrong, pointed to a Linotype and told Don it was his to run.

★

SEVEN YEARS ago, Don qualified for Social Security and decided to pursue a life of leisure.

We went along with this idea for a couple of years, but as copy piled up and deadlines roared close, we would phone Don and ask for a hand. He would always ok[illegible].

In recent months, this has developed into an every-week affair.

Grazing Gets OK

Farmers who diverted acreage under the 1965 feed grain and voluntary wheat certificate programs now may graze this acreage without losing program benefits.

The starting date for such grazing was Oct. 1, marking the end of the six-month period during which the "no grazing" provision was in effect under the diversion programs.

This program relaxation regarding use of this acreage applies only to grazing the feed grain and wheat diverted acres.

Hay on such acreages still may not be diverted.

Janet Cooper Marries Raymond Howell

Janet Moe Cooper became the bride of Raymond Duane Howell at the Westside Methodist Church, Ann Arbor, Oct. 2, in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Paul S. Durham.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Cooper of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Howell, 8100 Clinton-Macon Rd.

Patricia Mueller was maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. William C. Kulenkamp of Saline, Mrs. James Goforth and Kitty Mulholland of Ann Arbor.

Lynn Frost of Macon was best man and the guests were seated by Richard Socha, Michael Gillen and William C. Kulenkamp.

A reception was held at the Saline American Legion Home immediately following the ceremony. The couple will live at 3276 Central St. in Dexter after a week's trip through the Eastern States.

The bride is a graduate of Ann Arbor High School and is employed at the University of Michigan.

Her husband is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Jackson Junior College and is employed for the Ford Motor Co. at Ypsilanti.

Johnson Leads Arrow Victories

With three more victories, the Pontiac Arrows of the Midwest Pro Football League are still undefeated — although there were close calls in the trio of wins.

Last week, Pontiac edged the Lansing All-Stars, 18-13, with Tecumseh's Jim Johnson coming off the bench late in the game to help insure victory.

Going into the final period, the score was tied, thanks to a 63-yard sprint by Johnson the first time he took the ball to set up a score by Bobby Hill.

Then Jim was off again, going 91 yards before being hauled down on the one-yard line. Bill Harrington passed to Bill Leonard for the winning margin.

Jim carried over 200 yards in the victory.

Against Milan a week earlier, the Arrows came out 7-0. This time Johnson tossed a pass to Leonard, which went for 35 yards and set up the lone score, a five-yard off-guard plunge by Willie Jones.

Pontiac again faces Milan Sunday night on the Arrows' field.

Dem Women Told 'Bring Husband'

Members of the Democratic Women's Club of Lenawee County have specific instructions for their chicken potluck dinner Wednesday, Oct. 12.

The dinner is slated for the home of Mrs. Frank Morse of Morenci. Reservations should be in by Sunday, says Rhea Burch, secretary.

Starts Thursday OCT. 14TH 10 BIG DAYS

Pvt. Bonnie M. Blaska, daughter of Mrs. Eva M. Penney, 110 Muscody St., completed eight weeks of basic military training at the Women's Army Corps Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., Oct. 1. During the training, Pvt. Blaska received instruction in army history and traditions, administrative procedures and military justice. She is a 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Mrs. Russell Carey will move from N. Union St. this week. Her address will be 715 S. Rogers St., Cherry Grove Apts., No. 14, Mason 48854.

Wit and Wisdom Was Founded Back in 1893

Thirty members and four guests heard the club history read by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan. It was written in 1911 by Mrs. Fred Rosacrans.

The club was started in 1893, meeting as a lady's study group once each week. They formally organized Feb. 14, 1894 and gave a banquet for their husbands.

Miss Waldron called on each member present to tell what the club has meant to her over the years. Incidents during past programs were discussed.

Cider, coffee and doughnuts were served by the host committee, Mrs. Fred Rector, Mrs. H. Willmott and Mr. and Mrs. Faye VanValkenburg.

Contemporary Art Is Shown

A dynamic showcase of contemporary art throughout the United States opens at the Toledo Museum of Art Saturday, when the Museum presents the exhibition, "Art Across America," which continues through Oct. 31.

Infants' Clothing Is Badly Needed

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church women will meet Thursday from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. to sew cancer pads.

Needles and white thread are to be brought to the meeting, which will be at the church.

Next meeting for the group will be held on Monday at 1:30 p.m., instead of the regular evening hour.

Mrs. Elaine Orheim of the Lutheran Social Service of Detroit will be the speaker, telling about the need for infants' clothing.

To meet this demand, the women will include a baby shower as part of this meeting. Members are asked to bring new or like-new garments for babies. Layette items will be especially appreciated.

Those who cannot attend may send gifts to Mrs. Bill Macbeth or Mrs. Ken Goldmann.

Women of the congregation will furnish cookies and the service for a coffee hour Sunday after the church service, during which Dr. Laszlo Gero will install the new members of the congregation.

Vandals Smear Car with Paint

White paint was smeared over the trunk and along the fenders. Police are questioning two juveniles and are still investigating.

Shower Honors Mrs. Stadler

Mrs. John Seay entertained at her home at 605 N. Adrian St., Tuesday evening, at a baby shower honoring Mrs. Thomas Stadler of Clinton.

Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. Gerald Newman of Milan, Mrs. Karl Wirt and Sheilia Marr, both of Clinton.

Among the 14 relatives and friends present were Mrs. Stadler's mother, Mrs. Howard Williams of 606 Kilbuck St. and mother-in-law, Mrs. Burton Stadler of Clinton.

Social games were played and the prizes were presented to the guest of honor. She was showered with a variety of useful baby gifts.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights proved themselves a major contender for River Raisin League laurels last Friday night as they trounced Britton's Tories, 66-0.

Senior halfback Moe Jacobs, reminiscent of his sophomore year when he was Lenawee County scoring champion, again proved the big gun for the Knights, totaling 30 points on five touchdowns.

Boysville's offense erupted early in the first quarter as Joe Pawlus ripped around left end for paydirt. Jacobs soon followed on a sprint of 32 yards.

Jacobs tallied twice in the second quarter on jaunts of 38 and five yards.

Three plays after the second half kickoff, Jacobs again took to his heels, this time to tally on a 20-yard run. Norris McFarland scored on a quarterback sneak of four yards.

Brothers Tim and Kevin Collins both tallied once each in the fourth quarter. Kevin is a defensive halfback converted to offense by Coach Nick Connors. Tim Collins is a freshman quarterback.

Substitute halfback Nick Orlando also scored.

Deserving special attention is Boysville's line, both offensive and defensive. A tough defense limited Britton to two first downs. Offensively, end John Klos found the handle on three passes for good yardage.

Class elections have dominated the activities of the Boysville campus this week. Returns indicate that the Seniors have elected a party ballot with Ed Johnson as president, Joe Pawlus as vice-president, Norris McFarland as secretary, and John Klos as treasurer.

The sophomores, directed by their Moderator, Brother Thomas Scheurer, C.S.C., sponsored a pep rally in the gym preceding last Friday's game with Britton.

Also featured was an outline of Boysville's defensive strategy by Mike O'Dea, and a demonstration of the progress of the newly-organized junior varsity cheerleaders.

Is Your Herald Late?

This information may be of help to subscribers in the Southern Michigan - Northern Ohio area.

If you are receiving your paper at your local Post Office too late for delivery on Thursday or Friday of each week, take the following steps.

1. Drop The Herald a post card stating when you received your paper the last three weeks.

See if your Zip Code is correct in your address.

3. Write your local postmaster asking him to check when his office receives the paper and ask him to see what he can do about the service.

"We will take action on our end to have your mail traced and make every effort to see that you receive your paper on time," Herald publishers Jim Lincoln and Tom Riordan state.

The Herald is mailed each week from Tecumseh on Wednesday evening and should arrive at your local office on Thursday if there is no holdover at the distribution points serving your area.

Second class mail is handled the same as first class and cannot be held up in transit without violation of postal regulations.

Missionary Baptists Have New Church

Work on the basement of the 38 x 80 church building began this week.

Twelve classrooms will be constructed in the basement which will feature a glass window wall on the side hill. The main floor sanctuary will have a frame and brick exterior.

The basement will be completed first and it is expected that the services can be held there by Christmas.

The church was begun in the Clinton area three years ago and has 42 members with 72 persons enrolled in Sunday School.

Musical Vanns To Entertain

"Materialism is the arch enemy of the Christian in this present day and we must fight it," said the Rev. A. R. Vanderploeg recently as he travels across the nation with his wife.

They will speak and provide music Sunday, Oct. 10 for the fourth annual homecoming services at the Assembly of God Church.

Music will be a large part of the services all day Sunday beginning with church school at 10 a.m. and concluding with an evening service at 7:30 p.m.

The couple live in a mobil home attached to their car. They park the 32-foot trailer weighing 5½ tons next to the church where they are holding a meeting and it serves as an office for the evangelist.

THE MUSICAL VANS

The Rev. Harold Speer, pastor of the local Assembly extends a warm welcome to anyone who would like to attend the services.

TO THE EDITOR:

If you and your family would like to see colorful Southeastern Michigan in all its glory, plan to spend Sunday in the Waterloo Area.

The third annual Fall Festival Pioneer Day will be held at the Museum of the Waterloo Area Historical Society from 2 to 5 p.m. The museum is located on the Waterloo-Munith Rd.

If you are interested in antiques or seeing what community effort can produce when working together becomes a labor of love, don't miss it.

There will be demonstrations and displays of life as it was lived in this area in the pioneer days. Baked and canned goods, jams and jellies, candies, nuts, flowers, fancy work, aprons and all sorts of things will be on sale.

The remarkable thing about it all is that this house — the old Reilly place — was taken over by the Federal Government. When the land became a part of the Waterloo Recreation Area, it was then returned to the state, and the Historical Society got the house back from the state and started to restore it.

Meanwhile all the marvelous old things were sold at an auction that brought more than $20,000.

Five years ago the Stockbridge area celebrated it's 125th anniversary and a great feeling of community cooperation emerged from it. Several other small villages nearby were included.

Later a new group was formed and choose the impressive name, "Waterloo Area Historical Society."

Men, women and children have worked together, picking up stones, clearing the grounds, repairing fence, completely rebuilding the old fan on the wind mill by hand, plastering, papering, scraping, sanding, refinishing woodwork, floors, furniture, weaving roomsize rag carpets (like you remember), searching, finding, giving of their treasure, time and talents. The results is unbelievable.

Don't miss it. Oh yes, the Reilly brothers always made cider and there will be doughnuts available too.

Ballroom dancing is rated next to swimming as the most healthful exercise, especially for we who are a little too athritic to do "the Jerk."

Instruction is available Wednesday evenings at the Community Center at 8:30 p.m. and as one prominent Tecumsehites said, "I enjoy dancing when I know what I'm doing, but I get so tired when I don't."

Mrs. Bruce Brown, instructor in her own school at Onsted, will assist those couples who would like to improve their dancing.

Fireman's Ball Is Set

The Fireman's Ball will be held Saturday, Oct. 9, at the Tecumseh Products Union Hall.

This is the first dance of this kind since 1952. An effort is being made to earn money for needed equipment for the Fire Department.

The Ken Edwards orchestra has been secured to provide music from 9 p.m. until ?

A donation of $2.50 a couple and $1.50 per person will be accepted. George Ruhl, Herbert Barnes, Richard Beasley and Mahlon Sebring are making plans for the event.

Tecumseh was defeated for the first time in four years in the annual waterball contest Sunday in Adrian. The Madison Fire Department defeated the Raisin Fire Department and Tecumseh, the Palmyra crew in the preliminaries and then Madison went home with the new travel trophy, winning the Lenawee County championship.

Tecumseh holds one 28-inch trophy which they have been awarded the past three years. Two ladies teams contended in an event with Madison gals taking the honors from Raisin township firewomen.

Though the wind was a factor in the contest, it was fair for everyone stated Tecumseh Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge.

Following the contest, all the fire equipment from the county paraded through Adrian to a house west of Rogers Hwy. on Labaardee Rd. owned by Douglas Wagner.

Demonstrations and various displays of fire fighting were presented before the house was completely burned. High expansion foam was the highlight of the exhibit. A fan is held at the window to completely fill the room with foam which smothers fire and forms steam. The foam is not harmful to the firemen who may be completely enveloped with it with no ill effects.

A fire stick, a new six foot pointed nozzle which has been purchased by several of the departments including Tecumseh, was demonstrated. The firestick may be rammed through the siding or roof of a building to extinguish fire from the outside.

Lyle DesErmia Celebrates 33rd Year in Business

Lyle DesErmia celebrates his 33rd year as a Tecumseh businessman this week, and with the exception of Perry Satterthwaite, he is probably the oldest businessman in the community as owner of a Tecumseh store.

He first started business on E. Chicago Blvd., then moved across the street to the corner of Chicago Blvd. and N. Evans St., and in 1944, relocated his furniture store at the present site.

Readied For National Contest

The Victor Knierim farm, four miles southeast of Adrian on Gorman Rd, is being readied for 100,000 visitors for the National Corn Picking Contest, October 21-22.

This is the first time the national contest has been held in Michigan.

Approximately 150 bushels of seed corn and 104 tons of fertilizer have been used on the 300 acres located at the Knierim farm and on alternate sites owned by Mueller Brothers, Britton and Harold Wolf, Morenci.

The planning and carrying out of the contest will involve 500 people. The event is sponsored by the Kiwanis Clubs of Lenawee County and the Cooperative Extension Service of MSU.

Indicative of the tremendous interest in the event is the fact that 272 plots have been reserved by exhibitors. These exhibits will include machinery displays and a great variety of commercial displays of interest to both men and women.

The contest will include three divisions:

2-Row picker-huskers

Picker-shellers

2 and 3-row combines.

Contest winners of the two divisions of each of the following states will compete: Michigan, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri. If state contests are held in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, these winners will also participate.

The Michigan State Contest will be held on Thursday, Oct. 21.

CORN is the history of every farm and farmer who came to, or was born to this land. The ear of corn has always been a symbol of agricultural plenty in our country. Only the method of harvest has changed. From the husking peg to the hook, to the horse-drawn mechanical corn picker, to the tractor-drawn single and two-row machine and on to the mounted pickers, the progress in corn harvest method has moved steadily upward, culminating in the current "Monsters of the Field" — the picker-shellers and the heated or air conditioned cab-overengine corn combines.

The "husking bee" of yesteryear has given way to progress. Those community gatherings which blossomed into the hand-husking national contest of the 1920's and 30's passed into oblivion when World War II ended the National competitions. The immediate post-war years brought the flood of new corn picking machines from a host of manufacturers. Eight years passed from the time the last National hand-husking contest was held to the advent of the machine contest.

Elmer Carlson of Audobon, Iowa, a former national hand-husking champ, suggested the idea of a machine contest to the late Chuck Worchester, former farm service director of WMT in Cedar Rapids. From 1949 until 1951, the national contests were held in Iowa.

Safety was the dominant factor behind the organization of the contests.

Efficient harvesting methods is now an important factor. In the early years of scoring the contests, it was found that not enough penalty was assessed for husks and trash in the loads.

During these years not only have contestant scores been on the increase to the possible perfect score of 100, but the National Corn Picking Contest has advanced to a scientific slide-rule operation becoming a corn belt yardstick farmers depend on for comparisons in harvesting records.

A new radar outfit for Tecumseh police was approved by Council Monday night after Chief Murell Clark explained the present timer would cost about $500 to repair.

Adrian Youth Visits Traverse

Craig Gritzmaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gritzmaker, Rt. 3 Adrian, Michigan, who was the state winner in the Livestock demonstration contest at the recent State 4-H Club Show joined other 4-H winners in Traverse City Oct. 1-5. These 4-H winners from throughout the state were meeting at the close of the 1965 National 4-H Club Week observance for a new kind of educational experience.

The 4-H members studied the economic base of a Michigan community and learned what kind of career opportunities are available in some of the various businesses and industries that serve Michigan.

The group started their learning experience with an air tour of the Traverse Bay area to view the relation of topography to the tourist and agricultural industries. Following the air tour they met with key representatives of these two industries to discuss the impact of agriculture and tourism on the economy of the Traverse City area.

Cub Scouts Pack Four To Organize

Memoriam

In precious memory of Charles Henry Treat, who died two years ago today, Oct. 9, 1963. He was called to leave us on an October day. As he worked along, his mind was filled with joy. His years were but eighteen and yet, oh, so wise. God made a young man out of a small boy. He could tell you of heaven, more so than the grown—for in his dear heart, God's love was to know. May God touch all the heartaches his going has left. Help all to see he's gone with the blessed. For I'm sure God's plan for this young man will far exceed any on earth we had planned. Sadly missed by Mother, Father, and Sister.

Indian 11 Down Flat Rock 20-13

By JIM LINCOLN

The visitors, down 20-0 early in the second quarter, trimmed the margin to two touchdowns seconds before the half, and then stormed back in the second half to completely dominate play and score another tally.

However, Indian fans had something to cheer about for the first time this year. Tecumseh started the tilt as though "the Indians were going to completely rout the Rams.

With the game less than two minutes old, Bill Chandler pounced on a FR fumble on the Rams' 23. On the first play, Roger Young scooted between left tackle and end for 23 yards and Tecumseh's first TD.

With 325 left on the scoreboard, Tecumseh climaxed a 54-yard drive with a Rentschler pass to Gordon Gibson from the three-yard line. Run for the extra point failed.

Trailing by 13 points, FR took advantage of a Tecumseh fumble on the Indians 30, moved to the 26, where a Ram fumble was grabbed by Barry Williamson.

* * *

Again, on the first play, Young raced 74 yards to the one-foot mark, where an official claimed he was upset. Most observers, including FR officials, thought Young was a good yard inside the end zone before being dragged down.

Jim Upell easily scored on the next play, and then plunged for the extra point.

After taking the kickoff, FR's drive stalled and the Indians took over on their 32. Tecumseh moved across midfield to the 30, largely on a Rentschler pass to Upell, a gainer of 23 yards, where another Rentschler aerial was picked off by the visitors.

With the help of two pass completions, FR moved to the Tecumseh one where quarterback Paul Spohr sneaked over on third down. Only six seconds remained in the first half.

The Rams narrowed the gap to one touchdown in the third period, when their 6'3" fullback Rick Sands bulled his 230 pounds through a flock of would be Tecumseh tacklers near midfield and raced for paydirt. Spohr passed for the extra point.

Just before the tally, the Indians halted a FR threat from the three yard line when Gordon Gibson intercepted a jump pass over the center.

Another questionable call aided FR at the end of the third quarter when an official screened by a player, ruled a Rentschler pass intercepted on Tecumseh's 40. The ball took a short bounce before being grabbed.

Prettiest play of the night came early in the final stanza when a 40-yard Rentschler pass hit Hebb just over midfield. Hebb took the ball away from a FR defender, juggled the ball momentarily and then took off before being halted down from behind on the 19.

After Bill Davis picked up four through the middle, the Indians suffered three straight losses, giving up the ball to the Rams on the 36.

With time running out, FR moved to Tecumseh's 36 where another Ram fumble was recovered by Tecumseh. The visitors still had one more opportunity later, but Gibson again intercepted as the game ended.

FR's domination in the second half gave the Rams the battle of statistics, but not the ball game. While they outgained Tecumseh, the Rams also were guilty of poor handling and fumbling which cost them the league opener.

Flat Rock	0	6	7	0—13
Tecumseh	13	7	0	0—20

Tecumseh scoring: Young (run, 23); Gibson (pass, 3); Upell (run, 1). PAT: Rentschler, Upell, both runs.

Frosh Quarterback Evading Losses

John Kennedy may only be 130 pounds, but when it comes to faking with and throwing a football he seems almost invincible.

So far, this quarterback of the Tecumseh freshman squad has displayed a lot of talent in two straight victories.

In the season's opener against Manchester, John passed to Larry Cote for a 19-yard scoring play, then nailed Dan Anderson for another TD.

Against Adrian's freshmen last week, Kennedy hurled a trio of touchdown aerials — two to Anderson of 35 and 41 yards and one to Dave Laidlaw for 22.

Coach Todd notes that Kennedy is adroit at faking, especially in running the belly series when he has apparently given the pigskin to fullback Carl Mobley for a line smash, then jerks it away and hurls a pass.

Mobley's skill at pretending he has the ball helps greatly, plus the fact that he often is called to keep it and then rambles for good gains. He rammed for several 20-yarders against Adrian.

Coach Todd has praise for Steve Dalton's running from a halfback against Manchester and the top-flight tackle performances of 200-pounders Jim Parros and Bob Haines.

The THS Frosh were slated to visit Hillsdale Wednesday of this week.

Earles Standout At Manchester

Running with a new six-cylinder Chevy engine, Don Earles of Hillsdale was the standout in racing Saturday evening at Manchester Speedway.

Don picked up three wins as well as being the fastest qualifier.

In the feature he was followed by Dick Crup, Lynn Hunt and Butch Moull.

Other winners Saturday were:

Second heat—John Mooneyham, with Butch Moull second.

Third heat—Dick Carr with John Bauer second.

Semi-feature—Jack Carr with Don Taylor second and Dick Carr third.

Don McCubbin was fastest qualifier in the semi-late stock class and he picked up the first heat with Ed Todd taking second in both semi-late model events. The other heat was won by Jim Kaweinsky.

Athletic GIANTS Invade County

By DICK CARVER

Professional basketball came to Tecumseh Tuesday night, but only a few area citizens and Kiwanians were on hand to see the action.

The Baltimore Bullets and Detroit Pistons met in Tecumseh's 1,400-seat high school gymnasium as the Pistons routinely bounced out a 99-95 victory.

The Pistons are now 6 and 5 and Baltimore 3 and 5 for the exhibition season.

*

IF THE Bullets thought they lost, they should have glanced over at the southeast corner of the court where the sponsoring Kiwanians watched with weary eyes, contemplating an $800 loss.

Shortly after the game, one expressively called it a "loosing contest." Understandably, few wanted to say much.

Total attendance, counting the players, numbered about 250 persons. The gross income for the venture stood at a little over $400 as the Kiwanis and WLEN Radio absorbed a $1,600 dunking.

The entire venture cost $2,000, including a $1,800 guarantee to the Detroit Club.

Kiwanis, which supports numerous projects including Scouting, the Lenawee Institute and many others will pay off its share of the loss from previous successes.

Especially profitable in the past has been their World's Fair.

*

FORMER Michigan All-American, Bill Buntin drew healthy, if diminished, cheers from the crowd as he appeared in the second and fourth periods.

Buntin, with an ample waistline, started cold, but dunked six points from outside the key in the final moments of the fourth period.

Other Piston favorites included Coach Dave DeBusschere and Donnis Butcher, each of whom made only seven points, but played fine defensive ball.

The Pistons meet Cincinnati Thursday and see action in Holland Friday, where they take on the New York Knicks.

Onsted Juniors Top St. Elizabeth

Onsted's junior high football team topped St. Elizabeth, 28-0 in the season's opener for both teams last week.

Coach Jim Greene's Cubs had one bright moment, when Paul Burns connected on a 20-yard pass gainer to Frank Florez.

St. Elizabeth is slated to meet Adrian Catholic Central this week.

Indian 11 Down Flat Rock 20-13

By JIM LINCOLN

The visitors, down 20-0 early in the second quarter, trimmed the margin to two touchdowns seconds before the half, and then stormed back in the second half to completely dominate play and score another tally.

However, Indian fans had something to cheer about for the first time this year. Tecumseh started the tilt as though the Indians were going to completely rout the Rams.

With the game less than two minutes old, Bill Chandler pounced on a FR fumble on the Rams' 23. On the first play, Roger Young scooted between left tackle and end for 23 yards and Tecumseh's first TD.

Ron Rentschler wedged over for the extra ...

With 325 left on the scoreboard, Tecumseh climaxed a 54-yard drive with a Rentschler pass to Gordon Gibson from the three-yard line. Run for the extra point failed.

Trailing by 13 points, FR took advantage of a Tecumseh fumble on the Indians 30, moved to the 26, where a Ram fumble was grabbed by Barry Williamson.

★

Again, on the first play, Young raced 74 yards to the one-foot mark, where an official claimed he was upset. Most observers, including FR officials, thought Young was a good yard inside the end zone before being dragged down.

Jim Upell easily scored on the next play, and then plunged for the extra point.

After taking the kickoff, FR's drive stalled and the Indians took over on their 32. Tecumseh moved across midfield to the 30, largely on a Rentschler pass to Upell, a gainer of 23 yards, where another Rentschler aerial was picked off by the visitors.

With the help of two pass completions, FR moved to the Tecumseh one where quarterback Paul Spohr sneaked over on third down. Only six seconds remained in the first half.

The Rams narrowed the gap to one touchdown in the third period, when their 6'3" fullback Rick Sands bulled his 230 pounds through a flock of would be Tecumseh tacklers near midfield and raced for paydirt. Spohr passed for the extra point.

Just before the tally, the Indians halted a FR threat from the three yard line when Gordon Gibson intercepted a jump pass over the center.

Another questionable call ... ed FR at the end of the third quarter when an official, screened by a player, ruled a Rentschler pass intercepted on Tecumseh's 40. The ball took a short bounce before being grabbed.

Prettiest play of the night came early in the final stanza when a 40-yard Rentschler pass hit Hebb just over midfield. Hebb took the ball away from a FR defender, juggled the ball momentarily and then took off before being hauled down from behind on the 19.

With time running out, FR moved to Tecumseh's 36 where another Ram fumble was recovered by Tecumseh. The visitors still had one more opportunity later, but Gibson again intercepted as the game ended.

FR's domination in the second half gave the Rams the battle of statistics, but not the ball game. While they outgained Tecumseh, the Rams also were guilty of poor handling and fumbling which cost them the league opener.

Flat Rock	0	6	7	0	—13
Tecumseh	13	7	0	0	—20

Tecumseh scoring: Young (run, 23); Gibson (pass, 3); Upell (run, 1). PAT: Rentschler, Upell, both runs.

Frosh Quarterback Evading Losses

John Kennedy may only be 130 pounds, but when it comes to faking with and throwing a football he seems almost invincible.

So far, this quarterback of the Tecumseh freshman squad has displayed a lot of talent in two straight victories.

In the season's opener against Manchester, John passed to Larry Cote for a 19-yard scoring play, then nailed Dan Anderson for another TD.

Against Adrian's freshmen last week, Kennedy hurled a trio of touchdown aerials — two to Anderson of 35 and 41 yards and one to Dave Laidlaw for 22.

Coach Todd notes that Kennedy is adroit at faking, especially in running the belly series when he has apparently given the pigskin to fullback Carl Mobley for a line smash, then jerks it away and hurls a pass.

Mobley's skill at pretending he has the ball helps greatly, plus the fact that he often is called to keep it and then rambles for good gains. He rammed for several 20-yarders against Adrian.

Coach Todd has praise for Steve Dalton's running from a halfback against Manchester and the top-flight tackle performances of 200-pounders Jim Parros and Bob Haines.

The THS Frosh were slated to visit Hillsdale Wednesday of this week.

'Half-Notes' Is Newest Music Club

Twelve members and several mothers attended the first meeting of "The Half-Notes", a newly-organized music club of fourth, fifth and sixth grade students.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Burton Wright, who was assisted by Mrs. Harold Smith. Both are counselors for the group.

Mrs. James E. Danforth conducted the meeting and told the group the purpose of the club — to study and perform music before others and to provide incentive for nigh standards in music as well as social relations.

Mrs. Danforth is the district chairman of Extension for the State Federation of Music Clubs.

★

OTHERS elected to office were:

Vice-president — Darlene Smith

Second vice-president — Paul Brantingham

Secretary and treasurer — Nancy Sinkey

Historian — April Cook

Mrs. H. D. Horning, newly-elected state extension chairman, will be present at the next meeting Nov. 12 for the installation of officers.

The meeting will be held at 4 p.m. at the Missionary Baptist Church, 20 Cairns St.

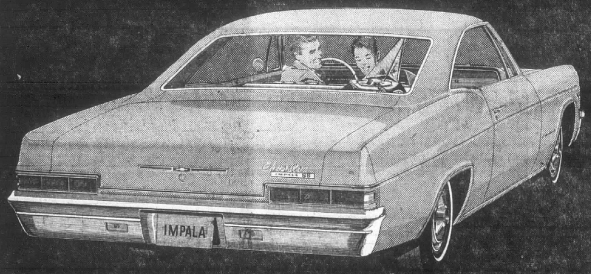
Caprice Custom Coupe

NEW CAPRICE BY CHEVROLET

Custom Coupe, Sedan and two luxurious new Custom Wagons. Liquid smooth ride. Power you can order just as smooth and pin-drop quiet. Turbo-Jet V8 engines that go all the way up to 425 hp. New interiors. The look of hand-rubbed walnut trim. Elegance everywhere. Made by Chevrolet, so you know what a beautiful value it must be.



NEW CHEVROLET JET-SMOOTHER

We've again specially tailored those coil springs at every wheel to each body style. We've put in new softer shock absorbers. No Chevrolet has ever had a ride like this. Power begins with a thrifty Six at 155 hp, and goes on from there. Turbo-Jet V8's available at 325 hp, 390 hp and 425 hp in all the new Impalas, Bel Airs and Biscaynes for 1966. Model shown: Impala Super Sport Coupe.

NEW CHEVELLE SUPER SPORT 396

New 300's. New 300 Deluxe models. New Malibus. And two new Super Sport 396's—coupe and convertible—with engines that tell you exactly what kind of Chevelles they are. Both are available with 396-cubic-inch Turbo-Jet V8's, either 325 hp or 360 hp. Both come with special hood, grille, suspension, emblems, red-stripe tires, floor-mounted shift. Twelve beautiful Chevelles in all—all as new inside as they are outside, headlamps to taillights.

Chevelle Super Sport 396 Coupe

Nova Super Sport Coupe

ALL NEW CHEVY II

It's so different, we should really call it the Chevy III. Roofs are swept way back on coupes. Fenders, grille, hood, taillights and bumpers are new on all seven models. Interiors are richer. Power available up to a 350-hp Turbo-Fire V8. You can even order headrests for the front seats and Mag-style wheel covers. What's the economical, dependable Chevy II coming to? A lot of smart '66 car buyers, we figure.

'66 CORVAIR UNIQUE

Still America's only rear-engine car. And with the special steering and suspension you can add, there's no better way to rid yourself of prematurely gray driving. Lots new. Corvair, like all the '66 Chevrolets, has a padded dash, seat belts front and back, new fully synchronized 3-speed. Corsas, Monzas, 500's. Get one.

TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

Does Sculptured Head of Tecumseh Match His Looks?

Sister Mary Denise, O.P., Adrian Dominican nun, who was recently appointed composer-in-residence at St. Joseph College, Rensselaer, Ind., sculpted Chief Tecumseh from terra cotta last spring.

The sculpture, now in the possession of Mr. and Mrs. Rhyne F. Smith in Adrian, was finished with burnt umber and wax patina.

★

IT WAS fired by Sister M. Joannes, O.P. in charge of the Art Department Studio Angelico at Siena Heights College.

Sister Denise, who took up her new duties in September in Indiana, was previously professor of piano, and theory at Barry College in Miami, Fla. and at Siena Heights.

She obtained her bachelor of music degree from Siena and her master's degree from the University of Michigan.

Post graduate work has been done by the Sister at Eastman School of Music and Julliard.

★

HER MUSICAL compositions include comedies, operettas, cantatas, octavo music and sacred music including three new English High Masses and Psalms.

She likes the renewed Liturgy and Masses in the venacular, "I believe they will encourage participation and bring the priests and the people closer together."

Sister's latest sculpture is a crucifix in terra cotta clay for the Outdoor Stations of the Cross at St. Joseph College.

TECUMSEH SCHOOL MENU

Thursday—Spaghetti and meat sauce, cole slaw, biscuits and butter, carrot sticks, cooky and milk.

Friday—Macaroni and cheese, pickles, green bean, apple crisp and milk.

Chief Clark Appointed by Johnson

Tecumseh Police Chief Murell Clark has been appointed to the membership and communications committee of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

In a letter to Chief Clark, Mr. Johnson noted:

"Never before in the history of organized society have the forces of law and order been so challenged. And never has the need for greater and more concerted police action been so pronounced.

"Highway and traffic accidents are taking an unprecedented toll. Juvenile problems become more extended and the crime rate continues to climb.

"Primary purpose of our Michigan Police Chiefs Association is to meet these problems head-on by encouraging greater statewide police cooperation and efficiency," he concluded.

17th Annual Holiday Ball Plans Discussed

Five members of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met last week at the home of Mrs. William Adams to discuss preliminary plans for the 17th annual Holiday Ball.

In addition to Mrs. Adams and her co-chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, the group included Mrs. John Howell, publicity chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Killman, ticket chairman and Mrs. Donald Moffatt, decorating chairman.

The semi-formal dance, a highlight of the holiday season and the largest single event benefiting Herrick Memorial Hospital and the people it serves, will be Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Country Club.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THE FIRST INSTALLMENT

The early fall bird-watching business here where Logan St. meets Evans Creek is far from booming. Actually it is so far from booming that it is almost nonexistent.

We are in the midst of a slump which may end all slumps. As an example of just how neglected our feeding stations are may I cite what happened yesterday.

A bird flew down to sample the banquetboard and Oh, the excitement he caused. During an ordinary spell of good bird looking such emotions would be reserved for a truly outstanding guest — yesterday we flipped over a bluejay.

★

THIS ABSOLUTE desertion by all of our "fine feathered friends" is not new. We have lived through such spells before. Usually they are seasonal.

As we struggle out of one season and into another, there is often a period when the bird activity lessens. Now, of course, most of the summer vacationers have checked out — that is expected and until the winter crowd arrives, things are bound to be a little on the quiet side.

This, however, does not excuse the year around regulars. Even they are not showing up much and, believe me, when a full feeder does not even attract a gang of sparrows the bird-watching business is not good.

FORTUNATELY there are signs that the situation is changing and since we are almost at the point of any change having to be for the better, we are expecting some improvement soon.

Yesterday's blue jay was a good sign. The sparrows are beginning to return too. Not just one or two at a time, but the yard across the street has big patches which look brown and when these "patches" move — sparrows!

They are grouping together in large flocks and doesn't that sound like fall, though? From eating seeds in the neighbor's yard it is just one short fly to our bird feeders. We hope.

★

BOTH THE tufted titmouse and the up-side down nut hatches are technically year around residents but here, at least, their summer-tme visits are sporadic.

In season these little characters are daily visitors and their free-loading antics are joys to behold.

Even more exciting are the hints of a good nut-hatch year. Three of these long-billed birds wh oso dearly love to crawl upside down on the tree trunks have been spotted.

Another year around resident who makes most of his appearances before and after the family raising is the little black and white downy woodpecker. He visits the feeder to chisel away at cakes or blocks of suet.

During warm weather we seldom put this out, but just this morning a male downy was working in the wren-tree and if he continues to show up we shall see about some suet.

★

UNLIKE THE blue jays and tit-mice, downy woodpeckers are easy to separate into male and female. He wears a little red cap at the back of its head — the female has no such millinery.

This morning's woodpecker was hanging away on a small limb and with every stroke the sun touched his cap making it breathtaking brililant.

So it is that things are looking up — at least the winter bird business has been launched by a good first installment.

Martinez Car Wreck Injures One

Frank Martinez, 30, of 4711 US-12, Tipton, was the driver of a car which went out of control on US-12 at Jeffries curve, Saturday afternoon, injuring a pasenger, Tony Gasco of 113½ W. Chicago Blvd.

The Martinez car went off the northside of the highway for 400 feet then crossed the highway, went down an embankment and rolled over on the side.

Martinez was given a summons by Clinton State Police for being drunk and disorderly and for driving without an operator's license.

Motorists To Be Protected from the Uninsured Drivers

LANSING—The Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act, passed by the 1965 Legislature will go into effect Jan. 1, 1966.

According to the Michigan Department of State, this is one of the most far-reaching and important citizen protection laws ever enacted in the State of Michigan.

Its function will be to protect innocent victims of uninsured drivers by setting up a fund of more than $11 million to pay claims.

The fund will be administered by the Secretary of State through a major division of the Michigan Department of State.

The fund will not start until the first of the year, but Nov. 1, when motorists begin purchasing their new license plates, they will start paying into the fund.

Each uninsured motor vehicle owner will pay $25 and each insured owner will pay $1.

"The Fund offers excellent protection on accidents with uninsured motorists here in Michigan," Secretary of State James M. Hart said, "but does not apply outside of Michigan. This is where the private option pays off."

Hare estimates there are between 500,000 and 600,000 uninsured vehicles in Michigan, about 15 per cent of the total number in the state.

"There is no way to provide an exact count of persons who do not carry liability insurance," Mr. Hare said.

Hare further figures that if Michigan follows [illegible] tablished by other states, about half of the current uninsured drivers will get into the insured class before they contribute into the Fund.

"This leaves about 300,000 uninsured and 3.7 million insured and adds up to about $11.2-million to start the Fund," Hare asserted.

Dear friends,

A speaker recently said, "The most prevalent community sin is lack of appreciation. Who ever thinks of thanking public officials, our school board members, the various commissioners, etc. for a job well done?"

Most of us are lax in this respect. Conscientious public servants deserve an occasional compliment and do certainly appreciate it.

Respectfully,
Lester D. Proctor

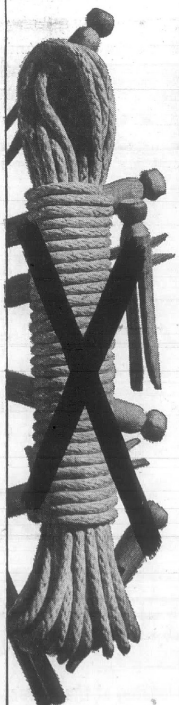
A Clothes Dryer does much more than just replace the clothesline



IN ADDITION TO ENDING LIFTING, LUGGING AND HANGING CLOTHES ON WASHDAY A WORK-SAVING CLOTHES DRYER WILL DO ALL THESE EXTRA JOBS

- VALET SERVICE—wrinkles can be removed from corduroy, velveteen or wool garments by placing them in dryer for short tumbling period with damp sponges or bath towels. Place sponges or towel in dryer before putting in clothing to build up steam. Use medium heat setting. Bath towels leave lint on dark cottons, so damp, colorfast sponges are best. There must be moisture to release wrinkles and prevent shrinkage. Remove garments before completely dry and hang on wooden or plastic hangers until completely dry.
- FLUFFING OR DUSTING draperies, chenille bedspreads or other articles that need airing. Place in dryer on "no heat" setting and allow to tumble for 5-10 minutes.
- REMOVING MOTHBALL ODORS from clothes that have been stored. Use "no heat" setting and short tumbling time.
- BATHING SUITS & SNOWSUITS can be dried in pre-heated dryer with bath towels (which have been in dryer during preheating). Dark towels are advisable with dark fabrics.

BONNEVILLE CONVERTIBLE

It's dramatically fresh and new, but still very, very Pontiac. That's written all over it, from the no-doubt-about-it new front end to the trimly tailored rear. (Did you think for one minute that we'd leave out the unique Pontiac styling character you like so well? Never!)

Another nice thing about the '66 Pontiacs is that there are more of them—3 new super-sumptuous Broughams and 4 Venturas. And, of course, for you other Pontiac lovers we've got a bright new Grand Prix, new Catalinas, new Star Chief Executives—all with new Wide-Track ride and improved cat-quick handling. But you'll discover those things when you slip behind the wheel and turn one of our new '66 tigers loose. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

You're looking at the newest thing in tigers. Sleek, lean-muscled new style. New power that starts with a revolutionary new kind of six and ranges through four V-8's. Crisp curves shape the new silhouette, and the sports coupe sports a new kind of smartly recessed rear window.

Pontiac's revolutionary overhead cam six acts more like a V-8, looks like no six you ever saw, and still remembers that saving is what six buyers buy sixes for. Delivers 165 hp (or you can specify the sports package which includes the 207-hp version). And it's standard on all Tempests, Tempest Customs and Le Mans. V-8's? Up to 360 hp in the GTO. See all the '66 tigers in tiger country. Or drive one. Get a tiger by the tail. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

Band Boosters Collect $1,437

BRITTON — Summer projects have helped enrich the Band Boosters' Uniform Fund by $1,437.31, members learned at their initial fall meeting.

During the warm months, the Boosters keep the ball rolling with the following efforts:

School District
canvassing	$505.68
Bake Sale	52.35
Canisters	15.96
Chicken dinner	410.50
Summer concerts	48.33
Memorial Day	50.00
Baseball game concession stand	115.68
Stanley party	90.00
Rummage Sale	55.35

★

THERE IS more to come. One item will be earnings from the PTA Fun Night's General Store, which Boosters will operate.

The latest project will be a raffle of a deer rifle and a transistor radio. Tickets will be on sale soon for 25c each or 5 for $1.

The drawing is planned to take place at the school after the UNICEF Halloween party. Winners need not be present at the drawing to win.

President — Ronald Maschino
Vice-president — Paul Hamilton
Secretary — Mrs. Paul Frazier
Treasurer — Mrs. Myrlen Moore

Entertainment was furnished by an instrumental quartet and refreshments served by Mrs. Ronald Maschino and her committee.

ENDS POSTAL CAREER — Friday will be the last day on the job for Miss Edna Miller, who is retiring from her job as postal clerk after 39 years and 3 months of faithful service. Miss Miller has served under three postmasters, Albert Lee, Benjamin Beasley and Ronald Cheever. She has no special plans for retirement, other than to enjoy being home and to care for her mother, who is 86 and confined to her home.

Tory Band Performing in Festival

BRITTON — Band Director George Berrymar announced that the Britton High School Band will participate in the 19th Annual Lenawee County Band Festival in Tecumseh Recreation Tuesday.

Tickets are on sale now by band members, at a cost of 75c. Proceeds from the event are shared by participating bands.

The most recent activity of the Britton band was to go to Ann Arbor on Sept. 25 and play in the annual Band Day performance at the Michigan Stadium.

Special Sessions Featuring Music, Films of [illegible]

BRITTON — Move into the new church building by the Bethel Baptist congregation will be highlighted by a week of special meetings conducted by the Rev. Don Olsen of the First Baptist Church of Rochester.

Meetings will be every evening the week of Oct. 10 through Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the new church. They will feature special music, films of Jamaica and Bible messages by the Rev. Mr. Olsen.

Special music Tuesday evening will be a men's quartet composed of William Bearinger, Harold Willett, John Willett and Doug Hall.

Meetings will be climaxed by a Youth Rally Saturday night with William Hettrick of Flint, former principal of Britton-Macon school, featured as soloist.

Nursery facilities will be available every evening for babies and toddlers, with attendants in charge.

Baptists Hold First Service

BRITTON — The congregation of the Bethel Baptist Church will hold the first services in their new building, 296 S. Main St., on Sunday, announced the Rev. Duane McNeil, pastor.

Services scheduled for that day include:

- Sunday School for all ages at 10 a.m.
- Worship Service at 11 a.m.
- Junior Young People (4-12)
- Senior Young People (12 and up)
- Adult Bible Study all at 6:30 p.m.
- Sunday evening worship service at 7:30 p.m. The Wednesday evening Prayer Meeting is held at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor McNeil extends a cordial welcome to everyone to attend any or all of these services.

Special dedication services for the new church will be held when the church building is completely finished, probably in December.

Tory Fans Suffer Bad Evening

By BILL PROCHASKA

BRITTON — It was a bad Friday for Tory fans as the Britton squad was overwhelmed by Boysville.

The Tories were out-manned in size, as their bigger and heavier foes completely pushed them about the field.

One big factor for Boysville was an ability to make the big third down and continue their drives toward the Britton goal line.

Moe Jacobs, who was on the All-County Team last year, was the big gun for the Knights' attack as he scored five touchdowns, one being a brilliant 55-yard run.

The Tories will have to make a fast recovery as they meet the powerful Aggies of Sand Creek at Britton this week.

Choir Robe Dedication Is Oct. 17

BRITTON — Youth Fellowship of the Congregational-Christian Church met Sunday evening.

After group singing and a short program, election of officers for the coming year was held, with the following young people selected:

President — Doug Fairbanks
Vice-president — Jack Brown
Secretary-treasurer — Brenda Tubbs
Assistant secretary-treasurer — Dave Reeck
Program committee — Jack Brown, Chairman; Carl Studnika and Dave Reeck.

Meetings will be held the first and third Sundays of the month, with the exception of this month, because of the choir robe dedication service, which is set for Oct. 17.

The next meeting will be on Oct. 4.

Young people desiring to attend the Teen Life Rally in Adrian Saturday night should call Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, 451-2332.

Mrs. G. Hannevik served cider and doughnuts to the group.

Profile of a True 'Cursillista'

(Editor's note — Several weeks ago, the Long & Short column told about the Cursillo Movement. It prompted a number of comments, including this article by Mrs. Leslie Calhoun, language instructor at Tecumseh High School.)

By GLORIA D. CALHOUN

A Profile of a True "Cursillista"

The student audience filling the college assembly hall was unusually silent, intent as the speaker with well chosen words, softly spoken yet fraught with meaning, embedded his message in mind and heart of each listener.

The speaker was a man in his late forties, moderately dressed, well poised with a certain air of distinction, a depth of sincerity and a warmth of feeling betrayed in his dark eyes.

He seemed to be one who firmly believes what he is teaching. For the speaker was a teacher, not a preacher, even though he held tightly a small crucifix in his hand.

His talk had to do with the Christian interpretation of the ideal, the spiritual goal of man as he struggles for his salvation. He was apparently in perfect command of his subject for he spoke from his heart without any aid from notes.

There was, indeed, something special about this man. Just before going to the stage he confided to a member of the college that he was nervous, fearful of facing this large audience of college students.

"Never have I done this before," he said. "Only faith symbolized by this crucifix, gives me the courage to do this."

★

NO MEMBER of the audience could have discerned this for he was truly master of his subject.

Alternating between the soothing melody of his voice as he spoke of God's love for man, and the incisive quality of strong purpose as he spelled out man's failure, he provided the good spiritual food of the Evangelist's message for young minds and hearts as they seek for peace and love, human and divine in this life preparing for eternity.

During his talk there was an occasional whispered: "Who is he?" "What university does he come from?" "Inspiring."

The longest hour for the speaker, but the shortest one for the rapt audience came to an end. A line of professors and students formed to congratulate the speaker.

★

THE GROUP became smaller until finally he reached the instructor who had invited him to speak.

"Congratulations, dear friend. So well prepared were you that you needed no notes to bring home to these young people your message."

A smile appeared on the gentle face but the dark eyes reflected sadness.

"Well, you see . . . ," he said in frank humility, "I couldn't use any notes because I do not know how to read or write."

The instructor looked with disbelief trying to convince herself that she had not heard right. Why, this man had spoken with a wisdom, a power, a knowledge fitting a trained university speaker.

This could not be true!

"Excuse me but I did not hear you well."

"Oh, but you did. I do not know how to read or write."

Spontaneously, the teacher replied: "You shall immediately begin to learn to read and write".

Two days later the classes began.

★

THE STUDENT — adult, mature, intelligent, eager, sincerely anxious to acquire these skills — sat down in the classroom and at home began the exercises of a first grader in dogged determination.

The exercises merited A's, B's and a few C's.

Along with intelligent humility and courage the student possessed a fine sense of humor, a true intellectual curiosity.

"Tell me," he would say, "I have heard about 'El Cid.' Who was he? What did he do?

"Well, he was one of the most courageous soldiers of Spain. A man with a vast vision of unity, of peace, of democracy in a land rent asunder in the petty wars of his time.

"Now I will repeat, take this in dictation . . . careful, please! . . . those B's are too skinny. Try for better spacing. I will tell you more about 'El Cid' in our next lesson."

"TELL ME," once again he would say while the teacher was checking his papers — that fellow, Socrates, what did he do?"

"Oh, my dear friend, Socrates was a great philosopher. He is often called the Divine Pagan. Although he was born centuries before Christ, he knew in his own way about Him, and groping in the dark he believed in the immortality of the soul. He was a teacher of teachers. Once a person admitted his ignorance . . ."

"Like I did?"

"Yes, like you did. He would bring him by clever questioning to a thirst for knowing and eventually from the depths of ignorance he would lift him up to the heights of knowledge . . ."

"In a way you are like him."

"Oh no. Never could I be in any way like him . . . and no one has even tried to poison me yet as they did him . . . please watch those M's. They are not supposed to have four peaks . . . only three. Now we are going to form sentences: Mary and Mike eat plums. When we start practicing S's we will talk more about Socrates."

After two months the labored writing became free, even, clear, beautiful. Every letter had been given tender care. The exercises were placed on exhibition in the education department of the college, and received much praise. Finally after weeks of noble effort, the student graduated.

★

AS A professor among the "cursillistas" the student was finally able to fulfill his fondest desires. Using a blackboard, he could now explain better difficult passages, outline ideas and define terms.

Now he could read better, memorize with greater skill. Often the instructor playing the part of an audience during the rehearsal of a "rollo" (drill) became the harsh critic and was rewarded with a soul-lifting inspiration.

★

NOW THE story is about to end, or rather, to begin.

Who is this person? For years, due to an impaired heart he has had to limit his work to janitorial service in a clothing store.

About a month ago he was highly recommended for a government post under President Johnson's program to combat poverty and ignorance.

Now, he in turn, is helping others to help themselves as he was helped.

Don't be surprised to find him teaching groups of adults to read and write and indeed, at times, directing, helping them to live better lives. If you stand close to him you will discern a small, dark, well-worn crucifix clutched in his hand.

★

MANY OF YOU, my friends, may have enjoyed the heart-warming experience of guiding the tiny hand of a small child in his first try at writing.

I wish more of you knew what a blessed, holy joy there is in directing a work-worn, bigger, stronger hand than your own and yet a hand so gentle and patient as it becomes miraculously more skillful in that precious art of writing.

To teach a child to read and write is delightful!

To teach an adult — divine!

Tecumseh Friends To Host Meeting

Tecumseh Friends Church will be host to the annual Union Meetings scheduled for Oct. 10-17, 1965. The meetings are sponsored by Adrian City, Raisin Center, Raisin Valley and Tecumseh Friends.

Rev. Harold Winn, of Salem, O., will be the speaker. He is known to his friends in the area as the Presiding Clerk of Ohio Yearly Meeting. Rev. Mr. Winn, as pastor of the First Friends Church for eighteen years will be bringing Scriptural messages of interest to everyone.

Miss Betty Restrick and Miss Margaret Kellogg, of New Jersey, will direct the singing and provide special music. They are gifted singers as well as talented instrumentalists, playing several musical instruments. Misses Restrick and Kellogg will also lead the Children's Meetings.

Services are at 7:30 each evening, Sunday, the 10th, through Sunday, the 17th. Boys and girls will accompany parents to the services and at the conclusion of the musical part of the meetings they will go to Children's Church for remainder of the evening.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Blatchford is Ticketed

Gary Blatchford, 21, of 9954 Mathew Hwy., was given a summons for violating the basic speed law by Clinton State Police at 9:15 a.m. Saturday.

The Blatchford car came over a hill on Mathews Hwy. and struck a car driven by Robert LeBaron, 24, or Mathews Hwy., who was parked in the roadway. LeBaron was ticketed for improper parking.

Stan Thayer Lauds Romney for Fiscal Ideas

Mrs. Raymond Platt was hostess for the meeting of the Shawnee Republican Women's club last week when Hugh Walter, Tecumseh GOP chairman, gave a resume of the fall Conference at Mackinac Island.

He also introduced Stan Thayer of Ann Arbor, chairman of the State Crime and Delinquincy Committee, who spoke of his views of the conference, commending Governor Romney for his ideas concerning fiscal reform for Michigan.

A lively question-and-answer period followed Mr. Walter's talk.

Another guest, Marvin Nelson, presented an unique report of the anti-poverty program now in the formulating stage in Lenawee County.

Gil Bursley, senator from the district, will be a guest at an open meeting Oct. 26.

Dedication

The Rev. Blair Bashore will be the master of ceremonies at the dedication of the new Tecumseh Post Office Saturday, Oct. 30.

John P. Sussex, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sussex of rural Tipton, was recently promoted to the rank of Specialist 4th class. He is a Military Police Investigator for the 7th Infantry Division Provost Marshal's Office at Camp Casey in Korea. Specialist Sussex attended Tecumseh High School and finished his education in the service.

$1,500,000 Is Given Students

Business of information outlining steps to be taken in applying for 1966-67 State Competitive Scholarships are being mailed this week to some 785 Michigan high schools.

Registration takes place during the month of October, and the statewide competitive examination has been set for Saturday, Nov. 20, at 143 test centers.

Any high school senior who will be graduating during the present school year, or any high school graduate with no previous college experience, is eligible for a state scholarship.

The cost of taking the examination is only $1.50 and all interested persons should obtain a copy of the Bulletin of Information.

Qualifying applicants must demonstrate financial need for such an award. However, recent legislation takes into account a change in family circumstances and changes in college plans after the fixed year and now qualifying applicants who may not have initially demonstrated financial need are eligible to receive State Regional Scholarships during any of their remaining undergraduate years of study.

Last year $1,500,000 in aid went to 4,450 new applicants while another $500,000 was awarded to sophomores in renewed scholarships.

TECUMSEH MAN ENLISTS — The naval Reserve got Roger Lee Robinson, 510 Cairns St. enlisted in the Construction Battalion Division at Jackson. He is being sworn in by Commanding Officer Lt. C. H. Seeger. Roger's rating in the Seabee's is a (CM3) Construction Mechanic Third Class. He will be in training at the Naval Reserve Center in Jackson each Thursday evening, 7 until 10 p.m.

Gales of Laughter

A delightfully humorous account of her summer Mediterranean cruise was given by Mrs. Truman Rentschler at the Tecumseh Monday Club's first meeting of the season.

It was held in the Youth House of the First Baptist Church Oct. 4.

Vivid descriptions of fellow travelers brought gales of laughter from the audience and nods of approval from members who had made similar trips.

★

AS THE NEW president of the Lenawee Federated Women's Club, Mrs. Rentschler was one of 170 representatives of the General Federation of Women's Clubs from the United States.

The group was met at the airport in each major city visited and entertained by the local women's clubs.

Mrs. Rentschler compared the scenery on both sides of the ocean and assured non-travelers that this country is just as beautiful.

Amusing details of a boat ride, camel caravan, roof-top banquet, amateur photographers and the plane trip were a few of the highlights of her talk.

The Southeastern District Convention of Michigan State Federation of Women's Club at Howell Oct. 20 and 21 was announced.

District and county club representatives were introduced as were the new officers and members of the local club.

Mrs. Edward Aebersold, program leader for the day, introduced the musical portion of the program, which preceded the talk.

This was given by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney and Mrs. Perry Hayden with Mrs. Wilfred Waldron as accompanist.

Open House

About 75 relatives and friends attended the open house Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse by their children. A three-tiered cake, made by Mrs. Arthur Kruse of Blissfield and decorated by her daughter, Jeanette, was a feature of the refreshment table.

PATTERSON SCHOOL PATTER

By SHERRIE LEE HART

Everyone is getting into the swing of going to classes again. All the service squad boys and girls are learning their duties.

The librarians have a special get-well to say to Mrs. Bob Blanks, our head librarian. She has been sick for some time.

Earl Green, 5th grade, are studying the International Geophysical Year in Science. This is the year in which the scientists co-operated in studying the South Pole or Antarctica.

In math. they are studying base eight and find it interesting. In social studies the Eastern Hemisphere is on tap and last Wednesday they had a test on the Middle East.

A new fifth grade teacher, Mrs. James McDowell, has a new student, Pam Steadley from Solon, Ohio.

In math. her scholars are reviewing the basic geometry terms. The boys and girls are using their compasses to draw angles and plane figures.

In this chapter they are learning about the nine planets and their location in the solar system. They are also studying the eclipses of the sun and moon.

In language they are studying where quotation marks go and [illegible]. They are also studying the common and proper nouns.

Mrs. Lillian Buttolph's fourth grade room has two new students, Vickie Camfield and Linda Barwick. Vickie comes from Grand Rapids and Linda comes from Taylor.

In math class, the boys and girls are studying place value. In science they are studying magnets and the magnetic North Pole. In Social Studies they are studying the United States.

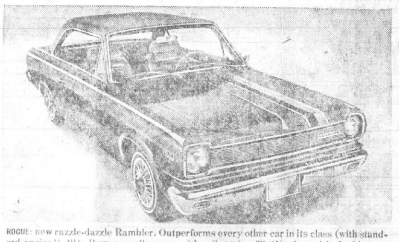
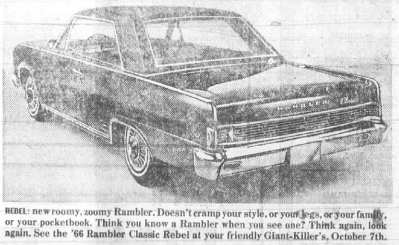
The Giant-Killer Rides Again!



ROGUE: new razzle-dazzle Rambler. Outperforms every other car in its class (with standard engine!). "Do Rogues really come with rally stripes?" "No, but with the big new engine they drive that way." '66 Rambler American Rogue here October 7th.



REBEL: new roomy, zoomy Rambler. Doesn't cramp your style, or your legs, or your family, or your pocketbook. Think you know a Rambler when you see one? Think again, look again. See the '66 Rambler Classic Rebel at your friendly Giant-Killer's, October 7th.

American Motors Challenges the "Big 3" of Detroit—With 4 New Lines of '66 Cars that Give the Public What it Wants.

Last time it was size. This time? Quality! Quality that's built in—not added on. The promise: more built-in quality features at no extra price.

Remember when American Motors came out with the trim little Rambler and knocked the Detroit "Giants" on their collective ear? Overnight, big fins and fat land yachts went out of style. American Motors came along with the right cars at the right time and caught the competition napping. This year, almost half the automobiles sold are Rambler-size cars.

Round one to the "Giant-Killer." What next? For '66, American Motors again gets the jump on the big boys with a new rallying cry: Quality! A new kind of quiet quality that is built in as standard equipment on every car in the line.

This is the American Motors credo. Quality that's built in—not added on. First, determine what has to go into a car to make it stronger, safer, more dependable, more luxurious. Then put it there. Regardless of cost. Build it in.

Ready to be convinced? Ready to be surprised? Check this page for a preview of the 4 sleek challengers. New cars. New names. Then admire the styling of these exciting new cars. When you have finished, please get on your horse and go to the friendly Giant-Killer in your town, your American Motors/Rambler Dealer.

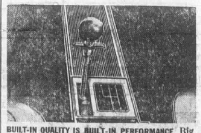
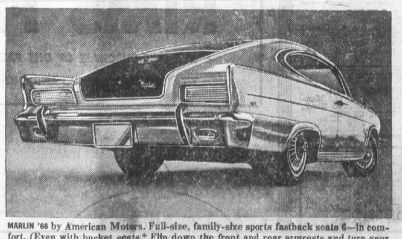
BUILT-IN QUALITY IS BUILT-IN SAFETY. Only one "Big 3" car (and American Motors) offer a safety package with a Double-Safety brake system at no extra cost: Cadillac.



BUILT-IN QUALITY IS BUILT-IN PERFORMANCE. Big new standard engines. Sporty option: 4-on-the-floor. Two automatics* also available to handle the chore of gear selection.

TV PREMIERE THURSDAY NIGHT! See the new American Motors '66 cars on "The Andy Griffith, Don Knotts, Jim Nabors Special," CBS-TV, October 7th



MARLIN '66 by American Motors. Full-size, family-size sports fastback seats 6—in comfort. (Even with bucket seats.* Flip down the front and rear armrests and turn your Marlin into a 2 + 2.) Don't miss it at your friendly Giant-Killer's on October 7th.

AMBASSADOR DPL by American Motors. Now you can have your first luxury car while you're still young enough to enjoy it. Coil-spring seats like Cadillac. Double-Safety brakes like Cadillac. Price? Like Impala, Fury, Galaxie.† Be sure to see it October 7th.

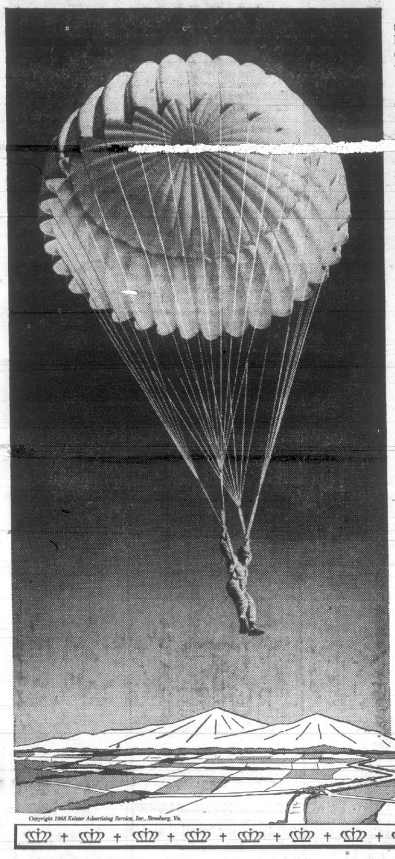
Happy Landing



This takes nerve! Imagine dropping into space with nothing but a "silk umbrella" between you and eternity! Yet men do it every day, and they trust that umbrella as we would trust our best friend.

Faith is something like that white parachute, as thousands upon thousands of Christians can testify. Faith upholds you and supports you, no matter how rough the [illegible]. Without faith in a loving God, man is very much alone . . . and man was never meant to deal with life's problems by himself.

Like the first parachute jump, faith isn't easy at the beginning. It takes courage to hand over the reins of one's life, but you can be sure of one thing . . . you'll always land on your feet. Strengthen your faith by attending the church of your choice.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Clinton Auto Sideswiped

A car driven by Darrell Englehart, 55, of 15 W. Franklin St., Clinton, was slightly damaged Saturday afternoon when it was sideswiped by a car driven by Ttomas L. Kostelnik, 44, of Detroit.

Kostelnik was given a summons, by Clintbn State Police, for driving left of the center line as he was making a right turn from US-12 to Division St. striking the Englehart car, which was waiting at the intersection.

Just Call Him 'Tex'

He has been in 12 different plays including "Around the World in 80 Days," "Girl Crazy," "Oklahoma," "Sound of Music" and "Dark of the Moon."

JOHN, who arrived home this week just in time to enroll for the fall term at Toledo University said, "My big break came on Lucky 13. My 13th role was in a movie made in San Angelo for the Texas Education Association. It is a 72-minute film on Texas history to be shown throughout the state in history classes in the schools."

John played the role of a livery stable owner and George Kilpatrick, a well-known outlaw in earlier days.

In "Our Town," John was cast as George, a 16-year-old, just before leaving for home.

FILM STAR Jane Wyatt attended the San Angelo production of "Girl Crazy" while she was there for the Miss Wool of America Pageant. Fess Parker, another star, saw John and the rest of the cast in "Oklahoma."

John said, "My days in Texas have been most rewarding and wonderful, but Tecumseh still holds first place with me. I can't forget all the wonderful people who were so nice to me while I was drum major of THS and when Dottie Roe and I started the group, "Step-etts" now known as the Aowakiyas.

"It makes me feel so good to know people will give you half a chance to prove yourself all over the country," he noted.

IT'S TRUE

A good tonic and remedy will do wonders for your health. Be sure it is made from pure herbs and not from harmful dope or chemical drugs which often have unwanted side effects. You can't buy a better tonic than O-JIB-WA BITTERS, the all-herb medicine made from God's herbs. This famous remedy has brought safe effective results to millions during the past 50 years and can help you too.

Entries Sought for Junior Miss County Contest

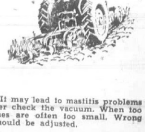
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING

FEEDER CATTLE PRICES LOWER. Prices are expected to decline this fall. But materially lower prices are not expected, excepting scattered gluts on local markets. One reason for the relatively stable market is that fat cattle markets have held unusually stable for the last five to six months. Harvested feeds are plentiful and range conditions are generally good. Now is the time to sell where price is the only criterion. Buyers might wait awhile, unless their fall grazing promises good weight gains.

REDUCE CORN LOSSES. In lodged corn especially, get the corn picker or combine gathering points close to the ground. Set too high, a machine can leave up to 25 bushels per acre in field, studies show. Also, watch your speed. Ear losses go up fast above 3 mph. Keep the snapping rolls adjusted as tightly as possible according to harvesting conditions — this can save 4 to 5 bushels more. Replace worn rolls, too.

PLOW THIS FALL? More farmers are doing it, especially those that get their corn out early. With the trend toward earlier spring planting, fields plowed in the fall offer greater assurance of getting crop planted earlier in spring. It is also compatible with reduced tillage. Soil will be firm by planting time and one tillage operation in combination with planting is usually enough. Replowing may be necessary, though, if soil is poorly drained and low in organic matter.



CHECK MILKING MACHINE SYSTEM. It may lead to mastitis problems as cows come in fresh. Have your dealer check the vacuum. When too low it irritates udders. Pumps and lines are often too small. Wrong pulsation rate is another culprit, and should be adjusted.

Assembly of God Has New Pastor

CLINTON — The Rev. Dennis G. Goodrow, new pastor of the Assembly of God Church, extends a hearty welcome to their services.

"We have found this town of Clinton very cordial in its acceptance of us, and we do appreciate this so much," Rev. Goodrow said.

Both the Rev. Goodrow and his wife are recent graduates of Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Mo., where they majored in Religious Education. They moved recently to the parsonage at 117 E. Church St., with their two children, 4 and 1.

The Clinton Assembly of God is located at 13083 Allen Rd., northwest of Clinton.

REV. DENNIS GOODROW

Services are:
Sunday School — 9:45 a.m.
Sunday Worship — 11:00 a.m.
Sunday Evening — 7:30 p.m.
Bible Study Prayer, Thursdays, 7:30 p.m.

Vietnam Veteran Home for Good

CLINTON — Mrs. John Norcross entertained Sunday at a welcome home party for their son, John D., who returned a week ago from Vietnam.

He has served there for two years of his four-year tour of duty with the Air Force and has now received his discharge.

Guests for the dinner included 29 relatives from Adrian, Onsted, Tipton, Chelsea and Clinton.

John D., who was trained as a jet engine mechanic, [illegible] the present and will seek employment in the area.

Dominican To Display Slides

CLINTON — The St. Dominic's Altar Guild has invited Sister Anne Joachim OP, a political science instructor at Siena Heights College, to show her color slides of her 1964 tour of Russia, at the Clinton High School gymnasium on Thursday, Oct. 14 at 8 p.m.

Sister Joachim and her companions were the first sisters of a religious order permitted to visit Moscow since 1917.

She will narrate her slides which include vivid views of the Kremlin, Red Square, cathedrals, museums an dold dwellings.

Sister Joachim will answer questions after the presentation of the slides.

The public is invited. There will be no admission, but a donation may be made at the door.

SISTER ANNE JOACHIM, O.P.

Brownson Guest Going to Texas

CLINTON — Mrs. Carrie Colgrove of Midland spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brownson. She visited during the weekend with her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hendershot, in Tecumseh, and left for Texas Wednesday, to spend the winter with her son and family.

Old Hats Aid Class Treasury

CLINTON — Old hats, in cleverly contrived boxes, were exchanged by the members of the Mary Martha Class of the United Church of Christ Monday night.

The project provided an amusing diversion and raised $8 for the class treasury.

Devotions were presented by Mrs. John Fox.

"The Puzzling Stranger," from the study book "The Decision Maker," was the discussion material presented by Mrs. Paul McKenna.

The class voted to have its annual Christmas tea on Sunday, Dec. 5. A guest speaker will be featured and there will be a dessert smorgasbord of favorite holiday desserts.

Fruit salad and coffee were served by Mrs. George Heimerdinger and Mrs. Harold Calhoun assisting the hostess.

The November meeting will be held with Mrs. Donald Corwin.

Clinton Chatter

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jedele spent the weekend fishing near Lewiston.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tallman, Mrs. Homer Larrabee, Mrs. Delmar Manchester and Mrs. Catherine Hunt of Tecumseh will go to Grand Rapids next Wednesday and Thursday to attend Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Tallman will spend the remainder of the week at their cabin near Mio.

Follis Automobile Slightly Damaged

CLINTON — A car driven by Clarence W. Follis of 116 W. Church St., Clinton, was damaged slightly Saturday afternoon, when an unattended vehicle rolled across Vescio's parking lot in Clinton, as the Follis car was entering it.

Mary Ann Woodward of 1857 Canon Hwy. told officers she parked the car and left it but apparently the brakes did not hold.

Scouters Plan Films

CLINTON — Girl Scout leaders met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. John Mabry to make plans for a special showing of the Girl Scout Round-up films to be held Oct. 19 in the Strand Theater in Tecumseh.

All the Girl Scout troops in the area will be invited to the 4 p.m. theater party.

Another feature of the event will be Mrs. John Hoelzer's films of her trip to the Girl Scout Cabana in Mexico last summer.

The successful Day Camp program was discussed and plans will be begun early in the new year for next year's camp.

Two new Brownie troops will begin this week.

It was voted to have a Christmas Caroling project by the Girl Scouts for all the shut-ins in the community.

Mrs. Robert Way briefly reviewed the first aid procedures for such emergencies as bleeding, fainting, seizures, burns and she demonstrated resuscitation techniques.

The leaders attending the meeting were Mrs. John Hoelzer, Mrs. James Wilson, Mrs. Way, Mrs. Milford Traves, Mrs. Richard Dixon and Mrs. John Gilman.

Mrs. Heacock Appointed Librarian

CLINTON — Mrs. Donald Heacock was named librarian by the Clinton Township Library Board at a special meeting, Sept. 28.

Mrs. Heacock will fill the position formerly held by Mrs. Agnes Geiger, who has resigned because of ill health.

New hours for the library are announced:

Monday through Friday, 2 to 5 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m.; Saturdays, 2 to 5 p.m.

The library board, with Mrs. Robert Winder as hostess, entertained at an open house for Mrs. Geiger, Saturday afternoon at the library where many of her friends stopped in for a chat with her. She had been librarian in Clinton for 20 years and Township Treasurer for 18 years.

'Education for Tomorrow' Theme for First Meeting

CLINTON — "Education for Tomorrow and Homemaking" will be the address by Mrs. Guy Hoover as the Woman's Club holds its first fall meeting.

The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Community Center.

Mrs. Hoover is the Home Economics instructor at Clinton High School.

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce of Tecumseh, will be the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Reed.

Clinton Council Purchases Central Rail Right-of-Way

CLINTON — The former railroad right-of-way from Brown St. to Church St., has been purchased by the Clinton Village Council from the New York Central Railroad Co.

The strip of land west of the Monument Park will be graded and added to the park. The strip south of Michigan Ave. will be used to widen and straighten Railroad St.

Conference Is Nov. 4-5

CLINTON—The Michigan Education Conference meeting dates have been changed from Oct. 13-14 to Thursday and Friday, Nov. 4-5. There will be no school on those dates.

Clinton Community Schools will also be recessed on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 8-9 for Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Defense Yet To Yield TD

CLINTON — When Ann Arbor University High gridders step onto the Redskin field Friday evening, they'll get a chance to meet the newest member of Coach Phil Bareis' 100% Club.

U High ball carriers will probably be the first to find out how it is that David Grinnell was selected as the Redskin's third 100%er, joining Rory O'Connor and Brian Baker.

Dave was initiated last week when Clinton stopped Whitmore Lake, 25-0, for the "Skins" third straight victory.

He made nine solo tackles and picked up four assists from his guard post, while hustling every second he was on the field.

★

CLINTON HAD several other defensive standouts with Dennis Sweet turning in six tackles and five assists.

Don Mathaway was a tower of strength from his right defensive end post as he completely contained Whitmore Lake outside running.

In scouting reports of Whitmore Lake, there were indications the Lakers planned to use end sweeps. They tried, but failed.

As for the offensive punch, the Redskins had plenty with Dennis Drazic hitting Bill Jedele twice for scores, one 57 yards and the other 14.

Butch Hoelzer was the running star, once going 60 yards for a TD on an end run.

★

WITH THE Skins firmly in charge, Coach Bareis used his alternates and was pleased to see Doug Wight hurl a scoring aerial to Gene Brown.

And there was at [illegible]sure, too, when the contest ended. Clinton still had not yielded a tally this autumn.

Ramsdells Buy Home in Clinton

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ramsdell of Onsted recently moved into their new home at 114 Gibson St., purchased recently from Mr. and Mrs. Larry Spangler.

Mr. Ramsdell is employed at Unaloy Co. in Saline.

Mr. and Mrs. Spangler and family recently purchased a farm near Manchester and moved there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dusa, formerly of Sand Lake, have purchased the multiple dwelling located at 504 Jackson St., and moved into the first floor apartment.

The couple have a five-month-old son.

Mr. Dusa is employed at Tecumseh Products Co.

Wayne Hulett Selected To Fill Treasurer Post

CLINTON — Wayne Hulett was named Clinton Township Treasurer at a meeting of the township board Monday night.

He fills a vacancy created by the recent resignation of Mrs. Agnes Geiger, who had served as treasurer for 18 years.

Mr. Hulett's term will run to November 1966.

Future Nurses Sign Up 35 in Town Canvass

CLINTON — Members of the Future Nurses Club made a house to house canvass in the village last Wednesday night and succeeded in registering 35 persons for the Bloodmobile which was held in Tecumseh, Tuesday. Twelve members assisted with the Bloodmobile.

Mrs. James Meeks is the faculty advisor and Mrs. Thomas Young the nurse advisor. The group is meeting this week to organize for the year.

No Color Tour

A sum of $20 was voted to the Community Chest Fund.

Fund Goal Is $5,000

CLINTON — With a goal of $5,000, solicitors for the Clinton Community fund drive are calling on residents in the entire Clinton Community School District during this week.

Arthur Schuler is general chairman of the drive, which began Sunday and will end Saturday.

Mrs. Walter LaSovage and Mrs. George Ford are in charge of the village solicitors.

Allen Brooks and Mrs. Robert Winder are in charge of the rural solicitors.

Leslie Pierce has the industrial solicitations and Mrs. John Mabry, the organizations.

Employees of out-of-town companies are reminded to mark their contributions for the Clinton Community Chest Fund," Mr. Schuler reminded.

"If you are not at home when the solicitor calls, you may leave your contribution at the Lancaster Agency on W. Michigan Ave. or the State Savings Bank" he said.

Merritt, Rhoades Named to Head Safety Patrol

CLINTON—Eleven boys were introduced at a recent school assembly as members of the newly-organized Safety Patrol for the Clinton Community Schools.

Warren Merritt, of the seventh grade, was named captain.

Kim Rhoades of the sixth grade was named lieutenant.

Assisting will be:

Seventh graders — Lloyd Gibson, John Ebbert and Frank Patton.

Sixth graders — Robert Dowling, Mike Moon, Barry Heimerdinger, Bill Goble, Steve Moore, Jeff Grinnell and Dennis Thomas.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Forty business establishments in Tecumseh are joining together to stage a joint promotion, which should produce benefits for many months — maybe years — to come.

Its going to run over a 10-week period, broken into two segments.

During the first half, the effort will be called the Harvest of Values, with participating stores hammering hard with sale items.

Thanksgiving week, the event swings into a Christmas Gifts A Plenty theme and runs up to Dec. 24.

When I say gifts, that's the truth. In a weekly give-away, each one of the 40 will present a present of at least $3 in value, to some lucky person. That figures out $120 in loot.

Complete details on this portion of the program will appear in The Herald during late November.

The 10-week promotion has a raft of possible dividends, not the least of them being to bathe the town's retail and service businesses in a floodlight of attention.

Tecumseh has plenty to offer every shopper — man, woman and child.

Competition is not between stores along Business Row here, but rather as a unit against Adrian, Ann Arbor, Toledo, Jackson and Detroit. Maybe even New York (folks range all over the place to spend their dollars.)

★

THUS OUR merchants are glad to promote shoulder to shoulder, continually reminding the 15,000-plus people residing in this trade area that they should always try Tecumseh First.

Chances are good they can find what they want here — without chasing 30 to 75 miles and wasting all that gas money and travel time.

Now, everything doesn't always come up roses, so that's why there is another part to the promotion. Customers will find out about this indirectly as they shop locally in the months ahead.

All of the participating merchants and their sales personnel — about 150 people — will break bread together Thursday evening at the Tecumseh Country Club. The Herald is playing host (that's quite a few dishes for us to wash).

With filled tummies, the guests will take a short course in Human Relations and Over-the-Counter Selling, as given by Bill Leigh of Oklahoma, a man of nearly 60 who has devoted his life to selling and helping other people learn the art.

No matter how long anyone of us has been serving the public, there are things he can learn. That's the philosophy behind this week's session.

★

OF COURSE, the newer sales people should be the big gainers. What they pick up in Mr. Leigh's course can bring more sales to the stores in which they work and eventually more green stuff in those pay envelopes.

Boom times are engulfing Tecumseh.

All of us in business should be well prepared for our town's fabulous future.

Army of Volunteers Opens 1965 Campaign

An army of workers are off on a quest to raise $45,203 in the 1965 Community Fund Campaign. Industrial solicitors began this week with other divisions starting Monday.

Dr. Robert Laidlaw, co-chairman, notes:

"For our drive to be a success we will need an increased effort by all concerned. We hope to give everyone an opportunity to donate to this wonderful cause and secondly we hope whereever possible citizens will increase their level of giving this year.

"Since our charity budget is up 10% over last year, every gift large or small will be needed and appreciated."

The budget increase is almost entirely due to increased local services for Tecumseh area residents by various Fund agencies such as Family Counseling Service, Boy Scouts and the Red Cross.

The Michigan United Fund allotment, consisting of 38 state and national organizations was increased less than 3% to a total of $6,178.

★

JOE FORTUNATO, co-chairman, points out:

"There are approximately 800 fewer persons employed this year than last in our local industries. Therefore the level of industrial giving will probably be far less than previous years since we will lose not only the employee gift, but the matching company funds as well. This means we must exert a greater effort to solicit more people for more funds."

While the primary purpose is the charity drive, the Foundation also makes local civic improvements such as the new $230,000 library, which was paid for without tax funds through the Foundation. (See editorial on back page.)

This year the Foundation is again supporting the city recreation program and the purchase of the Pit recreation area. All funds solicited over the budget are to be used for civic improvements.

It should be noted that only 2% of the budget is used for administrative and campaign expenses.

This is made possible by diligent efforts of a large number of volunteer workers,

They'll Be Served Coffee, Enthusiasm

Coffee and enthusiasm will be served solicitors of the 1965 Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive at Don's Beef Buffet Tuesday morning at 9:30.

After fueling up ,the group will adjourn to the United Savings Bank sidewalk, where they'll view the unveiling of a giant campaign goal thermometer.

From there, the volunteers will march to the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan to pick up campaign kits and then be off on residential soliciting.

Business Solicitors Get Data on Drive

Volunteer business and professional solicitors for the United Fund will gather Monday evening at 7:30 in the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Building.

They'll distribute solicitor's kits to workers at the meeting and go over aims of the drive.

Among the volunteers are Richard Eggleston, Dwight Helms, T. J. Wagner, Bill Holmes, Carl Lamb, Melvin Ruettinger, George Ruhl, William E. Brame, Jr., Michael Green and Jim Merritt.

Others include Don Nixon, Mrs. Dorothy Osborne, Jim Records, Tom Riordan, Paul Roekle, Ray Dollison, David Criss and Robert Meadows.

Who'll Win?

Sales Expert Will Speak

A capsule course in Human Relations and Over-the-Counter Selling will be held Thursday for local merchants and their sales personnel at Tecumseh Country Club.

Being sponsored by The Herald, the sales training event is the opening gun to a city-wide promotion in which 26 merchants are participating.

It's a brand new approach to improving the image of Tecumseh as a friendly, progressive community, with emphasis on shopping facilities.

The sales clinic will be conducted by Bill Leigh, president of William A. Leigh Associates, Inc., a national sales promotion firm.

Other communities where this clinic has been held report that this capsule course gives an informative and comprehensive presentation of down-to-earth problems in both salesmanship and human relations.

Mr. Leigh has a background of many years' experience in sales and sales training problems in both management and direct selling. He is well versed in advertising and community promotions and for the past 15 years has been a consultant and director of sales promotion in over 2,000 communities throughout the nation. His informative lectures have always been a feature of his stops in cities around the nation.

★

ALTHOUGH the sales clinic is designed principally for the benefit of salespeople who come in direct contact with customers, professional people in varied fields say the course is of great educational and inspirational value.

Tom Kemper and Bill Haight assisted Mr. Leigh in explaining the city-wide promotion to Tecumseh storemen.

If for any reason a business place was not contacted and would like to participate, call The Herald, 423-2174.

Tecumseh is the second community to have the promotion.

Ionia's Sentinel-Standard introduced the idea and Publisher Fred M. Kidd, Jr., noted:

"The merchants all received the sales clinic enthusiastically."

Mr. Kidd reports that 29 merchants joined in the town-wide promotion.

★

OTHER COMMENTS regarding the Leigh program:

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA — "Bill Leigh came to Las Vegas highly recommended by publishers, broadcasters, merchants and Chamber of Commerce managers. His sales clinic here at Convention Center far surpassed our fondest expectations." — The Las Vegas Review Journal.

HILO, HAWAII — "I cannot recommend Mr. Leigh too highly. His sales clinic here caused a greater impact on Hilo than anything since the 1960 tidal wave! The 700 salespeople who attended this sales clinic will never forget Bill Leigh." — The Monte Marrow, Hawaii Tribune Herald.

LA CROSSE, WIS. — "The sales clinic at La Crosse is the best single thing we have done in seven years to improve relations with La Crosse advertisers. At the dinner 64 firms were represented by 267 retailers and their sales staffs. We like what one man said after the clinic: 'It's going to be downright dangerous for customers to come shopping in La Crosse after all these salesmen were inspired by Bill Leigh.'" — Joe Rohrer, Pres. and Mgr., WLCX Radio.

GRINNELL, IOWA — "After 30 years in advertising, radio, television and sales, and having attended top sales meetings by professional sales managers, I finally found one man from Oklahoma who laid the facts on the table and saw them gobbled up by over 'eager to learn' salesminded personnel and leading merchants in Grinnell. That man is William A. Leigh! Attend just one of his lectures and you'll want to hear him more often." — Braden Powell, Mgr., Grinnell Chamber of Commerce.

Consolidation Plans Viewed

Three plans of reorganizing school districts in Lenawee County are under consideration.

But it will be up to voters — sometime next spring — to decide.

Plan Three would cast Tecumseh, Britton and Clinton together.

The No. One Plan, as far as 18 members of the study committee are concerned, would be for one district in the county. There would be several high schools — exactly where isn't certain.

Plan Two would join:

► Blissfield and Deerfield.

► Sand Creek and Morenci.

► Adrian with two rural districts, Underwood and Maloney.

Plan Three would be the same up to the final segement, which would be enlarged to take in Madison.

★

JAMES McDOWELL, Tecumseh superintendent, favored the One-County idea, saying No. One may have some merit, but he voiced opposition to No. Two.

Hudson principal James Champion said, "Lay people do not really understand that a small school is not able to do an excellent job in education. We have 500 in our high school and we are on the borderline."

The Madison system was complimented for the initiative already undertaken there in team teaching and ungraded class rooms.

★

MILTON PORTER, Lenawee County superintendent, praised the committee for a tremendous job.

"If the people will only listen they will get better education for their tax dollar. The big problem is the property tax. People are about at the end of the road in voting more property taxes," he concluded.

All Manufacturing Moves to Georgia

The division of Rockwell-Standard Corporation of Pittsburgh announced that research and development will, in addition to the components manufacturing, continue in Tecumseh. The 30 to 35 jobs now involved in the Tecumseh operation will continue here.

The Aero-Commander, a single engine high performance model developed and designed by Al Meyers, general manager of the Tecumseh Division, recently set a record for piston powered planes of its weight class by flying an average 206 miles at a maximum speed of 221 miles per hour. The Commander has a range of 1,300 miles and sells for $29,500.

ADDISON'S MARCHING BAND LOOKED SHARP AT FESTIVAL

500 Bandsmen Play Festival

Cool weather greeted a packed Tecumseh High School Stadium as 12 Lenawee County Bands played in the tradition originated by former Tecumseh music instructor, Clair Camburn.

Under the narration of the Rev. Blair O. Bashore, the bands performed themes ranging from a popular Dixie theme to brass band jazz, Al Hirt style.

Performing bands included Deerfield, Britton-Macon, Madison, Addison, Onsted, Hudson, Sand Creek, Morenci, Clinton, Adrian, Blissfield and Tecumseh.

An extremely sharp small band, Deerfield, kicked the program off with a brass-feature. Deerfield featured their brass in playing numbers made famous by Al Hirt.

Blissfield's marching band combined maneuverability of a fairly small band with a true big-band sound to present an outstanding program on the "Mother Goose" theme. Blissfield also featured brass with perfectly co-ordinated percussion.

The Tecumseh marching band presented their theme of "Dixieland" through "The Yellow Rose of Texas," "Shoo Fly Don't Bother Me," and a twirler interpretation of "Mississippi Mud". Among the big bands, Tecumseh and Clinton stood out as well-coordinated and conducted good sounds.

Addison's "Eyes" had it, while "Them There Eyes" and "Irish Eyes" gazed out at the audience. Possibly indicative of the effect Irish Eyes might have on the Irish, the eyes obligingly turned bloodshot at the proper time, adding a final touch to a good band concert program.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

More folks have said they'd like to join a camera club. A 4-H Club advisor wondered, after it's organized, if one of the camera club members would take over in teaching her 4-H youths about photography. An organizational meeting for the shutter group will be called the latter part of October. Watch here for date, time and place.

It was another great Band Festival. We wish Tecumseh people would take more interest in helping to promote the event. It has become a major date on the school music calendar — we'd hate to lose the Festival.

According to Spartan rooters, the sun shone brilliantly all Saturday afternoon over that beautiful Michigan Stadium.

Marguerite (Moose) Zimmerman is a Tecumseh High School sophomore with a deep love for horses. While signing up for classes she spied one in horticulture and quickly put her name on the dotted line. After two sessions she dropped the course. Moose thought it had something to do with horses.

Publicity chairmen who want to get all sorts of goodies in print, should plan to attend The Herald's Second Annual Publicity Workshop, which will be held this month — date and time to be announced later. Please call 423-2174 if you're interested and state the time you'd prefer session be held. We'll go with a majority.

Champion gum chewer, as far as we're concerned, is Paul Cubberly, who delivers The Telegram along Evans St. The other day he popped into The Herald with our copy, displaying a cud the size of a baseball. How he got it into his mouth still mystifies us.

Jaycees are selling bags of Halloween candy, at one buck per, to help raise cash in their drive to re-light Tecumseh's football field.

Unfortunately, one member of Kiwanis misread our story on the Pistons game, taking it as a criticism of his group. Please see editorial comment on the back page. For those who caught the game, there were popped eyes at the size of the giant pro hoopsters. They were not only tall, but as husky as football players.

Post card from Bootin' Pussy says he'll be heading to Michigan for the Tecumseh-Adrian game. Among other things, he wants to confer with coaches on who'll be awarded trophy given in his name to Indian player who turns in oddest play of the season.

They don't come much nicer than Stanley Packard, retired Bruce Foundry man who repairs bicycles at his home, 401 S. Pearl St. Assisting kids from all around town with their bike problems, Stanley will often charge only 10c and 15c for a job when he knows that's all a lad can scrape up.

As winter approaches, there's that lingering thought again — wouldn't an indoor ice skating rink be wonderful for Tecumseh?

This is School Lunch Week, as well as National Newspaper Week. Why not take an editor to lunch to celebrate?

Where are the 45,000 Cubans going to bed down once they are freed by Fidel and head to Miami?

Rah, Rah, Rah. Three cheeers for Madeline. Mrs. Barbara Speerstra and daughter, Madeline, only recently moved to Bloomington, Ind., and already Madeline is a cheerleader for the ninth grade.

Two Tories taking trigonometry at Tecumseh High School. How's that for a tongue twister? The boys are Jack Brown and Carl Studnicka. Apparently Britton doesn't offer trig this year.

Delightful is the unexpected. Ethel Martin, 5503 Macon Rd., brought a bouquet of blooming forsythia to The Herald office Monday. Usually spring bloomers, the flowers are a pleasant surprise at this time of year.

Our British correspondent, David Burns, writes: Something interesting happened one day when a repair man came to work on our refrigerator. Hanging on the wall over the frig was a calendar from Baldwin's Hardware. When the man stopped to drink a cup of tea he glanced up at the calendar and almost dropped his cup.

"Tecumseh!" he exclaimed. "That's where this refrigerator motor was made!"

I suppose ours is the only kitchen in England with a Tecumseh calendar on the wall!

N. Adrian Grange To Operate Tent

Mrs. Lyle Bailey of the North Adrian Grange is chairman of the food tent to be operated at the National Corn Picking contest by the Lenawee County Pamona Grange.

Much help will be needed from the members since it will be necessary for 25 to be serving at a time and there will be a need for a like amount for the preparation of the food.

Box lunches will be sold as well as those at the tent.

The tent will be in operation from Oct. 19 through the rest of that week.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Nancy Bishop and her puppy knew his name even though the grown-ups tried to call him something else. "Tramp," not Champ, led his mother, "Lucky," astray last week and Nancy's Daddy, Lonal Bishop, on Ternes St. couldn't find the two, much to the disappointment (putting it mildly) of the four Bishop children.

Kindly Mrs. B. B. Hannibal at 1109 N. River Ct. took the travelers in and fed them, reporting their whereabouts to the police department. It was a grinning, grateful father that picked up the animals, setting the household to rights again. Crying children are not conductive to sleep at night according to The Herald's jolly green giant.

TO THE EDITORS:

Thanks for asking. Yes, my Herald has been arriving late.

The Sept. 23 issue arrived Sept. 23. (Very unusual).

The Sept. 30 issue arrived Oct. 6.

The Oct. 7 issue arrived Oct. 9.

Usually it is here on Friday's, which is fine with me but the susps. very bad by the following week. Ha!

Keep up the good work, the Herald gets "bigger and better" all the time.

I do wish you could get a reporter in the Ridgeway area though, as that is my "home town."

Mrs. Joseph Geierman,

TO THE EDITORS:

I am afraid you have got a bit muddled in the tarantula spider affair. I am the son of Mrs. Burns, not of Mrs. Smith. In other words — I am David Burns, not David Smith!

Thank you for accepting my article, it was a pleasure.

Yours sincerely,

Tipton Fair Nets $500

The Tipton Community Church held their Annual Turkey supper and Fair Wednesday, October 6, netting over $500.00. Chairman, Mrs. Grover Swarts, and her committee prepared and served supper to over 300 people, with Mrs. William Vollmer in charge of the dining room.

Mrs. Walter Bale, chairman, reported the Country Store netted over $98.00. Mrs. Clifford Hardy, chairman, reported the Fancy Work Booth netted $107., which included the raffle of a braided rug, which was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hunt and won by Mrs. Nina Sturtevant of Britton.

The supper was followed by a Home Talent Show, with Mrs. Raymond Platt in charge. Several numbers were played by the Sunday School orchestra. A skit was presented by Mrs. Lyle Whelan, Mrs. Raynor Hardy, Mrs. Richard Platt, Mrs. Howard Kromberg, Mrs. Merrick Dibble and Mrs. Clifford Hardy.

A pantomime was presented by Mrs. William Bale, Mrs. Chester Blaska was the conductor of a "Kitchen Band" featuring Mrs. Hal Tuckerman, Mrs. Lee Griffin, Mrs. Wallace Wilkin, Mrs. Grover Swarts, Mrs. Harold Every, Mrs. Ray Buell, Mrs. Raymond Platt and Mrs. Lawrence Church. Mrs. Lester Munger was featured as the pianist. Eric and Jay Wardwell, Billie Spycher and Roger Cook made up a Barbershop quartet, complete with proper attire.

★

David Allen played his accordian, which concluded the program and then the Youth Fellowship, including their counselor, Dr. Metler, held a slave auction and sold their services to the highest bidders. This money will go into their treasury and be used to send the youths to camp next summer.

The women of the Church hope to use some of the money to re-decorate the church, as soon as repairs, due to the Palm Sunday tornado, are completed.

German Boy Is Killed By Tractor

Six-year-old Raymond German, son of Mr. and Mrs. William German, 2901 Rogers Hwy., was killed Saturday on his parents' farm.

The mishap occurred when Raymond's clothing was entangled in the power drive of a tractor being used to drive a cider press. He was dead on the scene according to Coroner Edward Braun of Adrian.

Raymond is survived by his parents and four brothers, Steven, Allen, Fred and Tim. He was a first grade student in the Ridgeway School.

Funeral services were held Monday at 3 p.m., at the Proctor Funeral Home, the Reverend Keith Morrow of the Palmyra Presbyterian Church presiding. Burial was in Raisin Township Cemetery.

Is Music Upsetting? Blame Schoenberg

By KATHERINE SOMMERS

If we find ourselves upset by modern music perhaps we could blame Arnold Schoenberg. This composer threw out the music people were used to and caused feelings of insecurity, according to Miles Cowdrey, instructor in music at Tecumseh High School.

Mr. Cowdrey lectured on "The Twelve Tone Scale" to members and guests of the Tecumseh Music Club at their October meeting.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Sommers Tuesday, October 5. Mrs. Paul Brantingham was co-hostess.

Mr. Cowdrey told the group that it was Mr. Schoenberg who has been dubbed the father of modern music although others such as Stravinsky and even Mozart used some dissonance in their compositions.

Using records and the piano, Mr. Cowdrey briefly sketched the tonal system in music from the time of the Greeks to the present. Mr. Cowdrey, who is currently working towards his Doctorate in Musical Education at the University of Michigan, was introduced by Mrs. Brantingham, program chairman for the evening.

Mrs. Fred Oberlin, president, announced that the district meeting of the Federated Music Clubs of Michigan will be held October 29 at Howell, Michigan.

Guests for the evening included Miss Helen Bendes, Mrs. Burton Wright and Mrs. Harry Hans.

The next meeting will be November 9 at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Waldron. An evening of music from two pianos will be presented.

Chit, Chat Members Have Fun

The Chit and Chat Tiptonaires met October 7 at the home of Mrs. Jerry Emery on Bent Oak Avenue, with 15 members present including one new member, Mrs. Dorman Pawson. A Halloween theme was used and each member dressed in a costume. Mrs. Emery presented two prizes, one to Mrs. William Vollmer for being the 10th member to arrive and one to Mrs. William Murphy for the funniest costume.

During the business meeting it was voted to raise the yearly dues to $1.00.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Vollmer on Tipton Highway on November 4, promptly at 7:30 p.m. We will have a Chinese Auction and a representative from the Beauty School in Adrian will give a make-up demonstration. Each member is to bring a small project to work on. The co-hostesses will be Mrs. Jerry Emery and Mrs. William Every.

St. Elizabeth School Clippings

First graders are well on their way to becoming "accomplished orators." The English series has been enabling the students to express themselves through everyday happenings, as well as pictures.

Last week, stories from pictures were told by Patricia Bruce, Gregory Busch and James Brosamer.

Grade four viewed many things via educational TV. They joined the eager crows in New York City as His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, came to this country on his mission of peace.

As they moved through the week, they explored place value in math, the use of descriptive words in English, and became bird watchers on Wednesday, seeing various birds that live along the shores and in the marshes of Michigan.

The Students of the eighth grade elected officers, including:

President—David Vaillancourt
Social chairman — Patricia Shrader

Meetings will be held on the first Thursday of each month during the Language Arts period.

Seventh graders held a similar meeting and the newly-elected officers are:

President — Ruth Rudd
Vice-president — Robert Aten
Secretary — Louis Rebottaro
Treasurer — Marie Hoffman

Enthusiastic scientists in the seventh and eighth grades have spent the past week building models of various molecules depicting the combinations of atoms.

Individual displays of rocks were contributed by Richard Rohrer, Mark Roberts and Susan Beardsley.

President Joseph Burns
Vice-president — Mary Margaret Rapin
Secretary — Gary Brion
Mission moderator — Mary Eliabeth Wanzeck

Fifth graders are busy studying the 49th state. Students showed great enthusiasm and originality in constructing projects from soap, sugar cubes, egg shells and paper mache depicting various aspects of Alaskan life.

Study Club Discusses Membership

Mrs. Howard Gentry opened her new home on Wildwood Circle to members of the Child Study Club for the Oct. 11 meeting.

During the business session a discussion was held concerning acceptance of associate and alumni members. Dues for the year were increased to $3 and are payable now.

Mrs. Hugh DesErmia, program leader, introduced Linda Gilbert and Pat Greene, THS students, who told of their summer trips to Sweden and Ireland.

Both used colored slides to augment their talks of customs, costumes, language, dances and other highlights of the countries they visited.

Mrs. Kenneth Killman and Mrs. Proctor Pace served pumpkin pie for refreshments.

Favors were made by Mrs. Keith Barron and Mrs. Miles Cowdrey.

Tipton School Notes

First Grade

We are busy learning new words in reading each week. We will soon receive our First Preprimer Reading book.

Rebecca Buell was the winner of our Flash Card contest.

We have a new pupil in our room who came from Clayton. His name is Henry Hendershot.

Bonnie Kukral has sold the most tickets for the Mardi Gras in our room so far.

For our art lesson, we made pumpkin men. Each student drew and designed him own. We certainly have some fine looking specimen.

We are working hard on recognizing alphabet letters as well as the sounds of the letters.

Second Grade

Carol Sellers had her birthday anniversary October 7. She is 7 years old. Our room looks like fall and Halloween. Marsha Bale gave s some Indian corn. Our room is very pretty.

We are all very busy. We have many new things to do and learn. We have a new pupil in our room. Her name is Amelia Hendershot and she came from Clayton.

We all enjoy our room and we are all good workers.

Third Grade

We have gotten off to a good start in our third grade work. We are especially pleased with our Math program and are buzzing along nicely.

We have our room decorated for fall with painted leaves on the windows and hanging about the room. We made Indian corn last week by coloring the squares of graph paper to resemble kernels of corn and attaching dried corn husks after rolling the paper in the shape of an ear of corn. We are also making a Halloween scene.

Fourth Grade

We have been learning about Good Citizenship. We made a list of rules we should follow at school. We made decorations for Halloween. We also studied about Alaska. We drew pictures about the people there.

Fifth Grade

Our student teacher, Miss Fuller, is showing us how to make paper-mache objects to help decorate our room for Halloween. In Science we are studying the Solar System. We have been making reports and giving the details of an imaginary trip to one of the planets.

In Social Studies we are studying about the early explorers such as the Spanish, the Portuguese and the French.

Sixth Grade

The Sixth Graders can hardly wait for the Tipton Mardi Gras October 23, 1965. It will be great fun.

The winners of the posters for the Mardi Gras were: 1st, Cynthia Freeman in sixth grade, 2nd, Janis Wilkin in sixth grade and 3rd, Janie Dauber in fifth grade. All of the posters were good though.

In Social Studies we are studying Egypt. It is very interesting.

In Science we are learning about the different kinds of weather.

We are doing very well in Math and are ready for the number line and Roman Numerals.

Twins Mothers Recount Happy Earlier Events

Recounting of happy times of the club members took place as the roll call was answered by those attending the Mother of Twins Club meeting Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. George Wielfaert in Britton.

Eleven remarked about last year's Christmas party, the annual smorgasbord, the family picnics and the visit last year of Dr. Archie O'Connor of Clinton.

The program for the year was planned. Members decided to make favors for elderly patients in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Wilfaert won the passing gift.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Don Hardcastle served a cherry dessert.

Mrs. Paul Rudd will be the hostess for the next meeting.

Fred Nash Honored

Fred Nash of Tecumseh, who is Lieutenant Governor of Division 7, Michigan District Kiwanis, was further honored this week by the Governor-elect for 1966, Harry Elsenheimer of Lansing.

Mr. Elsenheimer appointed Mr. Nash as the Michigan District Chairman of the Agriculture and Conservation Committee for 1966 and also as the Division Chairman of Forney Clement.

The Tecumseh Kiwanis Club is planning a Ladies Night program for Oct. 20, to be held in the Lenawee Institute on Sutton Rd.

At this program Fred Nash will be honored for his service to the club and Kiwanis International.

The featured speaker will be Stephen Czarnicki of St. Clair Shores, Michigan District Governor.

Kiwanians are planning a tour of Tecumseh for Mr. Czarnecki on that day. He will visit the Tecumseh Products Co., Fisher Body, Stauffer Chemical Co., and many other points of interest.

Mr. Czarnecki is a commercial agent for Bell Telephone Co. in Detroit. He is a member of the Detroit Industrial Kiwanis Club and is the chairman of the Council of Governors.

Mr. Czarnecki will be among the honored guests at the National Corn Picking Contest in Adrian on Oct. 21-22.

Lt. Gov. Fred Nash has been chosen to introduce Governor Czarnecki at the ceremonies opening the Picking Contest on Thursday morning.

WW II Mothers Extend Invitation to Service Parents

World War II Mothers, Unit 4, of Manitou Beach, have expressed appreciation to the people of Tecumseh and vicinity for their generous contributions during the poinsettia sale last weekend.

An invitation is issued to all gold star mothers and mothers who have sons or daughters in service, to attend an all-day District 2 meeting at Green's Pavilion Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m.

70-FOOT WATERFRONT LOTS

Gary was three years old the other day. We took him as a birthday treat for his first trip to the zoo. He dearly loved all of the animals, but the peak of adventure was the elephants. His eyes shone as he watched the great gray trunks snuffle and find his bravely flung peanuts, then stuff them into giant crunching jaws.

"Oh," he breathed adoringly, "elephants are big . . . as big as God!"

His arm tightened around my neck as he leaned to throw more nuts to his jumbo friends and I hugged him close, glad that already he has learned to see God everywhere.

I, myself, was almost grown before I realized God's "ever-presence" and the strength this knowledge brings, so it has been a great joy to watch the awareness of this truth develop early in my son.

Why don't you go to your church and take your child with you? It is the most important experience you can share with him.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

'The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THIS CHURCH MESSAGE SPONSORED BY THESE BUSINESSES

Officials Off to Washington

Congressman Wes Vivian has announced that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman will speak to the Second Congressional District Community Development Conference on Tuesday morning.

The Conference, organized and sponsored by Congressman Vivian will enable community leaders from Tecumseh and other Second District Communities to meet top Federal officials.

They also will become better acquainted with Federal programs designed to assist local governments.

The session is being held in the new Science and Astronautics Committee Hearing Room in the Rayburn House Office Building, Oct. 18 and 19. Mayor Harold Easton and City Manager Cal Zorn of Tecumseh plan to attend.

Secretary Freeman will speak on the operations and programs of the Department of Agriculture. In addition, other USDA officials will discuss the programs they administer within the Department.

Congressman Vivian will host a reception in honor of the conferees early Monday evening.

Among administration officials who have accepted an invitation to attend include:

Williard Wirtz, Secretary of Labor

Dr. Leland Hayworth, Director of the National Science Foundation

Joseph Barr, Under Secretary of the Treasury

Roger Stevens, President Johnson's Special Assistant on the Arts

Dr. Glen Seaborg, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission

LeRoy Collins, Under Secretary of Commerce

Ross Davis, acting administrator of the Small Business Administration

William Bundy, assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs

G. Mennen Williams, assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs and Mrs. Williams.

Congressman Vivian has also invited the Honorable John W. McCormack, speaker of the House of Representatives, House Majority Leader, Carl Albert of Oklahoma and House Minority Leader, Gerald R. Ford.

Tipton Pythian Officers Meet

The Alice Norcross officers' club of the Tipton Minnehaha Pythian Temple, met at the home of Mrs. Milford Sellers of Robbins Rd. last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Murphy won the mystery gift.

A family night will be held Oct. 29. A cake walk will be held as a money-raising project for the club.

Mrs. LaVonne Buell presided at the meeting attended by six members.

Mrs. Lyle Bailey will be hostess for the Nov. 3 meeting. The Christmas party will be held D[illegible]

Hobby Club Meets

The Franklin Hobby Club will meet at the home of Mrs. George Merritt October 21, at 7:30 p.m. The lesson will be on making pine cone wreaths and net Christmas trees. Members are to bring materials to work with.

Fellowship Meets

The Women's Fellowship will meet Tuesday, October 19, at 8:00 p.m., at the home of Mrs. William Luce.

Treasure Hunters Invited

The Tecumseh Jaycees invite the public to attend their exciting Treasure Hunt and Halloween Party.

Participants will gather at the Community Center at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 23. Dress will be casual, according to the weather. At the Community Center, the driver of each car will receive an envelope containing cryptic clues to the first destination. There will be a total of five clues, or destinations, the fifth of which leads to the "Hunter's Den."

[illegible] will be cash prizes for the first, second, and third cars in, who have picked up all five clues without having to call an emergency phone number, for extra help.

At the "Hunter's Den," beginning at 9:30 p.m., dinner, entertainment, dancing, raffle drawing, and a Treasure Chest opening, by the lucky key-holder, will take place.

The admission price of $6 per couple is all inclusive. All proceeds go towards furthering the Jaycee's Community projects.

For tickets or information, please call "The Phantom" at any of the following numbers: 423-3323, 423-2255, 423-2361, 423-2818.

If you've never been on an exciting treasure hunt — don't miss this one!

Peanut Brittle, Other Goodies Are Available

Peanut brittle, chocolate-covered cremes, turtles, suckers or peppermints are only some of the various types of candy to be offered for sale by the students of the Tecumseh School bands.

Seven different kinds of goodies go on sale from Oct. 13 to Oct. 27 by the band people, assisted by a committee of Band Boosters.

Those on the committee are Mrs. Robert Williamson, Mrs. Royce Durkey, Mrs. Fred Cooley and Mrs. Melvin Getz.

OBITUARIES

● OSCAR W. MEADS

Services were held Wednesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Oscar Meads, 75, of 301 S. Pearl St. who died Sunday at 10 a.m. at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was admitted the day before.

Mr. Meads was born Jan. 20, 1890, at McGill in Paulding County, Ohio, the son of George D. and Elizabeth Hudspeth Meads.

He married Mildred Beaubien in Tecumseh Sept. 15, 1914. She survives.

Mr. Meads was a carpenter and was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for 20 years. He retired in 1958.

He was a member of the Tecumseh Friends Church.

He was preceded in death by a brother and four sisters.

Besides his wife he is survived by four sons, George, 315 S. Adrian and Robert, 211 N. Maumee, Merle of Onsted and Wilbur Meads of Adrian; four daughters, Mrs. Ray Campbell, 704 Clark St., Mrs. Clarence Randolph, 507 S. Pearl St., and Mrs. Arnold Ries, 310 E. Kilbuck St., and Mrs. Lee Stevens of Chicago, 27 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren

Five brothers, Allen of Conroy, Ohio, Arthur of Milan, Jason of Jackson, Homer of Springfield, Ore., and Edgar of Oxford, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. Oscar Rose of Springfield, Ore., and Mrs. George Ward, 411 S. Pearl St. also survive.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

● MRS. RODERICK FLETCHER

Services were held Friday in Farmington and interment was at Brookside Cemetery for Mrs. Roderick Fletcher, 57, who died Oct. 6 in the Botsford Hospital, Farmington of a heart attack.

She was born Aug. 25, 1908, to Andrew and Pearl Kempf of Tecumseh. They preceded her in death.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, Donald, who is in the armed forces.

Three sisters, Mrs. Glenn Corneil of Lansing, Mrs. Norman Higgins of Manchester, and Mrs. Louise Matheny, 610 W. Chicago, and two brothers, Charles, 310 N. Maiden Lane and George Kempf, 600 Outer Dr., also survive.

The Rev. Julian Gresham officiated.

—o—

● GENARO DIAZ

The funeral mass for Genaro Diaz, 75, of 10715 Smith Rd., was held Monday at St. Elizabeth Church.

Mr. Diaz died Friday night at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was admitted Oct. 2.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins officiated and burial was in Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens.

Bearers were Gilberto Villanueva, Raul Gomez, Jose Valdez, Joe Davila, Leopoldo Gonzalez and Domingo Trevino.

Awards Banquet

The affair is a highlight of the 4-H year and honors noteworthy members and others.

Those honored from this area included Mike Jackson, Tecumseh, awarded a plaque in two areas, Reserve Champion Lamb and Reserve Champion Pen Lambs.

Mary Ann Woodward, Clinton, was awarded a $10 prize by Paul Vergote, Sr., for her prize winning beef showmanship.

Pat Bolz, Tipton, was awarded $5 from the Jipson Carter Bank for a Reserve Champion Hereford, while Tim Johnston, also of Tipton received a Wool Card, for Senior Class Sheep Showmanship, from Chester Baker.

Jim Pilbeam and Steve Eldred of Britton received Sheep Shears for Junior Sheep Showmanship and $7.50 for Rate of Gain, second place, respectively.

Receiving trophies were Kathy Johnston and Tim Johnston, of Tipton.

Kathy was awarded her trophy by the Michigan Livestock Association for Grand Champion Pen Lambs and Tim was awarded his from the Lenawee County Fuel Oil Council for a Grand Champion Lamb.

Reorganize Cubs

A meeting was held Thursday evening in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center for the purpose of reactivating Pack 73. The Rev. Julian Gresham and Duncan Oliphant, Scout Council vice-president, explained the need for adult leadership and a pack committee was established.

Interested parents of prospective Cub Scouts are asked to meet with a committee in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

ELECTRIC HEATING is the ultimate

SET THE TEMPERATURE IN EACH ROOM JUST THE WAY YOU ENJOY IT!

Electric Heating is noiseless — there are no moving parts to vibrate, rattle or wear out. Electric Heating is hidden from view because it's supplied by wires that are embedded in ceiling plaster, or baseboard, or wall panels.

There's no need to fuss over Electric Heating, no fuel to order or store. The most work you do is adjust the thermostats. And, since there's a thermostat in each room, the heat can be tailored for the area and the activity. Yes, Electric Heating is really modern, and there's a type to fit every home, new or old.

Even if you're not planning on building or remodeling it will pay you to get the facts on Electric Heating

The Tecumseh Jayvee Squad for 1965, led by Coach Vic Lawson, left, and his assistant, Coach Bob Kiebler. The JV's are undefeated this season, having been scored on only once. They are: first row, Coach Vic Lawson, Gary Raymond, Rick Durkee, Chuck Gillies, John Anderson, Tom Witt, Doug Swartz, Dick Hale, Gus Bishop, Coach Bob Kiebler. Second row, Chuck Spooner, Buddy Wark, Jim Mobley, Don Wright, Rick Jackson, Tom Horton, Ron Robinson, Doug Skinner, John Bolden.

Linemen Star as Milan Falls

By JIM LINCOLN

Two first half touchdowns carried the Tecumseh Indians to their second straight Huron League win Friday when Coach Tom Fagan's club trampled Milan, 19-6.

Rapidly improving Tecumseh tallied the first time it had possession of the ball, and for most part, controlled play throughout most of the game.

In the first quarter, the Indians moved to Milan's seven, where Roger Young skipped around left end to move Tecumseh ahead, 6-0.

Ron Rentschler upped the margin in the second period with a 14-yard pass to end Dean Hebb, who took the aerial on the two and stepped into the end zone.

Milan, bogged down behind a rather inept offense for most of the game, connected in the third quarter on a 53-yard pass-run play.

Any hopes of the Big Reds upsetting Tecumseh ended minutes later when Rentschler pickoff a Milan pass on Milan's 28. On the first play, Young rounded left end and raced in untouched.

Young picked up his 13th point of the game when he ran for the extra point.

While Tecumseh failed to whip the best team in the area Friday night at Milan, the Indians are showing signs of being very respectable.

Henry Mensing, Ron Forsythe and Barry Williamson held the Milan backs in check through the center of Tecumseh's line, and forced the Big Reds to run the ends of pass. Except for the scoring pass, Milan was most effective on pitchouts and runping wide.

★

While the improvement in Rentschler and Young have been apparent in the past two games, Mark Blatchford ran hard several times against Milan and showed signs that the Indians could have a good threat up the middle.

The 190-pound Blatchford help set up Tecumseh's first touchdown, bumping and dragging Milan players to put the Indians in scoring position.

JVs Keep on Victory Trail

By DICK CARVER

Just behind the scenes at Tecumseh High School, Athletic Chairman Vic Lawson and his assistant coach, Bob Kiebler, have a Junior Varsity team that doesn't know when to say die.

Emphasis here is on TEAM.

Coach Lawson put repeated emphasis on the team effort and good attitude that he indicates has made the winning team he has. He has a team willing to work hard and with three victories under their belt he's looking for his team to make a good showing this season.

Under the direction of quarterback Jim Mobley, who Vic says can throw well and pick that option play to run if necessary, the team wasn't scored against until their third game, Milan, when they defeated the visitors, 27-6.

Previous games ended in 34-0 and 13-0 scores against Willow Run and Adrian, respectively.

What kind of game do they play? Some of the touchdowns were pass plays, but their running game seems to be the big ground gainer.

Working with a 15-man nucleus and a total squad of only 21 men, ic and Bob find themselves playing the same team offensively and defensively and making it work.

Center Tom Horton at 157 pounds, is flanked by guards Dick Hale, Gary Raymond, and Mobley with tackles Tom Witt, Rick Jackson and Doug Swartz.

Watch this going team in their up-coming games:

Oct. 8—Airport—Here, 4 p.m.
Oct. 21—Monroe Jeff. — Here, 7 p.m.
Oct. 28—Blissfield—There, 7 p.m.

Grosse Ile Favored in Homecoming Battle

Tecumseh's hopes of repeating as Huron League champions rest on the outcome of the Indians' match with Grosse Ile here Friday night.

The Red Devils will be top heavy favorites to trim the Indians, perhaps by a couple of touchdowns.

GI is undefeated this season and showed no signs of letting up last week by walloping a mediocre Airport team, 43-0.

With 16 lettermen back, Coach Jay Tissot has experience plus size at every position. It's practically the same club the Indians squeaked by last year.

Tecumseh, although improving each game, will have to come up to a peak performance fast. It'll be question of how much the Indians can improve by Friday night — and even that may not be enough.

This being a must game, Coach Tom Fagan should have little trouble getting his club up to stop GI's winning streak.

Frosh Win Again

Tecumseh High Freshmen slammed Hillsdale Frosh 35-0 in football play last Wesh night.

Second squad play failed to allow a Hornet Frosh score as Coach Ted Todd saw his boys pick up their third victory.

Larry Cote kicked off scoring with an 8 yard pass from John Kennedy. The score was set up by a 20 yard run by Steve Dalton. The PAT was kicked by Rick Steele.

Larry Cote again brought lights to the board as he ran four yards in the second period. The TD was set up by two John Kennedy passes totaling 32 yards. Rick Steele is credited with the PAT.

Shortly before half-time Bob Haines intercepted a Hillsdale pass and returned it to the Hillsdale 30 yard line. Kennedy hit Steve Dalton in the end one with a 30 yard pass. Steele kicked his third of four perfect PAT'S.

★

After half-time teammates Dalton, Cote and Carl Mobley engineered a drive that ended with Mobley running 3 yards for the fourth TD. Rick Steele retired for the night with a perfect PAT record of 4-4.

Tecumseh's final touchdown came after a pass interception by Terral Ives and a 42 yard Kennedy to Anderson pass that landed the ball on the Hillsdale one yard line. Rick Steele did double duty as he went in for the TD and Anderson added the PAT on a pass from Kennedy.

Coach Todd indicates that Sam Brooks and Denny Lewis stood out at their offensive line positions while the defense honored Bob Haines and Sim Parros for their usual fine job at linebacker slot.

Celebrates Annual Lunch Week

BRITTON — Britton-Macon School cafeteria manager, Mrs. Forrest Barrett, and her staff have gone all-out to celebrate the Fourth Annual National School Lunch Week. This year they invited ten mothers, (two each day,) to be guests at the daily luncheon with their children.

Serving on this program with Mrs. Barrett are assistants Mrs. Charles Benedict, Mrs. Raymond Seagert and Mrs. Henry Brown. Mrs. Robert McCrate is a part-time assistant.

Britton-Macon Cafeteria Staff
Mrs. Ray Seagert,
Mrs. Charles Benedict,
Mrs. Forrest Barrett,
Mrs. Henry Brown

Mrs. Klump's sixth grade students have decorated the lobby bulletin board appropriately for the occasion.

Mrs. Barrett reports that during the month of September, which had 17 school days, the staff served 6940 Type A lunches and a total of 12,682 half pints of milk.

Mrs. Barrett firmly believes better diets produce better studying habits, also teaches children what to eat, gives them knowledge of new foods, and helps them to learn to dine with other people graciously.

"We as luncheon people consider it a privilege and pleasure to have a part in this great task of helping to nourish and inspire the youth of our school so that they may be better prepared to cope with the many complicated problems in our society today," stated Mrs. Barrett.

Mothers whose names were drawn and were guests of the cafeteria staff, were Mrs. Elmer Dick and daughter Kimberly, from Mrs. Thornton's room; Mrs. Wilbur Lorenz and daughter Nancy, from Mrs. Schroeder's room; Mrs. Earl Crabtree and son Steven, from Mrs. Davis' room; Mrs. Joe Cabla and daughter Joyce, from Miss Creger's room; Mrs. Curtis Banks and daughter Kym, from Mrs. VanCamp's room; Mrs. Felis Kotlarczyk and daughter Diane, from Mrs. Fleming's room; Mrs. [illegible] Thomas and son Jim, from Mrs. Cleveland's room; Mrs. Wesley Gilmore and daughter Carolyn, from Mrs. Klump's room Mrs. Robert Bixler and daughter Barbara, from Mrs. Forsyth's room.

Karen Honored In Bridal Shower

BRITTON — Miss Karen Pankotai of Lincoln Park was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Gustav Tiede. Hostesses for the event were Donna Tiede and Mrs. Ronald Maschino, assisted by Mrs. Gus Tiede and Mrs. Roland Maloney of Blissfield.

Each guest as she arrived gave the bride-to-be a favorite recipe for her recipe file.

The dining table was centered with a tiered cake topped with a pink shower girl, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Maschino.

Several appropriate games were played and prizes awarded to the winners.

A buffet supper was served to 45 guests, who had come from Lincoln Park, Ypsilanti, Blissfield, Deerfield, Petersburg, Adrian, Cygnet, O., and the Britton area.

Karen opened many beautiful and useful gifts. She will become the bride of Wesley Tiede on Nov. 13, at Calvary Lutheran Church in Lincoln Park.

Britton Barber Moves Shop

BRITTON — Bob Sturtevant of Britton, plans to open a barber shop soon in Tecumseh. He will be located at 138 E. Chicago Blvd., between Proctor's Shoe Store and the Colonial House of Beauty. The opening date will be announced as soon as the decorating and equipment installation have been completed.

Bob is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School and Toledo Barber College. He has been employed in Toledo since 1961.

Seagerts' Vacation

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seagert and their children spent a real family vacation last week at Allegheny State Park in New York.

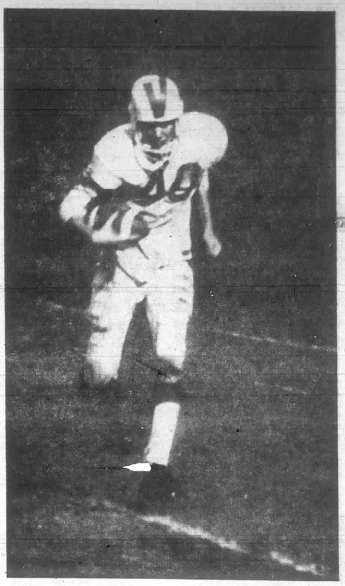
Accompanying them were their daughter Linda; daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Pape, Nancy and Dale of Quincy; and their son Richard of Clinton, Iowa. Richard took a week's vacation from the DuPont Chemical Co. in Iowa to join the family in New York. They visited many points of interest in that area.

Attendance 46 Congregationals

BRITTON — Forty-six women attended the Circle meetings of the Congregational - Christian Church last week.

The Sunshine Circle met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Douglas Palmer, and the Priscilla Circle met the same evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Lorenz. Wednesday the Golden Rule Circle will meet for a noon luncheon with Mrs. Mae Willis, and in the evening, the Mary-Martha Circle met with Mrs. Richard Bruce.

The story of the New Testament as portrayed in the Scripture Panorama series was continued by program leaders in three groups. The study of missionaries was led by Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt in the Mary-Martha Circle. The four circles have monthly meetings in members' homes.



SCORES FIRST TOUCHDOWN — Tory quarterback Jack Brown went five yards to get Britton's first score of the season, but it wasn't enough as Sand Creek took the game, 31-7. Terry Godzina tallied the extra point. Friday will be Homecoming in Britton with Ida the opposition.

New Church Named Grace

BRITTON — Grace Methodist Church was the name selected by the combined Ridgeway - Britton Methodist church at the quarterly conference last Thursday evening. The meeting was conducted by Dr. Joseph P. Edwards, Supt. of the Ann Arbor District.

Election of officers was held. The new officials terms of office are effective immediately for the year ending May 31, 1966.

The decision was also made to locate the parsonage for the merged church in Britton. The pastor and his family will move as soon as necessary repairs and decoration are completed. The former parsonage in Ridgeway is to be offered for sale. Definite plans have not yet been made regarding the church building in Britton.

ENSIGN DEAN EDDY

Ensign Dean Eddy Gets His Wings

"Ensign Dean P. Eddy has his naval aviator "Wings of Gold" pinned on by his father, Paul Eddy of Manitou Beach in ceremonies Aug. 25 at the Chase Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Beeville, Texas.

His designation represents 18 months of flight training as well as hard demanding work involving proficiency in academics.

In writing to Ensign Eddy's mother, Mrs. Elmer Buehrer, Rear Admiral F. A. Brandley said, "To become a Naval Aviator is not an easy task, and it is purposely so because we want to be assured of the highest quality Naval pilot that it is possible to train. You can be justly proud of your son."

Industrial Arts Program Slated

"We have had to drop the best part of our industrial arts program," Don Brazee, assistant principal of Tecumseh High School sadly has reported.

In trying to effect the fewest number of students now missing is the upper end of the program where five classes were dropped from the curriculum.

Included are electronics, drawing two, advanced woodworking, shop four and wood technology.

"Some seniors dropped two classes and a few three, continued Mr. Brazee.

Lack of industrial art teachers is the problem. There is no lack of equipment.

Industry is taking the qualified people before they become teachers so Tecumseh is not alone in the search.

The school had improved the department with an electrones laboratory and mental shop in the recent $400,000 expansion program. It was hoped by school officials that the vocational training field was on the way up.

★

MR. BRAZEE commented that attempts have been made to help those students who sometimes are inclined to discontinue their education.

He said that if classes in the lower part of the program were dropped such as freshman shop, the school would never be able to accomodate the number of students who would want the classes when and if the teaching posgitions are all filled.

There simply wouldn't be space enough.

Two teachers in the department moved to other schools last year and Neville Hart, principal, was successful in replacing only one of them.

Kenneth Feldman, a recent graduate of Western Michigan University is assisting Charles Gross in the department.

The two men are teaching six hours a day with a consultation period. Don Berkley is teaching a full schedule at the Junior High School.

Gerald Potter took a position in the Fordson High School at Dearborn and Tim Bortles in the Plymouth School system.

Both taught here last year.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

TWO WONDERFUL DAYS

The upcoming winter is going to be long and apt to be hard. Snow, ice and cold weather are simply not compatible with wheelchairs and so when it is wintry outside, I stay inside.

What better way to prepare for this than by taking a little weekend jaunt? For a long time now we have wanted to visit "the Thumb" and suddenly all of the pieces started falling into place.

Thursday evening, when the weather forecasts promised a nice weekend, we decided this was it.

★

OF COURSE, with all of Friday's rain, wind and cold, we did feel a bit foolish packing for a two-day trip. The weather man said it would clear up though and we had faith. Besides, it was probably the only weekend we could get away this fall.

Saturday dawned — well, no, not bright and clear, but by the time we were set to "hit the road," it was a beautiful day. The sky was a bright clear fall blue and the sun shone brilliantly — there was not a trace of the early morning fog left.

It was just a perfect day to be going some place.

Our first plan had been to drive along the St. Clair River, Marine City and St. Clair.

The shipping channel should be busy now with Seaway traffic and to see so many foreign ships would be fun.

The lure of the Thumb was too great, however, and we headed directly for Port Huron. Lake Huron was unbelievably blue and although it was not close we did see a great deal of shipping.

★

WHILE M-25 DOES not go along the shoreline in the sense of being right next to the water, it does stick close enough to give occasional glimpses.

Each town has a marina from which marvelous views may be obtained. We also found that the county parks and boat launching areas in state parks are good lake-watching spots.

Incidentally, from a little beach just south of Port Hope, we saw three large flocks of geese. What did we say about winter coming?

Actually, we thought it had arrived Sunday morning — the wind was blowing up a regular gale. And cold — wow!

Our motel was just out of Port Austin and right on Saginaw Bay. It was another sunny day, but the sky was full of big white, gray and black winter looking clouds.

This over a large body of water lashed into a white-capped fury by an incredibly strong wind and really, we almost stayed there just watching. It was fascinating.

★

WE DROVE to the shore in downtown Port Austin to see the high waves explode against and erupt over the break-water. A tremendous sight and one which drew many other spectators.

Our next "port of call" was Grindstone City — a near-deserted town at the tip of the Thumb's nail, which was once a busy center for the making of grindstones.

Here too, water crashing into the shore, this time where unused stones had been dumped, was the main attraction. Going back to Port Austin and then on to Caseville, we again checked the beach but here the gulls vied with the water for our attention.

There were a great many of them and they were having such trouble with the wind.

★

BOTH DAYS we stopped at many little roadside parks and what a joy they are. It is a shame that from Port Huron to Port Austin there aren't the turn-outs and parks in the same proportion that there are from Port Austin to Caseville.

So it is that although the fall color had not reached its peak during this first weekend in October good weather and marvelous water-shore scenery combined to give us two wonderful days.

Herrick Park PTO Plans Carnival

A committee organization meeting for the Herrick Park PTO carnival, was held Sept. 30 at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Julie Fosbender.

Present were Mrs. Fosbender, Mrs. Dale Carpenter, Mrs. Richard Fielder, Mrs. George Burchard, Mrs. Harry Thest, Mrs. Benjamin Ross, Mrs. Gene Tuckey, Mrs. M. B. Meijer, Mrs. Richard Colson and Mrs. Clyde Grinder.

Plans were formulated for the Carnival for November 6 from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m., to carry the theme "Holiday Carnival".

Among activities decided upon was the Christmas shop, featuring many gift items. Also there will be the cake walk, candy booth, fishing pond and game room.

For a real carnival atmosphere there will be cotton candy, a snack bar and a bake sale.

Many more items were discussed and will be added later for an afternoon full of fun and activities.

Edgar Pistole is conducting a poster contest with the children of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades competing.

With few limitations, the children are to let their imaginations run wild. The posters will be collected and judged October 29th.

First, second and third prizes will be awarded on the basis of originality, neatness, artistic ability and appeal.

First prize will be $3, second prize, $2 and third prize $1. The next 10 will be given free tickets.

Adams Pays For Firearms Possession

Perry Adams, Jr., 30, of 10190 Springville Hwy., Onsted, appeared before Justice Norman Glancy of Onsted, Saturday, on a charge of possession of firearms while intoxicated. He paid a fine of $50, $4.30 costs and was placed on one-year probation.

Adams was carrying a loaded shotgun at the Twin Gables tavern on US-12, on Aug. 22, when he was apprehended by Clinton State Police.

Mrs. Edwards October Speaker

RIDGEWAY — Mrs. J. P. Edwards, wife of the Ann Arbor District Superintendent, was the speaker at the October meeting of the W.S.C.S. of the Grace Methodist Church.

Thirty members and guests were present to hear her inspirational message "Where the Women Are." Mrs. Edwards used colored lights on flannelgraph to illustrate her talk.

The WSCS will sponsor the collection for UNICEF in the Ridgeway area, with Mrs. Paul Frazier, secretary of social relations, in charge of organizing the children of the church.

Additional plans were made for the annual bazaar and supper which is to be held Nov. 11. Mrs. Lloyd Wagner is supper chairman.

Introducing the tuned car. 1966 Buick.

What makes a car a car is styling, performance, ride and handling. Only when they're all tuned together is the car a Buick. Like this 1966 Riviera Gran Sport.

You know how well your car's engine runs after a tuneup? Buick tuning has the same effect on the whole car. Not just the engine. The whole Buick. Everything blends with everything else. Styling. Performance. Ride. Handling. All tuned to work together in harmony. That's what the tuned car is. A Buick. Only Buick is the tuned car. (And every Buick is the tuned car.) What the tuned car is is a masterful blending of all the things that make a great car greater. The Riviera for 1966 is the tuned car. It features six-passenger seating, disappearing headlights, a silently efficient new ventilating system and the kind of roadworthiness you'd expect in a car that costs twice as much. (You can get a Riviera for your desk as well as your garage. Send $1 in check or money order to Riviera, P.O. Box 68, Troy, Mich., for an accurate 1/25 scale model '66 Riviera.) But Riviera's not the only tuned car. LeSabre is, too. And Wildcat. Electra 225. Special. Skylark. Sportwagon. See them all at your Buick dealer's. The tuned car may not mean much to you now. But then you haven't had a chance to drive one yet.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

For High School Presbyterians

A "College Day" for Presbyterian High School sophomores, juniors and seniors will be held Sunday, Oct. 17, from 2:30 to 5 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Kalamazoo.

During the afternoon the young people will have an opportunity to meet with representatives of Alma College, The University of Dubuque, Trinity University and the College of Wooster, all Presbyterian institutions.

Time of departure will be promptly at 1 p.m. from the church.

Projects Discussed by Green Bees 4-H

Projects for the coming year were discussed and various crafts displayed at the September meeting of the Raisin Green Bees at the home of Mrs. Robert Beevers.

Two new members, Mrs. Raymond Nichols and Mrs. Dale Perry, and a guest, Mrs. George Wright, with nine regular members, attended the first meeting of the fall season.

Program planning was completed. The club will start work on ceramics Oct. 18, in a session at the home of Mrs. Edward Osburn, 5815 Green Hwy.

Each member will bring the piece they wish to work on, a small sponge, scrubber and clean-up tools to the meeting.

Mrs. Stanley Dermyer, co-hostess, furnished a delicious dessert served at the close of the meeting.

THE CAPITOL

CHRONICLE OF FREEDOM

What do you know about your Capitol? Who selected Washington as the seat of our Government? Which army set the Capitol afire? In which room did the word "lobbying" originate? Whose desk in the Senate chamber was severely damaged by a bayonet? Relive some of the great moments of the Capitol's history as Raymond Massey guides you on a tour through its halls and galleries. A program as exciting as it is instructive. A treat for the whole family, especially the children. A full-color presentation of the Savings and Loan Foundation.

A Touch of the Past

1855

B. Prell and Company have opened a new "gents'" furnishing store here.

1865

The apple trade is exceptionally brisk and bringing $3 per barrel.

Plans are being made for the annual promenade to the Odd Fellows Hall.

A mass meeting will be held in the Bidwell hall to consider measures for erecting a monument to the memory of deceased soldiers.

1885

The water main is being extended down Chicago St. from Oneida St. to the Globe Mill hill.

Charles F. Patterson has leased the Patterson Hotel property from H. S. Lee.

A shed 12 x 120 feet, is being built in the rear of the council building to house the corporation tools and machinery.

Clinton has organized a camp of "Sons of Red Men" for the purpose of administering warm tar to the fellow who makes a practice of window peeping.

Rents in Tecumseh are rapidly declining and for-sale signs are appearing in windows. Reason: three orchestras and seven vocal quartettes have been organized in addition to the regular brass bands.

1895

One hundred eleven students are enrolled in the high school, 34 are non-resident.

The village council has voted to abolish the post of lamplighter.

1905

1915

1935

E. T. Drake is the new general manager of milling operations at the Hayden Milling Co. He comes from Fostoria, O.

Mrs. D. F. Wright is again the head of the executive board of the Tecumseh Welfare Service. The organization will again send Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets as in other years.

Ralph Oliver bet on the Cubs. Florence Howe bet on the Tigers. Ralph will pay off his bet at 5 p.m. Friday by giving Florence a wheelbarrow ride down Chicago St.

1945

The twelfth annual Harvest Home Service will be held at the Tecumseh Friends Church Sunday.

The Band Parents Club will sponsor a concert this week by the Kryl All-girl Symphony Orchestra, in the high school auditorium.

1955

Jack Hahn, manager of the Kuehmann potato farm north of town, reported that about 71,750 bushels of potatoes would soon be harvested by the crew of 35 Mexicans. The spuds would end up as "Q-Man" potato chips.

Action Committee Will Meet Oct. 20

A meeting of the Lenawee Community Action Committee will be held Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m. at the Employment Security Commission office, 410 E. Maumee St., Adrian.

Betty Morse, secretary, invited the public to attend.

A meeting of the executive board will be held at 7 p.m., at the same place.

PUMPKINS FOR HALLOWEEN — Otto Teske, 208 N. Democratic St., and his grandchildren raise 'em big. Janis and Larry Whelan, children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whelan, 330 N. Union St., have kept an eye on the pumpkin vines in the corner of their grandpa's garden all summer. Here Larry measures a 70-lb. giant and grins as he contemplates a huge Jack-O-Lantern.

Christmas Easy As Child's Play

Over 100 creative projects are in this new magazine "Christmas Things Children Can Make" (Maco Magazine Corporation; 50c). All these projects are easily adaptable to the child's age and capabilities, none will frustrate the child; all are fun and easy, and designed to give a child's own inventive space to grow. And all are simple enough to allow mistakes and still be worthy gifts or decorations. Instructions are specific but each child who has this unique magazine is encouraged to become involved personally and do things his way, rather than to imitate.

Sample Project: Bleach-Bottle Bank:

Materials — bleach bottle — four corks—knife decals—paint —pipe cleaner — big ribbon bow. Cut a slot on top for money to be dropped through. Trace around small ends of corks on bottom of pig. Cut holes, glue around them, and insert corks. Decorate with decals or paint on your own designs. Paint on pig's face. Poke a hole for pipe-cleaner tail and stick it in. Glue a big bow to the top of the bank.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Macbeth and three children have returned from a trip which included New York City, the World's Fair and Washington, D. C.

New Elegance! New Excellence! New Excitement!

The finest of all Cadillacs is here! It greets you with an exciting new elegance surpassing even the Cadillac styling triumphs of years gone by. Its dazzling new look is highlighted by a totally new split-level grille and by new clean-swept body contours. And its interiors have never been more breathtaking! New leathers, new fabrics and new appointments (with dramatic walnut paneling on all Fleetwood models) impart an air of unrivaled distinction and luxury. And Cadillac's traditional engineering excellence rewards you with a number of suspension, chassis, and acoustical advances which result in an almost incredible smoothness and quietness of operation. Finally, consider the excitement of Cadillac's new performance. You'll marvel at the new alertness and the wonderful handling ease provided by Cadillac's exclusive variable ratio power steering. Visit your Cadillac dealer and drive the great new Standard of the World!

Drazic Leads Clinton Win

CLINTON — Quarterback Dennis Drazic had a delightful evening Friday.

He directed the attack as Clinton's Redskins breezed past Ann Arbor University High, 23-0.

In the opening stanza, Dennis connected with Butch Hoelzer on a pass play that went for 46 yards and a touchdown.

Dennis caught Bill Jedele for another TD on a 16-yard play.

To cap his performance, Dennis ambled 38 yards for a score.

Roger Proctor's right foot was in top shape as he banged a 27-yard kick through the uprights for a field goal and also kicked two extra points.

Clinton is now 4 and 0 with a defense which has refused to give up a single score so far this season.

Hudson comes to the Redskin field Friday evening.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights remain unscathed in four games, three of which were league battles. They will take this record into their mid-season clash with Whiteford's tough Bobcats tomorrow night at Whiteford.

Last Fridaly night at Summerfield, Boysville's dynamic backfield again put on a show of speed and power by blanking the Bulldogs, 40-0. The backfield trio, consisting of halfbacks Moe Jacobs and Joe Pawlus and fullback Don Chalmers, ground out a creditable 341 yards rushing.

Boysville's initial score came minutes after the opening kickoff. A tough Knight defense held the Bulldogs to no gain and forced them to a fourth down punt. The kick covered 30 yards with no Boysville runback.

Four plays later Joe Pawlus ran four yards through right tackle to paydirt Later in the quarter Don Chalmers broke away from would-be tacklers and brought the second Knight score across. In the second quarter Moe Jacobs and Don Chalmers each contributed a touchdown of 11 yards.

Penalties totaling 50 yards didn't restrict the Knights from scoring in the third quarter. Both Pawlus and Jacobs went over for the second time on runs of eight and 35 yards respectively. The fourth quarter saw on decisive action by either team.

Boysville's reliable defense held Summerfield to first downs that were few and far between, and did a commendable job in bearing the brunt of the Bulldog passing attack. Moe Jacobs was the leading ground gainer with 174 yards rushing, an average of nine yards per carry.

For the season so far, the Knights have scored 161 points and have allowed none. Tomorrow's game with Whiteford promises to pose a major threat to this record.

The customary pep assembly preceeding Friday night's game with Summerfield was sponsored by the seniors. The rally was highlighted by a skit involving Bill Kayl, Bill Crowley, Armand Boisvenue, Rick Lapish, Martin Whittaker and John Miernik. Also featured were several numbers by the Syndicates, a campus rock 'n' roll group.

√

Twenty-eight members of Boysville's class of '66 attended the Columbian Ball, sponsored by the Columbian Squires, in Adrian last Saturday night. Entertainment included dancing and music by the Caravans. A buffet dinner was served midway through the festivities.

√

An invitation in Boysville's dining hall is a new Wurlitzer juke box. The box was donated by Wurlitzer Music Company through the efforts of Nick Orlando, a representative of the company, and John Fisher, past State Deputy of the Michigan Knights of Columbus and present Archdiocesan Boysville Chairman for the Knights. The box is a beautiful instrument, capable of playing regular or L.P. 45 rpm records. It will be most useful during record hops.

Truesdales Purchase Theatre

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. John Truesdale have purchased the Clinton Theater from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick.

The theater which seats 300 will be renovated with plans to have it open in time for the children's Halloween show.

The Truesdales will offer family-type films.

Mr. and Mrs. Truesdale have demonstrated their interest in youth with the operation of the Teen Can-Teen since December 1963.

Friendly Class Sees Collection of Antique Hats

From more than a dozen hats, which were fashionable in previous decades, guests selected their favorite one to wear for the evening. Mrs. Lawson Ward chose the cerise-pink, rose-laden concoction which contained a prize-winning lucky number.

Mrs. Harold Every and Mrs. Bessie Greenfield modeled an entire wedding outfit from Mrs. Halladay's collection, which dated from the turn of the century.

Mrs. Halladay read from a scrapbook of historical clippings compiled by her mother-in-law, Mrs. James Halladay.

Mrs. Florence Bauer assisted the hostess with the serving of refreshments.

Scout Leaders Are Planning Training Meet

CLINTON — A training session for adult leaders of Girl Scouts will be conducted by Mrs. Betty Lincoln and Mrs. Jane Duvall of Jackson on Oct. 19, 20, 26, 27, and Nov. 2. All leaders from the Clinton and Tecumseh areas are invited to attend.

The training will be given in the Smith-Kimball Community Center from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day.

Christian Service Society Observes 25

CLINTON — A dessert luncheon was held Tuesday in observance of the 25th anniversary of the Women's Society of Christian Service, in the Methodist Church, with 50 guests present.

Especially honored were 12 of the 33 charter members: Mrs. Frank Furgason, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Bessie Greenfield, Mrs. Oren Woods, Mrs. Ivah McCombs, Mrs. Byrdelia Hull, Mrs. Hans Schmidt, Mrs. Edward Judge, Mrs. Carl Jedele, Mrs. Lawson Ward, Mrs. Charles Knight and Mrs. Andrew Woodard of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Waldo Ehnis, president, extended the welcome. Mrs. Knight led the devotional service.

Mrs. Martin Scott, the program leader, introduced Mrs. Charles Straight who read some of the minutes of the meetings in the 1940's.

The purpose and work of the WSCS was reviewed in articles read by Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Greenfield, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Furgason, Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Woods.

There were musical selections by a sextet composed of Mrs. Robert Dowling, Mrs. Robert Beadle, Mrs. Milford Traves, Mrs. Ronald Morgan, Mrs. Charles Straight and Mrs. Scott. They were accompanied by Mrs. Allen at the piano.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Passage of the osteopathic college bill, by the State Senate was, in my estimation, a serious mistake. The vote was 22-7 in favor with my vote being in opposition.

The issue became completely clouded over another and equally fundamental problem. Thus many votes were not cast on the merits of the bill but on a constitutional principle that was involved.

Let me discuss the two problems separately.

★

SENATE BILL 272 called for the establishment of an osteopathic college authority. As amended it did not call for immediate appropriation of funds.

The City of Pontiac has offered land, and osteopaths themselves have raised or pledged several million from private sources. Some federal money may also be forthcoming.

However the reason why legislation is desired — and why a purely private college wouldn't make the osteopaths happy — is simply that considerable public funds are also going to be eventually required.

The need for more doctors in Michigan as our population grows during the coming years is indisputable. Currently there are about 2,000 osteopaths doing a great job primarily in meeting the general medical practice needs of smaller communities.

There are about 8,000 medical doctors many of whom are more concerned with specialist, research and teaching duties.

These professional men are generally of the highest caliber. The problem is how to expand their numbers in a manner best serving the public interest.

Medical educational facilities are among the most expensive. There is some agreement that a $50,000,000 price tag could be put on any new medical school.

Currently we have superb medical schools at the University of Michigan and at Wayne State. Between them they have annual graduating classes of about 325 doctors. There are many who believe that the first move should be to increase this figure to a combined total of 500 at the two established medical schools.

During this period a third medical school could be established, possibly at Michigan State University.

Obviously years of preparatory work are involved. This can't be done overnight. Now we have before us the suggestion for a fourth medical training facility, namely the osteopathic college.

It has been my position that the Legislature should carefully evaluate these lines of action and decide upon priorities for implementation. We could thus meet the needs of the public, with available dollars, in the most effective manner possible.

I am opposed to piecemeal action where we get involved in a program and then have to bail ourselves out of an unwise commitment because something more logical has become apparent.

So much for a quick review of S.B. 272.

★

NOW THE SECOND issue that made the situation fuzzy is this. The newly-created State Board of Education had asked for time to make a recommendation on the establishment of a new osteopathic college.

The Board has not yet given the Senate its advice. The Board is charged by the new Constitution with coordinating all education and giving advice to the Legislature.

However, there is no requirement that the Legislature must accept such recommendations. If in fact we automatically did so we would be surrendering a legislative function to the Board.

Last week's problem was compounded when the attorney general gave an informal written opinion to one member of the Senate that the Legislature had no power to establish a new college without a prior recommendation from the State Board of Education.

This was like waving a red flag before a bull. Senators felt, correctly I believe, that this interpretation went too far. So the Senate vote on the osteopathic college bill was in large measure a vote to affirm the right of the Legislature to make a policy decision.

In my own opinion the Legislature should welcome expert opinion from a body such as the State Board, but would then use its own best judgment as to the course of action to follow.

Hilary Browne Is Awarded Watch for 'Being on Ball'

DETROIT — Hilary Browne, daughter of Mrs. Dean Delker, 382 N. Union St., has been awarded a gold watch in the American Airlines' "Customer Comes First" contest.

Miss Browne, 25, is a passenger service representative for American at Metropolitan Airport.

Miss Browne's actions were described as above and beyond the call of duty by a passenger who wrote:

"I was booked on an early flight to Chicago. I arrived at the parking area 20 minutes before flight time. Conditions were such that I was required to wait to obtain a claim check for the car.

"Ten minutes before departure I gave my name and license number to passenger service representative Hilary Browne and told her that unless she could handle the parking mixup I would miss my flight.

"It was handled in a manner that should make you proud to have such a person as Miss Browne as a PSR! I was informed in flight that the car was parked and where I would find my claim check upon returning to Detroit.

"It was indeed gratifying to find a person with so much to teresst in customer satisfaction. I can assure you my many traveling friends have heard about American's service."

Miss Browne attended Michigan State University before joining American in 1961 as a reservations agent. She became a stewardess in 1963, but last April returned to Detroit in her present job.

Two Injured In Mishap Saturday

Patricia J. Murphy, 30 of Hogan Hwy., Clinton and a passenger in her car, Rene Zornow, 8, of River Acres, Tecumseh, received minor bruises, Saturday afternoon, when the Murphy car collided with a car driven by Dorman Vescelius, 40, of M-50, Tecumseh. They were treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital and released.

The mishap occurred on US-12 just west of Mathews Hwy.

Mrs. Murphy struck the rear of the Vescelius car which was stopped and signaling for a left turn. She was given a summons for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead, by Clinton State Police.

Hold Harvest Moon Dinner

A Harvest Moon Turkey Dinner will be held this Thursday at the First Methodist Church beginning at 5 p.m. in the social room.

All tickets are being sold at the door at a cost of $1.50 for adults and 75c for children under 12 according to Mrs. Carroll Sprague, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service which is sponsoring the event.

Mrs. Merrill Murphy, Mrs. Paul Hadsell, Mrs. Harry Farley, Mrs. Harley McConnell, Mrs. Morris Cornell and Marvel Steinhoff are assisting Mrs. Sprague as chairmen of the various foods being prepared.

Mrs. Duane Steele is in charge of the dining room arrangements.

Last year about 250 persons were served and many more folks had to be turned away. It is planned to serve 300 at the event this week. All the food is donated except the turkeys. Proceeds from the event are used by the WSCS for various projects.

Sue Describes College Life

Editor's Note: — Typical of many college students, Susan Leighton writes her family of her impressions during her first few weeks at Ferris State College. She writes:

My math father gives a different sermon each time. I'll have to tell you about it.

Mom, I hope your work is a little bit lighter now that I'm gone. You can tell Bob that I haven't seen TV once since I've been here.

Peg, (a sophomore at THS) study hard in biology because so far my teacher teaches just like Mr. Nelson and we are learning the same things he taught us only with a little chemistry added and a little more detail. Also, if you get Mr. Kalom for chemistry, don't let the other kids discourage you because much of what we are having now, I learned and understand real well because Mr. Kalom took the time to try and explain it to the class.

See you all at Thanksgiving unless I can't take any more of these Ferris Weekends and decide to come home. I've got to get to bed now because it's late again. Don't work too hard, Mom.

Get me a subscription to The Herald if you can and fill me in on the news. Did Patty get a job at Rawsonville like she wanted to?

Love,
Susan.

NOW! A WHOLE NEW SERIES OF ULTRA-LUXURIOUS CHEVROLETS

'66 CAPRICE BY CHEVROLET

Caprice Custom Coupe—with exclusive formal roof line that comes on no other Chevrolet.

Caprice Custom Sedan—with superb new Body by Fisher elegance inside and out.

Caprice Custom Wagon—with fine new look of hardwood paneling on sides and tailgate.

A new choice of superbly crafted Chevrolets above and beyond anything else in the line. If this is your year to move up, you just can't move up to much more car than this.

Everything it takes to create a distinguished luxury car has gone into these new Caprices.

Beneath the formal styling elegance that sets the Custom Coupe apart, for instance, you'll find the richness of thick wall-to-wall carpeting, comfort-contoured seats and the look of hand-rubbed walnut on the instrument panel, glove compartment and inside door panels.

They're custom cars in every sense. In the Custom Coupe, you can order a finely instrumented console, together with new Strato-bucket front seats. In the Custom Sedan, a new Strato-back front seat is available with bucket-type contours separated by a fold-down armrest. And in the equally opulent Custom Wagons, offered in 2- or 3-seat models, you can even order carpeting for the cargo area.

Each model, with its own specially tailored suspension refinements, rides super Jet-smooth. And for incomparably smooth power, you can specify Chevrolet's advanced Turbo-Jet V8 in either a 396- or 427-cubic-inch version. Some 200 custom features are also available, including front-seat headrests, AM-FM stereo and a Tilt-telescopic steering wheel.

The price of it all? Somewhat more, naturally, than you're used to paying for a Chevrolet. But less—surprisingly less, as your dealer will happily confirm—than the select class of fine cars these new Caprices invite comparison with in every detail. CHEVROLET

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

THE PILGRIM PROJECT by Hank Searls. This is the story of one man who is called upon by his country to take the gravest risk of all. The story of our race to the moon is told in language so realistic, with characters so alive, that we feel all the triumphs and terrors of today's cosmic adventure.

AIRS ABOVE THE GROUND by Mary Stewart. Vanessa March, two years married and very much in love, is propelled from London to Vienna by a shocking discovery. But what promised to be no more than a delicate personal mission, turns out to involve the security forces of three countries, two dead men, a circus and the famous white stallions of Vienna.

THE NORTHERN PALMYRA AFFAIR by Harrison Salisbury. Only a man with deep knowledge of Russian life and the Russian soul could have created this novel of citizens of Leningrad which Peter the Great built as his window on the West.

THE SUMMER LAND by Burke Davis. This appealing and genuinely funny novel is a nostalgic chronicle of life on a North Carolina tobacco farm, but it is also a hilarious adventure in horse-trading, whisky - making, coon-hunting, and genial (if desperate) battles of wits between neighbors and relatives.

YES, I CAN, the story of Sammy Davis, Jr. The self portrait of one of the extraordinary men of our time, who became a figure of controversy because he dared to live his life not as a Negro, but as a man.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

The advent of the highlight of football season is near at hand. Homecoming '65 will be presented in all its glory starting with football game, a parade of floats and crowning of the Queen as the spectacular of the half-time show, and climaxed by a dance after the game from 10 to 12 p.m. This year's theme is "Cartoons" and should prove to be an excellent basis for entertaining and original floats. This is the one project of the year in which every student contribute and exercise his artistic talents. Many thanks to teachers who have shown mercy in homework assignments during this week of preparation.

√

Dear President of the Future Nurses:

Will you please extend a thank you to the very helpful Future Nurses who assisted during the Tuberculosis Skin Testing Program in the school on Sept. 27, 1965. This kind of cooperation is needed to make the program successful and is greatly appreciated. Thank you for helping us to eradicate tuberculosis from the school room.

Sincerely,
Mildred Bauer R.N.

√

President Tim Rinehart called the first meeting of the Art Club to order last Thursday, Oct. 7. Twenty-eight members discussed plans for a float and initiation of new members. Those on the committee for initiation to be held at the next meeting are: Dave Osburn, Donna Rinehart, Cheryl Haughn, Carol Hamilton, Rick Brighton and Lynn Gomez.

The Art Club posted 23 posters advertising Homecoming.

Dance Saturday

Officers of the Tecumseh Square Dance Club are urging members to come and bring a guest couple to the October dance Saturday at the Tecumseh Products Union Hall.

The Mapleaires will play for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Newcomers Join Faculty

Tecumseh's Schools have 22 new instructors this year. Supt. James McDowell reports that the schools are "extremely fortunate."

He adds that the local district is "among few which have been able to secure degree personnel since there is a critical shortage of fully certified (teachers) in the state."

At that, two openings in industrial arts never could be filled and several courses had to be dropped (note story on this in this week's issue.)

Innumerable phone calls, interviews and help of all colleges in the state were needed to line up the newcomers, who include:

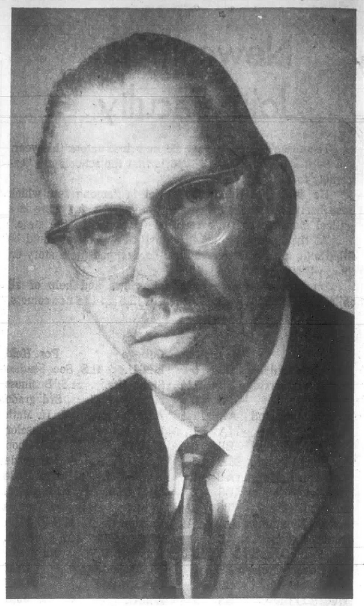
Cars Record Deer Season

A car driven by Sharon K. Stidham, 24, of 422 Logan, Adrian, struck a buck deer at 6:20 p.m. Saturday on M-52, near Bowens Rd. in Manchester Township.

At 12:50 a.m. Sunday, Suzette J. Luckhardt, 18, of 708 Vernon St., Manchester, was driving on Watkins Rd. near Mulvaney Rd. in Manchester Twp. when she swerved to avoid a deer in the road. Her car went over an embankment and through a fence causing minor injuries to the driver.



DR. ROBERT YOLTON

Dr. Robert Yolton Visits Tecumseh

The Reverend Dr. Robert H. Yolton, Executive for the Synod of Michigan, United Presbyterian Church, will preach during the worship service Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Session extended an invitation to Dr. Yolton in his new capacity as Synod Executive, that the congregation might meet him and he in turn have the opportunity to become better acquainted with one of the 300 United Presbyterian Churches in Michigan.

Dr. Yolton has occupied a staff position in Michigan for nine years. A graduate of the University of Cincinnati and McCormick Seminary, Dr. Yolton first served pastorates in Forest, Ohio and North Fairmount Church in Cincinnati.

Called to the Synod of Michigan in 1946 as the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Croswell, he served there 14 years before becoming a member of the Synod Executive staff as Secretary of Administration.

In 1961 he was elected Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod and in 1962 he was elected to the position of Field Administrator of National Missions, receiving from Alma College that same year, the D. D. Degree for distinguished service to the Synod of Michigan. In February of this year, he was elected to the present position.

In February of 1965, the Synod elected him Executive of the Synod. As Executive, he has responsibility for general oversight of the affairs of Synod and the direction of the Executive staff of eight.

Mr. Yolton was united in marriage to Esther Louise Byers of Miamisburg, Ohio Sept. 21, 1940.

Mrs. Yolton is a graduate of Ohio University with a BS degree in Home Economics.

Mr. and Mrs. Yolton have three children, Louise Ann, now doing social service work in New York City; Susan Marie, a sophomore at Alma College and Margaret Jean, a junior at North Farmington High School.

Following the worship service, there will be a "coffee hour" in the Fellowship Center that the congregation may meet Dr. Yolton.

Daughter is Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron, 703 Center Dr. announce the marriage of their daughter, Jana L. to A. J. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark, 216 E. Chicago Blvd.

The couple will live at 9800 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

One Community Fund Gift Will Serve Many

Your contributions can do wonders toward helping the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation buy a package of services for our community during the campaign for funds for 1966.

The Tecumseh Service Club demonstrated its value following the Palm Sunday tornado destruction. It is also busy throughout the year polishing off the rough spots in the lives of people who need.

The Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic has long been a friend to our troubled children and their problems and in meeting unusual situations.

The Family Counseling Service and the Catholic Social Services provide counseling to individuals and families of Lenawee County who are experiencing unusual stress in relation to problems in marriage, parent-child conflicts, an dindividual adjustment of adults and children. Tecumseh received 12% of the total services rendered last year by the Family Counseling Service. The Catholic Social Services gave service to 16 Tecumseh families last year and some of the families presented more than one problem.

The budget requests of these agencies have been reviewed and carefully studied by the Trustees of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and are believed to be fair and just. Therefore, the Board asks you to be as generous as possible in your giving. The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation endeavors to raise money for 32 charitable and character building organizations besides assuming responsibilities in other areas. Your cooperation is appreciated.

VOICE of THE HERALD

We Agree, Mr. Kiwanian

Last week's Herald carried an article entitled, "Athletic Giants Invade County." Of course, its original purpose was that of a news story designed to present a report of the professional basketball contest played on Oct. 5.

However, it had a secondary purpose. That purpose was to laud the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club for venturing financially into a costly promotion that, as it turned out, was not supported by the people of Tecumseh.

However, we apparently missed the mark, at least with one Kiwanian who felt our story had the purpose of shaming Kiwanis for a venture that didn't work out.

It is unfortunate that printed words are sometimes interpreted individually by a reader who places a meaning that isn't there.

If the writer will allow we will reproduce a portion of that letter.

"Tecumseh is a good town and in the past has supported all Kiwanis projects wholeheartedly. In this particular case they were offered a chance to see two of the best professional basketball teams in the United States perform.

"That they chose to stay away is no reflection on the teams or the club that sponsored them. Sports events of this calibre are well attended in larger cities and in the city of Archbold, Ohio, with a gym the size of Tecumseh's, they played to a packed house.

"We in Kiwanis respect Tecumseh's feelings and only wish to say, 'Sorry you couldn't make it, it was a good game, well played and sincerely enjoyed by all in attendance'."

The Herald could not agree more.

Your aim and ours concerning this matter are the same.

First of Its Kind in USA

How many residents realize that the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation is probably the first of its kind in America?

As far as we know, there is only one other — that being in neighboring Britton and patterned after ours.

The Foundation is two pronged in its objectives:

1. To meet the city's full charitable responsibilities — to Boy and Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Red Cross, family counseling, groups, child guidance, local people hit by disaster and loss of income.

2. To save monies over and above budget, following the annual Fund Drive, amassing a fund to be used for betterment of community facilities.

The Foundation, now six years old, has done an enormous job for Tecumseh. Its gifts to charity have grown ever since and now stands at more than $30,000. Add city recreation activities to this and the total budget jumps to over $45,000.

As to the Brick-and-Mortar Program, the Foundation provided $230,000 for our new library, which was opened in 1962 — and is owned free and clear by the community.

What other city, town or hamlet in America can boast of such a tremendous "bonus" by supporting its annual charity drive?

Currently, the Foundation is paying off the Pit, which is being shaped into a center for recreational activities, both summer and winter.

Over the next week or two, volunteers will be contacting each area family — either in the home or on the job — giving all an opportunity to pitch in for the coming 12 months.

One pledge covers charitable obligations for a whole year. Be generous in the giving.

And always remember, besides helping your fellow man who is in need, you'll be a part of improving your home town.

LBJ Lauds Newspapers

To the Newspapers of the United States:

It is with both pride and pleasure that I participate in this traditional tribute to our nation's newspapers.

Too often taken for granted, America's countless daily and weekly papers have been vital guardians of her time-honored traditions and eloquent spokesmen for the cherished ideals of her freedom-loving people. Taken together, our nation's newspapers constitute the world's most responsible and effective organ of current information.

It is up to us to safeguard the freedom of our papers to inquire, to criticize, to express divergent views and to stand as sentinels for the public wherever the public's business is being transacted. Newspapers and their readers are partners in freedom, and if we fail to defend the freedom of our press, we neglect our own.

I am confident that Americans everywhere wholeheartedly join me during National Newspaper Week in high recognition of the indispensible role of our free press in the everyday life of our beloved nation.

Lyndon B. Johnson

News vs. Advertising

Editor's note — This editorial below comes from pages of the Boyne City Citizen, published by A. G. Smith. It touches on a topic which needs to be understood by organizations which deal in large volumes of "news" releases for newspapers and in adverising budgets which are allocated to other media.

Very reluctantly, but every once in a while, we must, as a matter of editorial policy, remind that a newspaper is a business and as such, depends for its revenues, in large part, on an enterprise that is known as advertising.

Recently we have been barraged by a wealth of material submitted by some individuals as well as organizations concerning their activities, which are not news — but in large part, an expression of sentiment on the part of those submitting items.

They want their thoughts given as wide circulation as possible without the expense or effort of making direct correspondence with those they seek to contact.

In other cases, there may be some newsworthy activity for very good causes, usually affiliated with money-raising enterprises.

In this case we do give publicity. We particularly appreciate the consideration of those who realize that the preparation of a newspaper involves considerable cost and make the suitable gesture of buying a little advertising space to offset at least a fraction of the expense involved in preparing their free publicity.

We are very unappreciative of some of those who expect write-ups about money-raising enterprises, and then blatantly suggest that "Just the write-up will be enough, we're putting up window posters all over town."

We fully appreciate the fact that each and every chairman of an activity believes that his own project is particularly worthwhile and should be given special consideration. We appreciate the fact that anyone who turns down requests, becomes a community ogre to be feared and regarded as a heartless soul. But if that's the way it must be — it shall be.

If it isn't news, it's advertising in some form.

"Middle age is when a broad mind and a narrow waist change places."

Abi Evans DAR Will Award Scholarship

The Abi Evans, DAR, decided at their meeting Friday, to again award $100 to the Tecumseh High School senior who is rated best in American History by the teacher.

Mrs. Kenneth Hall was hostess for the meeting.

It was reported that $107 was realized from the recent rummage and bake sale.

Mrs. Arthur Brown reported on the regional meeting in Plymouth, which she attended with Mrs. Ellsworth Robison and Marion Whelan.

Mrs. Herbert Munger presented the program which concerned the approved school in Tammassee in South Carolina, which the DAR is supporting.

The chapter voted to send $25 to the school as a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Robison and Edith Ingersoll assisted the hostess. Tea was served by Mrs. Carl Thomas, Macon, and Mrs. Charles Mensing.

Lud-Vig Is Name of Cafe

CLINTON — A new chef-owner has taken over the restaurant in the Clintonian Arms apartment.

He's George Tucker of rural Tecumseh, who leased the eating establishment in mid-September and has named it Lud-Vig Fine Foods.

Mr. Tucker was manager of Bill's Place in Adrian for the past 10 years, also spent two years with Davis Brothers Restaurant in Atlanta, Ga.

A grand opening fish dinner special is planned by Mr. Tucker for this Friday evening.

He will be specialiing in German dishes, such as sauer braten and weiner schnitzel.

Lud-Vig will be open seven days a week for luncheons and dinners from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Girl Scouts Will See Special Film

The Strand Theatre will be opened to all Girl Scouts and their families the afternoon of Oct. 19, from 4-5:30.

Mrs. Barton Christman urges all girls woh have been scouts to attend with their families.

The Clinton Girl Scouts have been invited to be guests.

There will be movies shown of the International Round-Up in Farragut, Idaho.

Dawn Kruse and Carolyn Purple represented Tecumseh.

Pigctures will also be shown of a Senior troop trip to Mexico. Their chaperon will give details on how this troop earned and saved the $3,000 that made the trip possible.

Stockholders Fight Looms

CLINTON — Don Thomas may take over Clinton Engines once again.

He founded the firm, built it into a giant in the small engine field, then sold out in 1959 for $1,668,000.

The company, which was moved to Maquoketa, Ia., from Clinton by Mr. Thomas in 1952, had some pretty big years.

Its sales reached an all-time peak, $37,700,000 in 1960.

But since then troubles have dogged the operation and during the past five years red ink has drenched the audits as business fell to the $18,000,000 level.

Understandably, this has caused great restlessness among shareholders, who have been championing a return to management of Mr. Thomas, who goes along with the idea.

★

The suit asked the "exorbitant" executive salaries be suspended, that a receiver be named and that the present management and directors make an accounting of their handling of the company's funds.

The suit was filed by a resident of Maquoketa who holds 1,500 shares. He listed four fellow complainants from the Detroit area.

The Maquoketan and the committee charge mismanagement which has put the company in "dire straits." Business and civic leaders are disturbed because the company's employment, which exceeded 2,000 five years ago, has since dropped to about 1,000.

★

MAQUOTEKA was a town of 4,000 when Clinton Engines moved here. It now has 6,000 population.

The company's downturn has left numerous homes vacant and has seriously affected retail business.

In 1963, present management moved remaining Michigan operations in Clinton to Maquoketa.

The company continues to produce engines for lawnmowers and other powered tools sold by Montgomery Ward, Sears, Roebuck and other large customers.

Peak of the operating losses was in 1963, when they hit $2,254,130.

In the year ended last June 30, the loss incurred was $672,000. For five years the tax-loss carryback has reached $6.7 million.

Present management, in a recent stockholder letter replying to the shareholder committee's charges, disclosed that their group holds 430,000 shares, or 34 percent control.

They also disclosed that these shares had cost the group about $7 a share. In the last two years Clinton shares, unlisted, have ranged from $1 to $3.

★

A 1960 ATTEMPT to sell 34,000 shares publicly was stalled by an SEC stop order on the registration.

Overstatement of inventory figures and other inadequate figures were cited. The order still stands.

The annual meeting the committee is shooting for will be [illegible] Chicago.

Discuss 'Head Start'

"Operation Head Start," a program designed to give children from poverty homes some of the same advantages children usually get from normal family living, was the subject discussed by Mrs. Donald Rodehaver for the October meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Rodehaver, director of the program held last summer for eight weeks in the Madison School in Adrian, said that this was the only program in the county, one of 86 in Michigan, and one of 13,500 centers in the United States operating under a federal grant from the United States Office of Economic Opportunity.

Community background and needs determined the distribution of funds for the school which enrolled 68 youngsters chosen not only by physical and monetary needs but those of love and understanding needs, too.

★

During the eight weeks children of four and five years of age were bused to the school five days a week for three hours daily including a hot lunch program.

Certified teachers and aides worked on a program of "unstructured teaching" which allowed a great degree of flexibility in the teaching of music, art, science, games and health habits.

Continuing in her enlightening report, Mrs. Rodehaver mentioned that the children were visited by public service persons and were taken on numerous field trips.

As a special benefit of the program each child was given a physical and dental check-up which in many instances has required follow-up care.

Mrs. Rodehaver's talk gave the members a better look at "Participating in the War on Poverty" by causing them to realize how close to home such situations exist.

Special announcements were made during the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Carroll Sprague regarding the Harvest moon turkey dinner to be held Thursday, Oct. 14, at the church with ser[illegible] begin[illegible] at 5 p.m.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75c for children under 12, to be sold at the door.

Also announced were plans for the all-church Festival Nov. 18 from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m., featuring numerous booths in the bazaar area and a snack bar serving two separate menus — one at noon and one in the evening.

Greeters for the evening were Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Viola Mark with devotions by Bertha LaPointe. Mrs. Paul Hadsell and Mrs. Baynard Herndon served the refre[illegible]s.

Jackson Senior Citizens Will Visit Tecumseh

Mr. and Mrs. William Hotrum will welcome the members of the Jackson Senior Citizens' Thursday, Oct. 14, when they are guests of the local group here at the Community Center.

Mrs. Robert Gillespie chairs the refreshment committee who will serve dessert and coffee following the sack lunch at 1 p.m.

Robert Gillespie is chairman of the entertainment for the afternoon.

Free Concert

The Richards Woodwind Quintet from Michigan State University will present a free concert at the Toledo Museum of Art Sunday at 3 p.m.

In Michigan, after golf beer's the one... for good taste, good fun

After a hard-played 18 holes, it's good to settle down on a soft chair in the club house and add up the score with friends. What better time for the drink that scores with almost every golfer—cool, thirst-quenching beer? Yes, beer's great to relax with, great for refreshment, great for taste. So whatever your sport—boating or baseball—swimming or tennis—relax afterwards with the zestful taste of beer.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

A guy's boiling point turns out to be pretty low when looking at some of the current news photos from around the nation.

There was the handsome idiot who made a public ceremonial out of burning his military draft registration card.

Then daily newspaper readers were treated to the ape speaking over the public address system, quoted as saying when someone held up an American flag, "That's not my flag, baby, that's yours."

A couple hundred thousand guys must have cleared their throats with a growl as they stared moodily at those clods, these stand-up unfunny comedians representing a batch of Angry Young People.

Since my line is not psychology, it seemed appropriate to turn to a couple of experts in the field — my barber and a local fellow who teaches at Michigan — to get some answers.

Tonsorial artist Earl Roe was, as expected, most astute in his appraisals. Allan Seager, the author and professor, hammered straight and true with his comments.

Earl started by analyzing the world of parents and children. With times good, moms and dads want to keep doing things for their offspring.

They spoon-feed them right from the high chair, through school and even into their marriages. They take away the inborn right of a youngster to make it on his own.

"Parents even buy diapers for the kids (grandchildren)," Earl noted — admitting that he was as guilty as the next set of folks.

So here we have a situation of young people floating in a limbo of plenty.

★

STEP UP, Prof. Seager and inject your ideas.

"Kids today are seeking identity and they don't like what they see in their future," was an opener.

Allan goes on to say that with many young people, during adolescence, both parents had jobs and this meant youngsters coming home to empty places.

When the folks did arrive home they were tired, hungry and eager to lose themselves in television viewing. The offspring got short shrift day after day, they didn't come to know their parents or themselves.

So, as they arrive at college age, there's that quest for identity.

It makes the young person someone, a part of something.

What is printed on the sign really doesn't make too much difference actually, opines the professor. This business of fighting the draft and not fighting the Viet Cong are things of the moment, words to put on a hunk of board for the current parades.

When a kid espouses socialism and communism as the way to go, he has little grasp of what they mean, Allan said, adding:

"After a month in Red China he'd soon find he couldn't pop off so much and he'd be fed up. Right now that's a far-off place and it seems romantic."

Allan wasn't too kind with the sometime attitude of the modern university. Instead of stressing the need for getting an education, it often promotes the idea of kids making careers of being students.

★

Allan: "They're probably hitching a ride."

With this I'd quickly agree. The kooks and some for-real people got the protest stuff going, when the commies jumped on the band wagon, telling anyone who would listen,

"Get out there and burn your draft card. Let's march on Washington. We'll show 'em they can't tell us what to do."

Fund Drive Rolls

Fisher Body Employees Pitching In

There was brilliant sunshine as 1965 Fund Drve co-chairmen Dr. Bob Laidlaw and Joe Fortunato unveiled a giant campaign thermometer in front of the United Savings Bank Tuesday morning.

On hand for the ceremony were house-to-ho[illegible] captains, who just finished a coffee hour at Don's Beef Buffet and were about to start volunteer teams on their appointed rounds.

All told, 113 solicitors wil be ringing doorbells and telling the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation story this week.

It's interesting to note that 509 families have wage earners who work outside Tecumseh.

These folks are being invited to donate locally, or if their places of employment make payroll deductions for charity drives, to be sure and check off Tecumseh's Fund as the place they'd like their gifts sent.

Dr. Laidlaw pointed out that 120 families have moved into the city since the drive of 1964. Each was sent a letter explaining the setup here.

Another 218 letters were dispatched to business and professional people, who are currently being solicited.

FIRST INSTALLMENT — Tim Neill, (right) Fund Foundation industrial chairman, happily accepts the initial installment of gifts to the Tecumseh drive from Fisher Body manager Lewis Lamm as personnel director Harvey Vogt watches. Fisher has set a combined goal of $20,000, to include employee and corporate gifts, which will be earmarked for a variety of charity drives, representing all communities where Fisher Body fol ks live.

It's Now or Never for Indians

Tecumseh's Indians travel to Airport Friday night in hopes of scoring their third Huron League victory.

Coach Tom Fagan's team, 2-1 in the league, must win this week or it will drop completely out of contention for the championship.

Airport has been up and down during the season, outplaying Milan in a scoreless duel one week and then showing practically nothing a week later in a 43-0 slaughter by Grosse Ile.

Game time for the tilt is 7:30.

Perfect, But...

There was sun and fun as Homecoming Day got going with another magnificent parade. Floats sparkled, Queen Karen Gottschalk and her court were radiant That night, for 24 minutes the Indian gridders fought on even terms with Grosse Ile, a team which ranks No. 6 in Michigan. But, the bubble burst — all that was left was the gala dance. So dabbing away a few tears, the young people retired to the colorfully decorated gym and danced into the night. Other stories and pictures on Homecoming appear on inside pages.

Cub Scouts Hold Wiener Roast

Twenty-five members of Cub Scout Pack 72 and their parents met for a wiener roast at Kiwanis Park, Monday evening.

Cubmaster Robert Hyde presided and games were played, with den mothers Mrs. R. Booze and Mrs. Howard Kronberg in charge.

They also led a song fest around the fire.

Boys from 8 to 11 years of age with their parents are invited to attend the meetings to be held the third Monday of each month at the Herrick Park School at 7 p.m.

Joseph C. Rice Succumbs

Joseph C. Rice, chairman of the Planning Commission for the City of Tecumseh, died Friday at 8:15 p.m. at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been admitted earlier in the day after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Rice, 64, 310 W. Logan St., was employed as an engineer at the Tecumseh Products Co. for the past 17 years.

He and Mrs. Rice have been residents of the city since 1948.

Mr. Rice was born April 20, 1901, at Alliance, Ohio. He married Elva Aldrich at Pittsburgh August 16, 1936.

He was a member of Tecumseh Masonic Lodge; Tecumseh Chapter RAM; Mt. Ararat Council, Royal Master Masons of Hillsdale, of which he was a state council past grand master; Adrian Commandery Knights Templar, York Rite College; Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Detroit and the Moslem Temple of Detroit.

He was also a member of the Order of the Founders of Patriots of America; the S[illegible] of the American Revolution; the American Society of Planning Officials and the Tecumseh Special Police Force.

Mr. Rice is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Converse of South Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. John Fox of Ada; one grandson, Joseph Peter Fox; a sister, Mrs. Oscar Thompson of Fennville, and a brother, William of Chevy Chase, Md.

Services were held Monday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home with the Rev. Julian Gresham officiating.

A Masonic service was held Sunday evening. Burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

Council Honors Joe Rice

A resolution honoring the late Joseph C. Rice, president of the Planning Commission, was passed by Council Monday night.

A copy of the resolution, which became an official part of the minutes, was sent to the family.

★

IN OTHER action, Council:

► Accepted monthly reports from Herrick Memorial Hospital, Parks and Recreation Board, Planning Commission, and the regular report of the city manager.

► Authorized purchase of sewer pipe from Toledo Concrete Pipe Co.

► Tabled a request from Leo Luckhardt for water to his business behind the Joel Building, near Meyers Airport.

► Passed a resolution for establishing a City Planning Commission in order to qualify for financial aid from the Housing and Home Finance Agency for Urban Planning Assistance.

► Answered questions about the city from the high school government class.

ROGER YOUNG (30) WAS TOP BACK FOR TECUMSEH IN HOMECOMING BATTLE. STORY ON BACK PAGE.

Constables Record Three Accidents

Three accidents were recorded by the Tecumseh police last week, but none included any personal injury.

Vernon C. Winkelman, 50, rural Dundee, pulled away from the curb on W. Pottawatamie St. and hit the right side of a car driven by Tecumseh Police Chief Murell Clark, 55, of 302 N. Van Buren St.

Winkelman was cited for an unsafe start.

Friday, Robert Lenheiser, 17, of 1018 River Acres Dr., was charged with improper backing after a mishap on E. Shawnee St. He backed inot a parked car owned by Theodore Stebleton, Salinas, Calif.

Roger Butler was cited for failure to yield the right of way Sunday after an accident at the intersection of Occidental Rd. and W. Chicago Blvd.

The other motorist was Harold R. Waymer, 25, Deerfield.

Celebrate 40 Years Wed

In honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simmons, their sons-in-laws and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Karle entertained 40 of their relatives and friends at a dinner party at the Tecumseh Country Club Saturday evening.

Out of town guests were from Mission, Kansas; Cincinnati, Ohio; Detroit, Plymouth, Milan, Tecumseh, Adrian and Tipton.

Strikes Deer

Henry R. Thompson, 25, of 2087 Adams St., Adrian, was driving on the Clinton-Manchester Rd. at 8:30 p.m. when his car struck a deer, Teenage Toledo Pageant held in the Whitmore High School Auditorium Sunday evening.

Miss Smith, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, 780 Loveland Drive, will be flown to Dallas, Tex., with her mother to compete in the Miss Teenage America contest there Oct. 30.

A junior at Adrian High School, Miss Smith was the only out-of-state contestant in the competition which was based on poise, talent, scholastic ability.

A second year majorette in the Maple City high school band, she also plays flute in the concert band.

Her vocal solo, "Love Makes the World Go Round"; was a leading factor in helping her win the Miss Teenage title.

The selection was one she used in the presentation of the high school operetta, "Carnival," last year. Miss Smith has held the lead roles in school productions for the last three years.

She has attended Interlochen Music Camp for the past two years and has been given superior ratings for two years in the music festival sponsored by the Michigan Federated Music Clubs at Lansing.

Loses Control

Martin L. Korth, 16, of 7887 Smith Rd., lost control of his car while driving on Billmyer Hwy., Saturday afternoon. His car ran off the road on the east side, then ran off the road on the west side and went through the fence and into a corn field,

TEA Wins Recognition of Board

Tecumseh School Board Monday night moved to recognize the Tecumseh Education Association as the official negotiating body for wages, hours, terms and conditions of employment.

The TEA, composed of local teachers, sought these rights and recognition in difference to having a notional union, such as the CIO, representing it.

Under a new law, the TEA will have basically the same rights as organized unions, whereby the TEA can appeal to the Michigan Labor Relations Board to settle disputes,

CO-CHAIRMEN LAIDLAW AND FORTUNATO URGE ON WORKERS

If Bob Wolfe, the appliance guy, suddenly announces his retirement to the French Riviera, here's how come. Business has been breaking records all over the place and September, 1965, was 100% over September, 1964. Many more 30-day periods like this and Paul Getty will have to move over.

Children are charming. Little folk on W. Logan Street appreciated Joe Rice and the fun times he and Mrs. Rice gave them at their home in the neighborhood. The youngsters collected their monies together and purchased two roses in a vase when they heard of the death of their friend. They took the roses to Mrs. Rice who promptly had them placed near the head of the casket at the funeral home.

Will the person or persons entitled Progressive Advertising of Tecumseh please step forward. We have been asked several times about this company and now a Lenawee County street and road atlas and history comes into our hands produced by them. The telephone or city directory does not carry any info. We're sure curious.

Big Jim Sherman, editor and publisher of The Oxford Leader, noted in his column last week: "Now I know how you readers feel when you don't get your newspaper. One of these we look forward to receiving is The Tecumseh Herald. Generally we get it on Monday, though they mail it out Wednesday afternoons, same as we. Their Sept. 30 paper arrived here Oct. 6."

The friendly folks from Mr. Boston are marking the 30th anniversary of their Rocking Chair brand with a new bottle, which actually rocks — or so says the caption with this pic they sent us. Now, just a minute fellows, we're from Missouri and maybe you'd better just send along a jug to let us give it a try. That is, see if the bottle really can roll from side to side.

An economy move by the United States Department, presently in a building splurge, will be dedication ceremonies. Tecumseh's ceremony will be at 3 p.m. following the Clinton post office at 1 p.m., both coming on Oct. 30.

Bobbie Lawson beat his older brother's record by five tickets. Bob sold 101 tickets, winning first prize of $3 for the Tecumseh Acres Fun Night Saturday. He was able to boast his superior ability first hand to brother Jim who was home from Northern Michigan University. When Jim was a student at the Acres some years back he sold 96, up to now a record.

Allan Seager's "No More Roses" will be included in "Best of Post Stories", a volume soon to be issued. Allan's agent reports that the same yarn is being translated into Danish for publication there, as well as "The Rope" into Dutch, making the 10th language into which Seager stories have been printed.

Super salesman Bill Leigh, of Oklahoma, whose company fashioned the 10-week Harvest of Values effort that starts in this issue, was loudly applauded following his talk to 124 city merchants and their help at the Country Club.

Said one guest, John Long, the used car man:

"I've been to Chrysler and General Motors sales schools and never heard anyone as good. He really knew what he was talking about. No hesitation and he didn't lose anyone even though he talked quite a long time."

"Woe is me," camplained a flabbergasted Doug Dunn Wednesday as he modeled a raincoat with sleeves almost covering his hands. Seems someone grabbed his new raincoat from the office of the funeral home, dashed off with it under his arm and probably quite unaware he has the one Doug wants Harold Green to lengthen the sleeves on but only a bit.

Forsythia is in the news. Mrs. Helen Lowry, 9341 Murphy Rd., has a bush in full bloom in her yard. The lilacs are in bud and the viola pansies are also blooming. Mrs. Lawrence Vanderpool also reported forsythia at her home.

The city is being invaded by strange inhabitants. One, a male, is said to be located at the Richard Graf home at 505 Center Dr. and another in the front yard of the Vic Lawson home, 508 Cairns St. Better see 'em before Halloween.

Word for the day — Lasagne — as found in Roger's eatery ad this week. We couldn't spell it and finally called A&P, where clerk Kathy Mobley obligingly checked the Pasta Dep't. to locate a can and tell us how the letters go.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG

It seems likely that the widely accepted theory that autumn changes are induced by heavy frost is a myth.

Conversely, it appears that extreme weather has a tendency to reduce rather than enhance the fall color.

This bit of info comes from the Michigan Tourist Council and came as somewhat of a surprise to this writer. They say that scientific eyes observe that the change of colors and falling of leaves coincide with a definite time table of nature, related to the shortening of the daylight hours.

It is the same kind of time table that triggers the southern migration of birds and the spawning run of certain species of fish — a mystery or maybe we ought to say one of God's miracles that these scientists have not yet been able tounravel.

Suffice to say that autumn has never been more beautiful than it is in southern Michigan this very week.

Methodists To Welcome New Members

A coffee fellowship will be held at the Methodist parsonage Sunday morning following the worship service.

During this service the Rev. Donald C. Porteous will welcome new members to the church by Confession of Faith or transfer of membership.

In keeping with this receiving of new members, he will speak on the theme, "The Church."

The coffee hour for those of the congregation who have been received into membership since June 1962 is being sponsored by Rev. and Mrs. Porteous.

Tecumseh Jaycees Represented At State Meeting

The Tecumseh Jaycees and the Jaycee Auxiliary were represented by five couples at the 1965 Fall State Meeting in Jackson Friday and Saturday. Those attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Butler, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Elwartowski, Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wonderly.

The get-acquainted party was held Friday night at the Jackson Racetrack and the Michigan Jaycees were honored with one of the races being named after them. Following the races a Hootenany was held and starred the "Jaycee Three".

Saturday was filled with many meetings and forums for both Jaycees and Auxiliary.

The guest speaker at the Auxiliary Luncheon Saturday was Fred Geisler, Associate Executive of the State YMCA.

He presented a delightful speech on "Physical Fitness."

Highlight of the day was the honorary guest, James Skidmore, Jr., president of the United State Jaycees, who spoke at the Saturday evening banquet and presided over the ball immediately following.

Promotion Blasts Off

This week opens a city-wide "Harvest of Values" promotion being staged by 49 Tecumseh business places with four pages of block-buster Sale Specials appearing in Section B.

The effort will continue for nine more weeks, with bargains changing in each editon of The Herald. The last half of the campaign will be directed at Christmas buying.

In the initial installment, the merchants dedicate their efforts to the consumers of the entire Tecumseh trade territory, thanking them for past patronage.

Sales receipts and bank deposits show that Tecumseh is soaring ahead as a regional shopping center. There are many contributing factors to this continuous growth.

Tecumseh for years has been referred to as a friendly community. Progressive merchants, courteous salespeople, an understanding and efficient city government, and a friendly citizenry are the greatest assets any community can have — Tecumseh has them all.

Tecumseh is an industrious community. Civic leaders are always looking for new industries that will bring gainful employment and additional revenue to the people.

Educators, spiritual leaders, members of the medical and legal professions and progressive farmers have all made outstanding contributions to the community, with facilities to meet the challenge of continued growth.

"Mr. and Mrs. Consumer deserve full credit for this growth as a commercial center. Knowledge of merchandise, shopping habits and buying skill stand as a constant challenge to us to bring you quality merchandise at a price you are willing to pay," the sponsors state.

"The Tecumseh Herald serves as a messenger to bring buyer and seller together. We admire your shopping habits, and are proud to join together in this 'Harvest of Values' for you, Mr. and Mrs. Consumer," they add.

Stock Split

Plans for a 60% stock dividend for shareholders of the United Savings of Tecumseh have been announced by the bank's directors.

Approval from stock holders will be sought at the annual meeting on Jan. 18.

The 60% stock dividend will result from increasing the number of shares outstanding from 21,250 to 50,000, and by reducing the par value of the shares from $20 to $10.

For example, a shareholder with 10 shares would have 32.

Two years ago, the bank issued a 25% stock dividend and increased the number of stock outstanding from 25,000 to 31,250.

J. W. Meadows, bank president, says "The bank has experienced substantial growth in both earnings and assets during the past year, largely due to the continued support of our shareholders."

Growth of bank facilities are evident.

Last week a new branch was opened at Sutton and Occidental Rds. Another branch is planned on N. Evans St., near the A&P.

School Children Will 'Trick or Treat' for UNICEF

Children of Tecumseh, second grade or older, will don their Halloween costumes a few days early this year and go "Trick or Treating for UNICEF."

The night will be Monday, Oct. 25. The children will start their venture at the Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m.

What is UNICEF? The following was taken from an editorial written by Secretary General of the United Nations U Thant.

Mr. Thant says, "It is the United Nations Children's Fund, started 15 years ago to aid children and mothers in the underdeveloped world.

The emphasis is on disease and hunger. While UNICEF provides the necessary supplies and equipment, the countries themselves furnish materials that they have. Consequently, they contribute about $2.50 for every $1 spent by UNICEF."

Mr. Thant continues, "Every coin that is dropped into the 'Trick or Treaters' orange collection cartons will grow and grow. A single UNICEF penny can mean the vaccine to protect a child from tuberculosis. Each nickel can provide the penicillin to cure two children of yaws, an ugly, crippling tropical disease.

Robert Inglehart, professor of arts and chairman of the department at the University of Michigan, will speak on "Patrons of Art in History" at Siena Heights College Thursday evening. His lecture will begin at 8 p.m. in Archangelus Hall and is the second in Siena's current Town and Gown series. He was a War Department psychologist in World War II and later a Stars & Stripes correspondent, later taught at New York University, coming to Michigan in 1955.

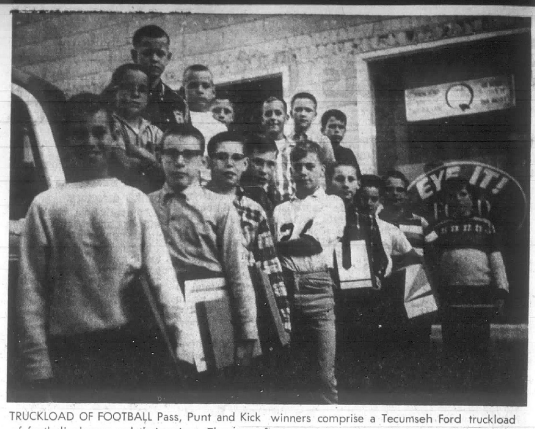
Cubberlys Take Trip To Wales

The Arthur Cubberly family of 208 W. Pottawatamie St. spent three weeks in September in a dream trip to Mrs. Cubberly's homeland, South Wales.

The Cubberly family includes Sharon 17, Paul 12, Kathy 9 and David 3. They had a delightful time meeting their mother's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Williams in Hadley Terrace, Llanelly, South Wales, with whom she made her home until nineteen years ago when she came to the United States.

Mrs. Cubberly had been home to Wales once before, nine years ago, but this was a first trip for her husband. They had a fine time driving about the scenic coastline, visiting the gloomy old castles, and becoming acquainted with Mrs. Cubberly's old friends.



TRUCKLOAD OF FOOTBALL Pass, Punt and Kick winners comprise a Tecumseh Ford truckload of football players and their prizes. They are: first row l. to r. YMCA Offers Swim Fun For Youth

Larry Clifton, physical director for the YMCA in Adrian, is inviting Tecumseh boys and girls between eight and 12 years old to join the Tecumseh Fun Express.

The ten-week program which opened last week stresses instruction in swimming for the beginner and intermediate swimmer, based on their abilities, and in gymnasium activities.

A minimum of 40 children will be required, Mr. Clifton said. Registrations may be made by calling the 'Y'. Those attending may board buses at noon Saturday at the Wright Drug Store and Tecumseh Acres School. They will be returned by bus at 3:30 p.m.

Sponsors Corn Picker

Rain has postponed the Corn-picking Contest to Friday and Saturday.

James Sherman, Tecumseh, will be among the 35 contestants in the Corn Picking Contest, taking place October 21 near Adrian. Partridge Implement Co. is his dealer sponsor.

Other local deaders sponsoring contestants are: Tecumseh Equipment Co. sponsoring Chas. Earles of Adrian and Hoyt E. Whelan Co. sponsoring Paul Piehl of Ottawa Lake. All three of these contestants will be competing on combines.

More than 100,000 visitors are expected at the two-day Michigan and National Corn Picking Contest, Thursday and Friday.

Competing for the attention of the visitors will be some 300 commercial exhibits.

Two nationally known country entertainers, Bob Atcher and Donald "Red" Blanchard will appear in a show sponsored by three farm suppliers—Stauffer Chemical Company, DeKalb Agricultural Association and Anderson Fertilizer Company. The three sponsors have erected a plastic dome, supported by air pressure alone, large enough to seat 600 persons.

Vice-President Hubert Humphrey is expected to tour the exhibition area and contest fields, Friday, before [illegible] a public address in the auditorium area about 2 p.m.

The contest site is located five miles southeast of Adrian on Gorman Rd. at the Victor Knierim farm. Transportation will be provided on farm wagons from the parking areas in nearby fields.

Lenawee County College Night Planned Monday

College Night for all Lenawee County juniors and seniors will be held Monday night, October 25, at Madison High School, Adrian.

This program is planned for those interested in college or university, junior college, and nursing.

Technical and trade schools will be represented at Tecumseh November 15.

School counselors have the list of 32 colleges which will send representatives to Madison.

Parents are especially urged to attend and learn about costs and policies of the schools.

They are asked to arrive at 6:45 p.m. The program will start promptly at 7 and doors will be closed as soon as a session starts.

There will be three sessions; 7 - 7:40; 7:45 - 8:25; 8:30 - 9:10. After the third session a 20-minute browsing period will provide for individual conferences with individual representatives.

During the second session all guests will be asked to register so that it may be learned how many people are being informed through the College Night program.

Churches Join In Series

Two area Friends Churches are cooperating in sponsoring a missionary convention, Oct. 26-31.

The Tecumseh Friends and Raisin Center Friends Church will utilize the services of missionaries on furlough, Howard Moore and Norma Freer.

Mr. Moore is the son of Lenawee County Treasurer Willis Moore. He spent his boyhood in the Adrian area, is a graduate of Adrian High School and attended the Raisin Valley Friends Church.

Both Mr. Moore and Miss Freer are graduates of what is now Malone College, located in Canton, Ohio.

Mr. Moore has been a missionary to the island of Formosa since 1954. During that time he served as president of the Evangelical Fellowship. His main work, however, has been with national Chinese pastors, youth conferences and in musical groups.

Miss Freer has served as a missionary since 1945 at Chhatarpur, Central India. Her work has been with the 75-bed Christian Hospital of that city, serving both in the capacity of business manager and overseer of nursing.

★

THE SCHEDULE of events includes:

Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, at 7:30 — A Men's Missionary Rally at Raisin Center Friends Church. Mr. Moore will be in charge.

Wednesday evening, Oct. 27, at 7:30 — Mr. Moore will have charge of the mid-week prayer service at the Tecumseh Friends Church; Miss Freer will speak and show slides at the Raisin Center Friends Church.

Thursday, Oct. 28 — Both missionaries will speak and show slides at the Tecumseh church following a family night supper at 5:45 p.m.

Friday, Oct. 29 — Miss Freer will be the speaker at a 9:30 a.m. coffee hour to be held at the Raisin Center Church.

From 4 to 5:15 p.m. in the afternoon both missionaries will have charge of a Children's Rally at the Tecumseh church.

NORMA FREER

Saturday, Oct. 30 — The Youth Fellowship of the Raisin Center Church will host the young people of the Tecumseh church at a supper to begin at 5 p.m. Both missionaries will assist in the informal question-and-answer period to follow.

On Sunday, Oct. 31, both Miss Freer and Mr. Moore will be used in the services of the cooperating churches.

★

THE CHURCHES' pastors, James Brantingham of Raisin Center and Paul Brantingham of Tecumseh invite the public to all of the scheduled services.

The committee in charge of general arrangements includes Mrs. James Brantingham, Mrs. Richard Mitchell, Ralph Comfort, Mrs. Amos Wilson, Raynor Van-Valkenburg, Mrs. Ray Sommers and the pastors of the churches.

Mrs. Orheim Is LCW Speaker

Mrs. William Macbeth conducted the LCW of the Gloria Dei church in a meeting Monday when the director of the Lutheran Social Service of Detroit, Mrs. Elaine Orheim, gave a talk about one of our biggest problems, the youth and the needy infants.

Preceding the program a baby shower was held. Devotions were presented by Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ken Goldmann and Mrs. Ted Todd.

New members received into the congregation Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bless, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Filter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marks and their children, and Mary Ellen Millyard and Ernest Needham, whose wedding will be held Oct. 16 in the church.

The 4th Annual Convention of the LCW of the Michigan Synod will be held in Kalamazoo Oct. 19 and 20.

The Gloria Dei congregation will be represented by Mrs. Todd as official delegate, and Mrs. Fred Weseloh, Mrs. William Ferow, Mrs. Stan Rentschler, Mrs. James Tonneberger and Mrs. Laszlo Gero as guests.

Sunday, Oct. 17, Youth Sunday will be observed with the Luther League Choir participating. At 6:30 p.m. this group will have the regular meeting.

Economics Instructor Resigning

Dale Perry, high school economics teacher, has notified school officials of his plans to resign.

He asked the Board by 1 etter Monday night to accept his resignation at the end of the current semester, and if possible, earlier.

Mr. Perry said he plans to enter business.

Circle Two Members May Have Remedy

The members of Circle 2 of the Presbyterian Church thought recently that since Tecumseh is growing so fast, some people may look around in church and realize they don't know half the people.

To remedy this, the circle will have a dessert smorgasbord on Oct. 28 at 8:30 p.m. in the church.

A special feature of the event will be the first display of abstract art by local talent.

Members and those who are interested in the church may become acquainted with each other and the facilities and services of the church.

Anyone wishing transportation may call the church office, 423-3470 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Say You Saw It in The Herald

IT'S TRUE
A good tonic and remedy will do wonders for your health. Be sure it is made from pure herbs and not from harmful dope or chemical drugs which often have unwanted side effects. You can't buy a better tonic than O-JIB-WA BITTERS, the all-herb medicine made from God's herbs. This famous remedy has brought safe effective results to millions during the past 50 years and can help you too.

Memoriam

In loving memory of Edward G. Handley who passed away Oct. 21, 1964.
To those who have a father,
Cherish him with care.
You will never know how Much you love him,
Until you find he isn't there.
Sadly missed by his children and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our parents, Claude Mattis who died Nov. 1, 1918 and Lillian Mattis who died Sept. 25, 1946.

Young Is Called 'One Of Best'

By TOM RIORDAN

If there were any college scouts watching Friday's Tecumseh-Grosse Ile game, they probably now have notebooks full on No. 32 in the white jersey.

That would be Bob Miltenberger, a 190-pounder, who smashed through and around Tecumseh as he scored four times — one was called back — while gaining 185 yards on the ground in Grosse Ile's 28-7 win.

Miltenberger wasn't the whole show, just the leading character.

There was a giant Red Devil line opening holes and a talented performer at quarterback in Ron Solack, himself a burly 180 pounds.

For the first half, Tecumseh was right in the ball game, holding the powerful Devils, 7-7, at the intermission.

At first it looked like a romp for Grosse Ile as Miltenberger wheeled 58 yards for a TD on the second play the visitors had the ball.

★

BUT TECUMSEH'S defense tightened.

A bruising tackle by Dean Hebb turned the tide in the second period and started THS on the march.

The Islanders rolled to Tecumseh's 11-yard line as the first period neared an end, but lost the ball on downs when Hebb smashed down a halfback sweep, inches short of a first.

Indian scatback Roger Young — who should have had the small college scouts taking notes — busted off-tackle and went 44 yards to the Devil's 28.

Three more THS tries got seven yards and then fullback Mark Blatchford punched through on a key play to get a first.

Quarterback Ron Rentschler dropped back to pass, but was snowed under by the rushing Devil forward wall, losing seven yards.

Young came through for 12, then got six more and a TD down, then took the ball once more to the one-yard line.

Rentschler banged to the two-inch line — if there is such a thing — losing his helmet in a king-sized pile-up.

On the next down, Young went off left tackle for the score and added the extra point moments later on an end sweep.

As it turned out, this was Tecumseh's Finest Hour.

★

"ROGER WAS one of the best backs on the field," Coach Tom Fagan said following the game. Roger's job was described as a "tremendous effort."

All told, the fleet 5'5" 140-pounder sped for 88 yards on 16 carries for a 5.5-yard average.

Blatchford took the ball four times for 26 yards and a 6.5-yard average.

In the final wrap-up, Tecumseh gained 184 yards, while the Devils rolled to 377.

Tecumseh completed six of 13 passes and this was a chore in view of the Red Devil rush put on Rentschler, who threw most of the aerials.

One of the best pass plays was a 12-yarder from Scott Edwards, who took over for Ron, to Jim Upell.

Coach Fagan praised the play of Blatchford and Ron Boltz. Hebb also drew plaudits from the coach.

Star lineman Henry Mensing inured his shoulder after only three plays and was out for the night. X-rays showed no separation, but it's still doubtful when he'll be able to play again.

One lad definitely lost for the year is Tri-Capt. Ron Forsythe, who injured his knee in the Milan game.

Doug Hall filled in for Ron.

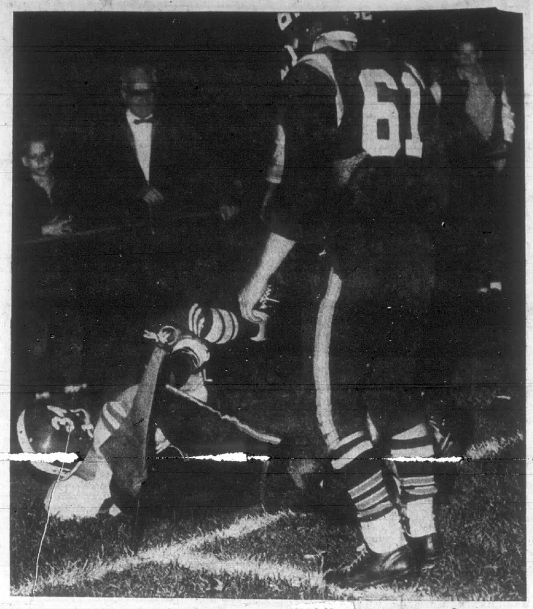
In final appraisal of Grosse Ile, Coach Fagan said "they hit harder than any team we faced." He had nice comments to make about the Red Devil's Miltenberger, who he described as "one heck of a ball player."

★

THE WIN gave Grosse Ile No. 5 against no losses and keeps the Red Devils among the top Class B teams in the state.

Now it's off to Airport Friday for the Indians, who'll be shooting for their third victory in six outings.

BOB MILTENBERGER IS COLLEGE PROSPECT



HARRY WEAKLY GRINS AS YOUNG REACHES ONE-YARD LINE

Back Gains 276 Yards in 2 Games

Jim Johnson gained 103 yards including a 40-yard romp, but his Pontiac Arrows were unable to top Dayton, which took a 14-7 decision Saturday.

A week earlier the Arrows defeated Milan, 48-6, as Jim gained 173 yards.

The Arrows meet Flint Oct. 30 and Lansing, Nov. 6.

Wilkins Leads Catholic Central To Another Win

Former Tecumseh St. Elizabeth Junior High gridder, Eric Wilkins scored all his team's points as Adrian Catholic Central nipped Summerfield, 19-14, Friday evening.

Eric went over the goal line three times—once after a 65-yard run—as well as sprinting for the only successful extra-point try.

Sand Creek Defeats St. Elizabeth

A last-minute touchdown gave Sand Creek's junior high a 13-6 victory over St. Elizabeth last Thursday on the Aggie gridiron.

The Cubs' TD came on a 75-pass play, Paul Burns, Jr. tossing to Charles Villanueva, who outran the Sand Creek secondary.

Dillenbeck Calls

Chuck Dillenbeck, Detroit, will call for the Shawnee Squares' dance Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Community Center.

Officers invite all western style square dancers to attend.

They remind the members and friends of the change of date for the Halloween dance to Sunday, Oct. 31.

Group Organizes

An organization meeting for Junior High Fellowship at the Presbyterian Church will be held Thursday, Oct. 28, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Cook. The meeting will continue from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. William Adams will assist the Cooks as counselors for the group.

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Supt.

Although Halloween falls on a Sunday this year, the Parks and Recreation Department is planning to observe the holiday on the preceding Saturday.

The Annual Halloween Costume Contest for the "small fry" will be held at the Community Center, 1:30 to 3 p.m., Saturday, October 30. Prizes will be awarded winners of the following divisions and categories:

Pre-schoolers
Dressiest
Spookiest
Most original
Funniest.

Kindergarten thru 2nd Grade
(Same categories as above).

Third grade and Up
(Same categories as above).

Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Dept. will also sponsor Halloween Dances for both Junior and Senior High students Saturday evening.

The Junior High Dance will be held at the Junior High School, 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., while the Senior High Dance will be held at the Community Center, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The early observance of the holiday which is the eve of All Saints Day, is designed to discourage door-to-door "trick or treating" by youngsters on a Sunday night.

We are scheduling our activities for Saturday because Sunday is regarded as a family day, when the Community Center is normally closed for department activities.

DANCE INSTRUCTION CLASSES

There are still a few openings in the dance classes held each Wednesday afternoon and evening at the Community Center. For more information — call the city hall, 423-2107.

Will Interview Mr. Humphrey

David Lips, 17, of Route 1, Tecumseh, and Jack Brown, 653 N. Main, Britton, will interview Vice-President Hubert Humphrey Friday.

U. S. Representative Weston E. Vivian has arranged for students from high schools throughout the Second Congressional District to have their own "press conference" with the Vice President on Oct. 22, at Adrian College.

The schools were invited to send one representative each to the press conference at 2:45 p.m., just prior to Humphrey's arrival.

Congressman Vivian will introduce Mr. Humphrey to the students and the Vice-President will then answer their questions. Mr. Humphrey will be in Adrian at the National Corn-Picking Contest.

Siena Heights Will Present Ballet Program

The Master Art Series at Siena Heights College on Oct. 24 will feature Columbia artists, Michael Maule and Colleen Corkre in their classic and popular ballet, "Two Go Dancing." The presentation will be at 7:30 p.m. in Walsh Hall.

Combining tongue-in-cheek satire of the popular dance of yesteryear and the gossamer grace of the ballroom, it is a clever and highly diverting program.

Moderator

The Rev. Seal Janeway, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church, was elected moderator of the Missionary Baptist Southeastern Michigan Association at a meeting Oct. 1.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1965

Stauffer Is Rolling

Management, sales, product engineering, accounting and personnel departments of the Silicone Division of Stauffer Chemical Company have recently moved into new facilities in the Silicone Technical Center on Sutton Road, Raisin Township, between Adrian and Tecumseh.

New product engineering laboratories include an administration section. In this building are Amos R. Anderson, general manager; Joseph E. Stevenson, product engineering manager; Leonard J. Sacks, sales manager; and Charles J. Miley, accounting manager. Ron L. Wetter, personnel manager, and two staff members are located in a former residence on Sutton Road (west of Sutton Place).

Primary purpose of the laboratory is to provide enlarged and centralized facilities for technical service, applications research, and development of new silicone products. Convenient to the research laboratories, the new structure is fitted with modern apparatus and equipment.

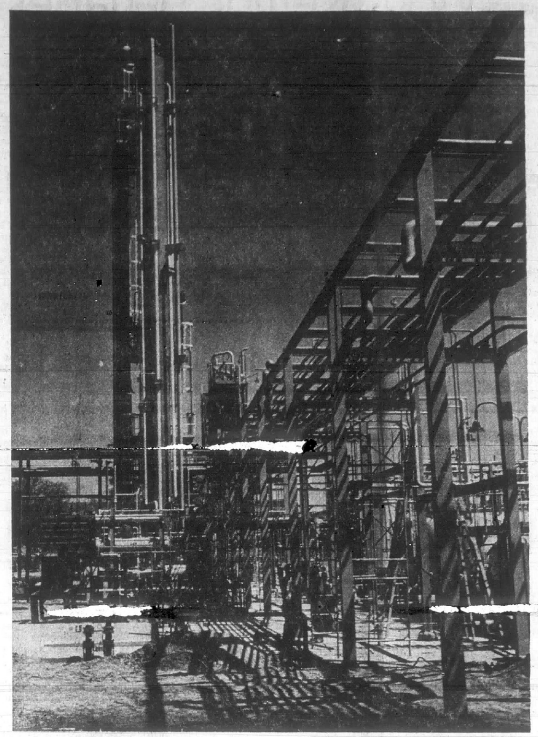
The product engineering staff is qualified to provide complete technical service to silicone customers and to develop new silicone products and applications systems from research findings to useful commercial realities.

Section heads in the product engineering department are Howard L. Brooks, fluid products; Dr. Leonard B. Bruner, special projects; Robert J. Flanagan, field engineering; William E. Hutchinson, bases and elastomers; Robert D. Maclean, specialties; and Anthony E. Pepe, room - temperature - vulcanizing silicone rubber.

The sales department includes Frank C. Janda, field sales manager; Lewis S. Stone, advertising and sales promotion specialist; and the following sales development specialists: Walter F. Brown, fluid products; Robert E. Buckley, elastomers; and Gene A. Tyrer, room - temperature - vulcanizing silicone rubber.

The accounting department includes John R. Jackson, general accountants, and Albert E. Hetzel, I.B.M. supervisor.

All operating functions of Industrial Accessories, Inc., a subsidiary of Stauffer Chemical and a department of Silicone Division, will remain in the Stauffer building on East Michigan Street, Adrain.



TRANSFER — The pipes shown are transfer methods between distillation towers and feed the product into one end of the series of towers, connect each tower and withdraw the finished product at the end where it is taken to storag e tanks. The apparatus at the base of the tower is refrigeration that provides the coolant neces sary to condense vapors in the tower.

CONDENSING TOWER — The Franctionating Tower 'distills' fluids in order to separate a mixture into its individual components. This tower is one of four that are linked in a four stage continual process. Essentially, it boils the fluid until it is a vapor and then cools different components at separate withdrawal areas, separating the stock

SAFETY FIRST — Jerry Craig, Technician in Product Engineering at Stauffer Chemical Co., checks the progress of reaction in a safety hood in the silicone fluids laboratory. Products are developed here for many uses in industry including: electrical insulation, hydraulic application, prevention of foam, prevention of adhesions and greater plastic foam cell uniformity.

Exchange Club Meets Oct. 26

"Tecumseh Exchangites and their wives will participate in a Regional get-together at the Temperance Junior High School Tuesday evening, Oct. 26," says Robert Hart, local president.

Exchange Clubs from Adrian, Ann Arbor, Bedford, Monroe, Ypsilanti and Tecumseh will hear Richard Vos, president of Amway Corp. tell the story of the growth of his company from a basement to a multi-million dollar business in six years.

The talk will follow dinner which will be served at 6:30 p.m. Reservations must be made with John Saling before Oct. 18.

Dunc Oliphant showed some color films of Northern Michigan in the Fall and the growing herd of Elk in the Gaylord-Vanderbilt area at the Oct. 11 meeting.

The program chairman was Jim Barton and a delicious chicken dinner was served to the members by the ladies of the Eagles Auxiliary.

Mrs. Yale Kerby Again Chairman

Mrs. Yale Kerby is again chairman of scholarships obtainable through the American Legion Auxiliary.

She stated Tuesday that many scholarships are available for all high school girls and urges Tecumseh area young women to investigate and compete for those offered.

She further stated that the American Legion Auxiliary wishes to help girls to help themselves to a better life.

"We will be glad to help you understand and attain these benefits," she concluded.

For further information, applicants may call Mrs. Kerby 423-4105.

The familiar "Need a Lift" booklet is available from her.

Thursday, October 21, 6:30 p.m. Candlelighters meet at the church to set up the schedule for next month and provide practice for the new lighters.

Thursday, October 21, Junior and Senior Choir practice at 7 and 8 p.m.

The Talent Show will be at the Saline Township Hall on Saturday, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m.

Proceeds will go towards the purchase of new robes for the choirs. The public is cordially invited.

Tuesday, Oct. 26, the Executive Officers of the WSCS will meet at 7:30 p.m., followed by the regular meeting at 8:00. All officers are to turn in their reports, so they can be forwarded to the District Officers.

Mrs. Clarence Hall will lead the group in devotions, Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. Paul Hoover will have the program. Mrs. Robert Osborne and committee, the refreshments.

Next Sunday will be Mission Sunday at the Church. A special offering will be taken for the Mission Project.

Harvest Sunday will also be observed for the Chelsea Methodist Home. Donations of produce, jams, jellies, sewing materials and money, are to be brought to the church next Sunday, Oct. 24.

A rose was placed on the altar in honor of Deidre Dianne Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker. Mrs. Baker was formerly Carolyn Bartells.

Flowers were also placed on the altar in memory of Mr. Sam Tamana, by Mrs. Anna Tamana and for Raymond German, by his family.

Dr. Joseph Edwards, Ann Arbor District Superintendent, conducted the Special Quarterly Conference that had been called for the purpose of accepting the recommendations of the church study committee. It was accepted. Then a Building Committee was elected, with 15 being elected to serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stotler and son of Tecumseh were Sunday dinner guests of her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Nancy.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lang of Piqua, O., spent Sunday with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Yoder.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Saline on a color tour in northern Michigan Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rorabacker and family, formerly of Saline, have moved into the former John Crittenden home on Saline-Macon Road.

Mrs. Lora Hasted spent the weekend with Mrs. Ollie Jordan. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan spent a few days with her father in Tennessee.

Robert Bigelow of Grand Ledge and Rebekah Bigelow, of Michigan State University, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and Mary Beth.

Mrs. Walter Rochrein, who recently moved to Macon, was honored at a morning coffee, at the home of Mrs. Paul B. Hover. Guests who met and welcomed Mrs. Hochrein to Macon, included Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. Bernard Tucker, Mrs. Richard Chatters, Mrs. Edward Mueller, and Mrs. Ronald Corl.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rhoades had a birthday dinner Sunday for her mother, Mrs. Ed Guenther, of Milan, and his sister, Mrs. Grace Westfall, of Milan and their son, James, whose birthdays are all on the same day. Guests were from Ottawa Lake, Manchester, Milan, Whitmore Lake, Brighton and Macon.

Mrs. Maud Halladay of Clinton called on Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill spent the weekend in northern Michigan.

Jeannette Gillen, Linda Yoder, Dorothy Davis, Roxie Hover, Sharon Pickford and Debbie Graff have been putting their spare time to a good advantage.

Last week the girls assembled UNICEF boxes for the WSCS, in preparation for the children's UNICEF Halloween Party, on Saturday, Oct. 30. The children will collect in the community from 6:00 p.m. till 7:00, then they will go to the church for refreshments and games. All children of the area are urged to take part.

Jerry Hand of Tecumseh, Dean Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cook and family, spent from Friday until Tuesday in Monticello, Ind. They assisted with a calf sale.

Miss Mary Willams of Eastern University, Ypsilanti, was a weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams, sister, Sylvia, and brother, Mark.

Mrs. Dean Moore and family spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore. Sunday afternoon they went on a color tour in the Waterloo area.

UNICEF Cards Will Go on Sale

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski has authorized postmasters to make space available to members of the United States Committee for UNICEF — United Nations Childrens Fund — to sell greeting cards where local conditions allow.

"Since its inception in 1946, UNICEF has helped millions of children to a better, fuller, healthier life," Mr. Gronouski said.

"Though a part of the United Nations, the organization is financed only through voluntary contributions such as the annual greeting card campaign.

"Two boxes will furnish 80 children with a glass of milk for an entire week. Five boxes will buy enough penicillin to cure 50 children of yaws.

Sales will be allowed during the three-week period, beginning Nov. 15, providing space may be made available without interference with regular postal activities.

There will be no active solicitation of postal patrons by the UNICEF representatives.

Bush Installed As President of Music Makers

David Bush was installed as president of the Junior Music Makers Club at a recent meeting by Mrs. Fred Oberlin, president of the Tecumseh Music Club.

Other officers installed were:

Vice-president — Linda Oberlin

2nd Vice-president—Jamie McWilliams

Secretary and Treasurer — Cathy Beevers

The program included a flute solo by David Bush and a piano duet by Linda Oberlin and Cathy Beevers.

Cider and doughnuts were served by the counselors, Mrs. Orrie Gilbert and Mrs. James E. Danforth.

The Nov. 13 meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bush following a hay ride and potluck supper.

Vicki Kempf, Charles Frost Are Married

Vicki Jean Kempf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kempf, 600 Outer Drive, and Charles William Frost, Jr., son of Mrs. Walter Solarski and Charles William Frost, Sr., were united in marriage by the Rev. K. F. Koeplin in the Grace Lutheran Church Friday evening.

Large white chrysanthemums and pompons were used on the chancel with lighted cathedral candelabra. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

MRS. CHARLES FROST

Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a crescent arrangement of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Judy Purkey was maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Beverly Kempf. Both wore street-length dresses of pink chiffon and lace. They wore pink nose veils attached to a crown of pearls and crystals.

They carried crescent bouquets of dusty pink carnations and smilax.

Gary Frost, cousin of the groom, was the best man and the guests were seated by Dan Dewey, cousin of the bride and Wayne Ruhl.

Dinner was served for the bridal party at Pearl's Cafe. The table was centered with snapdragons flanked with candles.

The young couple, both graduates of Tecumseh High School, will live at 9103 N. Union St.

2 from Tipton Compete for Fame and Fortune

A group of Lenawee County 4-H livestock showmen will be among 400 members taking part in the 36th Annual Detroit Junior Livestock Show.

It will be held at the Michigan State Fairgrounds in Detroit on Nov. 2-5.

The 4-H'ers will be competing for fame and fortune as well as an educational experience as their carefully-prepared animals are led before the judges.

The show is sponsored by the 4-H Club department of the Cooperative Extension Service and the Detroit Junior Livestock Society. Among those entering from Lenawee County are Joe Lewis and Barbara Vincent of Tipton.

Honored at Showers

Mrs. Wheeler Brown entertained at a buffet luncheon on Sept. 27 with 16 guests present. Assisting the hostess were Joan Brown, Mrs. Tom Mitchell and Mrs. Wheeler Brown.

Mrs. Jerry O'Brian was hostess for a person shower honoring Miss Maynard on Oct. 4. Fourteen guests enjoyed a social evening of games.

The bride-to-be was presented with a variety of pretty gifts on both occasions. Miss Maynard's marriage to Allen Ross of Britton took place Oct. 16.

Is the world ready for 40 new tigers? It is...if they all look like this! The tiger scores again!

Who'd ever have thought Pontiac would make cars for just about everybody? We did. Sleek Bonnevilles for swingers. Sumptuous Broughams for luxury lovers. Star Chief Executives for people who like their luxury connected to a low price tag. An improved version of the fabulous Grand Prix. Catalinas that come in convertibles, station wagons, sports coupes, hardtops, and sedans and four exciting Venturas. But if you're a real tiger at heart, you'll want to try the formidable 2+2. And there's more below...

LE MANS HARDTOP COUPE

You've heard of the ultimate tiger—the GTO with 335 or 360 hp. (Who hasn't?) But if you like tigers and prefer them more on the manageable side, the Le Mans is your car. You can order a 250-hp regular-gas V-8, a 285-hp premium-gas V-8, or the 207-hp version of our new overhead cam six when you specify the special sports package. And the 165-hp OHC-6 is standard on the Le Mans, Tempest and Tempest Custom.

How's that for openers? Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

Come to tiger country. See all the Wide-Track tigers at your Pontiac dealer's.

All Around HOLLOWAY

By MARVEL NEUMAN

Mrs. Lyle Marine of Tecumseh held a miscellaneous shower Tuesday night for her niece, Kathy Wagner, of Holloway. The guests were from Adrian, Tecumseh and Holloway.

Winners were Mrs. Charles Escott, Miss Mary Wagner, Mrs. Gordon D. Goldsberry, Sr. Gifts were given to the honored guest. The bride's aunt baked an umbrella cake decorated in pink and white. The bride opened many lovely gifts.

Miss Edith Haviland retired after teaching the Home Makers class of Raisin Center Friends Church for many years. She turned the class over to Mrs. James Brantingham.

Jack Dull, Jack Wilt, Rev. James Brantingham and Welcome Morton are bow and arrow hunting in northern Michigan. Mr. Morton reports he bagged a deer.

Raisin Center Friends Church met at Tecumseh Friends Church October 17, at 7 p.m. Rev. Harold Wynn, of Salem, O., was the speaker. Musicians were Betty Restric of New Jersey and Margaret Kellogg of Washington. There was no evening service at Raisin Center Friends Church October 17.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] had company last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreger of Franklin Village, near Birmingham, visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Forsythe have their son, Pvt. Jerry Forsythe, home on a furlough. He will return to school in Oklahoma this week.

Raisin Slicker 4-H Club met last Wednesday night at the Holloway Fire Hall. A Halloween party is planned Oct. 30, at 7 p.m. All members are to meet at the fire hall for a hay ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brooks are moving into their new home at 1735 Rogers Hwy.

Raisin Sewing Circle are holding a pre-Halloween supper. The pot luck meal will be held at Palmyra Community Rooms Oct. 22 or 23 at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brooks' son, Duane, left for basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., Oct. 5. He will be gone for nine weeks.

Mrs. Amiel Teske fell in her home last Tuesday morning. She broke her left shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gritzmaker returned home last Sunday. They attended the funeral of her brother, James McIntyre, of Troy, Pa.

Holloway Homemakers 4H Club will meet Thursday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. with Diane and Kathleen Marks. There will be an election of officers. Winter projects will be selected.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gritzmaker and family of Adran, visited his mother, Mrs. Mamie Gritzmaker last Sunday afternoon.

Past Chiefs Meet

The Addie Kemp Past Chiefs Club will meet on Wednesday, October 20, at 8:00 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Paul Geiger with Mrs. Roy Willnow assisting.

A Farmers Club has been organized in East Ridgeway with George Price, president; George Oliver, vice-president; Lyman Sowle, secretary; Normay Ackley, treasurer.

The freight business through here is immense. Friday's freight train had 47 cars and Tuesday's had 66 cars.

1885

The astronomy class of the Raisin Valley Seminary visited the observatory between 3 and 6 a.m. and were rewarded with a fine view of Orion, Sirus and the Pleiades also, Jupiter, Mars and Venus.

1895

The fifth new house is being built on the north side of Britton and a new store is rumored.

The sudden appearance of summer birds, more than in six weeks, is a puzzle to everyone.

1905

One hundred twenty-five Maccabees visited the Clinton Lodge Saturday evening.

1915

Ralph Orr of Morenci, Ariz., is visiting his home here for the first time since he left in 1904.

Hog cholera is quite prevalent in the county.

Little Garden Club Published

The October edition of "Through The Garden Gate," official publication of the Federated Garden Club's [illegible] Division carries this item of interest to local readers:

"Nov. 13 — The Little Garden Club of Tecumseh presents their annual flower show, "Holidays on Parade" at the Tecumseh Community Center from 2 to 7 p.m.

There will be an open class for any garden member in the state, titled "Confetti," a New Year's Eve arrangement with an accessory using multicolored flowers. For information call Mrs. Wm. Adams, 501 Nokomis St., phone 423-4855.

The Little Garden Club has received many awards for excellence in recognition of its activities.

Some of these include:

Study, care and use of flowers and gardens,

Civic planning and beautification,

Community service activities such as the flower show,

Beautification of city buildings.

Some of the civic projects of the club have been:

Encouraging and assisting the landscaping of the Herrick Nursing Home;

Planting and maintaining the Veterans' Memorial;

Public show of holiday arrangements;

Promoting the Raisin River Valley conservation project;

Sponsoring a teacher to the Higgins Lake Conservation School;

Working with Junior Gardeners;

Sponsoring a garden center at the Tecumseh Public Library;

A visit with a plant or flowers during the summer and at Christmas to a shut-in.

Become New

"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things become new." These words of Paul will be the Golden Text for a Bible Lesson on how spiritual renewal leads men to the discovery of their real identity and eternal being at Sunday's Christian Scence service.

Landscaping Class Tours Carson Garden

The landscaping class of Tecumseh High School toured Anne Carson's rose garden Wednesday morning. Mr. Burns and the class enjoyed Miss Carson's comments about the various types of roses.

With her many years of experience as a rose gardener, Miss Carson was able to inform the students about her methods of planting, fertilizing and spraying roses.

After demonstrating how to cut roses Miss Carson presented Yarletta Stratton and Pat Wilson each with a beautiful rose.

She then told the class how to preserve roses for a long period of time.

Miss Carson compared the floribunda, multiflora, and hybrid teas. She also discussed the varieties of roses which she grows.

The class wishes to express its appreciation to Miss Carson for helping them in their study of landscaping and floriculture.

STEVEN T. CZARNECKI

Czarnecki Will Address Kiwanis

Steven T. (Steve) Czarnecki, Hamtramck, Governor of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International, will address the Kiwanis Club of Tecumseh on Oct. 20, 1965 at 7 p.m. at the Lenawee Institute.

The theme of the dinner program will be in recognition of the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International. Members of the local club will be entertaining their wives with a program which will include a skit presentation by the Tecumseh Players. Presidents of all the other clubs in Monroe and Lenawee counties will also be in attendance with the Lieutenant Governor designate Harry Dix of Monroe. A reception, preceding the dinner, to honor Mr. Czarnecki will be held from 6 to 7 p.m.

Czarnecki, a commercial manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., will review the major accomplishments of Kiwanians in this, their Golden Anniversary Year.

Czarnecki has been a prominent citizen of the Detroit area for many years. In addition to numerous Kiwanis posts, he has held high positions with the Hamtramck Board of Commerce, the Highland Park Board of Commerce, the Highland Park Mayor's Civic and Industrial Committee, the Detroit Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, the Advisory Board of the United Foundation Torch Drive for the Detroit area, and the Neighborhood Services Organization of the Detroit Area. As head of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International, Czarnecki is the official spokesman for approximately 9600 Kiwanians in 2007 clubs in the lower peninsula and the three eastern counties of the upper peninsula of Michigan.

During his year as the district's governor, Czarnecki will travel more than 25,000 miles visiting the Michigan Kiwanis clubs. He is married, and he and Mrs. Czarnecki have three daughters.

Hits New Popularity Peak

Don't let the plain Jane name for this elegant product fool you. Today's dairy-made sour cream is the smart sophisticate of the dairy food family. It's a convenience food with a gourmet touch.

Sour cream's delicately tart flavor, thick smooth texture and cream white color appeal to almost everyone for it adds a distinctive touch to any part of a meal.

The new sour cream craze shows no sign of abating. There are addicts who bathe everything on their dinner plates with the irresistible white fluff.

See how a dollop of sour cream here, there and everywhere can make your everyday dishes as exciting to the taste as the exotic cuisine of world famous chefs.

Versatility is sour cream's trademark

1001 USES FROM DIPS TO DESSERTS

Low Calorie Italian Dip

Yield: 2 cups

1 package (1.3 oz.) low calorie Italian salad dressing mix
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups dairy sour cream

In a mixing bowl gently blend ingredients into sour cream. Cover and chill to blend flavors.

Sour cream is a miracle worker; turning everyday favorites into exciting new taste treats. Try Quickie Stroganoff tonight.

Quickie Stroganoff

5-6 servings

Heavy covered skillet, 10-inch
2 tablespoons butter
1½ pounds beef sirloin, cut in 3x1x¼-inch strips
1 can (10½ oz.) cream of mushroom soup
1 package (10 oz.) frozen mixed vegetables, thawed
1 cup dairy sour cream at room temperature

In skillet melt butter; add beef and brown quickly, turning meat to brown on all sides. Add soup and vegetables; cover and simmer 10 minutes. Gently stir in sour cream. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve over hot buttered noodles or rice.

Soft Cream Jumbles

5-6 dozen

Buttered baking sheet
Preheated 350° oven
½ cup (1 stick) butter
1 cup sugar
2 large eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
2½ cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup dairy sour cream

In a mixing bowl cream together butter and sugar; add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Add to creamed mixture alternately with sour cream, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Drop by rounded teaspoon 2 inches apart onto baking sheet. Sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar mixture*. Bake approximately 9-12 minutes or until very lightly browned. Remove immediately to wire rack to cool.

*NOTE: Cinnamon-Sugar — Mix 3 tablespoons of sugar with ¼ teaspoon cinnamon.

The tangy, fresh flavor of sour cream adds a delicious touch to these Soft Cream Jumbles.

A Clothes Dryer

BUT IT DOES A BETTER DRYING JOB!

MAKE THIS SIMPLE TEST

Take two bath towels...dry one outdoors and the other in a friend's clothes dryer. Note how much fluffier and wrinkle-free the towel is that comes from the dryer. Do a load of laundry in her dryer and count how many pieces you can fold and put away that you would ordinarily iron.

And in addition a work-saving modern Clothes Dryer will do all these extra jobs

● VALET SERVICE—wrinkles can be removed from corduroy, velveteen or wool garments by placing them in dryer for short tumbling period with damp sponges or bath towels. Place sponges or towel in dryer before putting in clothing to build up steam. Use medium heat setting. Bath towels leave lint on dark cottons, so damp, colorfast sponges are best. There must be moisture to release wrinkles and prevent shrinkage. Remove garments before completely dry and hang on wooden or plastic hangers until completely dry.

● FLUFFING OR DUSTING draperies, chenille bedspreads or other articles that need airing. Place in dryer on "no heat" setting and allow to tumble for 5-10 minutes.

● REMOVING MOTHBALL ODORS from clothes that have been stored. Use "no heat" setting and short tumbling time.

"SCRUNGE 'EM, BUNGE 'EM" WON TOP PRIZE OF $10 FOR THE ART CLUB

Fund For 'People' Who Need People

"People need people" according to the song. Your contribution to the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation Campaign can and will do wonders for "people who need people."

Two character building organizations that will benefit through this drive for funds will be the Wolverine Council for the Boy Scouts of America and the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council. Both are member-agencies of the Foundation. While much of their work is done by adult volunteers, the amount asked in their budgets is the difference between the amount paid by the youth and the total cost of the program.

Expert advice is needed for direction and guidance and that comes under salaries. Then there is office rental, utilities, various kinds of insurance, camp maintenance, publicity such as printed materials, etc. and many other items which make up the sizable budget.

The Tecumseh Scout Cabin Association looks after the maintenance of the Scout Cabin located in Elliott Park. Heat, water, lights, plumbing and other repairs, and insurance are included in the budget.

The budgets of these organizations have been reviewed and studied by the Board of Trustees and found to be fair and just.

There are eight other agencies to benefit from this drive and all of them will appreciate your contributions.

Don Thomas Now Facing Court Suit

CLINTON — Don Thomas, former president of Clinton-Engines, faces court action as a result of the coming shareholder fight over control of the firm.

The present management, which holds 34% of the company stock, charges Mr. Thomas with fraud while asking $1,500,000 in damages.

The suit is based on the sale by Mr. Thomas of his full interest in Clinton Engines in 1959 to the present management.

Officials say Mr. Thomas does not own any stock.

A dissident of stockholders, which says it represents 580 shareholders, is seeking to restore Mr. Thomas to management.

Will Hold Hayride

The Tecumseh Methodist Youth Fellowship is having a hayride, Saturday, Oct. 23, from 7 to 11 p.m. The youths will leave from Barbara Wood's home, 905 Shady Lane, and return there for refreshments and a bonfire.

Members Vote To Remodel

CLINTON — An extensive remodeling and redecoration program, costing about $20,000 was voted by the members of the United Church of Christ at a special meeting Monday evening.

The plan recommended by the board of trustees and accepted by the members calls for aluminum siding on the exterior of the church and parsonage, redesign of the chancel with the organ to be moved to a side position.

The interior of the sanctuary will be painted and recessed ceiling lights installed. The entrance lobby will be enlarged.

A finance committee will be named by the board of trustees as soon as possible.

Cyclist Uninjured in Hitting Auto

Kurt A. Marine, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marine, 7241 Ridge Rd., Ridgeway, escaped with minor bruises when the bicycle he was riding was struck by a car driven by C. Edward Haughn, 65, of Milan.

The mishap occurred on Ridge Rd., near M-50, when the youngster rode his bike out of a private drive into the path of the car, according to State Police. The driver was unable to avoid the collision.

Mary Ellen Millyard Wed Ernest Needham

Mary Ellen Millyard became the bride of Ernest B. Needham in ceremonies performed Oct. 16, by the Rev. Laszlo Gero, at the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Millyard of Britton and Mrs. Ernest Needham of Ypsilanti and the late Mr. Needham.

White gladioli and chrysanthemums were used in pyramid design on the altar. Four branch lighted circle candelabra faced with gladioli, pompons and foliage flanked the chancel entrance.

Satin bows marked the family pews along the carpeted aisle.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father in a gown of peau de soie and Chantilly lace fashioned in the popular A-line style. A chapel train accented the back.

The three-tiered veil of bridal illusion was attached to a cap of net petals re-ebroidered with sequins.

She carried Snow Song roses centered with a white orchid and enhanced with tiny clusters of white pearl grapes.

Mrs. Paul Rimer of Kalamazoo sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Ann Zimmer, of Oxford, O., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Thomas Needham of Clio.

Attired alike, the bride's attendants wore floor length gowns featuring bell skirts of light green satin. The bodices over the empire waists were of forest green velvet accented with velvet leaves.

★

Each attendant wore a headpiece of velvet leaves matching her skirt and carried natural wheat and wood roses combined with bittersweet and carnations in cascade arrangment accented with dark blue grapes.

Thomas Needham, brother of the groom, served as best man and the guests were seated by Paul Rimer and Mike Needham, another brother of the groom.

The couple are 1961 graduates of the Britton-Macon and Clio high Schools, respectively.

Both attended Eastern Michigan University and Cleary College. They will reside at 135 Smith St., Britton.

Mrs. Paul Cook Honored With Baby Shower

BRITTON — Mrs. Paul Cook was the honored guest at a stork shower Sunday afternoon, given for her by Mrs. Donald Benham and Mrs. Claudia Yedele at the Benham home in Dundee.

Fifteen guests were present to play games, with the prizes being awarded to the guest of honor.

Light refreshments were served by the hostesses, including a cake decorated with tiny baby items done in frosting. Mrs. Cook opened many lovely gifts, which were presented to her from a table centered with a miniature bassinet.

Guests were present from Milan, Dundee, Clinton, Adrian and the Britton area.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack and family were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beach of Clarkston. While there, they all talked to Mrs. Pat Beach, who is still hospitalized in Brockville, Canada.

She hopes to be released from the hospital this week. Her son, William, has both arm casts off now, and may be released in 2 or 3 weeks.

Mrs. Billau Celebrates 75 Years

BRITTON — Mrs. Sophie Billau was pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening when her family gathered at her home to help celebrate her 75th birthday anniversary.

A cooperative lunch was served, including a decorated birthday cake. Mrs. Billau received many nice gifts.

Guests were present from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Waldron, Milan and Britton.

Ag Students Hold Banquet

Agriculture students at Tecumseh High School and their parents are reminded of the annual banquet to be held Monday, Nov. 8.

Mrs. George Dinius, secretary and treasurer of the Mothers Club, announced Tuesday that dues of $2 must be paid by Monday, Oct. 25, so that final preparations for the banquet can be made.

The money is being collected by Mrs. Dinius or Paul Burns at the school.

Tories Shine Despite Loss

BRITTON — They won't forget those valiant Tories as they almost did it Friday night.

Ida took the game, 29-27, but Britton's fighting gridmen and their loyal fans will treasure the Homecoming game memories.

Tory Quarterback Jack Brown had the finest night of his prep career, scoring three touchdowns, all on short jogs within the five yard line.

Jack also tallied two extra points and Terry Godzina marked up one to round out the Tory scoring.

Ida's margin of victory was a safety in the final period when the Britton center shot his passback out of the end zone.

What inspired the Tory side was the way Britton kept fighting back, especially in the final moments when Coach Vadasy's youngsters punched in a TD to edge within two points of the Bluestreaks.

It will be Dad's Night this week at Britton as the Tories entertain Summerfield.

IDA	7	6	7	9	—29
Britton	0	13	7	7	—27

Ida scoring: Welch 2 (2 and 2, runs); Beck (1, run); Stubleski (45, run). PAT — Welch 2 (runs); Phillips (run); Safety — (Britton centered ball out of end zone.)

Britton Scoring: Brown 3 (3, 1 and 4, runs); Auten (5, run). PAT — Brown 2 (runs); Godzina (run).

Britton High School Welcomes New Librarian

BRITTON — Mrs. Kathryn Moehl, Adrian, recently began work as school librarian at Britton High School. Mrs. Moehl, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan, was formerly librarian of the West Riverside School in Jacksonville, Fla.

"We are glad to have this needed addition to our staff," states Supt. William Saxton, "but we still need a sixth grade teacher. Mrs. Forsythe is overworked with 45 pupils in one room."

Additional announcements from the school indicate that school will be dismissed early this Friday, at 2:18 p.m., because of a teachers' meeting.

The State Teachers' Institute will be held November 4-5, in Ann Arbor. There will be no school on these two days.

Stewart Watt and Paul Cowen Bureau Speakers

BRITTON — Stewart Watt and Paul Cowen, from the Lansing office of Farm Bureau Services, were the speakers at the Fertile Acres Farm Bureau meeting last Thursday evening. The subject was "Fertilizers."

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bortel were hosts to the 15 members and 2 guests present. A potluck lunch was served to the group.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack.

Homecoming Parade Highlights Weekend

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

A warm fall sun shone down on the village of Britton Friday afternoon as the homecoming parade opened the festivities for the annual event.

Parents, townspeople and folks in from the country were all on hand.

In this small community, where the school and the churches are the main centers of social activity, one could see that the school especially has a sentimental attachment for most of the onlookers.

"These are our kids," the beaming faces seemed to say.

Pride in their school, small though it may be, was evident on the faces of the paraders, too, as they wound their way through the town.

★

LEADING THE parade was the color guard and then the band, stepping smartly as the afternoon sun reflected off the brass instruments and warmed the red of the uniforms.

The floats, busily constructed in the past four evenings by the students of the eighth through the twelfth grades, plus one by the Varsity Club, were spaced by the class queens and kings riding on open convertibles like Cinderellas and Princes in pumpkin chariots.

Society Meets

The Women's Society of the First Baptist Church met Monday evening at the Baptist Youth House. Mrs. Tom Brooks presented the program entitled "God's Hungry Children".

A good-sized crowd turned out that night for the Homecoming football game against the Ida Bluestreaks, when Britton scored four times in a close, see-saw game which saw the home team lose by only three points, 26-29.

★

HALF-TIME activities included a re-run of the floats when the winners were announced.

First prize, which had as its theme this year's television programs and movies, was awarded to the Junior Class for its float called "The Untouchables."

The car was constructed of cardboard and paper, painted black and gold. The Juniors pocketed $18 for their efforts.

★

SECOND PRIZE of $10 was won by the Freshman class, whose float called "I Spy a Victory," depicting a huge rolling eye staring through a big keyhole to a Tory victory.

The eighth grade won $5 for their float entitled "We'll Have the Bluestreaks Branded," showing a Tory football player branding a Bluestreak in the seat of the pants.

The band, under the direction of George Berryman and drum major Gary Griffin, played several selections as the homecoming court was presented.

★

JOAN CHECK was named Homecoming Queen. She was crowned, as was her King, Keith Auten, and Joan also received a dozen long-stemmed red roses. Sylvia Luegge and Lois Auten attended her.

Junior Class queen and king were Suzanne Kotlarczyk and Chug Brablec.

Sophomores — Eileen Perry and Jim Henry.

Freshmen — Brenda Tubbs and Craig Reidy.

Eighth grade — [illegible] Williams and Rick Maska.

FHA Princess was Pamela Judkins and FFA Prince, Bruce Gillespie.

Redskins Win No. 5

In stopping Hudson, 31-0 last week and notching win No. 5, the 'Skins played their best game of the year.

Clinton's defensive unit, led by linebackers Dennis Sweet and Terry Brooks and tackle Tom Parapus, kept the Tigers neatly in check.

Hudson was able to muster less than 100 yards passing and running, moving inside the Clinton 30 but once and this during the final moments of action.

★

THERE WERE offensive line standouts for Clinton, including guard Roger Proctor — who also kicked a 35-yard field goal and a trio of extra points — center Phil Smith and tackle Brian Baker.

Baker started the year at center, but had to take over at tackle slot when Jerry Bellmore was knocked out for the season with an ankle injury. Brian is going both ways and doing a top-flight job.

His replacement at center, Phil, sparkled Friday.

Wingback Terry Brooks slashed 60 yards on a reverse sweep for another 'Skin tally with understudy quarterback Doug Wight pitching to Bill Jedele to climax a 60-yard sustained march.

★

BROOKLYN won its first game of the season, topping Ann Arbor University High, 14-13, last week.

An air-minded squad, Brooklyn tossed 17 passes in the session and will probably be flinging the ball against Clinton.

CLINTON	7	10	14	0	—31
HUDSON	0	0	0	0	— 0

Clinton scoring: McKenna (1 and 5, runs); Jedele (3, pass from Wight); Brooks (60, run); Proctor (35 yard field goal). PAT — Proctor 4 (kicks).

New Girl Scout Leaders Named

CLINTON — It was announced at a recent meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders that all the troops are now staffed.

Mrs. Gary Miller will assist Brownie Troop 38, led by Mrs. Milford Traves.

Mrs. James Wilson will be the leader for Brownie Troop 330.

Mrs. Philip Groeb will be the new assistant for the junior troop led by Mrs. Richard Dixon.

Mrs. Donald Drexler will be the new assistant to the unior troop led by Mrs. Bernard Allen.

Two new troops have been recently organized with the following leaders: Mrs. Kay Williams, assisted by Mrs. Leonard Russ and Mrs. James Adams, assisted by Mrs. Rex Campbell.

The new troop schedules will be announced soon.

Church Women Seek Sheets

CLINTON — The Assembly of God Church women have need of old white sheets which can be used in making bandages. They may be given to Mrs. William Prong or Mrs. Dennis Goodrow.

The women met for a sewing meeting recently with Mrs. Henry Jordan and worked on quilts.

Plans were made to send a baby gift to the Rev. and Mrs. Curtis Butler at Goldsboro, N. C. They are the parents of a boy, Kevin Phillip, born Sept. 11. Rev. Butler was the former pastor.

Mrs. Goodrow will be hostess for the Oct. 22 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the parsonage on Church St.

Mrs. Hoover Addresses Clinton Women

CLINTON — Mrs. Guy Hoover, the Home Economic instructor in the Clinton High School, addressed the members of the Clinton Woman's Club, Wednesday afternoon, in the first meeting of the season in the Community Center. Her theme was, "Education for Tomorrow in Homemaking."

"Building the family is primarily the woman's task," Mrs. Hoover said. "For the home to fulfill its functions, at least one person must be endlessly alert to the needs of all the others. Usually it is the mother. The young woman of today has an unusual opportunity to work for excellence in her own life and her marriage, to transmit it to her children and to work for it in her community."

The new president, Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, presided at the meeting which was attended by 31 members and three guests, Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, Mrs. Clara Martiny and Mrs. Frank Ward.

The program leader, Mrs. Dwight Service, introduced Mrs. Boyce, who sang, "Dear Homeland" and "A Perfect Day" accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Reed at the piano.

The tea table was covered with a golden-hued cloth and was centered with an arrangement of painted orange daisies, oak leaves, wheat and miniature cattails, which was a gift from Kukini Flowers. Burnt orange candles completed the fall motif. Tea was served from the memorial silver tea service by Mrs. Dan Reilly. Assisting were Mrs. John Gilman, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Viva Riker, Mrs. Harlan Ruhl and Mrs. John Mabry.

Sister Marie Antoine of Siena Heights College will speak on "The Role of the American Woman in Our Day" at the Nov. 10 meeting.

Name Committees

CLINTON — Mrs. Robert Winder, chairman of the St. John's Episcopal Church Women, named committees for the Nov. 6 smorgasbord supper at the meeting last Wednesday in the church annex.

General chairman of the dinner, which is an annual event, will be Mrs. Donald Cutler and Mrs. Winder.

Other members of the committee include:

Kitchen, Mrs. Gus Smith and Mrs. Mary Jane Merritt.

Dining room, Mrs. Leslie Pierce, Mrs. George Lancaster.

Advertising, Lois Lancaster.

Mrs. Donald Heacock and Mrs. Anna Mae Waterman served refreshments to the members from a table decorated in a Halloween motif.

Afterwards the group enoyed a fashion party in the church rectory.

Clinton Schools Will Lose $300,000 Value

CLINTON — The Clinton Community School District will lose almost $300,000 in valuation, due to the recent state re-evaluation of all districts with Lenawee County, and the board of education discussed at length its impact on the local school budget at the Oct. 18 meeting.

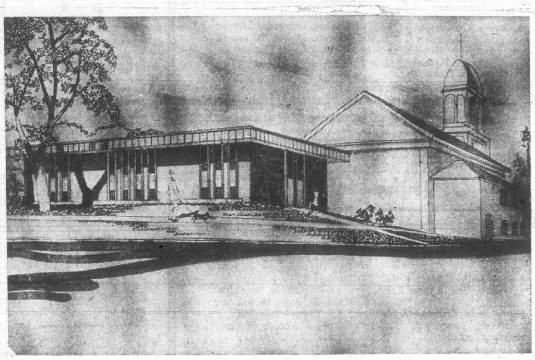
Changes in valuation for four townships in the district, Clinton, Franklin, Tecumseh and Macon will result in the district receiving some $5,000 less in property taxes.

Clinton Township's state equalized valuation was lowered from $7,138,647 to $6,971,999. The Franklin Township valuation was lowered from $1,657,507 to $1,541,038. It is still unknown how changes in Tecumseh and Macon Township will affect the school district.

Approval was given by the board for the borrowing of money for the operation of the school from the state treasury, against expected state aid. This is a new privilege afforded school districts without cost of interest on the borrowed money.

The board voted to accept the plans for grounds improvement which were presented by Woodrow Barkley of the Lenawee County Soil Conservation Department.

Members of the board made plans to visit new schools. A citizens' committee will be formed to consider sites and building plans.



PROPOSED EDUCATIONAL BUILDING for the Clinton Methodist Church. The two-story 80 x 42 feet structure, to cost an estimated $100,000, will be built at the E. Church St. site, located between the present sanctuary and the parsonage. The Rev. Virgil Turner of Delaware, Ohio, a member of the National Division of Missions of the Methodist Church, will be in Clinton Nov. 4-16 to conduct a fund drive for the building.

Mrs. Feldkamp Visits Colorado

CLINTON — Mrs. Roy Feldkamp accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Loren Burkhardt of rural Manchester to Denver, Colo., last week. Mrs. Feldkamp will visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Smith at Thornton. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt will visit a son in the area and go hunting in the mountains.

Cheery Bonfire Greets Scouts

A cheery bonfire called the Junior Girl Scouts to a songfest at the Scout Cabin Oct. 5.

Mrs. Jack Curtiss had built the fire before the girls arrived. More than 90 voices rang out songs learned from troop meetings, hikes, camp-outs and just plain fun.

Mrs. Rudolph Grua and Mrs. Arthur Baaske were chairmen of the event.

Each girl was given a bright red apple to eat on the way home.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights lived up to their name last Friday, but to no avail, as they fell to league-leading Whiteford 21-7 on the Bobcats' field before 1100 fans.

Whiteford opened its TD arch in the first quarter to produce the first points scored against Boysville's defense this year.

Two plays after Whiteford's kickoff Boysville's Moe Jacobs raced 42 yards for a touchdown, but it was called back because of a penalty.

Whiteford's Bobcats registered on the scoreboard twice more, once on a one-yard run and once on a pass of six yards.

With only seconds remaining in the game, Jacobs hit end Allen Rockwell with a 25-yard touchdown toss for the only Boysville score.

The Knights journey to Sand Creek Friday.

√

They were the only male representatives out of 125 schools. The clinic featured exhibitions of different cheerleading routines.

This year's cheerleaders have added the use of a small trampoline to their performance.

With this addition, plus newly-ordered sweaters, the cheerleaders should be the best equipped and best trained group ever to represent Boysville's athletic teams.

Brother Thomas Friel, C.S.C., is the moderator of the group.

√

Boysville's annual Halloween party is to be sponsored by the Sophomore Class this year. Featured in the party will be a costume contest, with the winning dorm receiving a free party.

√

Preceding the Boysville-Whiteford clash, a pep rally was sponsored by the freshmen. It included a skit which showed optimism for that night's game.

√

A weekend vacation coinciding with the end of the first quarter is scheduled from Oct. 31 to Nov. 1. Check-out is scheduled for 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 31.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

UNIFORM LAYER DRYING helps prevent severe overdrying of the bottom layers of corn while using in-storage drying systems. Set the humidistat down around 35%, or 20% in freezing weather. During the latter stage of the drying, raise the setting to 50% or 65%. This way the overdried corn in the bottom layers will pick up some moisture from the high-moisture air used to dry the top layers. If you do this, remove a few bushels from the bin daily to prevent high pressures and bin splitting.

ELECTRIC WATER TANK HEATERS should be installed now and old units checked for winter service. If you are not certain how to install one or if one appears unsafe, consult a qualified electrician. Most units are 115 volts and require an underground cable below the frostline, or in a conduit if above ground, for protection. Provide a manual shut-off switch and never use extension cords.

SYNCHRONIZED HEAT FOR HOGS. A new synthetic drug, awaiting clearance by the FDA, is included in a sow's ration and allows them to come in heat simultaneously. Thus sows are bred at the same time and in USDA trials they farrowed within a five-day period averaging eight pigs per litter. Once approved the drug can make artificial insemination practical in hog production, allow maximum use of proven boars, plus other advantages.

INSPECT HEN HOUSE LIGHTING. Proper winter lighting can make the difference of five to 25 extra eggs per hen, say Virginia scientists. Hens require at least 1 foot candle of light each. You should have one bulb outlet for each 100 square feet of floor space.

Senior Citizens Host Jackson Group of 98

Members of the Tecumseh Senior Citizens hosted 98 from Jackson Oct. 14, at the Community Center.

A pumpkin filled with fruit centered the speakers table and miniature corn shocks, fall flowers, candles and various shaped colored gourds were used on the other tables.

Ice cream, cake and punch were served by the host group, following sack lunches to 162 attending.

Mayor Harold Easton welcomed the guests on behalf of Tecumseh and complimented the group on their organization and activities.

Beth Moser of Jackson spoke, saying she was extremely pleased with the progress of the Tecumseh group since she had been here at their organizational meeting 18 months ago.

She mentioned that the Jackson group has grown from about the same number of people, 95, to 600, meeting in four different centers, four days each week.

Don Moffatt spoke to the Seniors and made Mrs. Moser an honorary member of the Tecumseh group.

Games were played during the afternoon with prizes of groceries being awarded.

GOOSE BAY, Can. — Airman First Class Gerald O. Chase, son of Mrs. Clyde Cook, 500 S. Occidental Rd., has been selected Outstanding Airman of the month for his unit at Goose AB, Canada.

Airman Chase, a helicopter mechanic, was honored for his exemplary conduct and duty performance. He is a member of the Air Rescue Service which flies combat and peacetime air rescue and aeromedical evacuation missions.

The airman, whose wife, Phyllis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Honeycutt, 734 S. Union St., is a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Airman Chase's father, Oliver Chase, lives at 182 Woodingham Center, Saline.

PTA Will Meet

The P.T.A. meeting will be held at the Tipton School at 7:30 p.m. on October 25. It will be a Halloween Masquerade party.

Don Moffat Attends Athletics Conference

Citizens throughout the world, and especially in the United States and Canada, today face the complex problem of what to do with ever-increasing leisure time.

The answer is not simple, but one thing is certain. Whatever the answer — we should "make no little plans." The latter statement — "Make No Little Plans" — was the theme of the Congress which was sponsored by the National Recreation Association and the American Recreation Society.

In attendance at the Congress was Tecumseh Superintendent of Parks and Recreation, Don Moffatt.

Don indicates that an Institute, held prior to the convention, centering on Creative Problem Solving was "very profitable." He said 115 administrators from 31 States, Canada and Tokyo, spent approximately 18 hours Saturday and Sunday studying the problem.

Sessions at the Congress, attended by more than 2,500 professional and volunteer park and recreation workers, were aimed at enlarging on this theme of looking ahead, of not being afraid to try new ideas and programs, of having more faith and confidence in one's self and one's ability and of aiming for better, more versatile, more encompassing recreation programs for everyone everywhere.

The Congress, held Oct. 3-7 in five different hotels and auditoriums, is the only national meeting concerned with all aspects of recreation. Delegates were on hand from all 50 states, U.S. possessions, Canada and more than a dozen other countries.

Major speakers wso addressed Congress general sessions were Charles "Bud" Wilinson, president, Lifetime Sports Foundation, Washington, D. C., and former University of Oklahoma football coach and athletic director; and Dr. Reuben K. Youngdahl, pastor, Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, who leads 10,000 parishioners, one of the largest congregations in the United States.

Other speakers at workshops and panel discussions included Dr. Maynard C. Reynolds, president-elect, Council for Exceptional Children, National Education Association, and director, department of special education, University of Minnesota; Rev. Warren W. Ost, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., New York; Colonel Robert D. Montondo, chief, Recreation and Educational Division, Department of the Army, Washington, D.C.; and Dr. Max Weisman, Baltimore, Md., psychiatrist.

Mrs. Meyers Speaks To Farm Bureau

Mrs. Alva Meyers, a member of the Lenawee County Woman's Committee of Farm Bureau, spoke at the Lake Ridge Farm Bureau meeting Oct. 11.

She related the magnitude of of all phases of the food tent which the county Farm Bureau groups will operate at the site of the state and national Corn Picking contest.

The tent will be in operation from Tuesday, Oct. 19, through the remainder of the week.

She stressed the need for help by all members since food is to be prepared and served daily.

The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hintz.

Announcement was made that the delegate body attending the convention Oct. 16 voted to raise group dues to $20 as the cash reserves are fast vanishing.

★

Group discussion of current prices of farm products concluded the meeting.

Coffee, sweet cider, doughnuts, cookies and ice cream were served by the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson will host the group for the November meeting.

SPRINGPORT, MICH

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

One thing you can't buy in Tecumseh is a picture post card showing places around town.

There were some in bygone years, but the scenes shown were so out-of-date, a fellow might expect to see ole Musgrove Evans standing proudly on the first dam over the Raisin in Brownville. (That's the A&P bridge to the newcomer.)

Well, maybe not that ancient — but almost.

Which brings us to the subject at hand.

For several years now, people have been asking The Herald why it didn't get on the ball and begin producing modern post cards for Tecumseh.

The only excuse we can muster is constant procrastination.

But those days of excuses are rapidly drawing to a close, we're hoping.

One day soon, there should be a supply of up-to-date Tecumseh scenes, with colors of autumn hues, available for all area shops who'll wish to put them on sale.

The project officially got underway Monday afternoon when about 25 spots in Tecumseh were photographed. The sun was bright and there were still a few leaves left.

"Too bad you didn't get going earlier while the trees were just turning," a critic at the elbow chirped.

There also was a thought, "Too bad the camera, replete with color film, wasn't out last summer." But this was left unspoken.

A job of this sort has to start sometime and this week happened to be inspirational and apparently it takes inspiration to get moving when the effort has to do with post cards.

★

NOW, OFF to another subject. The Herald's second annual Workshop for Publicity Chairmen will be held Friday in the Community Center at 9:15 a.m.

Already signed up are about 20 persons who have the responsibility in their organizations to get reports into the paper. We'd enjoy having twice or three times that many at our gathering.

It's all free — in fact, The Herald furnishes coffee. And if some of the publicity chairmen would like to bring along a little pastry, no one will object.

The workshop has a simple objective: A-1 preparation of news stories from clubs, churches, 4-H groups et al.

To feature serious and funny segments, the 60-minute session will show how this can be done.

Some folks don't realize that The Herald wants and is anxious to get reports — both large and small — from every group in our circulation area.

At the same time, we'd like to keep at a minimum the job of editing copy submitted to us — and thus, make everyone happy.

So, if you are a publicity chairman or plan to be one, come to Friday morning's workshop.

Postal Dedication Will Be Saturday

Donald L. Swanson of Chicago, regional Post Office Dept. director, will deliver an address Saturday when the new Tecumseh Post Office is dedicated at 3 p.m.

A concert by the Tecumseh High School band, under the baton of Don Johnson, will open the program.

Prior to presenting the flag to Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf, Congressman Weston Vivian will offer a few remarks.

The master of ceremonies for the event is the Rev. B. O. Bashore.

Mr. Swanson is a native of Detroit and a graduate of Wayne State University.

He has a Master's Degree in educational administration and his background includes teaching in Detroit, being secretary-manager of the Michigan State Fair and service as mayor of Southfield from 1955 to 1961.

The new building here, constructed by Swartz and Yellin of Mount Clemens, doubles the space of the old post office.

In addition, lighting and ease of handling are much improved in the new structure.

According to postmaster Jack Metcalf, the local office handled $164,000 in mail last year.

Don't Burn Those Leaves in Gutters

Residents are reminded not to burn leaves along the gutters by City Manager Cal Zorn.

City crews are currently collecting leaves and will continue to do so until Thanksgiving.

A handy suction rig, designed by city crews, can pick up huge piles of leaves in quick order.

In addition, trucks are being used and they'll also remove any junk that householders wish to place on the edge of their lawns next to the curb, states Mr. Zorn.

To burn leaves, permits must be obtained from city hall first and then areas in the yard and the gutters should not be used, cautions Mr. Zorn. When leaf ashes are left in the street and the suction rig runs along, billows of smoke and dust result.

Tipton Women Present $600 To Church

TIPTON — The Women's Fellowship met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Luce. It gave $600 to the church board toward the decorating of the sanctuary. It was announced that $513 was cleared at the recent church affair.

Mrs. Merrick Dibble led the devotions for the evening using the theme of "Fall Color Tours." The hostess served refreshments.

Forty-five attended the appreciation dinner for Lawrence Dible Sunday at Tipton Community Church. Mr. Dible has retired after serving over 40 years on the Church board. An original poem was written and read by Glenn Kemp stating many of the deeds done by Mr. Dibble for the church. Ray Jackson, chairman of the board presented Mr. Dibble with a gold pen and pencil from the church.

Fund Thermometer Mercury Shoots Up

Mercury in the downtown United Fund Drive thermometer is rising rapidly.

As of mid-week, it had passed the half-way mark, which mean nearly $25,000 already given and pledged in the 1965 campaign.

Industry donations have been a major factor so far, as residential and business soliciting is continued.

Tecumseh Products Co. employees have already pledged $10,601.55 to the Tecumseh Fund, while also earmarking another $5,749.40 to other funds.

The Products' campaign will be continued with 500 persons called back this week and next given an opportunity to make donations.

At Fisher Body, $9,795.60 was given to the Tecumseh Fund as the firm and its employees made a total gift of $34,641.

The Lenawee County United Fund receives $20,626.60 from Fisher folks with ther funds getting $4,219.20.

Youngsters Get $586 for UNICEF

Mrs. Carrol Sprague and Mrs. Fred Feight, co-chairmen for the UNICEF drive, expressed appreciation to the 200 children and 49 drivers participating.

"Nice work, kids," said the chairman, "Your spirit, enthusiasm and hard work produced $586.85 for UNICEF this year."

Churches participating in the drive were Grace Lutheran, Gloria Dei Lutheran, St. Peter's Episcopal, First Presbyterian, St. Elizabeth Catholic, First Baptist and Methodist.

Local Inquirers Extension Club Sew Lap Blankets

Members of the Tecumseh Inquirers Extension Club sewed lap blankets for patients at Maple Lane Manor at the meeting Oct. 19 in the home of Mrs. Clifford Knudson.

During the business session, Mrs. Carl Hale was appointed to purchase Christmas gifts for two of the Maple Lane residents. Members also voted to give a donation to CROP.

Mrs. Knudson and Mrs. Roy Beasley gave the lesson, "Then The Family Decides to Travel."

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Norman Bailey served refreshments.

HARVEST of VALUES

People You Know, Trust

"Isn't it nice to be among people you know and trust."

This might well sum up the feeling of Tecumseh area people who find shopping at home is much better than facing the hustle and bustle — and often the "don't care" attitude — of big city stores.

Recognition, fellowship and trust are basic needs. These attributes are found in Tecumseh.

People can shop here with confidence, with friends and neighbors to help you find exactly what you need at the price you want to pay.

What does Tecumseh have to offer? Well, here are some things:

► Haberdashers, ladies' ready-to-wear and children's shops to dress anybody for any occasion.

► Experienced cosmotologists and expert hair stylists to care for the well-groomed woman.

► Professional florists to assist you with your floral arrangements.

► Skilled physicians and surgeons, a fine hospital, well stocked pharmacies to safeguard and maintain your health.

► Supermarket and neighborhood grocery stores stocked with foods that will satisfy any gourmet — and fit any budget.

Pythians Honor Three 50-Year Member Knights

A family night supper for members of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters honoring three 50 year members will be held Friday night, October 29 at 6:30 p.m. in the K. of P. Hall.

Members are to bring a dish of food to pass, buttered rolls or sandwiches and table service.

The honored members are Mrs. Earl Luce and Mr. and Mrs Glenn Kemp.

Youth, 13, Killed When Car Hits Bike

Steven Lynn Baughey, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baughey of Adrian was killed Monday evening when the bicycle he was riding was struck by a car one-half mile west of Billington's Corners on M-50.

The car, driven by Ralph E. Ruesink, 34, Tipton, was traveling west on M-50.

Mr. Ruesink indicated to State Police that his vision was partially obscured by oncoming lights and that he didn't see the bike, which had no lights as the youth rode on the highway.

Mr. Ruesink was issued a summons for driving with an expired operator's license, but State Police indicate that no further charges would be filed against him.

The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Braun Funeral Home, the Rev. James Franz officiating.

Strikes Deer on 52 Near 12

Richard J. Hillard, 41, of rural Adrian was driving a Michigan Producers Dairy Co. truck at 2:30 a.m. Saturday when it struck and killed a doe deer.

The mishap occurred on M-52 just south of US-12 when the deer ran in front of the truck.

Agencies Hop When Needed

By RUTH RENTSCHLER

A time when people needed people was last Palm Sunday when the tornado damage was so great.

No one can deny the fact that the Salvation Army and the American Red Cross were on the job. Both organizations proved their worth in more ways than one.

Surely we will want to include them in our package of services for our community during the current drive for funds. We cannot afford to be without these specialized services.

★

THE BAND FESTIVAL and the community parties for the children at Halloween and Christmas time are only a small part of the recreational program provided by our city.

The admission fees to the Festival go to the schools participating on a pro-rated basis according to the number of tickets that their school sells. The promotional costs are our responsibility.

As our city grows so will the Parks and Recreation Dept. and its needs. Our nation is well aware that more recreational facilities are a "must" in this time of stress and strain and population growth, according to Dr. William Menninger, the great psychiatrist and authority on mental health.

★

THESE ARE only three of the 12 agencies whose budgets have been reviewed and studied by the Trustees of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

The Trustees feel that the allotments are fair and just to all. The Board has adopted a goal of $45,302 and is hopeful that it will be raised.

Giving the United Way is not only smart, but saves the individual time and money.

'Trick or Treat' To Be Saturday

Saturday will be "Trick or Treat" night in Tecumseh.

Residents are asked to leave their porch lights on for the little folk. Motorists are reminded to be especially alert for children crossing streets from sunset on.

The annual Halloween costume contest will be held at the Community Center from 1:30 to 3 p.m. Saturday with four prizes each awarded in three divisions.

Wearers of the dressiest, spookiest, most original and funniest costume will receive prizes in pre-school, kindergarten through second, third and up.

Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Dept. will also sponsor Halloween Dances for:

► Junior High age at the Junior High School, 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

► High School age at the Community Center, 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Watershed Plan Given New Life

Brand new hope for the River Raisin Watershed Project is on the horizon.

A huddle in Washington last week, in which City Manager Cal Zorn of Tecumseh took part, has opened up new hopes.

Mr. Zorn was attending the Second Congressional District Development Conference set up by Representative Wes Vivian.

The Raisin Watershed wasn't on the program, but when Mr. Zorn and Adrian's Don Mitchell and Ed Skala, learned that officials at the Department of the Interior would have interest in the project, they quickly arranged a special gathering.

The trio learned that the Raisin plan would probably be eligible for Federal funds under a new recreation act passed by Congress during the past session and to be administered by Interior officials.

In previous attempts to finance a percentage of costs for a Raisin restoration program with government money, local groups have been turned down because the plans did not quite qualify.

★

ALWAYS BEFORE the emphasis had to be placed in the areas of flood control and land erosion.

Now, the three Lenawee County men were told, the attention goes to creation of more recreational facilities. This fits the Raisin idea like a glove.

Describes Uses

The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. in the youth house of the First Baptist Church.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

The gardener at the Britton Police Station will find cultivating in front of the station easier next spring due to efforts of several persons on the Jaycee Treasure hunt Saturday night. They deduced (wrongly) that something was hidden in the flower bed and began digging. (All divots were replaced.)

Tecumseh Police investigated a suspicious looking car parked behind the scout cabin Saturday night only to find that it was a carload of Jaycee treasure hunters trying to decipher a lengthy clue.

Chalk up another "A" for Wes Vivian, the Democratic congressman representing us. His recent two-day conference in Washington attracted 50 community and business leaders, who heard top government officials discuss legislation as it applies to 2nd District communities.

Senator Gilber E. Bursley presented a Senate Resolution of tribute to the National Corn Picking Contest, agents and participants, lauding them for undertaking the giant project. The Herald adds its congratulations, too.

Edward Blom of Clinton was injured Thursday, the day after hunting season opened, when he was struck by shotgun pellets fired by an unknown hunter. According to State Police of the Clinton Post the other hunter was apparently unaware of the mishap. Perhaps it was you! Hunt carefully.

Herald classifieds do the trick. Mrs. Clare Handy writes, "I received lots of replies from my ad in the Tecumseh paper as it goes all over and there are a few people interested in geology all over the world." Presently Mrs. Handy is seeking a typist to help her prepare a manuscript for publication as seen in this issue's classified page.

Recent contributions to the Herrick Memorial Hospital Landscaping Fund were made:

In memory of Lyman Curtiss by Mrs. Hugh Hanna.

In memory of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wood by Mr. and Mrs. Carson House Jr.

In memory of Leo Seidel by Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Smith.

Attention parents of youngsters who get lunch money and are allowed to buy their lunches downtown. A young man, probably in either seventh or eighth grade, popped into a drug store. In his hand was a Long John — those custard-filled deals from the bakery — and he purchased a candy bar and chunk of bubble gum. A few minutes later he was seen at a filling station, gulping a bottle of pop to wash down his noon "meal". 'Nuf said?

Over at the Ingham County News, Co-Publisher Dick Brown lamented the "overemphasis of athletics" and called "big time football a campus monster" in his column last week. He noted how much good could have been accomplished if the 70,000 who paid $5 each to see Michigan State stomp Ohio State, had tossed the fin into the community chest pot. In closing, Dick noted, "By the way, I need two tickets to the Michigan State-Notre Dame game in November."

The Touch of the Past sleuth, Maxine Calhoun, notes that the bells began to ring in The Herald office in Oct. 1885 — thanks to Alexander Graham Bell. That's when a telephone was installed. And it hasn't stopped ringing since!

What happens to the blood when you donate it to the Red Cross? Here are some of the uses — always for free — with residents of the county eligible when they might be in need:

1. Whole blood.
2. Plasma — shock, burns, etc.
3. Serum Albumin — for shock, burns, kidney and liver diseases.
4. Fibrinogen — for control of massive hemorrhage.
5. Gamma Globulin — to prevent measles and hepatitis.
6. Antihemophilic Globulin — to help bleeders.
7. Resuspended Cells — for chronic anemias.

Fisher Body is going to have an open house at the Tecumseh plant this fall, giving everyone an opportunity to tour the beautiful new industry.

ZORN

Monroe would probably see creation of a dozen lakes similar to Le Ann and Columbia, with water sports facilities, camping and parks the result.

Mr. Zorn reports that if the Raisin project got acceptance under the new arrangement, the government would turn loose the Corps of Engineer to survey and build, then pay 100% of costs.

In turn, the local commission in charge of the areas would repay 50% of the money from park fees over a 40 to 50 year period.

No cost has ever been estimated for the complete river restoration but speculation has run it into the hundreds of thousands and maybe millions.

Even close to home, Mr. Zorn hopes for local funds to help on the Pit improvement work through the Michigan Conservation Dept., which can get Federal funds. This would be on a 50/50 participation basis.

The city manager will be in East Lansing Thursday to check this out.

★

IN THE Washington conference, many subjects were covered by participants, who were brought together by Congressman Vivian.

Very few of the topics, Mr. Zorn notes Tecumseh is already cooperating. One has to do with the wastewater treatment plant expansion, which will cost in the neighborhood of half-a-million dollars.

Government participation would touch 30% and final word on this is coming this week.

Community planning was another base touched at the conference and Mr. Zorn reports Tecumseh has application under this act to gain two-thirds of the estimated $39,000 needed to guide the city's future.

The city manager praised organization of Congressman Vivian's program, to which officials and civic leaders from all governmental agencies in the entire 2nd District were invited.

Dr. James Kimbrough George Edson), family physician and friend, assures Kate's father, Harry (Guil Rothfuss) that unlike Charlie, he is in perfect health. Dr. Kimbrough has another bit of information that will interest Harry. "Never Too Late" will be presented at the Community Center Nov. 4-6 and on Nov. 10, 11 and 13 at 8 p.m.

'Power Of Women' Monday Club Theme

"A Peek into the Future," as related to the "power of women" was the theme of the talk by Mrs. Frances Snow, County Extension Agent, at the Tecumseh Monday Club this week.

Mrs. Snow cautioned the women that she was not suggesting equality with men, nor that women should usurp the husband's place in the home. She merely pointed to the power given women because of modern living conditions and encouraged them to use this position wisely and with understanding.

Women find themselves having to exert more leadership because of the long hours men spend commuting and at work plus the community services that take him from home in the evenings. In days gone by, fathers worked close to home and were able to spend more time with their families.

So it is that women at home with uncommitted time, the children's or family's welfare at stake and the father or husband away from home early till late, finds herself in a "women's world."

Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett was program chairman and Miss Mary McWilliams, president, presided at the meeting held in the Baptist Youth House. A letter from Goodwill Industries asking for assistance for the Gift Shop to be held after Thanksgiving, was read.

Tea was served from a table decorated in a Halloween motif with Mrs. Albert Todd and her committee as hostesses.

Damaged Slightly

George W. Nagel, 17, of 205 Clark St., Clinton, was ticketed by Clinton State Police Sunday afternoon when he made an improper left turn in front of an oncoming car driven by Bruce A. MacDonald, 19, of Salinas, Calif.

The collision occurred on US-12 at Division St. in Clinton.

Sideswipes Auto

Kathleen A. Kilway, 25, of Akron, Ohio, was given a summons by Clinton State Police for driving left of the center of the highway, Saturday night, when her car met another vehicle at the crest of a hill on Ayres Hwy. north of US-12.

Larry Charles Kelley, 19, of 11145 Springville Hwy., Onsted was the driver of the other car which was damaged slightly.

Past Chiefs Meet With 16 Present

The Addie Kemp Past Chiefs Club met on Wednesday night, October 20, at the home of Mrs. Paul Geiger. 16 members were present, including Mrs. Mabel Taylor from Plymouth. The Past Chiefs will fill the chairs at the Pythian meeting on Wednesday, November 10.

After a short business meeting Pedro was played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Richard Vollmer, high; Mrs. Mabel Taylor, low. The gift of the day was won by Mrs. Howard Mattis. The mystery gift was won by Mrs. Clifford Hardy.

Cake, salad and coffee were served in keeping with the Halloween season. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Richard Vollmer.

Hold Dedication

A special dedication service will be held Sunday during the morning worship service at the First Methodist Church for all church school teachers and officers and all members of the official board. This special dedication will serve to remind the congregation of the importance that these persons play in the life of the church.

Accidents Keep Policemen Busy

After a few weeks of comparatively little fender-bending on city streets, Tecumseh police were called upon to investigate 12 mishaps here during the past seven days.

Two accidents involved injuries, but none was serious.

Resume of the accidents:

Oct. 20 — Marie E. Greenstreet, 62, Clinton, stopped on N. Evans St. at Red Mill Dr. as a school bus was making a turn. She was hit from behind by Ruth E. Smith, 50, Jasper. The bus had a turn signal on but no red blinker lights. Mrs. Greenstreet was charged with obstructing traffic.

Oct. 20 — Roland C. Brown, 36, of 722 S. Union, slid on wet leaves on W. Pottawatamie St. into a parked car, owned by Larry and Fred Hartwig. No charge was filed.

★

Oct. 21 — Charles W. Frost, 50, of 1112 Murray Dr., missed the intersection at Adrian St. and Murray Dr. and ran up over a new curb there. He was charged with drunkeness.

Oct. 21 — Luther Turner, 22, of 322 N. Maumee, was cited for failure to have his car under control after running into a parked car owned by Albert J. Clark, 20, of 216 E. Chicago Blvd.

Oct. 22 — Three persons suffered injury in an accident at the intersection of Adrian St. and Murray Dr., when Jean M. Lapham, 39, of 902 Murray Dr., pulled into Adrian St. and into the path of Shirley Simmons, 19, of 402 Adrian St. Mrs. Lapham was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Injured were two Lapham children, Jackie, 11, and Paul, 8, and Maude Creger, 69, in the Clemons car. Both vehicles were towed away by wreckers.

★

Oct. 22 — Fred K. Rykwalder, 22, Detroit, was cited for following too close after a rear-end mishap with Thomas L. Velandra, 19, of 213 W. Logan St.

Oct. 22 — An accident still under investigation occurred on S. Evans St. where an unknown driver backed into a car operated by Ruth Blakely of Onsted. According to the Onsted lady, the other car backed up, damaging the front right fender of the Blakely car, and then drove away, but not before she noted the license number.

Oct. 23 — Clyde E. Brown, 78, Britton and Samuel J. Williams, 65, of 306 E. Chicago Blvd., were involved in a minor scrape in front of Ousterhout Flowers. No charges were filed.

Oct. 23 — Joan C. Roberts, 25, of 216 Bidwell, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after being run into by Patricia M. Blom, 18, Clinton at 707 W. Chicago Blvd.

Debbie Roberts, 7, was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Oct. 23 — Two citations were issued after a mishap on Russell Rd. Walter Lorenz, 503 Russell Rd., was charged with parking his car with left wheels to the curb. His vehicle was hit by Ronald Hill, 21, of 401 Russell Rd., with the youth being charged with reckless driving.

★

Oct. 25 — Adlelaida A. Tocres, 36, of 9201 Macon Rd., was charged with running the red light at Chicago Blvd. and Evans St. She smashed into a car driven by Kathryn M. Woodward, 21, of 5337 Centennial Rd.

Oct. 25 — Steven K. Hunt, 17, of 204 Maple St., was cited for failing to yield the right of way after an accident involving two other cars. He pulled into the path of motorist Aldred W. Deutschman, 41, Onsted. His car was then knocked into an auto operated by Joyce M. Mangus, 21, Tipton. Accident occurred at Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa.

POLICE BLOTTER

Woodrow A. Holcomb, 311 Russell Rd., drunk and disorderly, $50, and three days in jail.

Arrested for illegal left turns at the intersection of Chicago Blvd. and Evans St., and fined $6 each, were:

Harlen D. Yenor, 205 E. Cummins; Ralph E. Tyler, Adrian; William Dusa, Onsted; Edward E. Beavers, Manitou Beach; Michael A. Ehinger, Adrian; Stephen G. Reeves, Macon Hwy.; Thomas M. Smith, Adrian; Floyd L. Duncan, Clinton; Leslie J. Reaume, Dundee; and Karen Penrod, 306 S. Union S.

Halloween means pumpkins, pranks, masquerades, giggles and spooky doings. It means children knocking on strange doors and Mom dropping treats into 40 different bags.

By and large, the kids are having fun in their colorful costumes, especially those tinier spooks. Let's put on our Good Sport badges and help them by turning on the porch light Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Newton are caring for the children of his sister, Arlene Smith, who received a back injury in an auto accident Oct. 16 as she and the youngsters were moving back to Clinton from Denver, Colo. Raellen, 8, and Curtis, 3, are staying in the Newton home while their Mom is hospitalized in South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Hilda Hunter has returned from a three-weeks tour of European countries with Mrs. John Grau and Valeda Welch of Defiance, Ohio and Mrs. James Baker of Adrian.

Mrs. Welch purchased a Volkswagen while they were in Frankfurt, Germany and they drove it through Austria, Switzerland and Lickenstein and then back along the Rhine to Hamburg in Germany, where they shipped the little car back to the States, going by plane to Paris and London.

People in the Red Mill Pond area complain that hunters do not know when the sun rises and sets and also that they do not know where the city limits are. "You fellas, stop scaring those ducks off the pond."

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt and family were in Caledonia over the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Moffatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rucker of Akron, Mich., were in the city Tuesday to visit their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Halsey.

Mr. Rucker has accepted a pastoral position with the Church of Christ in Akron. The Ruckers moved there from Hillsdale in October. CT/3 Gerald Rucker and his family spent 30 days with his parents and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Halsey, before going to Pensacola, Fla., for additional schooling. CT/2 Elmo Rucker recently received a promotion in Taiwan.

Episcopal Church Convention Held

The annual Convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Michigan will be held in Detroit, Friday, Oct. 29, at the Masonic Temple.

Delegates from Tecumseh are J. Paul Ammer and Harry Beland, wardens of St. Peter's Church, and Bruce Corley, clerk of the vestry.

Owen Merrill, Louis Venske and Mrs. Guy Nixon are alternates. Mrs. Arthur Geisenhaver, president of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Southwest Convocation, will attend the Fall ECW convention held at the same time in the auditorium of the Masonic Temple.

Toledo Museum Official Speaks

Charles Gunther, supervisor of art education at the Toledo Museum, will speak on "Motives for Art" at Siena Heights Thursday, Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. in the current Town and Gown lecture series.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cornell entertained guests Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Renwick of Reese and Mrs. William W. Grigg.

Mrs. Guy Woodcox flew here from San Diego, Calif., to visit her niece, Mrs. Ida Woodcox, and friends. Gladys Woodcox was formerly a nurse at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. J. Richard Gates attended the Michigan Conferences of Beauty Counselors held recently at the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing. About 350 counselors heard David L. Gibson, president of Beauty Counselors, Inc., who spoke on new products and Christmas gifts. Mrs. Gates was selected to participate in the Mrs. Beauty Counselor pageant and received a good grooming award.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson and Mrs. D. L. Burleson left Tuesday for Ft. Pierce, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Westgate returned from a trip to Columbia, S.C., where they visited her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bishop of St. Johns were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lonal Bishop and family.

Mrs. Fred Nash has returned home after several days in Burr Oak visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith. Fred Nash and Mr. and Mrs. James Dahlke joined them Oct. 17 at an open house honoring the Smiths on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The two daughters, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Elmer Houghton of Bronson, were the hostesses for the afternoon event held in the social hall of the Methodist Church. Nearly 200 relatives and friends attended the event with 86 members of the family remaining for dinner later in the evening.

Besides their two daughters, the Smiths have nine grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren, all present for the celebration.

Mrs. Harold Pickard was a guest designer Sunday at the fourth annual design school of the West Central Ohio Teleflora Unit held at Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio.

Mrs. Pickard presented 40 different arrangements. She was the guest speaker for Allied Florists meeting at the Hillcrest Hotel in Toledo, Oct. 19.

WINS 1966 PLYMOUTH — Dick DeMeritt of Morenci, golf pro at Tecumseh Country Club, accepts the keys to a 1966 Plymouth Belvedere four-door sedan from Harvey Wilson, owner of Wilson Motor Sales. The car was given as part of a promotion this fall by the local Plymouth dealer, with anyone visiting the showroom eligible to enter his or her name.

OES Installs New Officers

The Tecumseh Chapter 51, OES, held an installation service for their new officers in the Masonic Temple, Saturday evening.

OBITUARIES

● JOHN GLEN BARTON

Services were held Monday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for John G. Barton, 25, of 305 Chippewa St., who was found dead in his garage at his residence Saturday morning.

Coroner Edward Braun said an autopsy showed that Mr. Barton died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Born Oct. 20, 1940 at Stockbridge, John Barton was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barton, 515 W. Pottawatamie.

John Barton and Ann Kempf were married Dec. 26, 1960 at San Diego, Calif.

He was employed by the Ford Motor Co. at Rawsonville.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, John Kevin, Jeffery Alan and James Norman, all at home, his parents and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Glenn of Stockbridge.

Three brothers, Jerry, 802 River Acres Dr., Tom and Glenn at home and a sister, Mrs. Russell Hyatt, 6671 Mill Hwy., also survive.

The Rev. Julian Gresham officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● GLENN J. WEAVER

Services were held in Adrian Wednesday for Glenn J. Weaver, 58, who died Saturday at 4:15 p.m. at the Dairy Delight on Broad St., which he and his wife operated.

Mr. Weaver apparently suffered a heart attack.

He lived in Adrian, moving there from Tecumseh about two years ago.

Born May 30, 1907 at Prattville, he was the son of Lewis and Adelma Weaver.

Mr. Weaver had been employed for 25 years at the Tecumseh Products Co., and before that they lived in Hillsdale County.

Mr. Weaver was married Dec. 24, 1935, to Pauline Hooper in Hudson.

He was a member of the Tecumseh Friends Church and in Adrian attended the Berean Baptist Church.

In addition to his wife he is survived by four sons, Glenn Leonard of Wayne, Lawrence and Paul of Adrian and Joseph Bruce at home; a brother, Royal of Jasper and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Myron Williams officiated and burial was in the Oakwood Cemetery.

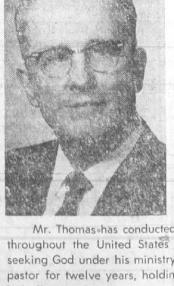
REV. FRED THOMAS
EVANGELIST
Special Music by Local Talent



At the age of 12 Rev. Fred Thomas, of Elkhart, Ind., began his ministry in the field of evangelism. A well-known speaker, he now serves as a full-time revivalist in the Church of the Nazarene, an international denomination with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. Thomas has conducted unusually fruitful campaigns throughout the United States and Canada, with thousands seeking God under his ministry. He was also an outstanding pastor for twelve years, holding charges in various churches in Indiana.

Many have come under Mr. Thomas' ministry at district assemblies, camp meetings, and church colleges. Others have come to know him through his articles in the "Herald of Holiness," official Nazarene publication.

MR. AND MRS. WALLACE RUTHERFORD

Celebrate 30 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rutherford of 801 S. Occidental Hwy. will observe their 30th wedding anniversary with an open house at their home Sunday, Oct. 31.

The couple were married Oct. 26, 1935 in Blissfield.

Mr. Rutherford is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Making the arrangements for the anniversary observance are the couple's three children, Robert Rutherford of Manchester, Mrs. Duane Ahrens of 1005 Willow St. and Joel, at home.

Friends and relatives are invited to call from 2 to 5 p.m., Sunday. It is requested that gifts be omitted.

Bursley Speaks to Club

Senator Bursley was the guest speaker at the meeting Tuesday evening of the Shawnee Republican Women's Club.

Senator Bursley traced a bill through the house and senate especially for four members of the senior government class of Tecumseh High School, who were present.

He also gave charts to the students, Vicki Brees, Pam Williams, Glen Betzoldt and David Wegner, to take back to class with them.

A question and answer discussion period followed the senator's talk. Current legislative and financial problems were discussed.

Senator Bursley was a guest of Hugh Walter at the Rotary dinner meeting preceding the meeting of the Women's Club.

Senator Bursley expects to be at the Madison School for Government Day Nov. 8.

A Halloween Masquerade party followed. Prizes were won by Beverly Hendricks, Bob LaFerriere, David Allen, Darlene Daniels, Roxanna Cook, Pam Jones, Pam Poley, Marsha Bale.

Adult winners were Mrs. Surrett, John Jones.

Mrs. Jack Allen and Mrs. Frank Turlakowski served cider and donuts. Dr. William Hewes of Adrian will be the speaker at the November meeting.

Plan Showing Of Miniature Blood Bank

The Progress Extension Study Group made plans, Monday, to display a miniature blood bank at the Lenawee Exposition.

The Exposition is being arranged by the extension clubs and will be held Dec. three and four in the Methodist Church, Adrian.

The group voted to support the Share-A-Loaf fund.

Mrs. Melvin Purple gave the lesson on "Family Life Relationship."

Mrs. Roland Boyers was the hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Baaske in serving refreshments to the nine members present.

Mrs. Hubert Lavendar will be hostess for the Nov. 22 meeting.

Wilkins Scores 2

ADRIAN — Eric Wilkins scored twice, once on a 70-yard run, as Adrian Catholic Central stopped Ida, 31-0.

Mrs. Mary Hull Is Band Booster Cake Sale Head

CLINTON — Mrs. Mary Hull was named chairman of the annual fruit cake sale by Clinton Band Boosters at the meeting Oct. 18.

Band students will also be selling dishcloths at the school during the parent-teacher conferences on Nov. 8 and 9.

Proceeds from these projects will go into the band uniform fund which is still short of the total sum needed to pay for the uniforms now ordered.

Don Berkley Attends Class

ANN ARBOR — Statewide vocational education field is getting a leadership shot-in-the-arm in a University of Michigan internship project.

Twenty teachers, screened from an original 400 candidates, are learning techniques in the program to prepare teachers of vocational and technical subjects for leadership roles.

Among the 20 is Don Berkley, a Tecumseh Junior High shop instructor.

Schools, industry and governmental agencies are involved in the project that started experimentally last year.

The program provides each participant with custom-tailored in-service experience. The U-M department of vocational education and practical arts has structured the program to involve local school administration approval for released time from teaching duties.

This enables the intern to visit other schools, industry and agencies such as Michigan Employment Security Commission.

★

ALL INTERNS meet at The University of Michigan one Saturday monthly, to discuss their experiences and current developments in vocational and technical education.

The teachers took part in an intensive eight-week summer workshop planned to provide necessary skills and knowledge for leadership roles.

More than 40 consultants from Michigan and other states lectured on topics ranging from philosophy of education and administrative functions to socio-economic theories, curriculum development and supervision and developing human and community resources.

Weekly field trips to colleges, the State of Michigan department of education, Michigan Rehabilitation Institute and similar resources, pinponted the needs for occupational training.

Attends Scouting Meeting

Mrs. Barton Christman, neighborhood chairman of the Tecumseh Girl Scouts, attended the district five meeting of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council Oct. 19, at the home of Mrs. Dennis Castle in Adrian.

Mrs. Carl E. Trowbridge of Manitou Beach, chairman, presided as dates for many council-wide activities were announced.

The dates included a carnival to be given by the Senior Planning Board in January — Product sales and Doo Dads' Days in April as well as many spring camping dates.

Directives were given for a two way laison between leaders in the district and the board.

Neighborhood meetings are scheduled for the seven Lenawee County Girl Scout areas within the next two weeks.

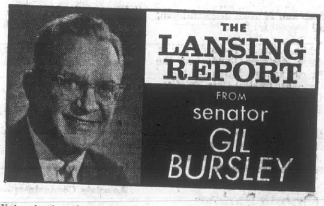
Women Plan Baptist Day of Prayer

Women of the First Baptist Church will have a Baptist Day of Prayer starting at 9:30 a.m., Monday, in the Youth House.

The theme will be "Pray Ye That He Will Send."

Mrs. E. H. McConnell is in charge of the program.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan will be the hostess and chairman for the event.



High school seniors in the 18th Senatorial District wishing to apply for a state scholarship through the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority are reminded that the registration deadline is Oct. 31.

There are nearly 6,000 scholarships available for the 1966-67 academic year but it is unfortunate that so many students who could qualify do not because they are unaware of the scholarships established by the Michigan Legislature.

Students may —

► Mail the registration form and $1.50 fee, with self-addressed envelope by Oct. 31, 1965, as defined in the registration instructions.

► Take the State Competitive Scholarship examination on Saturday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. in the assigned centers.

Necessary details may be obtained by writing:

Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority, 700 Prudden Building,
Lansing, Michigan.

Indian Eleven Mud Smear Airport, 25-0

By JIM LINCOLN

Rain, mud and an error-prone Airport 11 resulted in an easy 25-0 victory for the Tecumseh Indians Friday night.

The win — third in Huron League play — kept Coach Tom Fagan's club within one game of front running Grosse Ile and assured the Indians of at least a second place finish.

If the Indians whip Blissfield here Friday and Milan performs a miracle in upsetting GI, Tecumseh can share the champion ship with the Red Devils.

Rain and mud have a tendency to neutralize two football teams, but Tecumseh simply had too much for the Jets and tallied touchdowns in each quarter.

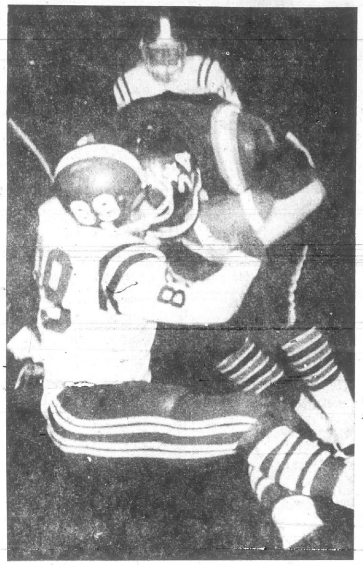
A 40-yard drive in the initial stanza ended with quarterback Ron Rentchler plunging one yard for the TD. Rentschler passing and Dean Hebb catching gave Tecumseh another tally in the second quarter.

Mark Blatchford broke loose in the third period for 18 yards to up the margin to 20-0. Bill Davis, tiny but gutty fullback, scored his first victory touchdown in the fourth stopping over from the one.

Tecumseh made few mistakes in the game, but Airport fumbled the ball away three times. A like number of stray passes were intercepted by the Indians.

The game was reminiscent of another tilt a few years back when Tecumseh ended an undefeated season with a 6-0 victory over Adrian.

In that game, the local field was bathed in water and mud and with several inches of snow on the sidelines. It was colder, too, but after several minutes of play, the players looked alike, just like last Friday night at Airport.



INDIAN, RON RENTSCHLER rammed in for one TD and passed to Dean Hebb for a second as Tecumseh downed Airport 25-0, Friday. The local eleven play an important Huron League game this Friday against Blissfield.

Tecumseh Past Chiefs Meet

Mrs. Verdi Skinner and Mrs. Opal Brady were co-hostesses for the October meeting of the Tecumseh Past Chief's Club held in the Pythian Hall, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Cecile Smith presided at the business meeting with 12 members present. Mrs. Edna Staulter, Toledo, and Mrs. Henry Ehlinger, Monroe, were members attending from out of the city.

Cards were played following the business meeting. Prizes were presented to Mrs. Albert Todd, Mrs. Ehlinger and Mrs. Dora Aten.

Mrs. Aten, who celebrated her 91st birthday anniversary, was presented with a gift from the club.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

92 Heifers, Steers Sold

By DICK CARVER

RIDGEWAY — Ninety-two heifers and steers were auctioned Monday night at the third annual Kitty Kurtis Angus Inc. Club Calf Sale.

Top price of the evening was paid by Joe Lewis of Tipton, who bid $660 for the heifer, Kitty Kurtis Elluna 124 out of MF Elluna and sired by Ankonian Galahad.

Of the 83 steers auctioned, Fred Gall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gall of Saline, paid $410 for his as top dollar offered.

A close second high sale went to Gary Girbach, also of Saline, who paid $400 for his calf.

Average heifer sales ran at $323 per head and the average sale cost on steers was $182.

Mr. Brown announced that any boy entering his calf, purchased at this auction, in County Fair competition and winning a grand champion award will be awarded a $25 savings bond by Kitty Kurtis.

Awarded a bond at the Monday night auction was Richard Geisen of rural Albion.

Cubs Meet Addison 11

St. Elizabeth's football team will face Addison Junior High Thursday at 4:30 p.m. on the Tecumseh High School field.

On Nov. 3, the Cubs close their four-game season at Camden Center.

Royal Win Needed

A chance, though slim, for the Tecumseh Indians to share the Huron League championship hangs in the balance here Friday night when the Indians tangle with county rival Blissfield.

Grosse Ile must lose to hapless Milan for Tecumseh to share the honors. An Indian victory, however, regardless of how GI does, will give Tecumseh undisputed second place in the league.

A loss will result in the local team sharing the position with Blissfield.

The Royals will be tough and have one of the top backs in the league in Dave Gurica. He may not be quite as fast as some of the other back Tecumseh has had to cope with this season, but he'll probably be the fastest man on the field here.

Blissfield also will field the biggest line the Indians have encountered since the Jackson St. John game.

Friday night is Parents' Night. Game time is 7:30.

Sixteen Tecumseh players, including Ron Forsythe, who is out for the season with a knee injury, will be playing their final game on the home field.

Next week, Tecumseh travels to Lutheran West in Detroit and wraps up the season on Nov. 12, at Adrian.

Tories Still Are Looking for 1st Win

Two chances are left to capture their first football win of the year — in fact, over the past 18 games.

There'll be a match at Whiteford Friday, then the season finale at Deerfield Nov. 5.

It was close last week against Summerfield, but a fumble foiled the Tories, who lost 7-0.

Summerfield plopped onto the loose ball at the Britton 40 and then drove for the lone score of the night.

Grads View 'One of Best'

CLINTON — What a Homecoming this one should be. Old grads will be on hand Friday to see the annual parade, cheer the queen and her court.

But most of all, they'll be looking over one of the school's finest football teams, which meets Grass Lake.

Coach Phil Bareis will be sending his Redskins onto the gridiron in quest of their seventh straight victory of the year and No. 16 in a string over two seasons.

His current crew has tallied 160 points so far, while refusing to let their own goalline be crossed.

★

IN DROPPING Brooklyn, 25-0, last week, the Skins again displayed a rock-solid defense and a swingin' offense.

In the scoring department Butch Hoelzer got a pair of touchdowns on runs of seven and one yard.

His second tally was set up with a 70-yard dash by Terry Brooks.

A Dennis Drazic-to-Gene Brown aerial for six yards added another marker.

But one of the most delightful scores of the night — and for the year, too — came when Sam Sparks burst through the Brooklyn line to block Norm VanWagner's punt.

Defensive standouts included Brian Baker and Dennis Sweet.

★

THE VICTORY was Clinton's fourth straight in Lakeland C League play and it looks like another title in the offing.

However, there is the Manchester encounter for Nov. 5 and everything will probably be settled that evening.

The Tecumseh Herald

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1965

DIVERTED FROM MAIN STREAM, the river would normally pass to the left of Mr. Satterthwaite, shown at left, but is diverted partially to his right and into the mill run shown in the next picture.

Raisin Provides Electrical Power

Electricity is the key to transfer of energy. Atomic Energy, the power of the future, is still transferred by means of electrical energy.

At present, however, the most productive source of electrical energy is water power.

Hydroelectric plants on the Colorado River and in the Tennessee Valley are huge sources of energy. These units are capable of producing 500,000 Watt Hours of power.

In Tecumseh, a hydroelectric plant on the 500 Watt Hour level with a total capacity for 375 KVA, supplies power to Consumers Power Electric Co. just as TVA and the Colorado provide for other areas.

Here, the River Raisin is sustained nearly level for about one mile of diverted stream and drops 21 feet at the power plant of Perry Satterthwaite.

Water power energy from the Raisin River has quite a history in Tecumseh. In the late 19th Century paper mills, flour milling, cooperage mills and lumber Industry all centered around the Raisin.

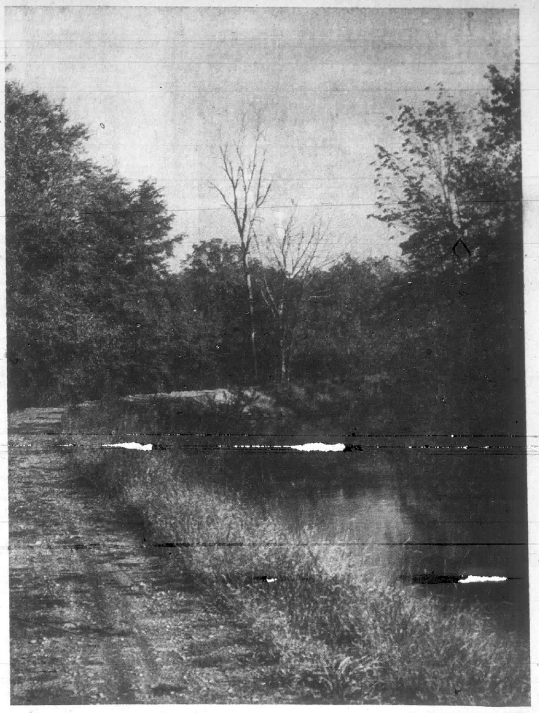
The entire diversion operation includes a large dam just off Burt St. that sends the water down a ¾ mile race retained by an artificial bank and into Globe pond — adjacent to the power plant. A safety dam is situated along the retaining wall to insure proper let-off should high water level threaten.

The actual power operation involves a small generator "tickler" that supplies current to the generator so that the rotating field cuts the artificial field created by the tickler and alternating current at 60 cycles per second is the result. The local plant supplies about 500 watts of AC power to Consumers Power Co.

The drive wheel is halfway submerged into the 21-foot water fall where it takes advantage of the pressure from above and the vacuum created from below and thus full advantage of the 21-foot fall without the apparatus to reach to the base.

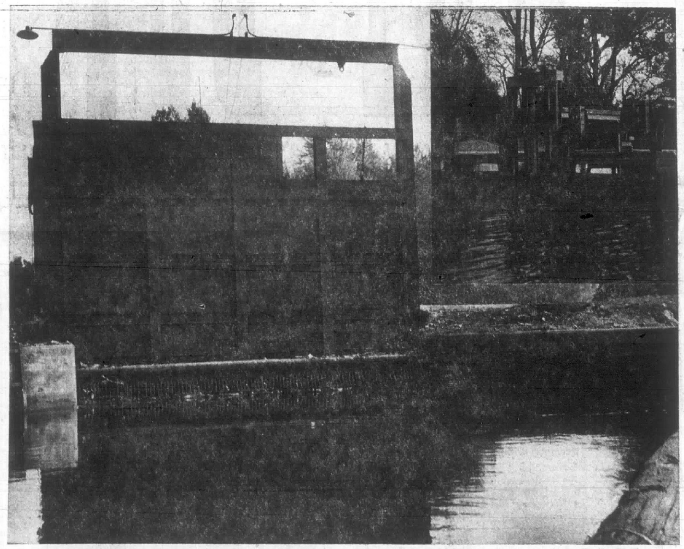
A floatation system and heat safety checks make the plant entirely automatic with just normal maintenance necessary.

The electrical operation was begun in 1920-21 and had been used for operation of the old Hayden Mill. The original contract for sale of the electrical power was with Tecumseh Electric finally now to Consumers Power.



HERALD PHOTO BY DICK CARVER

DIVERTED STREAM is maintained by the wall on the left bank of the stream. The support wall was originally constructed entirely with horse and man power. The stream continues much the same as this for the distance of ¾ of a mile and empties into the pond adjacent to Mr. Satterthwaite's power plant.



THE MASSIVE GATE that controls entry to the water wheel and drive shaft of the electrical generator is shown with the diversion flood gates pictured in the inset (upper right). Visible in the foreground right is part of the 'log boom' that serves to keep materials from passing through the drive wheel.

Cheryl-Allen Exchange Vows

Cheryl Lee Maynard and Allen Lester Ross exchanged marriage vows in a ceremony Oct. 16 in the Missionary Baptist Church.

The Rev. Seal Janeway performed the ceremony attended by their immediate families.

Cheryl is the daughter of Mrs. Calwin Dixon, Jr., of 404 Seneca and Ivan Maynard, Tecumseh.

MRS. ALLEN L. ROSS

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Ruth Hayford.

Cheryl was given in marriage by her stepfather, Calvin Dixon, Jr.

A crown of sequins held her shoulder-length veil.

JoAnn Brown was maid of honor. She wore a gown of light blue brocade with empire styling and long sleeves.

Her headdress was a blue flower encircled with net and she carried a blue and white corsage.

A reception in the Odd Fellows Hall after the ceremony was attended by 300 guests.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School, a graduate of Marienello-Coner Beauty School and is employed at the [illegible] Beauty Salon.

Allen is a 1964 graduate of Britton High School. He is employed at the Hydromatic Plant at Willow Run and attends Henry Ford Community College.

They will reside at 211½ E. Pottawatamie St.

Mrs. Sturtevant won a fruit basket. Robert Hunt is the Emminent Commander of Adrian Commandery.

CHARLENE JARVELA

Charlene Jarvela Is New Organist

Charlene Jarvela is the new organist and choir director at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

A senior scholarship student at Eastern Michigan University, Miss Jervela is a student of organ professor Erich Goldschmidt who played the dedication recital on the Von Beckerath organ of St. Peter's last October.

Before coming to St. Peter's, Miss Jarvela was director of the Junior Choir at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Ypsilanti. She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, international music sorority.

Miss Jarvela plans a recital on the organ of St. Peter's sometime in the late winter and in April will play her senior recital on the Frederick Alexander Memorial organ in Pease Auditorium, Ypsilanti.

Prudential Handles GI Insurance

Prudential has been named the administering company of the new Armed Forces group life insurance program, which automatically provides 2,800,000 servicemen with $10,000 policies.

Representing an aggregate coverage of nearly $28 billion, it is the largest group case in the history of the insurance industry, according to Robert Booze, 822 Outer Dr., a Prudential agent.

Details of the new GI insurance include:

► Under legislation of Sept. 29, all present and future active duty service personnel are automatically covered for $10,000.

► Cost to servicemen has been tentatively set at $2 a month, to be deducted from their pay checks.

► The individual serviceman can elect to either take only $5,000 of coverage or withdraw from the program. However, in either case he must apply to do so.

► Upon discharge, servicemen would continue to be covered in full for 120 days without payment of premiums.

► During the 120-day period they have the right, regardless of physical condition, to convert their group to an individual policy.

► Extra-hazard costs of war deaths will be paid by the Government. (The Government will pay the difference between the normal rate of mortality among civilians and what may prove to be a higher rate among the servicemen.)

350 Girl Scouts See Round-Up

A theater party arranged by Tecumseh Girl Scouts was attended, last Tuesday afternoon, by 350 Girl Scouts. The Clinton Girl Scouts and leaders were guests.

Movies were shown by Caroline Purple on her trip as a delegate to the Senior Round-up at Farragut, Idaho last summer.

Mrs. John Hoelzer of Clinton also presented her slides taken while accompanying an Indiana Girl Scout trip to Mexico City and to the Girl Scout Cabana in Ceurnavaca, Mexico.

At the meeting, last Thursday, of the Neighborhood Association, calendars were distributed to be sold between Nov. 1 and Nov. 27. Proceeds are used to maintain Camp of the Hills.

A troop house is being built and fathers are needed to assist with the building.

All troops will plant bulbs at the cabin site at Elliot Park, Friday and Saturday.

The scouts will make table centerpieces or tray favors each month for the Herrick Nursing Home. The Herrick Park Juniors will begin by making the favors in October, under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. Robert Leathers, Mrs. Bill MacBeth.

Five new members were introduced: Mrs. Paul Henning, Mrs. Robert Leathers, Mrs. Barbara Retan, Mrs. Joan Roberts and Mrs. Richard Egli.

Sunday Lesson

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth".

The Lesson-Sermon in Christian Science churches this Sunday points out some of the ways this statement comes true in the lives of people today.

The topic is "Everlasting Punishment".

Drivers Must Now Have Insurance or Pay $35 Fee

Michigan motorists must show proof of public liability and property damage insurance or pay the state an added $35 to obtain 1966 automobile license plates which go on sale Monday.

"Motorists with proof of PLPD insurance must pay $1 under the new Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act," says Jerry E. Fishigan, Automobile Club of Michigan's touring manager.

Auto Club outlines three steps for car owners to follow when purchasing 1966 plates:

► Bring current car registration or title.

► Have enough money or a money order to cover the cost of plates.

► Show proof of PLPD insurance and pay an additional $1 fee. Or, pay $35 into the uninsured fund.

Either a certificate of insurance furnished by most insurance companies, an insurance policy which shows an expiration date and coverage or a written statement from the insurance Company containing the same information as the certificate are valid proof of insurance.

"Other methods of verification — such as a telephone call to or from an insurance company — cannot be accepted as proof of insurance by any agency issuing 1966 plates."

Only Fuel Oil Provides All Basic Needs For Survival

An oil heating system in your home not only provides clean, efficient, low-cost heat, but it also provides an emergency source of power... in the event of an enemy attack.

A small oil burning generator that operates on this safe, universally available fuel can provide all the basic needs for a home shelter; light, heat, hot plate, sump pump, sanitary facilities and blower system. You would have no reason to rely on outside utilities, which would probably be damaged by enemy attack.

Oil is the only usable fuel that can be safely stored inside your home or shelter. It will not ignite until atomized. Hence, there can be no explosions... no toxic or dangerous fumes should your fuel line be fractured.

See your Fleet-Wing fuel oil distributor today. Get all the facts on the safe, clean, low-cost way to heat your home with "Fleet-Heat" fuel oil... and be prepared, too, for emergency power... if it ever be needed.

Clinton Post Office Dedication Planned

CLINTON — The dedication ceremony for the new Clinton post office will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30.

The program will open with musical selections by the high school band directed by Karl Wirt.

Robert E. Mohr, Postmaster, will introduce the master of ceremonies, Lester Proctor, who will introduce the guests.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Donald Hesacock.

Welcome will be given by Village President, John Truesdale.

Donald L. Swanson, Regional Director, will give the dedication address.

The presentation of flags will be made by Congressman Weston E. Vivian, Second Congressional district. Acceptance of flags by Robert E. Mohr.

Flag raising by Frederick E. Pieper post, American Legion. The "National" anthem will be presented by school band and the benediction by the Rev. Fr. Edward Kalinowski.

During the open house which follows the ceremony, everyone will be invited to inspect the new building. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shelley visited Sunday with their former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bodell at their home in Erie.

Homecoming Being Planned For Clinton

CLINTON—The annual Homecoming at Clinton Community Schools will be held, Friday, Oct. 29.

The event at the athletic field will be preceded by a parade of the class floats, the homecoming queen candidates and the Clinton High School marching band.

The parade will be followed at 7:30 p.m. by the football game between Grass Lake and the Clinton Redskins.

Half-time activities will be climaxed by the Queen crowning, selected by the entire student body from three senior candidates, Dee Dee Carleton, Gerry Eddy and Sandra Winchell.

The game is followed by a homecoming dance, at the school, to honor the queen and her court.

The queen's court consists of a representative from each of the other classes:

Jeanie Meeks — Seventh grade
Jan Shelley — Eighth grade
Sally Beck — Ninth grade
Janelle Berlin — Tenth grade
Pat Walker — Eleventh grade

Golden Rod OES Installs Officers

CLINTON — Worthy Matron, Mrs. Delbert Tallman and her fellow officers were installed at a special ceremony, Saturday evening, by the Golden Rod Chapter OES.

Officiating at the service in the Masonic Hall were Mrs. Lillian Perkio of Aneme Chapter 503 of Pontiac, the installing officer; Mrs. Pearl Youatt of Composite Chapter, Detroit; marshall; and local chapter members, Mrs. John oHelzer, chaplain; Mrs. Byrdella Hull, secretary; Mrs. Delmar Manchester, organist and Mrs. John Gilman, soloist.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lavere Blackmer of Milan, and Mrs. Fern Morse of Fairfield.

Mrs. Tallman presented to her installing officers, life-size ceramic praying hands, which symbolize her theme for the year. Her motto is "Prayer and Devotion."

The retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Homer Larrabee, was welcomed into the Past Matron's Club by Mrs. Byrdella Hull. She was presented with a bouquet of roses by the Past Matrons.

The date for the candidate initiation has been changed from Nov. 6 to Nov. 13.

Patty Aebersold Is Member of the Year

CLINTON — Patty Aebersold was named "Member of the Year" at the annual achievement meeting of the Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Adams, the assistant leader, made the presentation of the award, which is based on a point system, at the meeting which was held in her home in Deerfield.

James Creger and Barbara Vincent placed second and third respectively in the honor.

Danny Dewey acted as master of ceremonies for the program attended by 50 persons, including members and parents, and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Adrian. Mrs. Taylor is the county 4-H agent.

The welcome was given by Mary Anne Woodward. Jane Woodward and John Vincent gave the flag ceremony.

Mrs. James Woodward presented the awards for most improvement during the past year to Barbara Vincent and Kathy Munger. Kenneth Munger presented the perfect attendance certificates to 14 members.

It was announced that Cheryl Aebersold had received the Key Club award at the recent Junior Leadership banquet in Adrian, on Oct. 12. This is the highest award presented to 4-H members for their general achievements by the state and usually goes to a college student. Cheryl is a senior at Tecumseh High School.

Club leaders, Mrs. Claude Creger and Mrs. Thomas presented the county certificates, fair premium money and year pins to the members.

The club members presented a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor who were married recently.

Cheryl Aebersold and Carol Davenport presented colorful slides of their trip to Washington for the national 4-H conference.

Danny Dewey entertained the members with his films of the club tour this summer and also of tours in past years.

The date for the November meeting, is two weeks later than usual, Nov. 15. Bruce Cramer will be the host. All new members are to attend.

Edward Blom Shot In Face While Hunting

CLINTON — Edward Blom, 41, of 107 Clinton-Macon Rd., received flesh wounds in the face and chest when he was struck by pellets from the shotgun of an unknown hunter last Thursday morning, at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. Blom told Clinton State Police he was hunting along the edge of a cornfield on Clinton-Macon Rd. near Murphy Hwy. when he was struck. He did not know who was in the field and apparently the other hunter was unaware of the mishap. Mr. Blom was treated by a local physician.

Clinton C of C Halloween Party

CLINTON — The annual Halloween party, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, for the children of the Clinton area will be held at the Community Center, Saturday afternoon Oct. 30.

The festivities have been planned to follow the new post office dedication with the children's costume judging scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Cider and donuts will be served to the children.

The committee in charge of the arrangements includes Lester Proctor and Mrs. Merle Hunt.

John Truesdale, who was also on the committee, remains a patient in Herrick Memorial Hospital, and has been unable to have his theater open for the Halloween event, as planned.

Introducing the tuned car.
1966 Buick.

There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

Marsh Family Indicates No Ill Effects

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh will be relieved to know that the former Tecumseh physician and his wife suffered no ill effects from earthquakes in Colorado.

The Herald had a recent letter from Marjorie along with an extensive story from a publication called the Daily Cameras FOCUS.

Her letter reads,

Hello from Colorado. Thought you might like to read the article about our earthquakes. I know a number of our friends have worried about us but we didn't know anything about the quakes until we read about it in the Daily Camera.

We usually receive our Herald on Monday's but once in a while, we are lucky and receive it on Saturday.

Best regards to all.

Marjorie E. Marsh.

Anyone who would like to read the article may do so at the Herald office.

50 Attendance At Colony

Approximately 50 young people spent a pleasant afternoon at the Colony Meeting held at Tipton Church on Sunday, October 17. The churches represented were Addison, Clinton, West Adrian, Hudson, Morenci and Tipton.

Recreation was held by the Morenci Church and worship was given by Clinton. A ham supper was served by Mrs. Jack Allen, Mrs. Wallace Wilkin, Mrs. Arthur Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Deah Cook, Mrs. Richard Platt and Mrs. Don Daniels.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Paul Dunham from Clinton whose topic was "You're A 20th Century Christian, So What?" He is presently employed as a gym teacher at Junior High in Adrian.

Fund Tops $1,000

BRITTON — The Britton Community Fund Board met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack Monday evening for a final report on this year's fund drive. Treasurer, Mrs. Niblack, reported that $1,031 in cash has been received so far, with additional money from pledges at various out-of-town places of employment expected to come in and put the drive over the top.

"We fully expect the fund drive to reach it's goal of $1,700," stated Mrs. Niblack.

Officers of the Community Fund Board are: President, Earl Griffen; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Rowlands; secretary, Mrs. John Beal; and treasurer, Mrs. Stewart Niblack. Other board members are Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland, Mrs. Ronald Maschino, Mrs. Harold Osterhout, Rev. Gustav Hennevik and Delmar Dunham.

The board expressed a note of appreciation for the work of over 30 canvassers who collected in the drive, and also to the personnel at Betty's Restaurant for hosting the group the night of the kick-off.

Cooks Welcome Twin Daughters

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook are happy to announce the birth of twin daughters, Dawn Marie and Donna Sue. The girls, who weighed four pounds and five pounds and four ounces, arrived Friday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Keran and Mr. and Mrs. David Cook, all of Britton. This is the second set of twin grandchildren this year for Mr. and Mrs. Cook, as their daughter, Mrs. Don Benham of Dundee, gave birth to twin sons last summer.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and children of Ridge Highway. The dinner was in celebration of the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown.

Judy Rohrback was home from Bowling Green University for a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback.

PTA Fun Night Nets $936

BRITTON — Co-chairmen Jim Shiels and Tom Judkins reported the Britton-Macon PTA Fun Night of Oct. 2 was a huge success, showing a final net profit of 936.99. The Ways and Means Committee wish to extend a big "Thank You" to all who helped to make it such a prosperous evening. 'It is very gratifying to work with such a large number of willing [illegible] a project of this size," reported members of the committee.

The PTA executive board will meet Thursday evening at the school to discuss how the money is to be spent. Further reports will be given at the next PTA meeting.

Pick Up Yearbook

BRITTON — Joan Check, editor of the 1965 Brittonian, has requested that those people who ordered the year book and have not yet picked them up, will please do so. There are quite a number of the yearbooks which were ordered and paid for, and are gathering dust, sitting around waiting to be claimed. They are available at the school office.

Senior High MYF Sponsors Rally, Food Collection

RIDGEWAY — The Senior MYF of the Grace Methodist Church arranged a display around the altar Sunday morning of the canned goods and produce brought by the congregation in offering for the Chelsea Methodist Home.

"We plow the fields, and scatter the good seed on the land, But it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand," were the words from the harvest hymn used in the ceremony.

The food will be taken to Adrian Saturday for the Lenawee Sub-district MYF Rally at the First Methodist Church. All of the offerings from the Lenawee churches will be taken to Chelsea together later.

The senior youth from the Grace Methodist Church are to meet at 6 p.m. at the church to go to the rally.

The Senior MYF is sponsoring a potluck Fellowship dinner for the congregation immediately after the worship service next, Sunday, Oct. 31. Meat and potatoes will be furnished by the MYF. Others attending will please bring a dish to pass.

Fellowship Will Buy Equipment

BRITTON — The Youth Fellowship of the Congregational-Christian Church met Sunday evening at the church, and it was decided to secure more shuffleboard and table tennis equipment. President Doug Fairbanks conducted the meeting. Also, arrangements are to be made for the group to attend the cinerama production "The Greatest Story Ever Told" in Toledo soon.

After group singing, Jack Brown and Dave Reeck presented the program on the history of the Reformation as it relates to Congregationalism. The young people played games, and refreshments were served by the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks.

For the next meeting on Nov. 7, the young people are to read the book of John.

Band Boosters Discuss Project

BRITTON — The current money-raising project, give-away of a 30-06 Remington Pump Deer Rifle and two pint-transistor radios, was the main topic of discussion at the Band Boosters meeting last Tuesday evening.

The Band Boosters are working to raise money for new uniforms for the band.

The tickets are 25c each, or 5 for $1, and are available from band and Band Boosters members. The drawing will be at 8 p.m. in the school gym, after the UNICEF Halloween party, Saturday night. The prizes are on display in Gripton's window.

Also discussed was the next club project, which will be selling cans of Kathryn Beich candy.

Musical selections were played by a trio composed of Becky Maschino, Tammy Tucker and Linda Seagert. Lunch was served by the committee.

Ivans Host Trophy Club Barn Party

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ivan were hosts to the Animal Trophy Shooters Club Saturday evening at a barn party, when they entertained 90 deer hunters, their wives and friends to open the hunting season.

Mooseburgers, venisonburgers and hot dogs were served, and the large group also enjoyed singing and dancing.

Several of the club members brought trophies to display, including Mel Simecek, big game hunter of Detroit, who displayed deer, moose and antelope racks, and a special trophy of a "jackalope."

Cafeteria Gets Added Gear

BRITTON — An enlarged cafeteria kitchen and sorely needed new equipment is planned for the Britton-Macon Area Schools in the near future, reported Supt. William Saxton recently.

Steger and Showel Co. of Toledo was the successful bidder for the new cafeteria kitchen equipment and installations, he reported. This will include new serving counter, new ovens, stainless steel sinks, new dishwashers and perparation tables.

The total cost of new equipment will be approximately $10,000.

This will at least triple the present kitchen working area. Space will be taken from the south end of the dining room. The new kitchen will extend along the full length of the southern end of the room.

Additional dining space will be taken from the present study hall.

It is hoped that the work will be done during Christmas vacation.

Campfire Girls Host Mothers

BRITTON — The school study hall was the scene of much bustling activity Tuesday afternoon when the Bluebird and Campfire girls entertained their mothers, leaders and sponsors at the annual Campfire Girl-Mothers Tea.

Over 200 were present as Mrs. Harold Osterhout, president of the local Leaders and Sponsors Council, introduced the leaders of each group. There are over 90 girls enrolled in the program this year. Each mother received a beautiful fall corsage of straw-flowers and wheat.

The girls in Mrs. Russel Pilbeam's eighth grade group entertained the group with humorous skits. Linda Seagert played the piano for group singing.

Mrs. Osterhout presented seven-year charms to Shelly Saxton, Dianne Downing, Stephanie McMahon, Nancy Downing, Gwen Tingley, Sherry Squires, Karen Ivan, Dianne Ivan and Joan Check. Lois Auten received a five-year award.

Mrs. Osterhout received five and 10 year pins in recogniton of her 15 years of service to Campfire girls.

The Horizon Club for senior girls has seven members who will graduate this year. Their leaderys, Mrs. Anthony Ivan and Mrs. Martin Ivan, have been with the girls since they started as Bluebirds in the second grade.

Refreshments of tea, kool-aid, cookies, nuts and mints were served to the group to close the program.

Announces Schedule For UNICEF

BRITTON — Mrs. Herbert McMahon, chairman of the PTA Halloween UNICEF party, has announced the schedule for the Halloween events Saturday night.

The town siren will blow at 6 p.m., and the children will have one hour to collect for UNICEF, using the canisters which they will receive at school. The siren will blow again at 7 p.m., signaling the end of the collection. As the children return to school to turn in the canisters, the parade will form, shortly after 7 p.m.

This year, all paraders will be tagged and prize winners will be picked by drawing instead of judging. Prizes will be awarded in the gym, following the parade. Cider and doughnuts will be served.

The Band Boosters drawing for the deer rifle and radios will be held at 8 p.m. in the gym, or shortly after, whenever the UNICEF activities are completed.

Ladies Meet For Potluck

BRITTON — Nineteen ladies of the Doreass Class of the Congregational Christian Church, many of whom are over 80 years of age, met at the Fellowship Center last Thursday noon for a potluck dinner.

Mrs. Earl Taylor gave the program and devotions. The Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik presented a vocal selection.

At the business meeting, it was reported that the ladies have paid their pledge $175 to the church treasury.

Say You Saw It in The Herald

NEWS from Boysville

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Playing on a soggy turf was not enough, Boysville Fighting Knights — further dampened the spirits of Sand Creek's Aggies, edging them 6-0 in the final quarter.

Boysville's major scoring threat, the combined power of running backs Jacobs, Fawbus and Chalmers, failed to score, but gained 185 yards rushing.

Sand Creek's Aggies relied mostly on a passing attack from the single wing formation. Taking to the air 18 times, the Aggies completed four, for 72 yards, and had four intercepted. Boysville's Norris McFarland completed six out of 14 for 68 yards.

The final minute of the fourth quarter saw McFarland complete a pass to fullback Don Chalmers in the flats. Chalmers racer 24 yards before being driven out of bounds on the Sand Creek two-yard line. With only 19 seconds remaining, McFarland utilized the quarterback sneak for two yards and the only score of the game.

Coach Pat Connors points out that the game was won in the final two minutes on the Boysville 17 yard line, where the Knights contained and turned back the last offensive by the Aggies.

Moe Jacobs was the leading ground gainer for the Knights with 72 yards, an average of six per carry. Statistics reveal that the Knights covered 253 yards in passing and rushing for nine first downs.

√

"A Little Bit of Luck" was the theme of the pep rally preceeding the Boysville-Sand Creek game. The rally, sponsored by the eighth graders, featured several skits and songs, and a speech delivered by Ron Davidson, concerning the "Funny Game of Football." The skit reflected intense preparation and planning.

√

A recent visitor to the Boysville campus was George Mills, of the Bureau of School Services, University of Michigan. Mr. Mills spent his time on a tour of the campus, and at an open floor discussion with the faculty. Mr. Mills' visit had to do with the accreditation of the school.

√

Boysville's first quarter of study is soon to be brought to a close. A weekend vacation coinciding with its conclusion is scheduled for this weekend. Checkout will be at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

When Fertilizers Are Plowed Down

Nitrogen — Speeds decomposition of crop residues.

Phosphorus — Stimulates root development in deeper soil — less subject to drought.

Potassium — Avoids seedling injury from close fertilizer placement. ORTHO UNIPELS* are right for fall plowdown because—

1. Ratios right for every need.
   16-16-16
   10-20-20
   20-10-10
2. N, P & K are placed together for most effective use.
3. Two forms of N and P insure favorable response.
   a. Fast acting nutrients move out from fertilizer pellet to enlarge the enrichment zone.
   b. Sustained feeding fraction provides full season availability.

Remember — Fall plowdown is an excellent time to apply lime. Keep soils adequately limed to avoid phosphorus fixation and to get the most from your fertilizer dollar.

See us for ORTHO UNIPEL* Fertilizers.

MRS. GORDON GOLDSBERRY

Kathleen Wagner, Gordon Goldsberry Are Married

Kathleen M. Wagner and Gordon D. Goldsberry were united in marriage Saturday at the North Blissfield Immanuel Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Wagner, 5200 Sutton Rd., are the parents of the bride and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Goldsberry, 507 Cairns St.

The Rev. Daniel Mathes performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums enhanced with miniature ivy.

The pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father in a floor length gown of organdy and lace fashioned with fitted bodice, scalloped, rounded neckline and a bouffant skirt accented with tiers of lace ruffles.

Her shoulder length veil was secured to a pearl crown and she carried a cascade arrangement of petite white carnations and grapes centered with snowy roses.

Darlene Wagner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a street length gown of ice blue brocade fashioned with rounded neckline and bell skirt.

A petal headpiece secured her nose veil and she carried petite blue and white carnations accented with blue grapes and wheat.

Mary Ann Wagner, sister of the bride, and Debbie Goldsberry, sister of the groom, were the bridesmaids attired as the matron of honor.

Sam Jersey of Brooklyn served as best man and the 500 guests were seated by Lyle Marine, Lloyd Rohrback, Jeff Osburn, Kirk Lucas and Wayne Murray.

Lawrie Escott of Clinton, cousin of the bride, was the miniature bride and Jeff Rohrback, cousin of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Ann Marks of Ridgeway was the soloist accompanied by Carol Seager of Blissfield.

A reception was held with Ann Metcalf, Barbara Lenheiser, Mrs. Lawrence Hedlund, Mrs. Daniel Henning, Mrs. David Henning and Patricia Clauda pouring beverages.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth, a gift of the bride's grandmother. The table was centered with a blue and white floral arrangement.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan the couple will reside at 311½ W. Cummings St.

The bride is a senior student at Henry Ford Hospital, School of Nursing. Her husband is employed with Selder's Excavating Co.

The rehearsal dinner for the wedding party and relatives was given by the groom's parents at Pearl Cafe.

Elwartowski, Nelson Capture Hidden Treasure

With the help of a boy scout manual the team of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Elwartowski and Mr. and Mrs. Mary Nelson covered 65 miles in less than two hours last Saturday night to capture first prize in the Jaycee treasure hunt.

Participants met at the Community Center at 5:30 p.m. and left in 25 cars to search for clues hidden from Britton to Tipton to Adrian to Clinton. Seventy-two couples gathered at the American Legion hall in Tecumseh for dinner and dancing following the hunt.

Additional prizes were awarded Carl Greenleaf, whose key unlocked the treasure chest, and Frances Hummel, who held the winning raffle ticket.

PROCTOR Funeral Home
TECUMSEH, MICH. & CLINTON, MICH.

Dear friends,

When pain arises it is not unusual to try to ease it by taking drugs or tranquilizers. The death of a loved one is painful to survivors, but by taking tranquilizers, we only postpone the facing of our grief and interfere with the natural expression of anguish at the loss of a loved one, thus delaying the readjustment that must be made.

Tranquilizers should be used only in unusual circumstances and under a doctor's direction.

Lester D. Proctor

Patricia Roe and Merl Yenser Vows Spoken

Patricia Roe and Merl Yenser were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. B. O. Bashore at the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Roe, 2397 E. Monroe Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Yenser of Payne, Ohio.

White gladioli, chrysanthemums and lighted candelabra faced with foliage and white satin bows were used on the altar.

A prelude of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Katharine Hunt as the guests were seated by Gene Cox, and Rudy Ritchhart, both of Payne and Master Keith Marine of Tecumseh, junior usher.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown designed and fashioned by her mother. It featured a lace bodice with rounded neckline dipping to a V at the back and elbow length sleeves.

The bell shaped skirt of peau de soie was accented with lace appliques on the front panel and a chapel train was secured to a large lace bow at the back waistline.

A matching lace bow held her elbow length veil in r'ace. She carried a cascade of Snow Song roses centered with a white orchid.

Marilyn Beland as maid of honor preceded the bride down the aisle. The bridesmaids were Sheryl Henshaw of Fort Wayne and Mrs. Larry Sanford, sister of the bride.

Crystal Roe, another sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They carried cascades of green Fuji chrysanthemums with wheat and grapes.

Doris Kaye Sanford, niece of the bride, was the flower girl dressed in a miniature gown similar to the brides and carrying a small cascade floral arrangement similar to the brides.

Don Zimmerman of Payne served as best man and little Leon Dean Sanford was the ring bearer.

A reception was held in the Youth House with Mrs. Ted McNeil as hostess.

The new Mrs. Yenser is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School and M. Paul Institute of Hair Design, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Her husband is a 1959 graduate of Payne High School and is employed at The Weatherhead Co. in Antwerp, Ohio.

The couple will reside in Payne.

Sheridan Champanois, Ensign Dean Eddy Speak Vows

Sheridan Mangrum Champanois and Ensign Dean P. Eddy exchanged their marriage vows Saturday afternoon in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. B. O. Bashore performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mangrum, 820 S. Union. Mrs. Elmer Buehrer, 705 W. Chicago Blvd., and Paul P. Eddy of Addison are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was lovely in a beige suit trimmed in beige satin with sable brown accessories.

White gladioli and bebe chrysanthemums and lighted tapers were used on the altar.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs, sister of the bride, were the attendants. Mrs. Krebs wore a brown suit complementing the bride's attire.

Mrs. Dean Eddy is employed as a teller at the United Savings Bank and Ensign Eddy is an advanced jet instructor with the United States Navy Air Force, stationed in Beeville, Texas. The couple will reside in Beeville.

A Michigan State University specialist estimates about 6,500,000 Michigan hens produce 1,316,000 eggs annually, 52% of USA production.

MR. AND MRS. McGOWAN

Ada Cottrell Ervin McGowan Are Married

Ada Cottrell and Ervin McGowan of Adrian were united in marriage Oct. 15 by the Rev. Alfred Sheley at the Church of God on S. Pearl St.

The bride wore a dress of light blue trimmed with white lace and an orchid corsage.

The newlyweds will reside at 120½ E. Chicago Blvd.

Sharon, Jerry Speak Vows

Sharon Louise Hammill and Jerry Donald Mix were united in marriage in the Newburg Methodist Church in Livonia, Saturday evening, Oct. 16.

The Rev. Greer performed the double ring ceremony before the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hammill of Tipton are the parents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mix of Wayne, are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Onsted High School. Mr. Mix spent two years in the Air Force and is employed as a carpenter.

The couple will reside in the Flamingo Trailer Court, Farmington.

Frances Reneau, Jerome Kemp Exchange Vows

Frances Madelle Reneau and Jerome Anthony Kemp were married Oct. 7 in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Tex.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Perry Reneau of Wakita, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kemp, 407 Outer Drive.

Eugenie Boelhouwer and Terry N. Myers, both of Dallas, were the attendants.

The bride was attired in a street-length gown of white brocade styled with scooped neckline and short sleeves. Her flowers were butterfly orchids.

After a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the newly-married Kemps will live at 4916 Live Oak, Apt. 210 in Dallas.

The groom is a computer programmer for Texas Instruments, Inc., in Dallas.

Friday, October 29, at 2 p.m., the Macon W.S.C.S. will entertain the Clinton, Tecumseh and Grace Methodist W.S.C.S. for the Prayer and Self-Denial Meeting.

√

Mrs. Carl Hawkins was the luncheon hostess for the October meeting of the Macon Hobby Club last Thursday. Mrs. Gerald Miller assisted her in serving salad and hot rolls.

The afternoon was spent packing seven shut-in packages with home-made cookies, candy and fruit. Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg opened the meeting by reading the purpose of the club. Mrs. Russell Collins passed out the club year books that she has made. The November meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Gorton.

√

At the Church Board of Education meeting last Monday evening, the date for the Christmas Church School program will be Sunday, Dec. 19, at 7 p.m. Mrs. Harold Kuder, Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg and Mrs. Willard Wedemeyer will arrange the program; Mrs. Dean Thomas and Mrs. Harold Ruhl will order and wrap the gifts; Mrs. Lynn Reece and her committee will have the punch and cookies.

It was decided to have a mitten tree this year as the sharing project, with the mittens going to the Methodist Children's Village.

√

The Christmas Cantata presented by the Senior Choir will be given on Christmas Eve. The UNICEF Halloween party will be Saturday, October 30, with collection from 6 until 7:00, then meeting at the church.

√

Mrs. Mabel Burleson left Tuesday with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson, of Tecumseh, for Eustis, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hagens of Saline called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore and Mrs. Mabel Burleson on Thursday.

√

Mrs. Dean Moore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton P. Moore were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey, Jr., and daughters in Ypsilanti. A turkey dinner was served to 35 guests honoring Mr. and Mrs. David Bruder of Lansing. The afternoon was spent playing games and a gift was presented the newly-weds from the group.

√

Mrs. Ralph Halladay of Clinton, was a Thursday luncheon guest of Mrs. Mabel Burleson.

√

√

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill were in Metamora, O., last Sunday and helped their father, A. J. Hill, celebrate his 90th birthday anniversary.

√

Friends of Mrs. Ida Maude Howell Conners of Claremore, Okla., and formerly of Macon, have received word that she had fallen and broken her hip. She is a patient in St. John's Hospital, Tulsa, Okla. She would appreciate hearing from her old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rathbun and family of East Lansing spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan, Sr., and her grandmother, Mrs. Ollie Jordan.

√

Members and guests of the Macon Community Club had a very enjoyable evening last Tuesday, whwen Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sturdevant and Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall, entertained them at the Lenawee Institute on Sutton Rd. A co-operative supper was served from tables gaily decorated in the Halloween motif. Each plate was marked with a filled trick or treat bag. Mrs. Thelma Frayer assisted in serving.

Following a short business meeting, Mr. David Lawson of Deerfield and Mrs. Frayer took the group on a tour of the building and explained about the handicapped children that they are teaching.

They met in the gymnasium, where the group singing, led by Mr. Lawson, Mrs. Halladay Mrs. Sturdevant and Mrs. Birdsall sang "Memories" and "Sweet and Low", with Mrs. William Grigg at the piano. Elmer Pocklington gave three original poems. Mrs. Grigg read "October" and "Little Things". Mr. Lawson sang "Peace In The Valley" and "How Great Thou Art."

Guests were David Lawson and his aunt of Deerfield and Mrs. William Grigg of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Munger Takes 4-H Leadership

Mrs. Lester Munger is the new leader of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H sewing club.

Eleven members and five guests who were welcomed as new members gathered at the Munger home Saturday afternoon.

The new members are Meg Beardsley, Peggy Aebersold, Patty Humphries, Linda Young and Dianne Kimpel.

Refreshments were served by Peggy and Elaine Aebersold.

A work meeting will be held Oct. 30 in the afternoon.

Rocks Work Up in Field, Disrupt Classes

Requests from the Athletic Director Vic Lawson and his coaching staff to improve the north athletic field at Tecumseh High School was approved by the School Board Monday night.

The Board allocated $3,000 to put the field in condition, and authorized any remaining monies to be spent on the football field.

Rocks have worked up through the turf on the north field where many intramural programs are conducted.

Garden Club Entertained By Mrs. Chabut

The Tecumseh Garden Club was fortunate to have as speaker Mrs. Hector Chabut of Jackson, when Anna Carson entertained 14 members Oct. 19.

Mrs. Chabut has been connected with the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan for many years and talked on the subject of Garden Therapy, particularly as it applies to physchiatries.

She told of the manner in which Garden Therapy is presented to the individual patient and showed a large display of things made under this treatment.

Miss Carson, assisted by Mrs. E. L. McClain and Mrs. R. J. McCoy, served refreshments at a beautifully-decorated tea table in keeping with the fall season with Mrs. Clifford Knudson pouring.

Fire Prevention Constant Task

Every week should be fire prevention week on the farm. And, expensive, special equipment isn't necessary to put out a farm fire. But, it is important to have necessary equipment available and in working order in case of fire.

In the event of fire, call the fire department and your neighbors immediately. Don't wait for help to arrive. Go to work with your own equipment. Delay increases the chances of a fire getting out of control.

Specialists in rural defense at Michigan State University report that water is still the best fire control weapon. You should always have plenty on hand. They advise locating a barrel of water near the house, one near each small building and one by the barn entrance. Buckets should be submerged in the barrels so they are handy at the time of the fire.

Of course, water will not put out all types of fires. Chemical and chemical fire extinguishers of carbon dioxide or dri-powder are best on liquid fuel and electrical fires. Dri-powder extinguishers are especially good for gasoline blazes and should be carried on all motorized equipment.

Wet mops, brooms and burlap bags are excellent for beating out grass and brush fires. Garden hose, hand pump garden sprayers, an orchard sprayer mounted on a tractor, water buckets and barrels of sand and sawdust mixed with baking soda are excellent for extinguishing building and farm machinery fires.

A tractor and plow can throw a fire break around buildings. A short-handled shovel to throw dirt on fires in farm equipment is also an excellent fire fighting tool. One should be carried on all motorized equipment for safety.

Ladders should be quickly available for fighting fires and rescuing trapped persons. Even considering the possibility of a fire can be a big help in an emergency.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

A MOST SUCCESSFUL FASHION SHOW

Let the couturiers of France and Italy slave over their drawing boards trying to come up with something new — the other day, Mother Nature previewed her fall and winter collection, and, although there was nothing revolutionary or different, the show was a smash hit.

As model after model flew through the window pictures, our excitement and enthusiam rose. Our birds, once again, are going to be well-dressed, their feathered clothes epitomize taste, imagination, expert craftsmanship and perfect color schemes. All in all, we enjoyed a marvelous fashion show.

Even had they not been all gussied up, the birds would have created a great stir because of their numbers. It was a good bird-watching day, a really, really good day and the first one we had experienced in ever so long. My, but it did seem nice to have so much activity going on outside once again.

The first model to take center stage showed a blue, gray, white and black creation — a blue jay. This big, handsome fellow seemed to know exactly how to stand in the sunlight so that the iridescent light blue markings on his tail and wings were dazzling. Altogether we had three blue jays — what a gorgeous trio! Their colors were so bright, but, almost as much fun as their appearance, was the noise. They screamed, hollered, mumbled, grumbled, whistled, squeaked and chortled — so nice to have the big blue boys back again.

★

BRIEF STAYERS who stopped by just to whistle hello and show off their pretty garb were Papa and Mama Cardinal. Costuming as stylish as theirs never needs to be changed — —his brilliant scarlet and her lovely pastel were as pretty as ever. The little brown creeper, whom we usually think of as being rather drab, looked mighty sharp when he paused on the trunk of the wren tree right smack in the middle of a big patch of sunshine. His striped brown on brown looked rich and warm.

Almost in constant attendance at the feeder were long billed nuthatches, pert and cocky tufted titmice, neat down woodpeckers and of course, about 10,000 sparrows. Particularly note worthy were the nuthatches' heads, that dark blue color shone like satin; the titmice looked so soft and smooth; and even some of the sparrows tried stealing the show. We may become tired of their constant quarreling and bickering, and most of them are "run of the mill dowdy", but occasionally there are some very handsome sparrows.

However, far and above everyone else, were the true stars of the fashion show — not one, not two, but three Hairy Woodpeckers. These big birds are always exciting but when their white is whiter than usual, their black shinier than usual, their black red hat flamingly brought—wow! All day the two females and one male worked on the nearby trees and neither Ida nor I could get over how clean, how slick, how smooth, how absolutely beautiful they were.

★

OF COURSE, NO style show can have a perfect record, all the acts cannot be smash hits. The small flock of grackles were dull, their black lacked luster and the five poor robins, who had somehow forgotten to go south with the rest of their kin, were the most faded out and tackiest characters imaginable. As a teaser, Mother Nature arranged for us to have occasional glimpses of the always thrilling cedar waxwings. They flitted through just often enough to whet the appetite — — Oh, well, perhaps these beauties will play a return engagement soon.

So it is that you take all of the above action, stage it against a perfect background of fall colors and do you see why we think Mother Nature presented a most successful fashion show?

P. S. As a nice ending to such a good bird-day we were pleased to learn that others had enjoyed excellent watching. Miss I. called to say that many of her birds had returned — hope you all had the same good fortune.

Town And Country Seeks Members

The Town and Country Ski Club is seeking new members to enjoy the slopes far and near with them.

An organization of young adults, 21 and over, the group met Tuesday evening at The Stage in Adrian, for the first time this season.

The program was entitled "Skiing: An Expose."

The president, Jerry Hughes, outlined plans for ski trips, meetings and parties for the year.

A costume party will be held Saturday, Oct. 30 beginning at 8 p.m. at the Shamrock Inn on US-12. Ski lift tickets will be awarded as prizes for the best "get-ups."

Dues for the group are $8.50 for singles and $12 for couples. New members also pay a $2 membership fee.

Members receive ticket discounts and other benefits from the Central Division US Ski Association.

St. Elizabeth School Clippings

First graders enjoyed an unexpected visitor in school last Thursday morning. He made his appearance via the window rather than through the usual doorway much to the delight of forty-eight wide-eyed, laughing children. His visit served a purpose, however, for during English and Religion classes he provided a topic for original stories. Students discovered later that their visitor — a small lost kitten named Cinders, was the pet of one of their classmates.

√

Fifth graders spent the art period making portraits of members of their families. Various materials used were: yarn, buttons, scraps of material, and ribbons. Finished portraits were displayed for all to view.

√

Studying to be altar boys are: Roger Ashenfelter, Steven Brosamer, Hugh Conklin, Edward Rapin, James Robideau, Mark Murray.

Looking ahead to next fall and football season is Paul Murray who is practicing with the mighty Cubs this year.

√

The study of Mathematics has been most interesting to the 6th, 7th and 8th graders, particularly this week. The class was introduced to the system of integers, developing rules for usage.

In Science classes students brought 8 seeds, a pair of tweezers and a cutting board to class. They examined the shells, outer coverings, shape and characteristic features. Then the seeds were carefully opened and differences between monocots and dicots were noted.

Educational TV has aided the study of science in these grades.

√

Eighth graders are completing the study and reading of their first novel Captains Courageous by Rudyard Kipling. Students are busy this week writing up certain chapters of this exciting sea story which they will dramatize for their classmates at the end of the month.

√

Report cards are due at St. Elizabeth School during the second week of November. Parent-Teacher conferences will be held on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, November 10 and 11 from 3:30 until 5 and from 6:30 until 9. Parents will call at the school for children's cards during these hours and will have an opportunity to confer with teachers regarding student's progress.

√

Fourth grade science classes are studying the life cycle of the insect. They discovered that the ground, the temperature, the air, the plants, rain, sunshine, and other nearby animals are some of the things that are a part of an insect's life.

Ladies Attend Governor's Conference

Mrs. William Adams and Mrs. Carlton Cook attended the Governor's Conference on Natural Beauty for Michigan Oct. 12 in Lansing with about 1000 other citizens interested in making Michigan the best groomed state in the nation.

Charles F. Leman, planning consultant for Southfield who is currently working with Tecumseh's Planning Commission, was on the panel of experts for community planning.

Mrs. Cook remarked that it is encouraging to know that Tecumseh is planning ahead to avoid some of the pitfalls other growing cities have had.

She also said that it was surprising to see the number interested in doing for others and the future of the community and state.

Honorable John Dingell, Congressman from the 16th District in Michigan, in his talk said it has been predicted that some day there will be one continuous city from Flint to Toledo, and that Michigan's surplus of natural resources is more because of providence than good management.

Local government should insist industry treat waste products and urge legislation before it is too late.

Freshmen Defeat Clinton Juniors

The Tecumseh High Freshmen got an early start to defeat Clinton's Junior Varsity squad 20-14 last Wednesday night.

The first quarter stood scoreless, but early in the second period Carl Mobley recovered a fumbled Clinton ball and ran 36 yards for the TD. The PAT attempted kick was not good.

In the same period Steve Dalton swept his own half for 12 yards and a score.

Kennedy passed to Dan Anderson for the extra point. The same Kennedy-Anderson combination completed a 31-yard pass for the final TD. Steve Dalton ran the PAT.

Clinton scored twice in the fourth period to end the game at 20-14.

Coach Ted Todd named Jim Parros, Larry Cote, Bob Haines and Carl Mobley outstanding defensive linebackers.

The Freshmen meet South Lyons JV's next Thursday at 7 p.m.

Grace Methodists Treat For UNICEF

RIDGEWAY — All children of the Grace Methodist Church will meet at the church Saturday at 12:30 p.m. to collect for UNICEF, Mrs. Paul Frazier is directing the activities.

There are over 550,000,000 children in the world who desperately need help. UNICEF agencies are now aiding 56,000,000 needy children and mothers in 116 countries around the globe. This work is directed from the United Nations building in New York City.

UNICEF aid is dispensed without regard to race, nationality, creed or political belief. The main objective is to help children who need help. The four major project categories are:

1. Disease control and eradication
2. Medication and health services for children
3. Nutrition
4. Family and child welfare services

UNICEF is most often thought of as helping with milk and medicine for needy children everywhere. The annual UNICEF collection is a good way by which our own healthy, privileged children can do a little to help the great number of children in the world who are not so favored.

SOCIAL SECURITY Questions and Answers

Q. There have been recent news reports that some elderly people have been tricked, by individuals posing as social security agents, into paying in advance for medicare benefits. What can a person do to protect himself against such swindles?

A. An elderly person — or anyone for that matter — should be aware of any individual who claims to be a social security representative and then asks for money to perform a service such as signing you up for the medicare program. Such a person is acting illegally. If someone offers to sign you up in this manner, ask for his identification. If he is really a social security representative, he will be more than happy to present proof of his identity. If you still have doubts about him, call your social security office and ask if they sent the man to see you.

Q. Most people think of social security only in terms of benefits in old age, but the 1965 social security amendments also affect many young people. Since this month marks the beginning of a new school year, I thought today we might review the new social security benefits especially for students. Just who is eligible?

A. Under the new law, an unmarried full-time student between the ages of 18 and 22 may get social security cash benefits if he has retired, disabled, or deceased parent who qualified for social security benefits. Up until now, a child's benefits stopped automatically at age 18 unless the child was disabled. Now he can continue to get cash benefits if he attends almost any accredited high school, college, or vocational school and takes a normal workload of classes to complete his studies.

So, if you were getting benefits on either of your parents' social security accounts, up to your 18th birthday, you can start getting them again if you are in school or plan to go back, are under 22, and unmarried.

And if you were already 18 — too old to qualify for child's benefits — when one of your parents retired, became disabled, or died — now, you, too, are eligible for student benefits under the law if you are in school full-time, under 22, and still unmarried.

When and how do you sign up If you think you qualify — or, if you have a child who does — check with your social security office right away for details.

TEACHERS' CLUB FLOAT SAID, "DUNCE THE RED DEVILS"

Senator Miller Indicates Loss of Buying Power

It's sad and a shame that the working people have to pay so much for social security and yet when they reach retirement and try to live on the pension, they receive so little in return.

Republican Senator Jack Miller of Iowa has produced figures showing that, even with the recent seven percent increase in Social Security benefits, pensioners now have less buying power than they had in 1958 and 1954.

Pensioners had more buying power in 1954, under the Eisenhower Administration, than they do today, even though they received smaller pensions.

Senator Miller points out that inflation has eroded away all of the increase voted this year by Congress and placed the pensioner in a worse position than he was 10 years ago.

He says a person who has paid into the Social Security fund since 1940 on an annual salary base of $3,000 has $9.90 less purchasing power with the increased benefits than would have been provided by the lower pension in 1954.

Compared with 1958, the loss in purchasing [illegible] 19.

This is not only true of the pensioner but of all others whose salaries do not have escalator clauses for automatic raises as the cost of living increases.

People are still able to make ends meet but what of those on social security in another five to 10 years?

TO SUBMARINE SCHOOL— Richard Hammerstrom, USN, is home on leave from boot training. The 1956 graduate of Tecumseh High School will remain home until November 2, and will then travel to New London, Conn., for submarine training.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

Congratulations to the clubs and classes and the student body for an enjoyable and successful Homecoming. Now that it is over, it's back to diligent study and preparation for mid-term exams which are just two weeks away.

Latin Club will meet Oct. 26 at 7:00 p.m. in Room 13.

√

The National Honor Society met last Wednesday, Oct. 13. This year's officers are, President, Bob Titley; vice-president, Stan Lewis; treasurer, Sylvia Fritz; secretary, Marilyn Dick; student council representative, Jeff Long. Mr. Mark Renfro has assumed the advisory position this year. Members of the N. H. S. are required to maintain a 3.0 or better average on the basis of 4.0 system of grading.

Each must demonstrate leadership qualities and responsible citizenship as well as a good academic rating to remain in the organization. Among the services offered by the club is a tutoring agency. The club will also participate in National Education Week.

√

OPERATION; SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

Brought up under the heading of "new business" was a discusson on the tragic passing of the Scout, the school newspaper, which folded for lack of support from the student body and lack of organization on the newspaper staff. It is too bad that a school the size of Tecumseh has no journalism classes, but it is tragic that so little interest has been shown and so little action taken to promote and maintain a school newspaper. The press plays a big role in the life of every American and influences a great many people. Isn't it important, then, that tomorrow's voters be educated to such an important factor in their future? The members of the Neville L. Hart Chapter of the National Honor Society say "YES!" A committee was formed to investigate other school newspapers and a possible plan to revive the Scout. Mr. Renfro agreed to assume responsibilities of an advisor, if the plan materializes. Further discussion will take place at the next meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 9, at 7 p.m., in the cafeteria.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

On page 2 of the Oct. 14 paper you said and I quote:

"It was another great Band Festival. We wish Tecumseh people would take more interest in helping to promote the event. It has become a major date on the school music calendar — we'd hate to lose the Festival."

What I would like to know is if you feel this way how come such a poor write-up about it? There were 12 bands participating and only four were written about.

Out of the three local papers — Adrian Telegram, Clinton Local and The Tecumceh Herald — only The Clinton Local told us what each band did.

I do not think it necessary to say who stole the show etc., but I do believe each band should receive credit for the contribution.

Do you realize what a cold night that was and that those kids had to stand out there on the field over two hours?

Do you have any idea the hours they must have practiced before the show so it would be a success and that their own communities would be proud of them?

Don't you think maybe Britton was hurt? You never mentioned the great performance they gave us. Yet your paper probably is sold quite a bit there since they do not have a local paper of their own.

No. I am not from Britton. I just used them as an example. (They were very good though.) I feel each band should have been written about, not just a select few. I say let us give each band a good hand.

In conclusion may I say, "Why not practice what you preach?"

Sincerely,
Mrs. Richard Sharpe

TO THE EDITORS:

Glad to see your story on "Is Your Herald Late?" and it led me to send you this comment — The Herald of Sept. 30 and Oct. 7 arrived in my box in Sebewaing on the same day — Saturday, Oct. 9.

Reminds me of the lady who called last week to complain about her Blade — she said her copy was delivered in her neighbor's mail box and the neighbor's copy in the complaining woman's box, and why aren't we a bit more careful when we address the copies.

Now what can a worn-out, gone-over editor do about a situation like that? We told her to call the Post Office, but she said that all they'll do is to call the newspaper office so she thought she'd do that first of all.

Always glad to see The Herald and the fine variety of stories and pix.

Cordially,

$39,000 Grant Accepted

Federal monies — amounting to $39,000 — to help educate disadvantaged children were accepted by the Tecumseh School Board Monday night.

Available the second semester of the school year, the cash must be used by July 1, 1965, or returned to the government.

Educational TV, remedial reading courses in the elementary grades and many other possibilities will be considered by the board.

The Federal program is set up for three years with $39,000 allowed to the Tecumseh schools each year.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Apparently, up in East Lansing, the old War Horses aren't cast aside and forgotten.

For this we can be eternally grateful.

Mixed in this tale are a couple of well-known Tecumseh fellows, ex-football players at Michigan State University, only when they donned moleskins it was MAC (as the lads in Ann Arbor will never let us forget.)

This season, as the heady thrill of an undefeated 11 and a trip to Pasadena looms, it would seem natural to forget the past.

But that wasn't the case last Saturday at MSU's Homecoming, when the Golden Anniversary team of the school was honored during the halftime intermission.

Two members of the crew were Orville Laidlaw, longtime Tecumsehite and now of Ft. Myers, Fla., and Charlie Butler, retired Ford dealer here.

For a while, they and their old teammates must have thought maybe the gridders of '15 were going to be sent to the Rose Bowl. For the entire weekend, they were wined and dined, pampered and applauded.

When they stood on the center of the Spartan Stadium gridiron, with 74,000 cheering lustily in their honor, the guys felt like grabbing pads and helmets to play the second half against Northwestern.

Each man present was given a full-size football, which had been painted gold, and included data on the team, with each autographing the others, making grand remembrances of the occasion.

★

WHAT MAKES the '15 bunch a team to remember is the fact they did the impossible, whumping Fielding H. Yost's Wolverines, 24-0.

Charlie confesses that following that upset victory, instead of returning to East Lansing from Ann Arbor, the fellows were so keyed up they buzzed into Detroit to celebrate for the rest of the weekend.

By the following Saturday, they were still not quite back to normal and Oregon swept past the Aggies, 20-0, which turned out to be the only loss of the year.

That crew is a favorite to old time Spartan boosters and it has a special place in my heart, too. One of my mother's brothers, Del, who died in 1939, was a tackle.

By an odd twist of fate, the first businessman I met upon arriving in Tecumseh eight years ago was Mr. Butler.

There was some small talk about football and Chuck mentioned playing at State.

As a wild stab, I asked, "Did you ever know Del Van Dervoort?"

Charlie grinned, "I sure did, we played next to one another."

"He was my uncle," I replied proudly and a friendship with Charlie started then and has blossomed over the years.

★

THERE WAS another happy twist to the Homecoming reunion, thanks to Mr. Laidlaw.

He came up from Florida for the festivities Saturday and en route, in Lynchburg, Va., Orville latched onto Gideon Smith, who was a tackle in '15, bringing him to East Lansing.

Gideon is a Negro and in those olden days it was most unique to have a colored player on a college team.

I can remember my mother repeating stories Uncle Del had told about the road games. When the train would pull into town, Coach John Macklin and his players would alight and immediately Gideon would slip away.

He wasn't a rounder, just didn't want to embarrass the others. At game time, he'd appear, then afterwards return to the train. If the team was staying overnight, he'd be off again, returning when the club departed for East Lansing.

Gideon would be going to the Negro part of town, where he could find a place to sleep without being told he wasn't welcome.

On the field, he was a great player and during the reminiscence last weekend, Orville recalled a special tackle-around play in which Gideon was given the ball once. He sprinted nearly the length of the field for a touchdown.

There was only one flaw. The Aggies' All-America fullback, speedy Jerry DaPrato, was supposed to block for Gideon. However, the rangy tackle was off in such a blaze, DaPrato never was able to get in front of Gideon and trailed him all the way.

Sewage Project Getting $157,000

A Federal grant of $157,000 to help in Tecumseh's half-million dollar wastewater treatment plant project is 99% assured.

The money will come through the Michigan Water Resources Commission, which has received $4,800,000 from Washington to spread among state cities.

Based on an intricate point system, Tecumseh stands 8th on a list of 59 cities, towns and townships, which are enlarging or building sewage plants—all hopeful of government help.

Water Resources officials told City Manager Cal Zorn, who was in Lansing last week, that probably the first 20 projects will get Federal assistance.

A major factor in Tecumseh's ranking was five points earned for the city when voters agreed to a bonded indebtedness of $560,000 for the sewage plant project in last spring's election.

The city has a total of 11.4 points.

Bids on the enlargement plan, which will double capacity, are to be opened here Thursday, explains Mr. Zorn. A dozen contractors obtained specifications on the job.

WINS NATIONAL CONTEST — James Sherman, Tecumseh, pictured with Corn Queen Vicky Thompson of Munson, is the winner of the Corn Combine Division of the National Corn Picking Contest held Wednesday in Adrian. Mr. Sherman won the Michigan State contest in the same division. He scored 97.56 in the National contest and 96.21 in the State, out of a possible 100 points. Will Close On Nov. 11

The Tecumseh Post Office will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 11, for Veteran's Day, Postmaster Jack Metcalf, announced.

All special delivery mail received will be delivered that day.

All mail which is deposited in the two boxes in the business district and in the two boxes at the post office by 4 p.m. will be dispatched that day.

ROOMFUL OF SMILES — The employment office at Tecumseh Products Co. has been a busy place the past two weeks, as 500 lay-offs were called back to work. Caught in the beehive of activity, on this side of the counter, were Judy Alcock and Ronald Beck, shown checking in call-backs Friday.

Council Hits Signs

By JIM LINCOLN

Projecting signs over sidewalks and erection of merchandising equipment on public property drew criticism from Council Monday night.

Clyde Spivey, new owner of Tecumseh Paint Supply, sought permission to hang a sign over the sidewalk on E. Chicago Blvd., in downtown Tecumseh.

Councilmen told him that an ordnance passed in September prohibited such signs.

It was also pointed out that all other projecting signs were now non-conforming in downtown Tecumseh.

Since the signs were up before the ordnance went into effect, the city cannot eliminate them.

If such signs in the future are not maintained or damaged to the extent of about 60%, the signs will be removed and new ones will not be allowed for replacements, according to city officials.

DEL KING asked for permission to keep his ice box in front of the Party Shop on S. Maumee St. The cooler is next to a tree and adjacent to the sidewalk.

Councilmen told him it was illegal, asked that he discuss moving it with Murell Clark, police chief.

Chassis Is Purchased from Ford

Council purchased a Ford dump truck chassis from Tecumseh Motors Monday night at a cost of $3,435.

Other bidders were:

Tecumseh Equipment—$3,352.

Schneider Chevrolet-Buick — $3,400.

Officials thought the Ford chassis was the only one of the three bids to meet specifications.

A box for the dump truck was purchased from Automotive Service Co. of Jackson for $985.

Fund Campaign Ends This Week

With 75% of its goal pledged, the 1965 Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive reaches the final week.

Workers are making last-minute calls in an effort to go over the $45,203 mark.

If any business or professional people have not been contacted, they are asked to call chairman Don Sunderland, 423-3270. For residences not checked, householders are asked to phone Mrs. Lloyd Stites, 423-3835.

"We're real pleased with the campaign," said Dr. Bob Laidlaw, drive co-chairman, at press time Wednesday. He asked that solicitors are to turn in donations at the United Savings Bank to Mrs. Hugh Fowler, who is serving as drive treasurer.

Father Lyons Will Address Adrian Students

The Rev. Fr. Daniel Lyons, S.J. recently returned from Vietnam, will speak in Adrian at the Catholic Central High School Saturday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m.

He is sponsored there by the Lenawee County Citizens For Good Government Club.

Congressman Praises City at Dedication

"Tecumseh rates with the finest cities in the United States," Congressman Weston Vivian told an audience of more than 200 at the dedication ceremony for the new Post Office.

He pinpointed the recent growth in Tecumseh and the classic beauty of the city's streets and parks at the Saturday afternoon ceremony.

Donald Swanson, Regional Director for the Post Office Department, gave the central address.

"The new Tecumseh Post Office," he said, "was constructed as part of the Post Office Department's program to provide new postal units where they are most urgently needed for more efficient mail service and improved working conditions for postal employees."

The Tecumseh High School Band, directed by Donald Johnson, presented a band concert preceding the dedication program.

★

An open house followed the dedication ceremonies.

Toledo Man Is 5¢ Cheaper on Sidewalk Bid

Peter Simon of Toledo was given a contract to construct 2,800-square-feet of new sidewalk and 200-square-feet of sidewalk replacement by Council Monday night.

Jim Fielder of Tecumseh also bid for the work and was five cents per square foot higher on new walk.

Mr. Simon bid 45c and Fielder 50c per square foot.

Veteran Druggist Dies

Funeral services for Ralph E. Hodges, 62, Tecumseh druggist for the past 42 years, were held Monday afternoon at Proctor Funeral Home.

He died Friday morning at Bixby Hospital in Adrian.

Mr. Hodges was one of the oldest retailers here in length of service, starting in 1923 as a pharmacist for Ben Pulver in the Pulver Rexall Drug Store.

He worked for Mr. Pulver until 1942 when he entered the Army during World War II. He served approximately two years in the service.

In 1945, he purchased a drug store from William Wehr, located then in the building now occupied by Flanders Music. Six lears later, he moved the drug store across the street to its present site.

★

A LIFE-LONG resident of the community, Mr. Hodges was born here Dec. 17, 1902 and was a graduate of Tecumseh High School. In 1923, he earned a degree from Ferris Institute as a registered pharmacist.

On July 10, 1943, he married the former Virginia Cameron of Big Rapids.

The Tecumseh businessman was a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association, Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association, Lenawee-Hillsdale Drug Association and the National Association of Retail Druggist.

He also was a member of the Tecumseh Country Club and had been active in several community organizations and functions.

★

SURVIVORS, besides the widow, are three daughters, Nancy, at home; Mrs. Ray Miller, Big Rapids; and Mrs. Clyde Locker, Tecumseh; brother, Dwight Hodges of Tecumseh; and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins officiated, and interment was in Lenawee Hills Memorial Park.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

The military survivors of the attack on Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941, are trying to locate as many survivors as is possible in order to band together and form chapters of a newly formed "Pearl Harbor Survivors Association". Over 10,000 such persons have already been located.

The organization is planning an enmasse reunion on the island set for the 25th anniversary of the attack on December 7, 1966.

The organization asks that if you are a Pearl Harbor survivor or you are acquainted with one would you please write:

PEARL HARBOR SURVIVORS ASSOCIATION

Share-a-loaf? Who are you sharing a loaf with?" The Herald asked when a story was called.

"Well, I don't know," said the voice on the phone.

That's typical of the generous American public, share their shirt and they don't know with whom. Maybe some day we'll find out.

Do you remember Beverly Miller and the balloon? How she met and married the sailor, thanks to the F. W. Woolworth Company's opening day helium filled balloons. Well, Bev and Leonard — they're Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lendon — are using a balloon to inform friends of the birth of a son, Jerry Don, Oct. 6 in Brunswick, Ga. The announcement arrived uninflated in a tiny envelope and when blown up revealed the exciting news.

Senator Ted Kennedy will be the speaker at Dundee High School Friday, Nov. 12, at 7 p.m..

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Robert MacLean 423-2047.

The Herald wishes to thank Mrs. Archie Dunsmore for her delicious contribution to our recent Publicity Chairman's Workshop. The extra little appetizer made our day.

Going to the Lutheran West High School football game Friday? A reliable source indicates that you should take I-94 to Northbound Southfield Rd., then to Joy Rd., turn right to Greenfield Rd., and again turn right and travel about a half a block.

HARVEST of VALUES

Farm Folks Are Saluted

Business and professional people of Tecumseh give a rousing 21-gun salute to the farmers and stockmen of this area.

"Your industrious habits and knowledge of agriculture and animal husbandry have made our area one of the most profitable agricultural sections of the state," they state.

Business and professional people of Tecumseh look with pride on the farm folks' ability to supply diversified products.

Farmers and stockmen can be assured that they will receive top market value for all their produce, grain, live stock and poultry in Tecumseh.

Tecumseh's farm supply houses are always willing and eager to give professional and scientific assistance in the feeding and care of land, crops, fowl and livestock.

The community's lumber yards and farm supply people are glad to assist with feed and shelter problems. They can be consulted with confidence at any time for free information and estimates.

Mr. Buckley Addresses Monday Club

Robert Buckley of the Stauffer Chemical Company talked to the members and guests of the Tecumseh Monday Club at a meeting in the Baptist Church Youth House this week.

He replaced Leonard Sack who was scheduled to give the program.

Mr. Buckley gave a brief history of the company from its beginning in 1885 with whiting, or chalk, as its principal product down to the present "silicone" plant after many expansions into the new fields and a number of companies acquired during their growth.

★

A great many products containing silicone in its many forms were shown to the group with explanations of the advantages of this addition to products. The liquid, resin, rubber and the uses of each phase of production were explained and a design of the plant was illustrated where each step takes place.

A question and answer period followed the talk and then the women gathered to examine the samples on display.

Mary McWilliams, president, welcomed eight representatives of the Lenawee County Federation and announced that Saturday, Nov. 6 is Open House at Loch Rio.

★

Other announcements included an invitation from Onsted to attend their meeting Nov. 16, the Fall Meeting of the county federation Nov. 17 at the First Methodist Church in Adrian and the next Monday Club meeting to be held in Adrian at Consumers Power Nov. 15.

Veva Anderson and Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett poured at the tea table decorated in beautiful autumn colors. Mrs. Fred Nash and her committee were hostesses.

Welfare Merger Should Save County Money

The passage of the Welfare Merger Bill, signed by Acting Governor William Milliken last week, will result in a savings for Lenawee County, through the blending of the county social welfare and state social aid agencies, Senator Gilbert E. Bursley reported to his district today.

On the basis of the expenditures for the past 12 month period, ending June, 1965, Lenawee County would have received $37,-098.81, Senator Bursley noted.

★

The changes of the allocation formula from 30/70% to 40/60% would have increased Lenawee County's monies from $49,552.02 to $86,651.43.

The new Act, effective October 1, 1965, provides for matching funds of 40% direct relief, administrative and net operating costs of medical care facilities.

The Act further provides, Senator Bursley said, that with the state-county agency merger, if a County spent more than 1 mill of its assessed valuation on welfare, the state and federal government will assume all costs

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Michigan Nurse Week, Nov. 7 through 13, is one that brings moisture to the eye if given just a little time to "jell" in the mind.

Many readers have probably experienced a time in life when an undying gratitude was fostered toward the lady in white who kept them alive.

Between here and eternity, those white caps moving quietly and efficiently about, look especially encouraging to the very ill.

Here's a heartfelt thank you to the nursing profession for all those extra things done above and beyond the call of duty.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Barber and family have moved to Pleasant Lake.

√

James Osburn and Steve Lasky were in Chicago for three days last week with a group of anatomy students in Professor Peelle's class from Adrian College.

While there the group visited the Museum of Arts and Sciences, the Museum of Natural History, the Adler Planetarium, Shedd Aquarium and the Lincoln Park Zoo.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Osburn and Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lasky.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Betzoldt and two children left Monday for Albany, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Adrian, will leave soon for Albany. Mr. Betzoldt and Mr. Johnson are veteran Meyers Aircraft men now employed by Aero-Commander and will be working in the Albany plant.

√

√

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell were dinner guests Sunday of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McConnell, and son, Steve, in Mason. The occasion was in celebration of the birthday anniversary of E. H. McConnell. Lieut. McConnell, commander of the Racket and Intelligence Division of the Michigan State Police, also took advantage of the opportunity to tell his parents of his promotion to captain, in effect Oct. 31.

√

Pvt. David Brock has been transferred from Fort Rucker, Ala., to Fort Eustis, Va., where he is studying cargo helicopters.

√

Forrest Bancroft of Adrian and Mrs. Vira Bancroft and daughter, Helen, visited Mrs. Bancroft's uncle, George W. Kent in Sturgis Saturday afternoon.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pennington, 207 W. Kilbuck just returned from a trip through the southern states including a tour of the Smokey Mountains.

Chit and Chat Holds Auction

The Chit and Chat Tiptonaires will meet Thursday evening promptly at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. William Vollmer on Tipton Hwy. A Chinese Auction will be held and a demonstration will be given on makeup.

Carnegie Course Teaches Memory Tricks to Students

"We dont' try to eliminate butterflies, we just get them all flying in the same direction at the same time," said Don Deffendall, instructor of the Dale Carnegie course sponsored by the Jaycees.

Seventeen attended the first of the Tuesday evening sessions Oct. 26 at the Harvey House Conference room.

The course will continue for a 14-week period at Harvey House with classes beginning at 7 p.m.

Anyone wishing to enroll may still do so or may come as a guest.

Those joining after the course has begun may attend make-up sessions at any Dale Carnegie course. Presently they are being held in Jackson and Monroe.

Sessions are in two periods with a break between. Memory techniques made up the fore part of the first session and during the latter portion, groups of four took turns in speaking on subjects of their own choice.

John Wilt, Jaycee chairman of the project, encourages anyone interested in knowing the fundamentals of the course to attend at no charge.

Education Week Open Houses Are Coming Up

There is a place in Tecumseh where astounding things are taking place — things more amazing than any moon-shot or rocket launching at Cape Kennedy.

No other establishment in the community can boast a finished product of such outstanding potential or national significance.

The teachers have said, "You do not need a special pass to visit this place nor must you be an important official." All parents are invited Thursday, Nov. 11.

THS teachers are teaching more than just math, history or English. They are teaching students to want to learn, and in so doing, are opening up the world of ideas to them.

The teachers are inviting you to come out and see what education is up to these days.

Open House for parents of all Senior High School students will be held Thursday, Nov. 11. The evening's program, beginning at 7:30 p.m., will consist of a shortened school day. Armed with their child's schedule, parents will attend 10-minute class sessions where teachers will explain the aims and procedures of the courses.

Refreshments will be served later in the cafeteria.

★

IN KEEPING with American Education Week, Nov. 8-12, the Tecumseh Junior High School is sponsoring an open house for parents at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 10.

The program will permit you to follow the schedule of your child on a typical school day, with seven minute class periods for each subject. The first period begins at 7:30 p.m.

Parents will have an opportunity to make an appointment for a conference with a teacher at a convenient time.

Dragway Opens Competition

DETROIT — Open competition for tro[illegible] will be the order of the day at Motor City Dragway each Sunday as long as weather permits.

Drag racers who want to test equipment without being in competition are also invited

For the most part, however, racing will be among fuel cars for the balance of the season.

The eliminations begin at 2 p.m. each Sunday.

Motor City Dragway is at 26 Mile and Meldrum, three miles east of the Edsel Ford Freeway.

With 37 Seconds To Play, THS Nips Blissfield, 14-13

By JIM LINCOLN

Records will show that Tecumseh whipped Blissfield here Friday night, 14-13, but only those fans at the game will long remember how it was done.

Coach Tom Fagan's 11 took a leaf from the pro book to pull the victory out, as the two teams tallied two touchdowns in less than 30 seconds.

The Royals, dominant throughout the game except for the opening minutes and final 66 seconds, cast a gloom over the Indian stands after recovering a Tecumseh fumble on the Indians' 35, and then driving in for a TD and 13-7 lead.

Only 66 seconds were left on the clock, and the fact that Keith Spunk's place kick for the extra point was blocked seemed of little significance.

Blissfield had only to play out the game to win and share second place in the Huron League with the Indians. The final minute, however, was a nightmare to Royal coaches and fans.

After taking the kickoff on their 37, the Indians surprised Blissfield's pass-preventive defense by sending Bill Davis through the middle for 16 yards to Blissfield's 47.

Time was called, 54 seconds remained. Ron Rentschler, who had sparked Tecumseh all season with his passing, threw low and wild again for his sixth straight incompletion. Just 48 seconds were left.

Tecumseh spread wide to the right, Blissfield dropped back in its pass-prevent defense, Rentschler in the shotgun formation waited momentarily and then lofted a wobbly aerial nearly 50 yards to Dean Hebb on Blissfield's seven.

The lanky junior end was toppled from behind on the two. Time was called with 40 seconds still on the clock.

★

On the all-important extra point try, Tecumseh was in a tight T, and from all appearences a running play was in order. Instead, Rentschler dropped back three steps, wheeled around and hit Gordon Gibson all alone in the end zone for the winning point.

The shocked visitors still had a chance after taking the kickoff but were futile in two offensive plays.

Statistically, Tecumseh should never had been in the game. Blissfield controlled the pigskin to the tune of 61 plays while the Indians had the ball for only 45.

Blissfield rolled up 17 first downs to Tecumseh's nine.

From the beginning, it looked like it would be Tecumseh's night as the Indians held the Royals on their first series of plays, blocked their fourth down punt and recovered on the 21.

Tecumseh scored eight plays later, two of them, including the last, on fourth down situations. Roger Young took a pitchout around right end and scooted in behind a beautiful block thrown by Ron Bolz.

Blissfield came right back, moving 67 yards to Tecumseh's nine where the Royals capitalized on a break. At the nine, in a third and seven situation, Blissfield gained only two, but an Indian offside penalty marched the ball to Tecumseh's four.

The Royals then picked up a first down on the two and on the next play, halfback Dave Gurica hit paydirt, Keith Sprunk split the uprights for the extra point.

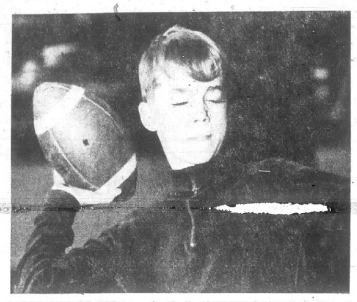
After this tally, the two teams battled scorelessly until the final 66 seconds. Blissfield moved into Tecumseh's 30 twice during the first half, and two times in the second half before scoring.

Late in the second quarter, the Indians recovered a Blissfield fobble on the Royals' 37 and moved to the 13 before finally being stopped on the 15. It was Tecumseh's only threat outside the two scores.

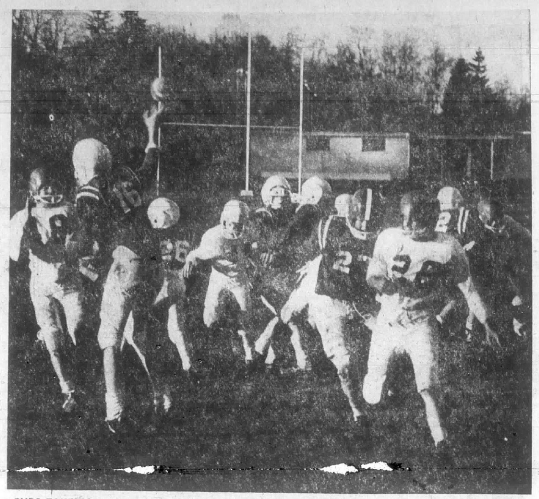
Blissfield	7	0	0	6—13
Tecumseh	7	0	0	7—14

Blissfield scoring: Gurica (2, run); Novak (3, run). PAT: Spunk, place kick.

Tecumseh scoring: Young (2, run); Blatchford (2, run). PAT: Young, run; Gibson, pass from Rentschler.



EYES WILL BE OPEN — Craig Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, 202 E. Pottawatamie St., may be unaccustomed to the camera flash but he'll go to Lansing with eyes wide open. Craig was Tecumseh Ford and Zone D winner in Ford Motor Co. Punt, Pass and Kick competition and, for the fourth year in a row, will compete for District honors in Lansing on Saturday.



CUBS TAKE TO AIR — St. Elizabeth's Cubs found Addison Junior High's defense tough and tried the air lanes, but without success. Paul Burns tires a pass in this shot, but it fell incomplete. Addison won, 19-0. St. Elizabeth ended its season Wednesday at Camden-Frontier.

Lutheran West Is Next Indian Grid Opponent

Somewhat of a breather will be welcomed by the Tecumseh Indians ..... might when they travel to Detroit for their first game ever with Lutheran West.

Little is known about the suburban school's team, except it has been shellacked on several occasions this season. In comparison to several other opponents on Tecumseh's schedule, outward appearances would indicate Lutheran West is the weakest foe the Indians have on their entire schedule.

Only a letdown and looking ahead to Adrian could surprise Coach Tom Fagan's club which finished 4-1 for second place in the Huron League and now boasts a 4-3 season mark.

Brazee Elected Girls Athletic Club President

Others elected to office were:
Vice President — Beth Moore
Secretary — Jackie Work
Treasurer — Wendy Vollmer
Reporter — Joette Brees
Sports Coordinator — Linda Baxter
Social Coordinator — Vivian Williams

Mrs. Robert Kiebler, adviser, said volley ball tournaments are being planned for the coming weeks.

Johnson Leads, But Arrows Lose

Jim Johnson gained 98 yards with a top single run of 31 yards in a close Pontiac Arrow loss to Flint, Sunday.

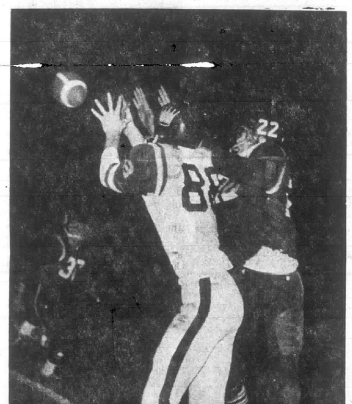
The Arrows threatened Flint in the final minutes of the game but a series of penalties gave the victory to the Blue Devils, 19-14.

Jim lacks 72 yards to total 1,000 for the season.

The Arrows will meet Lansing this week end and play the league All Stars Nov. 13.

Down St. Elizabeth

Addison Junior High stopped St. Elizabeth cold, 19-0, on a blustery Tecumseh High School gridiron Thursday afternoon.



BIG END FOILED — One of the ways Tecumseh was able to stall Blissfield on key plays was the pass defense work of Dean Hebb (22) against rangy Jim Gibbons (88). Dean broke up this play, as he did on several others, in fact the 6'5" Gibbons was able to hold only one aerial.

Frosh Eleven Wins 'Em All

In a real squeaker, the THS Frosh edged Michigan Center, 14-13, Tuesday evening.

Fullback, Rick Steele, starting his first game of the season, ran for the two extra points. He replaced Carl Mobley, who was elevated to the varsity this week for the Lutheran West game.

Quarterback John Kennedy had a hand in both scores, going in from the two on a sneak and tossing to Lamar Refner for the finale.

★

WITH A 7-0 SEASON, Coach Todd's team defeated Manchester — 18-0, Adrian Freshmen — 19-6, Hillsdale Freshmen — 25-0, Clinton JV — 20-14, South Lyons JV — 21-14, and Michigan Center Freshmen twice — 20-0 and 14-13.

Coach Todd named quarterback John Kennedy his outstanding player of the year.

He indicated that backs Steve Dalton and Carl Mobley were his key runners and Dan Anderson and Dave Laidlaw led at their end positions.

He also named Jim Parros and Bob Haines at tackle and Sam Brooks and Dan Rodehaver, guards, as fine offensive players.

Defensively Richard Randolph stood out at the tackle position and Larry Cote at linebacker. Cote also excelled at offensive halfback.

Collection of Trash Discussed

City Manager Cal Zorn asked Councilmen to study the garbage and trash collection conditions here before renewing any contract.

Present agreement with Dependable Garbage and Trash Service of Napoleon expires April 1, 1966.

Mr. Zorn said he was uncertain as what to do and sought comments from the Councilmen.

Possibilities discussed included:

► Contracting with private companies.

► Form a city pickup service and put the cost on the tax rolls.

► Authorize compulsory pickups from all residents.

► Let a private business collect refuse, but have the city collect the charges.

No action was taken.

Mrs. Kottke Greets Strange Club Guests

Ghosts, goblins, even a spaceman from Mars, knocked on the door of Mrs. Carl Kottke when the Raisin Center Extension Club held their October meeting.

The house was dimly lit by kerosene lamps and decorated for the occassion.

Mrs. Leonard Harsh gave the lesson on "Beauty in the Home".

It was voted to take a homemade gift to the next meeting for the Goodwill Industries "Gift Shop".

Favors were made for the Halloween Party at Michener School.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. David Rickaby.

Storage life of foods in the home freezer is cut about one-half for every five degrees the freezer temperature rises above zero. Foods that will keep for a year at zero will be good for only 5-6 months at temperatures of +5 degrees say Michigan State University foods specialists.

BUILDING PERMITS

Tecumseh Township has zoning regulations and a permit is needed to build, alter or repair any dwelling. A first floor plan is required which will be kept by Building Inspector.

Permits should be secured before construction is started.

No House Trailers will be lived in, any place in Tecumseh Township, except in Trailer Parks.

Also required is an electrical permit for any type wiring. This permit can be secured from the City Engineer of Tecumseh.

Township Board meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at The Tecumseh Implement Company.

PATTERSON SCHOOL PATTER

By SHERRIE LEE HART

In Mrs. James Lincoln's third grade room the children have had a funny visitor—a praying mantice. They have been making scientific investigations of their friend.

They also have been decorating for Halloween.

In Mrs. Oleg Michajlenko's fourth grade room the boys and girls have been studying renaming numbers in mathematics. In social studies, they are studying Hawaii and in science class the group is studying physical changes.

On the back board they have little ghosts with the children's names. They also have pumpkin heads.

These little ghosts are peeking out from in back of spooky trees and bushes. The kids are making Halloween masks.

Past Matrons Club Meets

The annual meeting of the Past Matrons Club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Chester Beach.

It was preceded by a dinner at the Brooklyn restaurant. Fifteen members and two guests; Mrs. Dora Warren, past matron of Brooklyn, and the junior past matron of Tecumseh, Mrs. Henry Kempf, were in attendance.

Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Kempf were initiated into the club with an impressive ceremony.

Officer elections resulted in the choice of Mrs. Cecil Veile, president; Mrs. Robert Bonner, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Westgate, secretary and Mrs. John Smith, treasurer.

The Christmas party will be held at the Cecil Viele home Dec. 5, at 6 p.m. Husbands are invited to the party and a $1 gift exchange will take place.

The Lenawee-Monroe Alumni meeting for all past matrons will be held in Clinton, Nov. 11.

Will Hold Dinner Party

Myrtle Coller, 326 Toledo St., Adrian, will be the hostess for a Thanksgiving dinner and feather party Wednesday, Nov. 17, for the Democratic Women's Club.

Rhea Burch, secretary of the group, asks that those attending bring table service and food for the potluck affair.

Will Remember

In commemoration of Michigan Nurse Week Nov. 7-13, the nurses at Herrick Memorial Hospital will offer coffee in both the outpatient lounge and the lobby of the hospital all week.

From 9 a.m. until 8 p.m., cups of hot refreshment will be available.

"Accent on the Michigan Nurse" is the theme for the week and a display pertaining to nursing will emphasize that theme.

Pentecost Farm Bureau Meets

The Pentecost Farm Bureau Group met on Saturday night, October 16, at the home of Mrs. Donna Baker.

The group will participate in helping with the County Farm Bureau food tent at the National Corn Pickng contest.

Ivan Hunt was discussion leader and after a short business meeting, sandwiches, cake, Jello and coffee were served by the hostess.

Follies Planned

An amateur stage production will be the Tecumseh Jaycees' next major effort in a campaign to raise money for Tecumseh High school football lights.

Being called the "Jaycee Follies," it is slated for January of 1966 with Jerome H. Cargill Production Co. of New York producing the show.

All profits will be donated to the Football Lights Fund.

★

PRELIMINARY meetings were held this week and committees will be announced soon, according to Jack Lundi and Mrs. John Howell, co-chairmen of the event.

The Jaycee Auxiliary will assist on key committees and Mrs. Walt Wonderly will serve as Auxiliary co-ordinator.

Although sponsored by Jaycees, the Follies is to be a community production and auditions will be open to the public.

Try-out dates will be announced in advance.

Crowning Leads PTA Fair Events

Crowning of the king and queen will highlight the Ridgeway-Macon PTA Fun Fair to be held Saturday, Nov. 6, from 4 to 10 p.m. at the school.

The crowning will take place at 8 p.m. The election will be held this week.

Candidates from the rooms are:

Ridgeway fourth grade — Beverly Miller and Jim Brown

Ridgeway fifth grade — Kathy Pate and Richard Bryant

Ridgeway sixth grade — Linda Korth and Thomas Osburn

Macon fifth grade — Paula Terry and Jackie McCarley

Macon sixth grade — Vicki Wright and Dennis Long

Among the attractions this year will be a country store, fish pond, cake walk, darts, side show, spook house, record roll and cartoons.

The supper time is from 4 to 7:30 p.m.

The Ridgeway Beetles and The Shindoggers will be featured on a TV spectacular entitled "An Evening of TV" starting at 9 p.m.

Also featured will be Dr. Ben Kilcasey portrayed by Harold Rhora who is directing the show.

Others participating are Charlese Bishop, Jim Stuart, Fred Long, John Slick, Stuart Spicer, Julie Rhora and Joan Slick.

Door prizes will be drawn at 9:30 p.m.

Charles Gunther of the Toledo Museum of Art will lecture on "Motives of Art" Thursday, at Siena Heights College at 8 p.m. as the third lecture in the Town and Gown art series. Mr. Gunther will consider some of the works of art in the Toledo Museum collection along with comments by the artists. He will examine the reasons artists give for their work in an attempt to analyze the creative process.

To the Editor:

Jesus said, "For the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister."

We believe that the church should reflect this same attitude today. So this calls for a different approach to our advertising.

To answer this need the Church of Christ rented all the off-street parking meters and gave free parking to the public on Friday and Saturday.

Many favorable comments wer received. One of the merchants commented, "This certainly is enterprising. I know people will be talking about this."

Another said, "There sure has been a lot of comment."

Pastor, Chure of Christ

Porter Speaks Tuesday

...better child education and don't let conservative ideas interfere with educating that child," Milton Porter, County School Superintendent, said at a Community Services Forum, Tuesday.

Speaking at the Elks Club in Adrian, Mr. Porter emphasized the need for cooperation of the entire county.

He indicated little need for 14 school districts in Lenawee County.

Mr. Porter feels that Lenawee County education should be centralized.

He indicated that an IBM card operation could shorten the task of pay checks and simplify overflowing file cabinets.

Mr. Porter stressed the need for a vocational school. He indicated that 52% of Lenawee County graduates do not continue beyond high school education. This indicates 1,500 graduates.

Vocational education is necessary and talk is not building the facilities. He stressed less talk and more action.

Michigan Nurse Week Observed November 7-13

"Accent on the Michigan Nurse", will be the theme for Michigan Nurse Week to be held November 7-13, in the Lenawee area. Over 20,000 nurses throughout the state will be saluted in this week-long observance, proclaimed by Governor Romney. The Michigan Nurses' Association is sponsoring the week to inform the public of nursing's role in each community. The observance also helps the public differentiate between the various nursing categories and strengthens the bond of understanding between the nurse and the public.

The purpose of the week is to provide the best possible health care for the citizens of Michigan by acquainting them with nursing needs and progress. Miss Ramona Stoddard, R. N., has been appointed chairman. Mrs. June Stoner, R. N., in Tecumseh, is a member of that committee.

Others on the committee are Mrs. Sandra Haberkamp, R. N., Public Health Nurse in Lenawee County, Mrs. Letha Smock, R. N., Mrs. Alice Smith, LPN., Mrs. John Loveland, LPN., and Mrs. Jennie Coy, R. N., from Bixby Hospital.

Mrs. Hazel Giddings, R. N., in Addison; Mrs. Edith Guss, R. N., and Carol Hartley, R. N., in Hudson; Mrs. Mara Nell Shaw, R. N., in Morenci.

Antiques

DEARBORN — A special exhibit, "Living With Antiques," in conjunction with the recent Midwest Antiques Forum at Greenfield Village, is on display daily through Nov. 30.

General Motors Elects Brownell Vice-President

NEW YORK — The Board of Directors of General Motors today elected Boyd B. Brownell a vice-president. Mr. Brownell last week was named general manager of Electro-Motive Division, La Grange, Ill. He succeeded Richard L. Terrell, also a vice-president of General Motors, who has moved to Frigidaire Division, Dayton, Ohio, as general manager.

Kenneth Bortel Will Exhibit In Chicago

CHICAGO — Lenawee county is among the Michigan counties from which entries have been received for the 1965 International Live Stock Exposition.

Kenneth Bortel, owner of Bo-Mar Farms near Britton, will be exhibiting purebred Corriedale sheep at this event which will celebrate its 66th anniversary this year as te country's largest stock show.

It will be held here November 26 to December 4 in the 13-acre International Amphitheatre at the Chicago Stock Yards. Fourteen Horse Shows are scheduled during the exposition's 9-day run; and the show management reports that Championship Rodeo will be featured at each.

Shower Honors Bride Elect Janice Hall

Bride-elect Janice Hall was guest of honor at a kitchen shower last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Hamilton.

Twenty-one friends of the bride-to-be enjoyed home-centered games and presented Miss Hall with a variety of lovely gifts.

Red and white cariations in a cookie jar which was shaped like an old-fashioned cook stove formed the centerpiece on the refreshment table covered with a red and white checked cloth. The centerpiece was presented to the honored guest.

Mrs. James Barton was co-hostess for the event. Mrs. Charles O'Neil of Clinton was a guest.

Miss Hall's marriage to Ronald O'Neill will be an event of Nov. 20.

4-H Jets Plan Achievement Night Program

The annual achievement night program of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club will be held Saturday, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m. in the Tipton Church basement.

The meeting is scheduled one week late due to the Lenawee County achievement night program being held on the regular meeting night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ohlman, Mr. and Mrs. Raymor Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Radant and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jackson are on the supper committee.

They ask that each family furnish own table service, dish to pass and dessert.

The comittee will furnish meat, potatoes, rolls, coffee and milk.

Driver Swerves Down Into Ditch

Joseph W. LaCourse, 18, of Toledo, was the driver of a car which went down a six-foot embankment beside a private drive. He swerved to avoid another vehicle which was entering the drive at a high rate of speed. The mishap occurred at 1:30 a.m. Sunday, on M-50, east of Pentecost Hwy.

Three 18-year-old passengers, all from Toledo, were treated for minor injuries and released at Herrick Memorial Hospital. They are Sharon Kronpak, Carl Schliessen and Patricia Sandoff.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Official Church Board meets Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 8 p.m., at the church. Prayer Circle in the church dining room Tuesday, Nov. 9, 1:30 p.m.

George Domke of Saline and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and sons of Adrian. Mr. Domke's birthday anniversary was observed.

Stanley LaPointe, of Erie, was struck by his son, driving a combine on his farm on Welch Rd., last Saturday morning. He was taken to St. John's Hospital in Toledo. He received a broken leg and bruises.

Mrs. Lora Hasted has returned home after spending a week with her friend, Mrs. Walter Harmon, in Waterloo, Ind. She was formerly a resident of Macon.

Mrs. Dean Moore, Mrs. Carl [illegible], Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Edward Zick, Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore and Mrs. Walter Damberg of Dundee attended the Detroit Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, at the Midland Methodist Church, last Tuesday.

Last Thursday afternoon Misses Alma and Luella Miller of Ann Arbor, formerly of Macon and Mrs. Cregar also of Ann Arbor, called on Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr. They came to see the church symbols that are being made for the Chrismon Tree, to be displayed in the Macon Methodist Church on Dec. 5.

Mrs. Sam Tanana has moved to Tecumseh, where she has purchased a home on Pottawatamie St., across from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family entertained Sunday dinner guests in honor of the birthday anniversary of his mother, Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore. Other guests were A1/C and Mrs. Richard Moore of Glendale, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son, Rodney, of Tecumseh.

Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conrad and son, Jeffery, of Ann Arbor.

The Macon Woman's Club were hosts for the Annual Reciprocity Day. The guests were members of the Saline Woman's Club and the Willing Workers. Mrs. Eugene Hill welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Robert Smith, of Saline, gave a reading on "Halloween". Mrs. Arthur Lopshire, of Macon, showed pictures on Mexico and gave an interesting account of their visit there.

The Macon Woman's Society of Christian Service were hosts for the societies from the Tecumseh, Clinton and Grace Methodist Churches last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Carl Thomas played appropriate music as Mrs. Robert Osborne, Spiritual Life Secretary, welcomed the guests to the Annual Prayer and Self-Denial program.

Mrs. Clarence Hall of Macon gave the meditation on the Hymn "O Zion, Haste." Mrs. Lawson Ward, of Clinton, gave the prayer. Mrs. Lynn Noble of Tecumseh, Mrs. Paul Bailey and Mrs. Fred Schroeber of Britton, Mrs. Truman Jordan, Sr., of Macon, and Mrs. Guy Zelluff gave various parts of the program. The collection will go towards a new library for Scarritt College. The theme was "Expect Great Things from God, Attempt Great Things for God".

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held Thursday by reading "The Purpose". Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. Paul Hover presented a program on "Do Something — A Commitment to God".

Ladies told about the Prayer Circle, The UNICEF Program and what good it does, the Methodist Discipline and Prayer Calendar. Mrs. Charles Gorton reported that there would be eight servicemen's boxes to be packed this year for Christmas, four would be sent overseas. She would like candies, cookies and small fruit cakes. The boxes will be packed at the November meeting.

It was reported that $101.00 was cleared from the rummage sale and $50.00 from the bake sale.

Mrs. Hawkins will look into the possibility of selling home-made noodles. The church calendars are at the printers.

Leslie Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe, broke his ankle Friday evening in the Britton-Macon and Whiteford game. Earlier in the week his brother, John, received a severe sprained ankle in a fall at school. Both are able to be around on crutches.

Fred Snaubles entered Herrick Memorial Hospital on Wednesday, October 27.

The milkman of the future may bring the family milk supply in a plastic, throw-away bottle. And, for families with many milk drinkers, a refrigerator size can or tank may be dropped off and picked up every few days. These are the predictions of Michigan State University dairy experts.

THE BEETLES — The Ridgeway-Macon PTA Fun Fair has a foursome of "Beetles" of its own. From left, Mrs. Ted Greenfield, Mrs. Orville Cook, Mrs. Roger Palmer and Mrs. Harold Amstutz, will "appear on TV" at the school during the hours of 4 to 10 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 6.

Bursley Urges 'Sell Michigan'

By Senator Gil Bursley

Let's all be ambassadors for Michigan! We have a great product to sell!

Michigan's 8,000,000 people live in the heartland of North America surrounded by half of the world's fresh water supply. And water today is a most valuable commodity as it becomes polluted and scarce in the face of rising populations and intensified industrialization.

Michigan's industrial production and agricultural output is fabulous. If Michigan were separated from the United States—solely for purposes of making this point—Michigan would rank 11th among the nations of the world in terms of gross national product and personal income.

Michigan has almost $24 billion dollars in personal incomes and over 26 billions in total production of goods and services (Known as GNP or gross national product).

Now lets rank the countries of the world in terms of GNP. The USA is first with a figure currently around 650 billion dollars. Other countries (1961 figures in billions) show West Germany ($66.6); United Kingdom ($65.7); France ($52.8); Japan ($42.7); Canada ($32.4); India ($31.3); and Italy ($30.6). The USSR would probably be second and Red China somewhere in this group but comparable figures from a communist economy are not available.

Michigan would rank 11th with its $26 billions. Trailing well behind Michigan would be Brazil in 12th place.

Michigan is first in the nation in the production of automobiles (over 37%); truck trailers and mobile homes; boat building; conveyors; machine shop work; gray-iron foundry production metal stampings; hardware supplies; salt; sporting and athletic goods; steel springs; cereals; public building fixtures padding and upholstery filling; and internal combustion engines.

Michigan is the nation's vacationland in all seasons, leading all other states in the sale of hunting and fishing licenses, in the number of state parks and prepared campsites, and with almost 10 ski resort areas to rival the thousands of miles of summer beaches.

Michigan has the finest public education system in the country with 11 independent state universities, featuring superior professional training in medicine, law, public health, engineering, aeronautics, metallurgy and agricultural research. Michigan is known as the research center of America.

Michigan has a major role in world markets. The state exported over $1.5 billion last year and imported andother $1 billion. Some 500 Michigan businesses sell goods abroad worth $25,000 or more. These establishments employ half a million workers. Michigan's agricultural exports now surpass $100 million annually. Transportation equipment makes up half of Michigan's exports but Michigan ranks second in the nation in export of non-electrical machinery and high in chemicals and allied products and primary metals.

Michigan is tops! Let's talk her up and keep it that way!

When Junior Is Bed-Ridden

With the sniffle season almost upon us, youngsters may have to be kept from school and confined to bed for a few days.

Here are some tips to help keep junior happy and mother's nerves intact:

► If medicine is prescribed, enlist the child's help in keeping track of when it's due. Have him make a chart, with a box score, that indicates the schedule of medication.

Let him man the alarm clock, which serves as a reminder. This kind of involvement may make him less resistant to medication.

► Keep his room neat and attractive, again enlist his help. Dressed in pajamas, robe and slippers, he might arrange items on a bridge table kept within reach of his bed.

If liquids are prescribed, a Thermos of juice, a bottle of soda pop with opener, clean paper cups, a pile of paper napkins, could be kept on the table, a wastepaper basket near it.

He can then help himself instead of calling mother whenever he wants a drink. The same table can hold a selection of books, pencils, a pair of scissors, two or three games, a deck of cards, a radio. Coloring books and crayons are helpful for a young child.

► Mother might set aside several times a day for playing with the sickling or reading to him. She might have a small supply of inexpensive "surprises" — games, puzzles, paperbacks — on hand to give him from time to time.

Train at Goodwill Retarded Children

The second year of a cooperative program to evaluate vocational training of the severely retarded began last week at Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Michigan.

Cooperating in the program are Lenawee Institute and Goodwill Industries.

Involving 13 retarded children, the program is designed to provide the pupils with a basic skill for use in the home or in a sheltered workshop such as Goodwill.

W. L. Mavis, Rehabilitation Services Coordinator of Goodwill, structured the program and will work with special education coordinator George Eidson, Director of Lenawee Institute.

★

JOYCE BRUGGER, Social Case Worker at Goodwill Industries, will act as program supervisor.

Mary Ellen Vogel of Lenawee Institute will be the special education teacher, and Dorothy Strobel of Goodwill, a former teacher, will work in the area of occupational therapy.

The program will run the entire school year, three days a week from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Pupils will spend four weeks in each job area and receive social training.

The other two days a week they will be at Lenawee Institute for academic work. The pupils in the vocational program range in age from 14 to 18 years.

Goodwill hired five graduates of the 1964-65 program for work in their sheltered workshop.

Training received in the program proved that they could perform simple repetitive tasks in a sheltered environment while earning self-respect, confidence and partial independence.

Will Chair Institute For MEA

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greene are co-chairmen for the Friday morning portion of the program for the Regional MEA Institute in Ann Arbor.

"Relieving Tensions" is the topic with Dr. Stewart Finch, director of the Children's Psychiatric Hospital, Ann Arbor, the speaker.

The Tecumseh Players will present a skit and Roger Porter of Clinton will play the piano to emphasize the theme.

Macy Is Altar Society Speaker

Fr. James Macy, A. B., M. A., assistant professor in speech at the Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, will be the speaker at the meeting of St. Elizabeth Altar Society Wednesday, Nov. 10.

His topic will be "Seminarians and How They Grow."

Don't Place Missionaries on a Pedestal

By KATHRYN SOMMERS

"Refrain from placing missionaries on a pedestal. They're just like everyone else," said Norma Freer speaking to the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Tecumseh Friends Church last week.

Society members met in the church sanctuary Oct. 19 to hear Miss Freer, missionary-on-furlough from India.

Miss Freer said that the Indian people are interested in literature as never before. Part of the work of the Friends' missionaries in that country is preparing and distributing Christian literature.

Unfortunately, the Communists too have capitalized on the literature interest.

★

DURING HER three terms in Chatapur, central India, Miss Freer has been associated with a 75-bed hospital.

The hospital has eight family wards which are used in the literal sense.

In India a person requiring hospitalization is accompanied to the hospital by family members. The family stays as long as the patient.

"They believe in our proverb: 'the more the merrier'," said Miss Freer. She added that these "family wards" are the bane of the missionary doctors' lives.

In the hospital a "Bible Woman" visits from bed to bed comforting the patients. She conducts a religious service for ambulatory cases and may have as many as 120 in attendance.

On Saturday nights religious films are shown. They seem to be especially well received, Miss Freer said.

★

THE HOSPITAL has a book room which sells portions of the Bible. "The selling of these books as a psychological basis," Miss Freer said.

The mission doesn't do it because they need the money. Rather, it's the idea that "what is bought is desired."

On Bazaar Day, people from the mission go into the market place to sell the Bibles. As many as 900 are purchased in one day.

Miss Freer told of personally selling four copies to one man and then later observing him holding one of the books upside down.

As she spoke here last week, Miss Freer wore a pink nylon sari, trimmed with gold thread. With humor she related that it is almost a must to wear a sari in public in India.

"If a woman appears on the street wearing a dress and hose," she said, "she is a constant curiosity to the Indian people."

A crowd will follow the lady and she must answer countless questions such as, "Why are your face and your legs a different color?"

The children may even tug at the mysterious stockings to see if they're fabric or skin.

★

TEMPERATURES as high as 116 degrees make the use of fans popular. Also, a local cooling system is effective — hanging a wet mat in a doorway to be cooled by the hot wind which is always blowing.

Miss Freer mentioned that the caste system affects even the boarding schools. In a low caste school everything is free — clothes, books and other supplies.

Mrs. Harold Righter conducted the business portion of the evening. Mrs. Robert MacDonald and Mrs. Paul Brantingham were hostesses for the social time.

Mrs. Baker Elected V-P

A record attendance of more than 300 persons was noted. Mrs. Donald Freeburn and Mrs. Eddie Kirkland, co-chairmen of the membership committee, reported 140 membership cards were signed.

Choir groups composed of elementary, eighth grade and high school students, directed by Mrs. Donald Geiger, presented a well prepared musical program. They were accompanied by Barbara Bowman and Melissa Mattis at the piano.

The parents were welcomed into each classroom in both of the school buildings to meet the teachers and to receive a capsule resume of each class.

Mrs. Donald Houghton's fourth grade students presented a skit.

Cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. William Shelley, Mrs. Herbert Blumhardt, Mrs. Harold Girbach, Mrs. Wyman Rhoades and Mrs. Lewis Blaisdell.

Clinton Folks Moving Around

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berk have sold their home on E. Michigan Ave. to Mr. and Mrs. Alcide LeGault of Ypsilanti. The Berks have gone to Florida for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ford are moving to Ann Arbor. They have sold their home at 206 Coman St. to Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Papsdorf of 8045 Arkona Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, not Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper, as was previously reported, moved recently to 121 W. Church St. The men are brothers, though, which may have caused the confusion.

The William Coopers and five children formerly lived in the Heimerdinger house on US-12 east of Clinton. The Robert Coopers and three children are quite content to remain at 21672 Willow Rd.

Invite Girls To Join Club

Girls are invited to join the Tecumseh Junior Rifle Club, by the leader, George Racey.

Girls between 13 and 17 who are interested in learning firearm marksmanship and safety are invited to the meetings every Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the community center. These meetings will be just for girls.

The club is sponsored by the Tecumseh Rifle and Pistol Club and the National Rifle Association.

When a girl has successfully completed the eight-week class at a cost of $4, she may join the club and may have her own firearms at that time.

★

THERE WILL be a girl's annual marksmanship trophy each year.

There have been classes for boys' marksmanship for three years, but this is the first time a class has been arranged for girls.

This year's rotating trophies were donated by the Senior Rifle and Pistol Club, the Underwood-Orr American Legion Post and by Harold Easton.

The club provides smaller trophies which the winners keep and they are currently displayed at the Tecumseh Library.

The annual Shoot-off will be held in January.

Citizens Attend Member Drop-In

Forty-five attended the weekly "Drop-In" of the Senior Citizens Thursday at the Community Center, playing cards and shuffle board and chatting.

Homemade pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the ladies at the 3 p.m. coffee break.

Several members are asking other senior citizens, "Why don't you join us, we won't ask your age. The Community Center is open every Thursday afternoon, just for us."

A potluck dinner is being held Thursday, Nov. 11, at 12:30 p.m. by the group.

Those attending will bring their own table service and a well filled dish to pass. Cards and a game with groceries for prizes will be the afternoon activity

THE COMMON MARKET by Harry B. Ellis. In this exceptionally thorough and lucid account of the European Economic Community, as the Common Market is officially called, the author traces the struggle to break down national rivalries from before the days of Charlemagne to the present. Timely and fascinating, this is a book to be read by all interested in peace and prosperity in the world today — and in the future.

THE FORTRESS by Catherine Gavin. A panorama of mid-nineteenth century life is spread majestically before the reader, from high social life in St. Petersburg and Paris through the Finnish countryside to the horrors of prison in the Sheerness hulks. An historical novel of the Baltic campaigns of the Crimean War.

BACKTRACK. In Milton Lott's hands the western novel takes on the depth and authenticity of truly creative writing. This new story, set in the days of cowboys and cattle drives, adds a gaily home-brewed humor which will delight many readers.

THE LONG DAY WANES, A Malayan Trilogy, by Anthony Burgess. Set in post-war Malaya at the time when people and governments alike are bemused and dazzled by the turmoil of independence, this three-part novel is rich in hilarious comedy and razor-sharp observation.

It Was Fun

Everything clicked for Clinton's Homecoming. The Band majorettes (left) stepped off briskly to lead the parade floats on Friday afternoon. The seniors won first prize with "Mow Down Grass Lake." Gerry Eddy (center) was flanked by the two senior runners-up, DeeDee Carleton (left) and Sandra Winchell. The Redskins took the seniors' hint, really dropping Grass Lake, 34-0, to delight all the old grads on the sidelines.

HERALD PHOTOS BY JIM WILBAR

Skins Face Moment of Truth

CLINTON — Now comes the Moment of Truth.

Coach Phil Bareis' undefeated Clinton Redskins clash with Manchester's Dutchmen Friday.

It's being billed as the game of the year for both crews.

Even though Manchester has dropped one game — a last-quarter defeat to Onsted, 13-12 — the teams are rated fairly even.

There probably will be little activity around Clinton from about 6 to 10:30 Friday night, with most of the town over in Manchester.

But, should the Skins win, watch for some major victory celebrations here in late evening.

★

Once again, the defense held, keeping the Skin goal line uncrossed.

In the scoring column, Butch Hoelzer and Gene Brown both tallied two touchdowns with Karry Heirholzer also hitting pay dirt.

Brown's scores were the most spectacular, coming on romps of 70 and 65 yards. Roger Proctor place kicked a quartet of extra points.

A 30-yard sprint by Ivan McKenna was the key play in getting the pigskin in position for the second tally.

★

LINEBACKER Phil Smith was a tower of strength on defense and his pass interception led directly to the last Skin TD.

Smith, Bob Pardee and Rory O'Connor shined on defense as Clinton smothered the Grass Lakers.

Clinton Celebrates Postal Dedication

CLINTON — Bright sunshine and a gentle fall breeze favored the more than 100 Clinton residents who attended the dedication ceremony for the new post office, Saturday afternoon.

Musical selections by the Clinton High School band, directed by Karl Wirt, opened the program.

Robert E. Mohr, Clinton Postmaster, introduced Lester Procter, the master of ceremonies.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Donald Heacock, pastor of the St. John's Episcopal Church.

John Truesdale, Village President, extended the welcome.

Mr. Proctor introduced the guests, including several visiting postmasters from surrounding communities and the guest speaker, Donald L. Swanson, Regional Director from Chicago.

Mr. Swanson is a native of Detroit, formerly mayor of Southfield, manager of the Michigan State Fair and a teacher in the Detroit Schools.

He told his audience of the vast changes which have taken place in the postal service of this country and gave them a brief glimpse into the automated age of postal service which is approaching with the advent of such innovations as the zip code.

Weston E. Vivian, Congressman of the Second District, was introduced.

Congressman Vivian remarked on the phenomenal development of industry in the area and the cultivating of natural resources for recreational purposes which are bringing great prosperity to citizens of the area.

"Much of this is due to the efforts of individuals," he said, "and as individuals you can make a difference in helping your community to thrive and prosper."

Mr. Vivian presented a new 50-star flag to Postmaster Mohr, and introduced his legislative assistant, Gary Frick, who assisted Charles Noragon, Commander of the Frederick E. Pieper Post American Legion, with raising the flag on the post office standard.

The band played the national anthem and the benediction was read by the Rev. Fr. Edward F. Kalinowski of St. Dominic's Church.

Visitors enjoyed a tour of the facilities and were served donuts and cider by local Girl Scouts.

Homecoming Floats Are Prize Winners

CLINTON — Neatness, attention to detail and considerable originality was displayed by the six floats appearing in the homecoming parade, Friday afternoon.

Although the gusty wind slightly damaged some of the floats, the bright sunshine favored the many camera fans among the spectators lining the village streets as the Clinton High School marching band led the parade.

The floats were judged by John Prible and Herbert Schott.

$5 second prize — "Climb to Victory" by the ninth grade.

$2 third prize — "Grass Lake Massacre" by the eighth grade.

Other floats included:

"Victory is Brewin" by the juniors.

"Time of Success" by the sophomores.

"Make Trash of the Warriors" by the seventh grade.

Church Women Meet Nov. 11

CLINTON—Five church women's groups have meetings planned for Thursday, Nov. 11.

Pretty Gerry Eddy Is Clinton Queen

CLINTON — Pretty, demure, dark-haired Gerry Eddy was named queen of the Clinton Homecoming Friday, by vote of her peers in the Clinton Community Schools. Gerry is a senior, rating a place on the honor roll last week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eddy of 108 Washington St.

A bouquet of scarlet red roses were presented to Gerry by last year's queen, DeDe Meyers, as Miss Eddy and her court of representatives from the junior high and senior high classes were escorted onto Hartman Field during the half-time festivities at the football game between Clinton and Grass Lake.

After the game, queen Gerry reigned at the Homecoming dance in the school, where she was squired by her date, Jim Tallman, a sophomore at MSU.

Taking part in the afternoon parade of floats and the half-time ceremony were queen candidates, DeeDee Carleton and Sandra Winchell, both seniors and the queen's court of class representatives: Patricia Walker, junior; Janelle Berlin, sophomore; Sally Beck, freshman; Jan Shelley, eighth grade and Jeannie Meeks, seventh grade.

Julie Hendrickson of Southfield and Mona Pate and Wendy Baker of Detroit were weekend guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul McKenna and family.

The girls, who had attended the church Camp Talahi last summer with Ivan McKenna, Brad Bihlmeyer and Doug Wight, were guests of the boys for the Homecoming events in Clinton Friday, remaining until Sunday. Paula McKenna was home from Western Michigan University for the weekend.

Mrs. Delbert R. Tallman's brother-in-law, Donald E. Barth, 36, of Saline, was killed Thursday when his car hit the rear of a farm combine on US-12 near Saline. Besides his widow, Mrs. Tallman's sister, he is survived by three small children.

Mrs. Arlene Smith is a patient in the South Bend Memorial Hospital, South Bend, Ind., recovering from a broken back received in an automobile accident on Oct. 17.

She was returning to Clinton with her two children when the accident occurred. She expects to be moved to an area hospital soon. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Ray Newton.

The children, who were unhurt, are staying with their uncle, Ray Newton, Jr., and wife in Tecumseh.

A daughter, Elizabeth Kay, was born Oct. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. William Van Camp of Ypsilanti, in the Toledo Osteopathic Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Van Camp of Clinton are the paternal grandparents.

Celebrate Golden Halloween

CLINTON — Trihty-nine members of the Golden Age Club enjoyed an imiginative Halloween party on Oct. 26 in the Community Center.

Mrs. Dayton Sell served as master of ceremonies for the humorous program which she had arranged.

Costumed members took part in musical numbers including an impromptu quartet composed of Mrs. Fred Schwellinger, Mrs. Alfred Wheaton, Mrs. Daniel Reilly and Mrs. Clarence Feldkamp.

There were musical selections by Mrs. Ralph Halladay, Mrs. Dorothy Frolich, Mrs. Fred Hadley and Mrs. Wheaton.

A dance by Mr. Hadley, a duet by the Schwellingers and a skit by Mrs. Wheaton and Mrs. Schwellinger added to the fun.

Mrs. Pearl Campbell and Mrs. Florence Bauer read humorous poems.

Several members comprised a kitchen band, accompanied by pianists, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Hazel Thompson.

The club song, written by Mrs. Sell, was sung to complete the program.

Serving refreshments from a table decorated in a Halloween theme were Mrs. Bauer, Glen Randall, Mrs. Ethel St. John and Mrs. Clyde Sloat.

Drazic Family Moves to Town

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drazic have purchased the Arthur Martiny house at 303 W. Franklin St. and plan to move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Drazic have been the owners and operators of the Astrolite Motel on Tecumseh Rd. The business will now be operated by their daughter, Mrs. Jacquie Miller of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Martiny and family will reside temporarily in the Hubert Van Camp cottage at Evans Lake.

Matrons Will Hold Alumni Banquet

CLINTON — The alumni banquet for Past Matrons of the chapters in the Lenawee Monroe Association, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held in Clinton, Thursday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. Homer Larrabee, past matron of the Golden Rod Chapter, and her committee will receive the visitors in the Masonic Hall at 5 p.m.

The dinner will be served by the chapter members in the dining room at the United Church of Christ, with the past matrons returning to the lodge hall after dinner for an election of officers and a program.

Plan Annual Smorgasbord

CLINTON — The annual smorgasbord supper will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church hall, Saturday, Nov. 5, beginning at 5 p.m.

Publicity chairman, Lois Lancaster, says take-outs will be available if containers are brought in. Children under three years will be free.

Entertain Son and His Bride

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Smith entertained Sunday afternoon at a post-wedding reception in St. John's Lyster Hall for their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Smith.

The couple were married Oct. 23 in the Christ the King Lutheran Church, Racine, Wis., by the Rev. Mr. Wolff.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sorensen of Racine.

Attending the bride was her twin sister, Mrs. Gene Tessman, of Sturtevant, Wis., and other sisters, Mrs. Karen Weigand, of Dagmar, Mont., and Sandra Sorensen of Racine.

Airman Erhard Reimann of Selfridge Field was the best man.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the Roma Lodge in Racine, after the ceremony. Attending from Clinton were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jessie Smith and daughter, Linda, and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Baird and Jerry Rhoades.

The bride is a graduate of Washington Park High School in Racine. The bridegroom is a graduate of Clinton High School and recently completed a four-year tour of duty with the Air Force. He is employed at the hydraulic division of General Motors at Willow Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside at 205½ E. Michigan Ave., in Clinton.

Mrs. John Monaghan attended the funeral of a life-long friend, Mrs. Mary McCabe of Dexter at St. Joseph Church last Thursday.

SHE PROVES IT — Mrs. Harry Lambert, in the comedy, "Never Too Late", played by Mrs. William Frownfelder, seated above, has developed a smile and other things that will cause considerable preparation in the Lambert home. At left she is shown going over plans with carpenter Don Partridge and above she explains the situation to her husband, played by Guil Rothfuss, standing, and to her daughter, played by Lori Egli, and husband, Keith Tucker. The Tecumseh Players performance of "Never Too Late" will be at 8 p.m., Nov. 4, 5, 6, 10, 11 and 13.

Fisher Body Will Stage Open House

A day-and-a-half open house will be held at the new Fisher Body plant of Tecumseh beginning Thursday afternoon, Nov. 18, announced Lewis J. Lamm, plant manager.

Open to the general public, as well as families and friends of Fisher Body employees, the plant will welcome visitors between 4 and 8 p.m. on Nov. 18.

On Nov. 19, open house hours will be between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. and again from 4 to 10 p.m.

In announcing the open house, Mr. Lamm said, "We are proud of our new modern plant and are inviting people from the entire Lenawee County community to see, first-hand, how their friends, neighbors and relatives who work here produce upholstery trim for Fisher bodies."

★

VISITORS TO the plant will also see the futuristic General Motors car, the Chevrolet Mako Shark II Corvette and some of the winning entries in the 1965 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition.

Light refreshments will be served to guests in the plant cafeteria. There will be an open house souvenir for all.

The tour route will take visitors through:

- ► Administrative offices
- ► Mechanized storage area, where bolts of upholstery materials are stacked two stories high
- ► Material cutting, embossing and sewing areas
- ► Plant cafeteria.

★

BECAUSE of limited parking space at the plant, there will be free bus service leaving from and returning to downtown locations in both Adrian and Tecumseh every half hour during the hours of the open house.

In Adrian, the public can get the Fisher Body bus at Main and Maumee Sts., on the northeast corner of Main.

In Tecumseh, buses will leave and return to the intersection of Chicago and Evans, on the northeast corner of Chicago.

Ground was broken for the new Fisher Body Tecumseh plant in July, 1964. Today, employment is approximately 880 and steadily increasing as training of personnel permits.

The new facility is located south of Tecumseh on Occidental Highway, just north of Gady Rd.

Halloween Theme Pervades Herrick

Orange and black haunted houses, each with a private white sheeted spook, make up the tray favors for the Herrick Nursing home this month.

The many nimble fingers of Junior Girl Scout troop 76 were the creators. Mrs. Robert Leathers and Mrs. William MacBeth were the designers.

A Brownie investiture service is planned by troop 202, led by Mrs. Ed Pistole and Mrs. Paul Henning.

Nine new girls will be pinned, bringing the total membership of the troop to 19. The service will be Nov. 9 at 3:30 p.m. at Herrick Park School.

The format of the final leader training session has been changed. It will be a crafts program open to all scouters.

The location will be the Kimball Community Center in Clinton from 10 to 11:45 Nov. 3.

7 Spooks See Preview to Halloween

Seven tiny spooks in costume attended a "What to Expect on Halloween" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Dahlke, Oct. 28.

Karl and Dana Dahlke entertained two-to-four-year-old guests, Nancy Beevers, Colette, Matthew and Michael Marr and Renee Brighton.

Pictures of ghosts, witches and scare crows helped the tots to know what they might expect to see coming to their door for "Trick or Treats" Halloween.

They also played games finding nose, mouth, eyes and ears and colored Halloween pictures.

Pumpkin cookies and cider were served to the little people after they rode stick ponies.

Round Top 4-H Installs New Officers

Round Top 4-H Club started out the new club year with a meeting on Oct. 25, at the North Adrian Grange Hall.

New members initiated are Kevin Baldwin, Mobbie Paschal, Linda DuShane, Charles Gilhouse, Dennis Johnston and Lynn Sedelbauer.

A good program was presented by Youth Safety Officer Paul J. Shaffer of the Adrian Police Department who talked and showed movies on safety.

Members met with their leaders and refreshments were served by host families, Sellers, Fritz's, Blakers and Webster's.

Hunting Accidents on Increase

LANSING — With Michigan's "Red Army" preparing for the invasion of the State's forests in search of the elusive buck and doe, Senator Gilbert Bursley, Republican, Ann Arbor, offered some startling accident figures for this year's estimated 600,000 deer hunters.

(The new deer season, set by the Legislature this year, runs from November 13th to 28th in the Upper Peninsula and will open November 20th and run through December 5th in the Lower Peninsula.)

With hunting accidents increasing every year, Bursley has asked deer and small game hunters to be doubly alert this year.

Last year, according to Conservation Department figures, 564,000 deer licenses were issued, but with doe permit requests up 60,000 this year, the total is expected to be a record-breaking 600,000 deer licenses issued.

The 1964 State hunting accident toll took a turn in the wrong direction as 16 sportsmen were killed and another 264 wounded during the deer and small game season.

The total of 280 shooting mishaps was a 41% increase over the 1963 season, and 13% above the State's 10 year average. Bursley stressed that a close look at hunting accidents bears out the fact that the biggest threats to sportsmen are their own weapons and their hunting partners.

For example, Bursley said, one of every four gun victims wounded himself and for every 3 hunters wounded, one was in the range of 10 yards or less from the gun that did the damage.

The distance from gun to victim was 100 yards or less in 77% of al laccidents.

Bursley said that according to figures compiled by the Conservation Department and Michigan State Police, hunters under 17 years of age were responsible for 30% of last season's accidents. Hunters in the 17-24 age group, who purchased 24% of last year's small game licenses, accounted for 26% of hunter casualties. Hunters in the 25-32 age group, comprising 20% of the hunter total, represented 16% of the accidents. Hunters 33 years and older, representing 43% of last season's licensed sportsmen, accounted for 28% of firearm injuries.

★

With license sales totaling 545,600 last year, the season's accident rate averaged one death per 54,560 hunters and one wounded for every 9,093 hunters. With this year's hunter total expected to increase by 60,000 plus, Bursley warned that the death and accident ratio will climb and asked sportsmen to reduce the accident ratio by following the Ten Commandments of Gun Safety:

1. Treat every gun as if it were loaded — it could be.

2. Unload your gun before taking it into home, camp or car.

3. Check now and then to make sure the barrel and action are clear of obstructions like mud, snow or ice.

4. Always carry your gun so you can control the direction of the muzzle should you trip, fall, or bump your arm.

5. Be sure of your target before you even put your finger on the trigger.

6. Never point your gun at anything you don't want to shoot.

7. Before you put your gun away — whether for an hour, or a year, — check and recheck to make sure it is empty.

8. Never climb up a tree, over a fence, or into a boat with a loaded gun in your hand.

9. Never shoot at a flat hard surface, or at the surface of water.

10. Don't "mix" alcohol and firearms.

In pointing out the shocking statistics, Bursley further urged hunters to be doubly cautious by being careful of clothing and usual colors used by the hunters. Don't use visible white clothing. Avoid wearing white socks and exposed white shirts if possible and avoid littering the woods with white lunch papers, wrapping and tissues. Carry a flashlight before dawn so you don't trip over brush or debris. Keep your gun unloaded when carrying a light; in this way you will not be charged with "shining" deer, Bursley concluded.

Don't Hunt Alone

Hunters: If you have a heart condition, the Michigan Heart Association advises, never hunt alone.

New Westinghouse Heavy Duty 15 washer engineered to prevent costly repair bills
Next time your automatic quits, don't go to your neighbor's . . . Go to your Westinghouse dealer instead. See the new heavy duty washer engineered to avoid washday breakdowns.
new trouble-free transmission
It's half again as large as those found in other automatics. And the only one designed for heavy duty washloads. All its working parts are tested and completely checked. It should actually last twice as long as the transmission found in ordinary washers.
new vibration-free suspension system
Heavy duty suspension system is securely bolted to its massive steel base. Designed to take the strain of heavy family use, and to prevent vibrations caused by extra-heavy washloads.
new Giant-Action agitator
Built-in ramps pull your clothes into the center of the tub. Agitator moves backward while the ribbed basket moves forward creating a double-cleaning action.
Big 15 pound capacity
To handle today's big washloads, you need an automatic washer like the new Heavy Duty 15. It's designed to tackle any load from a big 15 pounds to the smallest family size.
Proof: tested 138,000 hours
From its porcelain top right down to its massive steel bottom, this new "Heavy Duty 15" has been checked, re-checked and tested—for 138,000 hours—to minimize the chance of costly repairs.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's reliable defense was scored upon for the second time in seven games, in their 27-20 victory over Ida's Bluestreaks.

Moe Jacobs ran 28 yards around left end for Boysville's initial score in the first quarter. End Allan Rockwell gathered in a McFarland pass in the early minutes of the second quarter and raced 60 yards for a touchdown called back in a holding penalty. Ida was next to score, but minutes later, Boysville's ball stood on the Ida one-yard line. Senior Joe Pawlus carried it over the middle for the second Boysville touchdown.

Ida received the opening kickoff of the second half and later scored on a four-yard pass play. They scored again, and led 20-13. Then, Moe Jacobs came alive for the second time, and ran eight yards for a touchdown.

In the final two minutes, with both teams tied in a 20-20 deadlock, Kevin Collins intercepted Ida's pass and ran down the right sideline for 58 yards and the winning touchdown.

The Knights totaled 247 yards rushing, 109 of which were by Moe Jacobs. Joe Pawlus was second in the groundgaining department with 77 yards. Norris McFarland attempted six passes and completed one for 14 yards and had one intercepted.

Friday the Knight journey to Adrian for their final and most crucial game of the season.

Pizza, pop, and chips was the repast indulged in by Boysville's student body at a Halloween party sponsored by the Sophomores last Thursday night. This annual affair featured entertainment offered by various booths (apple dunking and penny pitch, etc.) and other games.

Highlighting the evening's entertainment was a raffle of a case of pop and a cartoon of cigarettes, and a costume contest. Mrs. Arthur Lips, wife of Art Lips, the school custodian, performed the honor of drawing the winning tickets, and imagine her surprise when she drew her husband's ticket for the carton of cigarettes. Eighth Grader, Andy Gaul, won the case of pop.

Judges Brother Philip Armstrong, Brother Ronald, and Brother Thomas Friel, CSC, selected costume winners Charles Bromirski, Nick Carroll, Sam Kirkland, Rick Monfette, Dave Corpelango and Mike Kolp.

The "Syndicates" a campus rock'n'roll group, furnished music under the pretense of being the "Ghouls from Peoria." Festivities drew to a conclusion with showing the "Kiss of the Vampire."

March of Dimes Film Presented

BRITTON — A sound film emphasizing the projects supported by the March of Dimes was presented when the L and M Extension Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Martin Ivan.

Thirteen members were present to enjoy the noon luncheon served by the hostess and her co-hostess, Mrs. Orris Tubbs.

After the roll call of members telling of Halloween pranks, Mrs. Bert Moore led the business meeting when plans were made to present a program at Maple Lane Manor, Nov. 8.

Gifts were voted to UNICEF, CROP, and the Goodwill shop.

A study on family life was given and discussion led by Mrs. Gerald Benedict. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt.

Ticketed For Violating Basic Speed

James H. Frawley, 71, of St. Joseph Academy, Adrian, was given a summons for violating the basic speed law, Sunday afternoon, by Clinton State Police.

Frawley was driving on M-52 near Russell Rd. when his car struck a car driven by Michael L. Dinius, 23, of Tucson, Ariz., presently of Dinius Rd., Tecumseh. Dinius told officers he was signaling for a left turn when the collision occurred.

Herrick PTO Completes Member Drive

First grade at Herrick Park school won the mystery prize in the PTO membership drive completed Oct. 19 with 94% paid memberships, reported Mrs. Geo. VanCamp, Jr. at the Oct. 28 meeting.

Total paid membership this year is 230 with $115.50 was received in membership dues.

A table magnifying glass was the mystery prize awarded the first grade class. Each student was awarded a 'winners medal' to hang around their neck.

The PTO gave the class a halloween party on Friday. Each child was given a pumpkin hat and served ice cream and cookies.

*

The first grade, as the winning class, entertained the group by singing halloween songs led by Miss Helen Bendis. The class sang, "Halloween is Here", "The Goblins Live at Our House" and "The Tiny Ghost". To give the Halloween spirt some of the children wore masks and others made noises with various rattlers.

The percentage turned in by the other classes was fourth grade 82%, fifth grade 83%, second grade 81%, sixth grade 78%, third grade 60% and the kindergarten class was a.m. 30% and p.m. 57%.

Mrs. VanCamp expressed her thanks to the children for their hard work and to the parents for their fine cooperation.

Mrs. Harry West and Mrs. Jack Brooks served the group coffee, donuts and cider.

Auto Strikes Deer

A deer was killed at 6 a.m. Saturday on M-50 just west of Springville. The driver of the auto was Mrs. Stella Truitt, 52, of rural Addison. Clinton State Police investigated and the driver was allowed to keep the deer.

Mr. Bush Marks Boundaries For ASC Community

Sunday Class Entertained

BRITTON — Mrs. A. J. Gamboe, of Clinton, invited the Sunday School class of Mrs. Duane McNeil to her home recently for a Halloween party.

The group had devotions with each person contributing a poem or Bible verse about fall.

After supper, the group took a hike through Hidden Lake Gardens and enjoyed seeing the new waterfowl that were added.

Bethel Baptist Young People Feast on Holiday

Valerie Carney led the group of 25 in songs and games. The kids roasted hot dogs in the fireplace, and also downed cider and popcorn.

Tory Senior Thespians Present 'Little Women'

BRITTON — The play "Little Women" will be presented by the Senior Class of Britton High School at 7:30 Nov. 11 and 12. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for students. Proceeds from the play will be used for commencement exercises and possibly for the Senior Trip to Washington, D.C.

The production, taken from Louisa May Alcott's well-known book of the same title, is a drama rather than a comedy as presented previously by other senior classes.

The play takes place during the Civil War in which Mr. March, the father of the "Little Women", is fighting. The four girls' lives are centered around their concern for their father, their youngest sister's illness, and adventures with their neighbor, Laurie.

Beth, doubled by Nancy Downing and Lois Auten, is a shy, quiet child whose love of music is her greatest asset. Meg, played by Linda Hagans and Dianne Ivan, is the prettiest of the four girls and falls in love with Laurie's tutor, John Brook (played by Jack Brown). Mr. Lawrence, Laurie's grandfather, is played by Carl Studnicka. The old man appears to be crochety at first, but his kind nature shines through. Marmee, the mother of the four "Little Women" is played by Jacque Cunkle. Marmee always has the trust of her daughters. Hannah, the maid, is played by Sue Henning and Rosalee Fairbanks. Aunt March, Marmee's sister, is very rich and believes that money is everything one needs to fulfill his life. Professor Bhaer is played by Paul Covell.

Young People Pack Boxes For Christmas

BRITTON — The Young Peoples Group of the Bethel Baptist Church packed three Christmas boxes of mixes and canned goods for the missionaries supported by the church.

They are the Bob Howders, George Rendels and the Herwin Scheltemas.

Bob and Esther Howder are in Japan going to language school in preparation for their mission work there. Mrs. Howder is the daughter of Mrs. Vadah Stutesman, owner of the Tecumseh Book and Bible Store.

The George Rendels are medical missionaries in Nigeria. Mrs. Rendel recently underwent surgery, but is now recovering satisfactorily.

The Rendels have relatives in the Britton area and Mr. Rendel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Rendel, Milan.

The Scheltemas serve the Lord by using their Cessna airplane for mission work on the Amazon river. They narrowly escaped with their lives in the recent political uprising.

Card Playing Assorted Goblins

BRITTON — Mrs. Lee Taylor was hostess to an assorted group of goblins Friday night, when the G-8 Card Club met at her house for their regular meeting and Halloween party. The gals made a few calls in Britton and then settled down for the regular euchre session.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Paul Rowlands for high score and most lone hands, to Mrs. Eldon Reeck for traveling lone hand, and to Mrs. Walter Prill for low score.

Mrs. Taylor served refreshments to the group.

Bethel Baptists To Hear Missionary

BRITTON — Margaret VanVorst will open her house for the Ladies' Missionary Meeting of the Bethel Baptist Church, Thursday at 1 p.m.

Ramona DuBois, missionary to Nigeria, will be the speaker.

Grace Senior MYF Awarded Display Prize

RIDGEWAY — The Senior MYF was awarded first place Saturday evening at the Lenawee Sub-District Rally held in Adrian, for their display of produce and canned goods for the Chelsea home. They will receive a plaque for their efforts.

The Ridgeway collection for UNICEF last Saturday was just over $50. Grace Methodist sponsored the collection.

The United Church Women of Lenawee County will observe World Community Day, Nov. 5, at the First Presbyterian Church in Adrian at 1:30 p.m. This is for church women of all denominations.

PROTECT OUR CHILDREN!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We have newer and finer schools than ever before. This is one of the marks of progress.

But another is that we have more and faster automobiles than ever before.

So we guard each "school zone" with signs and safety patrols and policemen and volunteers. We do this to protect our children from the dangers of progress, while they are enjoying the fruits of progress.

The dangers of progress are not always physical. Many are moral. They threaten the character and faith of a rising generation, caught in the erratic tempo of modern life.

Happily, in every community of our land, PARENTS and CHURCHES are joining hands to promote the spiritual development of youth . . . to protect the souls of our children.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

We know the exact day it arrived. The calendar may not agree and usually it is thought of as a gradual thing but, as seen through our windows, at least, fall arrived on October 7.

The weather might not have felt too fallish; there had been many false fall days before and undoubtedly we will have many throw-backs to summer — however, here where Logan Street meets Evans Creek fall arrived on the 7th.

★

All day we felt it. An off and on morning drizzle left up about noon time and by midafternoon the sun had managed many feeble attempts at shining. The temperature was not shiveringly low — the only traces of Sunday and Monday nights' hard frosts were the shriveled geraniums and drooping coleus which had looked so pretty in front of the house.

It could very well have been just another October day except for that certain something, that nagging knowledge that fall had arrived.

One of the tell-tale signs, I am sure, were the leaves. The dominant color was still green but it was green with a difference. No longer were the big leaves of the maple tree that vibrant shiny color; their waxy appearance had disappeared overnight.

Now they were dull and limp, their vital function of manufacturing the 'food-stuffs', the simple sugars, necessary for the trees' growth was fulfilled. All that remained to be done was that final salute, that changing into fall's gaudy uniform.

Come to think of it though, after their last colorful fling the leaves' work is still not done. Tumbling to the ground one of two things usually lies ahead. The purist thinks of fallen leaves in the terms of decomposition, the breaking down of material which returns to the soil thus enriching it and producing new life. The life cycle is completed.

To children, however, a yardful of leaves means afternoon raking sessions, followed by exciting bonfires. The best ones, of course, are lit just after dark and always with a handy supply of marshmallows and apples for roasting. Who is to say which is the best way for a leaf to wind up!

Oh, there was color in our window pictures, some of the leaves had started to turn. As I looked around, the brightest splash of color flamed at the corner of M & D's house right in front of the porch. Their tall wide-spreading winged euonymus stood, and still stands, high above everything else on the brightness scale of fall colors.

It is unbelievably brilliant and an almost undescribable hue. Not quite a bright pink, not scarlet and lighter than purple — magenta is too dark, cerise too red — perhaps fuchsia comes the closest. Nuts, let's just say that it is a beautiful bush, one which always highlights our fall looking.

This was also the day we noticed a difference in the number of leaves still clinging to the tree branches. Although many yards had already been raked several times, in our case because of the early falling walnut and elm leaves, there had been little thinning of the 'leaf curtain'.

Suddenly though, in the late afternoon, I realized that the slightest breeze opened a great viewing depth up the creek and when the limbs of the great elm tree swayed, there was Oh, so much more sky showing!

The yellows and orange which make our world a shimmering golden delight had only just begun to appear. From both windows the maple trees we can see had the faintest of yellowish tinges. Another week though and every sunny day will find us living in an enchanted wonderland.

So it is that as you read this, fall is in full swing and we know exactly when it all started, The Day, October 7th.

'Frosty Yuletide' is Ball Theme

"Frosty Yuletide" is the theme of the 17th annual Holiday Ball, to be held Saturday, Dec. 4 at the Country Club.

★

Mrs. Donald Moffatt, chairman of the decorating committee, will create a wintry moonlight effect with her designs for ballroom and buffet table.

She will have the assistance of members of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, the mesdames Norval Bovee, R. S. Brown, Robert Cheers, Robert Fuller, Charles Gross, Ivan Lindstrom, L. B. Milheim, Austin Miller, Warren Peck, John Pobuda, Alton Snyder and Roland Von Kaler.

The Holiday Ball is sponsored by the hospital auxiliary for the benefit of Herrick Memorial Hospital and those it serves.

Past dances have provided funds for landscaping, heated food carts and various hospital furnishings.

'Holiday Carnival'

The Holiday Carnival at Herrick Park School will feature an egg throwing booth with coaches Vic Lawson and Tom Fagan the targets.

Mrs. Clyde Gunder will be in charge of this booth.

The dance room will feature live music by the Contempts with Mrs. Dale Carpenter in charge of the dance room.

The affair will take place Nov. 6 from noon to 5 p.m.

The general chairman, Mrs. Julie Posbender, says that we have tried to have such a variety of booths that everyone will find a booth of special interest to them.

★

MRS. BENJAMIN ROSS will have the Christmas shop, which will sell hand gift items donated by the members.

The "White Elephant Sale" will be conducted by Mrs. George Burkhard.

Mrs. Richard Fielder will operate the candy room.

Mrs. Harry West will be in charge of the cake walk and Bake Sale.

Mrs. Richard Colson says, "The fishing is fine at the fishing pond."

Carnival hats will be sold by Mrs. Royal Griffin.

Mrs. Richard Eggleston will have the Treasure Chest.

"Can you open it?" she asks.

★

GENE TUCKEY will operate the Cotton Candy machine.

Mrs. M. B. Meyer says "come and stay all afternoon, lunch at the snack bar.

Mr. Robert Hyde will take care of your coats at the check room

Irish Hills Will Hold Swap Meet

The Irish Hills Region of the Antique Automobile Club of America will hold a Swap Meet at the 4-H Building at the Fairgrounds in Adrian, Sunday, Nov. 7 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The purpose of this meet is to buy, sell and swap antique cars and parts.

We expect many antique car enthusiasts from the tri-state area. There will be a good supply of parts for sale and many antique cars will be on display.

Admission will be 50c per person and children under 12 will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

1,000 Attend College Night

A most successful College Night program was held at Madison High School, Oct. 25, with more than 1,000 persons attending.

Attending from Tecumseh were 120 juniors and seniors and 54 parents.

John Pobuda, Guidance Counselor at Tecumseh High, was very pleased with the response to the event.

Many questions were answered for the students who are deciding which college to attend and for their parents.

"Those who attended should be able to make a more wise selection of a college," Mr. Pobuda said.

He suggested that the five most important points to consider about a selection of a college are:

The college program.
Administration policies.
The size of the school.
Distance to the school.
Cost and scholarship opportunities.

A similar program will be presented by business colleges, trade and technical schools as well as apprentice programs and the armed services in Tecumseh High School on Monday, Nov. 15.

Interested students and their parents are invited to attend.

Night For Saturday

New attractions have been added for the entertainment of all ages for the PTSO Fun Night at Onsted School.

Final plans have been made for the event to be held Saturday, Nov. 13, with supper served in the multi-purpose room from 5 to 7 p.m., preceding the activities.

Mrs. Ivan Hunt is general chairman of the event assisted by Mrs. Mazie Hackworth and Mrs. Gerald Brink.

Herrick Auxiliary Represented In Kalamazoo Meet

The ladies represented the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Mrs. Howard Gentry, program chairman, has an unusual program arranged for the meeting to be held at the Community Center Tuesday, Nov. 9.

"Dolls the Image of a Child" is the title and it is being presented by Ada Rippe from Sturgis. She says she has "antique and unusual dolls that talk with personality."

The program will start at 7:30 p.m. instead of the usual meeting time of 8. The daughters of the members are invited and each member will be asked to donate [illegible] to pay the cost of this unusual program. Members may bring guests.

Bibles Being Provided for Those Who Wait

Pastor Edgar Pistole says he has come to the conclusion that "the purpose of the church is to spread the word of God."

"To do this," Mr. Pistole said, "The Bible must be available for people to read when they have time to do so."

"We think the Gideon Bible Society is doing a fine work in this area, but their efforts need supplementing," he said.

The members of the Church of Christ at 302 E. Chicago Blvd. are undertaking a project to place Bibles in all places where persons wait, such as coin-laundries, business offices, car service waiting rooms and in doctor's offices.

The King James version of the Bible will be placed where adults wait. Beautifully illustrated new testaments, especially for children will be placed where youngsters are apt to accompany adults.

The congregation of about 70 members is so thrilled with the program, Mr. Pistole says, that they are giving from $1 to $10 each to underwrite the cost of the program.

One member has even taken a part-time baby sitting job to pay for the Bibles.

There will be 20 Bibles distributed immediately and the project will be a continuing one.

Luther League Officers Are Elected

The newly elected officers of the Luther League of the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church were installed by the Pastor last Sunday. They are: Ken Wright, president; Rick Durkee, vice-president; Janet Willias, secretary and LouAnn Geringer, treasurer.

The LCW will have an important meeting next Monday, Nov. 8, in the church. The project for the evening will be making Christmas gifts for orphans.

Each woman is asked to bring one or more red or white face cloths and an equal number of bars of new soap. They hope to complete at least 50 gift packs.

The dates November 21-28 have been designated for the Thanksgiving Clothing Appeal. Clean, good apparel is requested. Please, put any clothing or blankets you wish to give in the marked box in the church of the Gloria Dei.

Last Thursday the councilmen and the pastors of the Temperance, Ann Arbor, Adrian and the Gloria Dei, Tecumseh gathered together for a meeting in Tecumseh and heard the message of the Synod President, Dr. Frank Madsen. Hostesses for the coffee hour were: Mrs. Arthur Baaske, Mrs. Stan Rentschler and Mrs. James Tonneberger.

Colman Stars

DEARBORN — The silent version of "Beau Geste," made in 1926 and starring the late Ronald Colman, will be presented in the Henry Ford Museum's Famous Early Movie Series on Sunday, Nov. 7. The Sunday only showings are at 2 and 4 p.m.

Attend Dinner

Church wardens and wives, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Ammer and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland and members of the Vestry of St. Peter's Episcopal Church hosted a parish dinner Wednesday, Nov. 3, in the parish hall.

The subject of the meeting following the dinner was "Your Church Pledge for '66."

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

STUDY AI BULL RECORDS before breeding cows this fall. You will be money ahead if you raise your own replacements. Compare predicted differences of several bulls. This shows the ability of the bull to transmit milking ability to his daughters. Above average sires may raise the production of the daughters by 200 to 1,400 pounds of milk over their dams. If you breed your cows to a bull with a predicted difference of plus 1,400 pounds, his daughters should return $53 more per year than where average bulls are used.

CHECK GRAIN FOR "HOT SPOTS". Stored grain should be checked periodically with temperature sensing devices for hot spots. You can make a preliminary test by feeling the surface of the grain. If you find a spot that's hotter than the other grain, you need to take corrective measures. Remove the grain and re-dry it. Don't feed it if it is moldy.

KEEP WINTER FEED COSTS for beef cows as low as possible. A ration of 40 to 50 pounds of cornstalk silage, 4 pounds of mixed hay and 1 pound of 32% protein supplement will provide adequate nutrition for pregnant beef cows, if the supply of high-quality hay is short. If not, 35 to 45 pounds of cornstalk silage with 10 pounds of hay is sufficient. If the hay lacks green color, give cows 30,000 I. U. of Vitamin A daily.

AN ELECTRIC ARC WELDER can pay for itself quickly in reduced repair bills if your farm is wired for 240-volt service. You can purchase one for less than $90. Because welders and rods have been greatly improved, a person can make a good weld after a little practice.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

There he stood in that goofy looking orange-and-black muffler, grinning. But all the same, it was good to see ole Bootin' Pussy.

"Lots to talk about, kid, so don't start asking a bunch of questions," was his opener.

With this, Bootin' began a rundown of his past year — the beach at Acapulco last winter, the swim to Cuba for laughs, the ride in Castro's private plane to Port Au Prince.

There was even a short stint as manager of a winter baseball team in Florida. A couple of times Bootin' saw Tampa Tony, who wanted to be remembered to Tecumseh Tom. How nice.

This went on for about 10 minutes and finally there was a pause as Bootin' adjusted his muffler, time enough for me to ask a question:

"Do you know the Adrian game is Friday?"

Bootin' looked pained, then rather pompously said:

"Know it? Heavens yes, in fact I scouted the East Lansing-Adrian tilt for Coach Fagan. I promised him last year I'd get back a week early to do that as a special favor."

That darn cat.

Without waiting for any more inane comments from me, he leaped into a vivid description of that battle, which East Lansing won with ease, 39-6.

"Adrian was clobbered on the opening kickoff. When the Trojans jarred the ball loose, they latched onto the fumble, scored on their first play and never stopped rolling.

"I was talking with one of the Trojan backs, a nice kid named John Martin, who went most of the way on defense.

"John told me to tell the Indians — Sting 'em right away! Guess, that's what they did and I told Coach Fagan there's the answer for this Friday."

★

WITH THIS, Bootin' shoved a program on the desk and there were some nail scratches after four names on the Adrian roster.

"These are the Maples to keep

"Gil Salazar (48) is Top Gun on the defensive unit for Adrian, but against East Lansing nobody did much defensing," Bootin' giggled.

The once-a-year visitor then pulled out a tiny notebook and asked me to make a few jottings for him. I couldn't resist a quick peek.

"Dick Fox $1," was one entry.

"What's this"

"Oh, this guy works up at George Underwood's Fordland and his kid plays end for Adrian. I was getting some chow in the garage there when he walked in and started telling how much Adrian was going to whump Tecumseh.

"Right then I nailed him on a buck bet. I told him not to disappear after the Indians clobber Adrian because I'll need the cash."

Then he reeled off more names and amounts, which I dutifully noted down for Bootin'.

★

"WHERE TO this winter?" was a query when the task was done.

Bootin' stared dreamily at the ceiling without answering. Then he hummed a little tune and it sounded like "San Francisco," but I couldn't make certain.

As he bounded out through the back shop, he yelled back over his soulder,

"See you Friday at Maple Stadium. Go you Indians."

Experimental Car Goes on Display at Open House

One of General Motor's newest sleek experimental cars, the Mako Shark II, will be shown at the Tecumseh Fisher Body plant during its open house on Nov. 18 and 19.

To mark the dedication of the new facility, which produces upholstery trim items for Fisher bodies, the open house will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 18, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 19.

Aerodynamically designed, the Mako Shark will be displayed in the production area of the plant on the tour route visitors will take.

The car's overall lean, powerful appearance is created by its long, low-sloping hood profile with high peaked fenders rising on each side of the wheel housings.

A fast-back profile incorporates six wide, adjustable louvers for rearward vision and ventilation.

★

SOME OF the car's other unusual features:

- The windshield wipers are protected when not in use by being retracted into covered chambers in the cowl.
- Engine oil and water levels may be checked through two round ports in the top of the hood. The "flip-top" covers for these are held down with magnetic catches.
- For complete engine service accessibility, the entire hood and front fender section is hinged at the front and swings up and forward.
- To operate the many "non-production" features of the Mako Shark, 17 fractional horsepower electric servo-motors are used.
- The special "fire-frost" metallic finish of the Shark's fiberglas body begins as midnight blue at the roof and gradually shades to a lighter blue all down through the lower portion of the body.

These are but a few of the car's unique engineering and styling innovations, which, according to General Motors designers, influence future production car designs, depending on public reaction.

★

ALSO ON display during the Fisher Body open house will be exhibits of the products made at the plant, six of the scholarship award-winning cars in the 1965 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car designing and building competition and a color picture and sound exhibit, which shows and tells how automobile bodies are made.

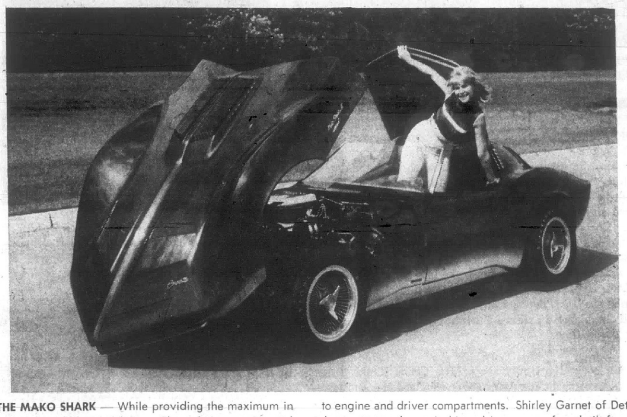
Visitors will also receive souvenirs and be served refreshments in the plant's modern cafeteria.

To minimize traffic and parking congestion at the plant, Fisher Body Tecumseh manager Lewis J. Lamm urges residents of Tecumseh and Adrian to use the free bus transportation to and from the plant from both cities.

In Tecumseh, buses will leave and return every half hour from the Four Corners.

In Adrian, the pickup and return is from the northeast corner of Main and Maumee Sts.

Mr. Lamm said that everyone in the area is invited to attend the open house and that parking would be available for those coming from communities not serviced by buses.



MEET THE MAKO SHARK — While providing the maximum in driver protection and streamlining, Chevrolet's experimental Corvette — the Mako Shark II — offers quick accessibility to engine and driver compartments. Shirley Garnet of Detroit, demonstrates the car's hinged power roof and tilt-forward hood. The Shark — but not Shirley — will be at open house.

HARVEST of VALUES

Fun, Parking Are Reasons

Just about everywhere a person looks in Tecumseh these days, there're those gold and brown posters proclaiming a "Harvest of Values."

That's the outside-the-store indicator of interest among Tecumseh merchants in their customers. Inside, the feeling grows — and to back it up, the merchants are offering some exceptional buys.

"Harvest of Values" is a five-week promotion in which 49 Tecumseh business places have joined forces to boost interest in residents shopping right at home.

They offer many reasons, here are a few:

- It's fun to shop with people you know.
- Tecumseh merchants stand behind every sale.
- There's ample parking near all shops.
- You can save gas, wear and tear on your nerves.
- Stores are open until 9 every Friday.

Paint Store Opens

Another new Tecumseh store, "The Decorating Center," opened earlier this week in the Adrian Federal building on W. Chicago Blvd.

The new shop, one of two being planned, is owned by two Monroe and one Adrian man.

"The Decorating Center" will specialize in paint and paint supplies, wallpaper, tile and linoleum for floors, and in a few weeks, a full line of art supplies and materials.

★

Earl Solomonson, one of the three owners from Adrian, says the store will be a retail, wholesale and industrial outlet for its merchandise.

Mr. Solmonson managed the Acme paint store in Adrian for four years and has been in the paint business for seven years. He's a native of Morenci.

Harvey Frankhouse, Monroe, will manage the store and expects to move to Tecumseh next year. He's been in the painting and contracting business on his own for approximately 25 years.

★

His wife will assist him in the store here. They have two children, both attending school in Monroe.

Darrell Lent is the third partner, and like Mr. Solmonson, is a former Acme paint store manager. He has 12 years experience, the last five years as the Monroe store manager.

'Never Too Late' Draws Praise, Barbs

By JUNE MacBETH

Summer Long's play, "Never Too Late" is a very light comedy, offering little imaginative or profound dialogue.

However, it does offer an evening of exaggerated family situations in which a middle-aged couple can feel either smug or caught in the web.

It's the current Tecumseh Players' production, which opened last week with three performances and will be seen again this Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at the Community Center.

Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

The opening scene was slowly paced, and the characterizations did not cross the footlights until late in the first act.

Because cues were not readily "picked up", the audience had the feeling that "lines" rather than believable conversations were being exchanged.

As the show progressed, the pace increased and the interchanges were more natural and fluent.

★

GUIL ROTHFUSS, as Harry Lambert, portrayed the irate father and husband in an unmistakable manner.

Had more shading or contrast been used in the characterization, Harry would have been a more interesting personality.

Peg Frownfelder, as Edith Lambert, gave a most believable and sustained performance. Her role was handled with finesse and professionalism.

At no time did she overact or obviously steal a scene. Peg was a master of her part, using no stage tricks—only a strong characterization, excellent facial expressions, and outstanding stage presence.

★

KEITH TUCKER, as Charlie, was guilty of extreme overacting. One could not conceive that he was old enough or mature enough to be the husband of Kate. He would have been more convincing as her younger brother.

The ChaCha scene with Edith, though, was well done. As so often happens, the scene with the inebriates was grossly overdone.

In order to achieve a comic effect, actors resort to extreme exaggeration; and, instead of the scene being humorous, it becomes loutish.

It is not easy to underplay a scene of this type, but underplaying separates the amateurs from the experienced performers.

★

AN EXCELLENT performance was seen in Lori Egli's portrayal

Dr. Shearer Explains How To Raise Kids

Dr. Marshall Shearer of the Children's Psychiatric Hospital in Ann Arbor will speak on "How to Raise a Mentally Healthy Child," at the Tecumseh Acres PTA Nov. 18.

A question and answer period will follow his talk.

Room visitation will be held from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. followed by Dr. Shearer's talk and a short business meeting.

Guests are invited to attend.

Murrays Rate Best

Three members of the Tecumseh Players — including a husband and wife — captured top acting awards for performances in Clark Lake summer shows.

Winners announced Saturday at the annual Awards Banquet in Jackson included:

► Mrs. Donald Geiger of Clinton "Best Actress in a Musical" for her delightful interpretation in "Bye Bye Birdie."

All three are veteran Tecumseh Player performers.

The "Best Actor in a Musical" was captured by Wayne Cook of Jackson for his role in "The Fantastics."

Winners were chosen by vote of season ticket, other than members of the Clark Lake group.

Mr. Manning Is Tecumseh Lodge Guest

Cecil Manning of Dundee, the Grand Vice Chancellor of Michigan, Knights of Pythias will be a guest of the Tecumseh Lodge No. 190 Tuesday, Nov. 16.

Other members of the Grand family will also be present.

Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. Carl Thompson asks that all members attend and bring a friend. He remarked that a pleasant evening is anticipated.

Robert Wood and Carl Kempt will take reservations until Monday, Nov. 15 so they may make arrangements.

$22 Million Ear Marked for Lenawee

The work will transform US-223 into a four-lane divided highway from US-23, near Sylvania, for a 31-mile stretch to US-127 near Devils Lake.

The road will follow the present route for most of the distance, but Blissfield may be bypassed.

Included is the rebuilding of US-12 for 11 miles from M-50 at M-52 through the Irish Hills into a divided four-lane route at a cost of $2,220,000.

UNICEF Cards Going on Sale at Post Office

United Nations Children's Fund UNICEF Christmas greeting cards will be offered for sale in the lobby of the Tecumseh post office, Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf has announced.

Members of the Tecumseh Chapter of the United States committee for UNICEF will be stationed in the post office lobby for three weeks beginning Nov. 15.

Vandalism Has Become a Problem

Vandalism at Friendsfield, just north of town, has prompted Friends Church officials to ask help from residents living in that area.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham, minister of the church, feels that parents are not aware of the destruction being done by their children.

He and other officers of the congregation ask mothers and fathers to remind their offspring that the thoughtless acts should be discontinued.

Fund Drive Passes 90%

A United Fund drive report luncheon will be held Thursday at Tecumseh at Tecumseh Country Club.

Going into mid-week, nearly 90% of the 1966 goal of $45,203 had been donated or pledged — with more last-minute reports of gifts expected to be turned in Thursday morning.

Tecumseh Products corporate and employee gifts bolstered the Community Fund Foundation effort by $22,447. In addition, Products workers who live in other areas pledged $5,763.40 to charity campaigns in their home towns.

More than 130 volunteers have been working on the campaign.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

"Joe Rice had the beauty of the city at heart," remarked the Rev. Frank Hawthorne while chatting about the late chairman of the Planning Commission. The comment certainly is so true. Tecumseh, or any community, for that matter, is indeed fortunate to have this calibre of citizen so willing to expend considerable time and energy on efforts to help his hometown.

Latest report on the picture postcard project: 35mm color transparencies are back from the Eastman lab and there are some real zingers. Next step, color separations and then off to the press.

Tom Kampmueller and his faithful German Shorthair, "Pokey," appeared on a Mort Neff TV program last week — via film shot near Petersburg as they hunted opening day.

Mike and Phyllis Hite have put out the red carpet for visitors to their new Wallpaper Center in Hite's Hardware. Step down there for coffee and doughnuts Friday and Saturday at their open house.

A pleasant hour can be spent leafing through the dozens of wall paper sample books for decorating ideas. The restful atmosphere is created by a huge sea-scape mural, a glowing fireplace and melodious stereo music.

Members of the Jaycee Auxiliary are working on Christmas already. They are collecting used Christmas cards for children at Lenawee Institute to make into scrapbooks.

Linda Kleinschmidt will accept donations.

Dolls are being dressed for needy children by the group and will be placed in Helms Furniture Store window about Thanksgiving time.

Like to see the front page of The Grand Rapids Press of Nov. 11, 1918, the day World War I ended? It's real fascinating. G. R. DeYoung of Fisher Body is sharing the historical prize with fellow Tecumsehites, putting it on display in The Herald office.

That kookie character, "Bootin' Pussy" came into being back in 1959 and has made an annual trek to Tecumseh for the Adrian game ever since. This vital information is primarily for newcomers to the area.

Oh Richard, not poor Richard, because this Richard won a portable hand mixer at the Ridgeway-Macon Fun Fair, Saturday. We wonder what his last name is?

Bill Holmes of Hodges Drugs was tickled with the response to the store's Harvest of Value special on the new Polaroid camera that was priced at $19 — a complete sellout.

The Herald always corrects past mistakes — even ones that go back to 1958. In telling Mike Walter about this week's special football section, featuring a history of Tecumseh-Adrian clashes, he remarked that a goof in our report of the 1958 game, won by Adrian, gave the wrong fellow credit for one Tecumseh TD. The story said Jim Neiting scooped up a Maple fumble on the 10 and ran into the end zone. 'Twasn't Jim at all — but rather the modest Mike who waited seven years to set things straight.

"Too much pepper in the stew," is the way one Rotarian expressed what he thinks of the world situation after hearing Dr. John Visser speak last Tuesday evening.

Lost, but not forgotten. After it was all seal coated and pretty again, it seemed a shame for those city men to use pick and shovels at the corner of Occidental Hwy. and Chicago Blvd. to locate a lost man hole cover.

No one will ever know how Art Eaton got that shiner, unless a fellow can entice him to respond with more than a terse, "No comment."

City Attorney Jim Beardsley and his lovely wife, Marj, have come up with an idea to slow down the fast pace of living in the 20th century. They're advocating a law which would make is illegal to hold any meetings of any kind on Thursday nights. This would mean at least one night a week free of any sessions, giving moms and dads one evening with the family. Sounds great! Let's all write our Congressmen.

Peeking through the frost Wednesday morning was a tiny violet in the lawn of Mrs. Kenneth Poley, 2003 E. Monroe Rd. Mrs. Poley quickly took it into the house before it froze its pretty little nose.

Tecumseh's Neil DePuy made the hundred yard dash in 8 seconds flat, that was the night he saw the eight-foot ghost in the barn as he opened the door to put the carriage away. Antics of the football team of 1905 were also discussed on the Bud Guest program Tuesday morning.

"It is a common misconception of youth — that you can only do one thing at a time!" says Gin Murray. How many things are you doing right now?

General Motors passenger car and commercial vehicle dealers sold 3,925,577 vehicles during the first nine months of 1965 to surpass all previous sales records for the first three quarters of any year.

IN SECOND WEEK — The cast of "Never Too Late" is in its second week at the Community Center. Individual members from left to right, are: Guil Rothfuss, Mrs. Bill Frownfelder, Mrs. Richard Egli and Keith Tucker. of Kate. She had complete command of her role. She was Kate —and her movements, voice and reactions complemented the part. Well done!

Virgina Murray, the "idea" girl for Edith, could have been more positive and dynamic as Grace Kimbrough. There was warmth in the role, but not enough strength.

Mayor Crane, in the person of Kem Schneider, was bombastic, but banal. He made too much of each word in each speech.

For freshness and naturalness, some lines must be "thrown away"—that is, delivered in an offhand manner.

Don Partridge (Mr. Foley) obviously had fun doing his role. But again, over-exaggeration (especially of costume) drew attention to itself, rather than the desired effect.

Ron Jacob and George Eidson, in minor roles, were equal to the requirements of their parts. They made their time upon the stage a compliment to the story.

JUDGING from the hearty laughter during the show and from [illegible]'s comments overheard in the Green Room, where refreshments are served, the show was well-received by the audience.

However, it is this reviewer's opinion that the Tecumseh Players could have selected a better script.

With the experience gained from previous presentations, the Players could have chosen a comedy of higher quality and eclat.

Certainly the director, crews, and actors are to be commended for the time and effort they gave to this production.

Nevertheless Tecumseh's discerning audiences are ready and educated for meatier plots.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

Could we enlist your help relative to a situation at Friends field? As you know we are developing this acreage as a future church and recreation site.

Too, we are trying to beautify and enhance this property to compliment the neighborhood. Generally speaking, by far the large number of people have been helpful and cooperative.

However, our problem involves a few who have been destroying and desecrating: whiting unmentionable things, breaking glass and deflating tires on equipment, chopping down choice trees, driving over trees, throwing rocks through pavilion roof, breaking lock on tool storage building and most recently—last Saturday, shooting out a $15 mercury light bulb.

We have reason to believe and feel that most of this destruction is being done by youth who come on to the property from several directions.

We will regret very much the necessity of withholding privileges to all just because a very few abuse their freedoms.

If this situation is brought to the attention of the people we believe relief will be forthcoming.

Marvin Johnson, Monthly Meeting Clerk.
Robert MacDonald, Chairman of Development Committees.
The Rev. Paul Brantingham.

Britton High Will Present Play Nov. 11

The performance of "Little Women" presented by the senior class of Britton High School opens Thursday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

In order that everyone is able to attend, the play will also be presented Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

The four "little women," Jo, played by Joan Check and Sandy Gibbs; Meg, played by Dianne Ivan and Linda Hagans; Amy, played by Karen Ivan and Sylvia Luegge; and Beth, played by Nancy Downing and Lois Auten will take the audience back into the period of the Civil War and into their adventures.

"This play, like the novel, will bring the audience emotions of joy and sorrow, suspense and will tickle their funny bones," said Jacque Cunkle, a member of the cast.

Jacob's Struggle To Be Discussed at Sunday Service

Jacob's struggle at Peniel and the conversation of Paul will be included in the Bible Lesson at Christian Science churches this Sunday to illustrate spiritual transformation.

A verse from Paul's message to the Romans will underscore the theme. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:2).

Boy, 5, Escapes Serious Injuries When Hit by Car

Five-year-old Marvin Lee Hayford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hayford, 103 Cairns St., escaped serious injury Sunday evening when he accidently stepped into the path of an oncoming car.

The boy, out walking with his parents at the time, was knocked several feet by the impact. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment.

★

A RESUME of the other accidents investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week is:

Nov. 5 — Judith V. Puchly, 19, Clinton, was charged with failure to yield the right of way, after she pulled off Cummins St. onto Adrian St., and into the path of Otto S. Beaubien, 64, of 1101 Russell Rd.

Nov. 7 — Reckless driving was levied against Mickey F. Ginter, 21, St. Marys, Ohio, after he lost control of his car on N. Evans St., near Tecumseh-Macon Rd. He traveled over 300 feet in the ditch and then upset.

Nov. 8 — Charles O. Butler was cited for failure to yield the right of way after making a left turn in front of James Lee Gooding, 30, Tipton, on W. Chicago Blvd.

Nov. 8 — A minor accident occurred on W. Chicago Blvd. between Dorothy L. Pish, 39, Dundee and Jeffyn Dee Ptterson, 17, of 213½ E. Chicago Blvd. The two cars scraped together. No arrest was made.

Nov. 8 — The Rev. Harold E. Speer, 44, of 321 N. Pearl St., was charged with failure to yield the right of way after a mishap with Mary Lou Stager, 31, Dundee, at W. Logan St. and N. Pearl.

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Nostalgia and chuckles filled The Herald office this week as employees carefully read a yellowed and brittle edition of the Semi-Weekly Herald of June 9, 1905.

Four columns on the front page were used for commencement exercises including the history of the class written by Maud Saul and the class prophecy by Eolah Brown. Inside is the Class Will written by Blanche Snyder.

One of the more interesting items reads

Maud Saul, our historian, a dressmaker will be,
Making money and friends, in lands far over the sea.
She will even out rival the famous man Worth
And her fame will be spread abroad all over the earth.

Prophetess Brown must have the inside info on Tecumseh's Maud Saul Bell for certainly her magnificent wedding gowns are known far and near.

Interested readers may enjoy glimpses of the past in the 1905 edition if they would care to stop at The Herald and read it.

Car 'Bombs' Home

"I thought it was a bomb."

So said Mrs. Wayne Smith after Robert C. Morley, 16, of 711 Ternes Rd., had crashed his car into the Smith residence about 2:25 Sunday morning.

The youth, driving east on Conklin Dr. (formerly Munger Rd.), overshot Ternes Rd. in the fog, jumped the curb and smashed into the front of the house.

The auto was extensively damaged and towed away.

Considerable damage also was inflicted on the front of the house and to the basement wall.

Tecumseh police cited Morley with violation of the basic speed law. He said he didn't realize what was happening until he saw the "home coming at me."

Bandit 'Sox' Cash, Captured

BRITTON — The sock bandit was captured Tuesday.

Captured with $69 in his sock in front of the Britton Hotel was James Douglas Richardson, 33, of Winchester, Ky.

At about 4:15, Tuesday afternoon, Richardson reportedly entered a Pure Oil Station owned by Orville Moffitt, Britton, and acting as a customer, picked up a cash box with an estimated $65 to $75 in it and walked out the front door.

John Miller, 16, working as a station attendant, ran across the street to a phone and called Britton Police. Special Officer Curtis Banks caught Richardson minutes later as he was walking in downtown Britton.

Richardson was believed to have an accomplice, driving the automobile he arrived in Britton and County Sheriff's officers are investigating.

Richardson was charged with larceny from a building and is being held in the Lenawee County Jail, Adrian.

MRS. JACKOWSKI AND CHECK

Wins $100 Prize

Mrs. Joseph J. Jackowski of East Munger Rd., won $100 in the Super Bingo contest at the Kroger Store this week.

Her husband is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. The couple have three sons, Douglas, Christopher and Mark.

Ted Todd Injured by Fire

The Tecumseh Fire Department made a silent run to the home of Ted Todd, 302 Outer Dr., Tuesday at about 6:30 p.m. to complete extinguishing a grease fire.

Damage, estimated at between three and four thousand dollars, includes heavily damaged newly remodeled kitchen, and smoke and water damage to other parts of the house.

Mr. Todd was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital after having battled the blaze by himself, before calling the department.

According to department officials, he suffered from smoke inhalation.

JOHNSON LEADS — Jim Johnson, halfback for the Pontiac Arrows, led his team to the Midwest League Championship with top ground gain for the team. Pontiac takes on the league All-Stars Saturday.

It's Indian Romp

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh easily outclassed Lutheran West of Detroit Friday night, 25-7, for the Indians fifth victory of the season.

The hapless suburban school tallied on a fluke play after Coach Tom Fagan's 11 led by two touchdowns. It was the only threat West mustered in what was generally a rather sloppy football game.

Quarterback Ron Rentschler sparked the Tecumseh attack with scoring passes to Gordon Gibson and Dean Hebb.

The Indians tallied in the first quarter the second time they gained control of the ball. Rentschler hit Gibson near the goal line with the senior end stepping in without being touched. The play covered 16 yards.

In the second period, Rentschler again caught the LW secondary asleep and connected with Hebb and a 30-yard TD play.

LW came back, mainly on short runs, to score on a pass that was batted twice by Tecumseh defenders before the pigskin was knocked some five yards into the hands of a West gridder.

Even then West just scored as the surprised end was tackled on the goal line by Gibson.

Prettiest play of the evening resulted moments later when halfback Roger Young took a pitchout, raced around Tecumseh's right end and then cut through practically the entire West team for 60 yards and an apparent TD. However, a clipping penalty nullified it.

The Indians continued to move and regained the nullified TD. With the ball on West's 3, the Indian backfield completely fooled the secondary of their opponents, which failed to drop back to cover Hebb.

Hebb took the Rentschler aerial in on the West 10 and was all alone for an easy TD, his second of the game.

The 140-pound halfback was Tecumseh's top ground gainer against an opponent's defense stacked primarily to stop Tecumseh's running game.

West was big, as expected, and slow. Its passing game was nil, although it did result in the lone TD.

West	0	7	0	0	— 7
Tecumseh	6	13	6	0	—25

Tecumseh scoring: Hebb 2 (pass, 30; pass, 38); Gibson (pass, 16); Young (run, 18) PAT: Young, run.

Grid Squads Being Feted

All three squads — varsity, jayvee and frosh — will be honored at the annual Tecumseh High chool football banquet Nov. 18, in the THS cafeteria.

Dr. John Dawson, president of Adrian College, will be the principal speaker.

The banquet is open to the public and tickets may be purchased at the high school or at Wright's Pharmacy. Last day to buy tickets is this Friday.

Wanda Mendocha Weds James Nash

The Chapel of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Kalamazoo, was the setting Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Wanda Mendocha and James Nash, both of Kalamazoo.

The ceremony was performed before the immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash of Tecumseh, parents of the bridegroom, were hosts for a family dinner Saturday evening, in the Vale View Drive home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John VanDyke.

The attendants were Beverly Mendocha of Kalamazoo, a cousin of the bride and Fred Nash Jr. Stockbridge, brother of the groom.

MRS. JAMES NASH

She is a 1965 graduate of Western Michigan University and is employed as secretary-bookkeeper of the Community Action Poverty Program of Kalamazoo County.

The bridegroom will graduate from Western Michigan University in December and is employed part-time at the Kalamazoo State Hospital.

The couple will reside at 303 N. Prairie St., Kalamazoo.

Attending the wedding were three sisters of the bridegroom, and their families, Mr. and Mrs. James Dahlke and sons, Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Tuttle, Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bernstein and sons of Clarke Lake.

Methodists Offer Fall Festival Food Selections

Several varying food selections will be offered to the general public as a part of the Fall Festival Nov. 18, in the First Methodist Church.

Beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing until noon, Mrs. Victor Lawson, Jr., will be offering her specialty of fried cakes.

Following this, a Snack Bar, open from 11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., under the direction of Mrs. Robert Bonner and Mrs. Paul Hadsell will feature sloppy joes, sandwiches, baked beans, dessert, salads, and beverages.

All of this will be served cafeteria style.

Buffet Supper in the evening with Mrs. Robert Meads and Mrs. Richard Eggleston as chairmen, will feature scalloped potatoes with ham, creamed turkey on biscuits, salad, dessert, and beverages.

Price for the feature item will be fifty cents and time is 5 until 7 p.m.

The festival will also feature a bazaar which will open at 10 a.m. and continue through until 7 p.m.

A Kandy Kitchen, a Country Store with baked goods, Needlecraft Nook, Kiddie Kapers Corner and a Party Shoppe will offer the many talents of the Women of the Society of Christian Service which sponsors the annual event to raise funds for missions and local church projects.

Lamb Will Speak

Carl Lamb will speak on "Debunking the Drug Business" at te meeting of the Ridgeway-Macon PTA Nov. 17, at the Ridgeway school at 8 p.m.

A report of the Fun Fair will be given at the meeting.

Refreshments will be provided by the mothers of fourth grade students.

Methodist Youth Fellows Collect Canned Goodies

Members of both the Junior and Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowships of the First Methodist Church are collecting commercially canned foods, jams, jellies, and squash to be taken to the Methodist Home in Chelsea Nov. 21.

During this trip the members of the Senior Hi group will present a worship program to the guests of the home. The youth are asking members of the congregation to aid in this gift of food.

During the evening program unday the members of the Junior Fellowship are studying "Judaism Today" with the aid of a filmstrip.

The Senior Hi youth have been studying the subject "Alcohol" with Rick Skinner, Gail Meads and Ron Packard presenting the material. Also under discussion by the group is the rejuvenation of the senior high room in the Sunday School building.

This project will include the redecoration and partial refurnishing of the room to be used both in the morning and evening programs by the high schoolers.

Miss Tressler Will Marry

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tressler of 303 Chippewa are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Ann to Jon Gregory Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hoover of Country Club Road, Adrian. A summer wedding is planned.

'Dolls — Image of a Child'

The program "Dolls the Image of a Child" presented by Ada Rippey of Sturgis, enhanced members of the Hospital Auxiliary, their daughters and guests Tuesday evening as dolls of various materials and dress, old and new, were displayed with their individual stories at the Community Center.

Dr. Richard Cook showed slides and spoke on the need and use of a Cardiac Resuscitation Cart in the hospital for cases of cardiac and pulmonary arrest.

This cart would have the necessary equipment altogether in one unit for readiness in these emergencies and would be vital and life-saving when available.

During the business meeting the members voted to purchase a movie projector for hospital and auxiliary use; a shower chair, a commode, a tray cart and footstools for the Nursing Home; and to finish the landscaping project at the side and back of the hospital.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Carlton Cook, Mrs. Carlos Kinsley and Mrs. Joseph Rohweder has been appointed to work with the Hospital Board to supervise the care and maintenance of the hospial grounds in the future.

A discussion was held on purchasing the Cardiac Resuscitation Cart and it was voted to pledge the profits from future projects to this goal.

The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Charles Gross, Mrs. Neville Hart, Mrs. Bertram Updike and Mrs. Roland Von Kaler.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband, Frank Gottschalk, who passed away six years ago, Nov. 15, 1959.

The sun and moon are shining on a lone and silent grave.
Beneath lies the one I dearly loved, but whom I could not save.
Friends may think I have forgotten, when at times they see me smile.
Little do they know the heartaches, that my smiles hide all the while.
Sadly missed by his wife, Catherine. N. 11, p.

Review Hoover At WSCS Meet

J. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit" was partially reviewed by Marvel Steinhoff for the general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church as a social concerns program.

Miss Stienhoff selected portions of the book dealing with the background of communism itself as well as the lives of Karl Marx, Friedich Engels, and Lenin.

Methods of controlling ideas by the communists, reasons for giving into communism, and reasons for reluctance to leave the organization followed the tracing of the rise of communism in this country.

Don Wilkins and Louie Garcia will show the film, "Teen Age Revolt", at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Jerry Helman, director of the two teen centers now active in Detroit, will speak at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Wilkins was formerly evangelism director for the Rev. David Wilkerson in New York City and is now helping with Teen Challenge in Detroit.

Louie Garcia, a former addict from New York, will tell of his conversion and deliverance from drugs.

The film is a technicolor production taken live without script or professional actors and is narrated by the Rev. Wilkerson.

It shows life among the gang kids and beatnicks, a shooting gallery where addicts inject herein, activity of the baby gangs, Granny's Village and testimonies of those who once were slaves to drugs.

The Rev. Harold Speer, pastor of the Assembly here, invites the public to attend.

Wreck Victims Escape Injury

Clinton State Police had two accidents to investigate, Saturday morning, at the intersection of M-50 and M-52.

At 11 a.m., David I. Spreet, 22, of Cincinnati, was northbound on M-52 when he stopped for a stop sign, then pulled in front of a west bound car driven by Hal Lee Myers, 28, of 4550 Tipton Hwy., who was unable to avoid the collision.

Spreet was given a summons for failure to yield the right of way and Myers was ticketed for driving with an expired chauffeur's license.

While still at the scene at 11:30 p.m., the Myers' car was struck by a car driven by William E. Pickett, 17, of Milan.

Pickett was charged with reckless driving and illegal possession of fireworks. He told officers he fell asleep and did not see the stop sign, flashing red light on the patrol car or the flares of officers directing traffic.

Youth Hurt in Crash

Gary Tietsema, 19, 225 Maple St., is a patient at University Medical Center suffering from head injuries received in an accident Friday at 11:15 p.m. on Wolf Creek Hwy., one-half mile north of Brazee Rd.

A passenger, David Mashike, 19, of Dearborn Heights, was admitted to Bixby Hospital.

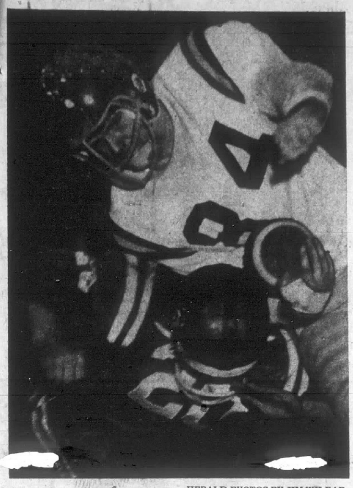
Redskins Face Saline Spoilers



HERALD PHOTOS BY JIM WILBAR

HOW MANCHESTER WAS STOPPED — A great defensive effort by Clinton is what kept the Dutchmen in check during last Friday's key Lakeland C League battle won by the Redskins. These pictures illustrate the great hitting power and pursuit of the Skins. In both instances, Jim Fielder (84) was the victim. At left, he is shoulder tackled by Gene Brown and at right Gene closes in to help Brian Baker.

CLINTON — What? Another crucial game?

Well, that's what it looks like for the Clinton Redskins, who have only had a scant seven days to savor their 12-6 win over Manchester last Friday.

Now come the Spoilers of Saline, who last year kept Coach Phil Bareis from a perfect season. Saline chopped down the Skins in the 1964 finale.

But if a bunch of guys named Brian Baker, Bob Pardee, Rory O'Connor, Roger Proctor and Gene Brown have anything to say about it, Saline is going to be in for a rude bouncing.

These fellows are the leaders of the defense, which turned back seven straight opponents without a score and held the eighth — Manchester — to a lone TD.

They'll be the key people in the Saline battle, which will be played on the Saline field.

★

The most dramatic segment came in the final minutes of the last half as Manchester's Pat Wallace, a crafty quarterback, nursed a drive to the Clinton four-yard line.

Turning to the air, Wallace called four straight pass plays, one was blocked, another batted down in the secondary and on the final effort, Wallace was hauled down on the 16 before he could throw by Pardee and Baker.

The Dutchmen, too, boasted stout defensive play and Clinton had to be satisfied with just two scores.

★

BUTCH HOELZER was the running darling of the Skins, scoring the winning touchdown with a little over three minutes to go on a 22-yard dash.

Butch also figured in the initial Clinton score. He took a lateral pass from quarterback Dennis Drazic and in turn fired a pass to Dennis Sweet, who was all alone on the goal line.

Manchester's tally came in the last quarter on a toss from Wallace to Rich Pniewski, the play covering 25 yards.

●

The BIG One

CLINTON	6	0	0	6—12
MANCHESTER	0	0	0	6— 6

Scoring:
Clinton: Sweet, 22-yard pass from Hoelzer.
Manchester: Pniewski, 25-yard pass from Wallace.
Clinton: Hoelzer, 22-yard run.
